Career College Teachers Encouraged By 1,000 Woodrow Wilson Fellowships

The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation last week announced the opening of competition for its fellowships for the academic year 1960-61. The chief purpose of the fellowship program is to offset the critical shortage of qualified college teachers by encouraging college seniors of outstanding ability to consider college teaching careers.

To this end the Wilson Foundation annually awards 1000 fellowships for first-year graduate study at any university of the recipient's choice in the United States or Canada. Woodrow Wilson Fellowships carry a stipend of $1500, plus full tuition and fees, and, in the case of married Fellows, a dependency allowance for wives and children.

The program is open to college graduates in the natural and social sciences and in the humanities. Both men and women are eligible, and there is no limit on the age of the candidate or the number of years he may have been out of college. Those who receive awards are not asked to commit themselves to college teaching, but merely to "seriously consider" it as a possible career.

The Woodrow Wilson Foundation does not accept applications directly from students. Candidates for the award must be nominated by a faculty member. Nominated students are invited to declare themselves as active candidates for the award by completing the necessary application forms.

Winners of the award are selected through screenings of the applications and personal interviews by regional selection committees, made up of faculty members from the regions' universities and colleges.

The closing date for nominations for the academic year 1960-61 is October 31, 1959. Nominations should be sent to the Chairman of the selection committee for the region in which the prospective candidate is now located.

Freshmen List Office-Seekers

Nominee Roster Vast, Elections October 22

Nominations for the freshman class offices were held last Monday by the class, and the election will be held on Thursday, October 22, in Chase Theater from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. All freshmen are urged to come and vote for the candidates of their choice.

Dramatic Program Will Be Given at Assembly By Man and Wife Team

by Lee Baiera

This Tuesday's assembly will feature Mr. Richard Dye-Carradine and Miss Jaclyn Lord in a dramatic program entitled "Two for Romance." Mr. Dye-Carradine and Miss Lord will portray memorable scenes from the pages of literature, both past and present. Both have extensive and varied backgrounds.

Following the tradition of a family which has contributed much to stage and screen, Mr. Dye-Carradine is considered by many to be one of the most brilliant young actors in the United States.

Early in his teens, he prepared for such roles as Hamlet and Romeo, under the tutelage of Constance Collier — John Barrymore's leading lady in "Hamlet."

His inspired portrayal of the complex character of young deranged Joe Weldon in "I Cast My Bread" won him the enthusiastic plaudits of the public and critics alike. Other major roles portrayed by Mr. Dye-Carradine in the past ten years are Clarence in "Richard III," Iago in "Othello," Romeo in "Romeo and Juliet," and Richard in "Richard II."

After being graduated from Goodman Memorial Theatre, Miss Lord appeared as leading ingenue with some of the nation's finest stock companies. A few of the roles she portrayed were Rachel in "Inherit the Wind," Ruth Gordon Jones in "Years Ago," Tracy in "The Philadelphia Story," and Janet in "The Lady's Not For Burning."

From a field of fifty actresses the Playwright's Shakespearean Company selected Miss Lord to portray the challenging role of Juliet in Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet."

Revenge, Surprises Tonight; Faculty, Students, Clubs Asked To Help Dr. Reif Meet Goal

by Cynthia Hagley

Tonight the Freshman class will give the United Fund its social sendoff with a dance at the gym starting at 9 p.m.

General chairmen of the dance are Owen Frances and George Balchum. Jack Melton's orchestra will play.

C.C.U.N. NOTICE

William Bruce, former Chief of the United Nations Educational section, has agreed to come to Wilkes as main speaker for the C.C.U.N. assembly program on Tuesday, October 27.

Mr. Bruce will give an objective talk on the policies and activities of the UN, with emphasis on the non-political and impartial UN view of world affairs.

The Wilkes Chapter of the C.C.U.N. sponsors this visit jointly with the Wilkes-Barre Rotarians and the local chapter of the American Association of the United Nations.

Mary Lou B. Pinkowski is the C.C.U.N.'s chairman of the welcome committee and will arrange for meeting the plane and for hotel and travel arrangements.

PARKING NOTICE

Students parking in restricted areas will be charged $2.00 for each violation and will be billed by the Comptroller.

Students parking without permits will be reported as trespassers and will pay the usual Wilkes-Barre City fine plus costs.

During the run of this production, Miss Lord was engaged by Mr. Dye-Carradine to play the same role in a West Coast production.

After portraying Shakespeare's fictional lovers for several months, they were married soon after.

Intermission entertainment at this swing session will present a sight the freshmen have waited to behold. Those mad upperclassmen who have been persistently harassing the frosh will have to carry out sentences of their own.

Ira Himmel

Ira Himmel, tribunal's hard-boiled judge, must give a recital on some musical instrument which he has mastered in the past 24 hours.

The official United Fund campaign for Wilkes started last Monday with the various class presidents organizing committees to collect from the day students. Dick Salus, chairman of the Freshman Advisory Committee has set up the committee for freshman collections.

Dormitory students will be contacted for the United Fund through Allyn Jones, president of the Inter-dormitory Council.

Faculty members have contributed greatly to the college drive, as is their yearly procedure. The exact amount of this contribution will not be released until next week, but it is considerably more than the goal of $1500 set for the students.

In past years, the United Fund contributions from students have fallen far short of the announced goals. Wilkes rated fourth among the local colleges with King's students passing Wilkes contributions by a narrow margin.

Organizations on campus have been asked to contribute to the fund from their treasuries. Last year, some clubs passed the hat at a regular meeting and then turned in that money as their donation. This procedure is left up to the discretion of the club, but the club membership should be informed that this coin contribution need not exclude them from their class collections.

Dr. Reif, director of the drive for Wilkes, stated that this one Luzerne County United Fund Campaign for the year is a municipal responsibility for Wilkes students. The proposed contribution is $1.00 per student.

The 'Beacon' is running a weekly series of sketches on the new instructors. (See p. 6)

EDITORIALS —

Come and Get It!

Money, money, money awaits and no takers. Sounds unlikely, but true. The Student Government has available for any student four (count 'em, 4) scholarships each worth $162.50.

That comes to about enough money to pay for a half-semester, but so far there has been negligible response to the ultra-simple requirements for consideration. Any one wishing to investigate this windfall should write his name, address, and semester in attendance on a slip of paper and give it to any member of Student Government. This constitutes formal application.

Applicants will be reviewed by the Deans and the four grants will be given to the people named by that review. The deadline for submission has been extended until next Friday.

Help Those Who Help Us

We welcome back to our pages many of our old friends whose advertisements pay for your newspaper. Added to these friends are several new merchants and business men, to whom we extend a hearty greeting and wishes for a long and mutually beneficial relationship.

Further, we urge our readers to take especial note of their messages. Recognizing that all life is a matter of give-and-take, we feel that in return for their tangible contributions to the success of our publication, our readers ought to extend equal support by patronizing these businesses. It goes without saying that such patronization is advertising's raison d'être.

The "Right" to Patronize

It isn't that a certain portion of our advertisers don't want or appreciate complete student patronage, but in some cases they don't and there is a good reason for the following words of caution.

Laws in the State of Pennsylvania are more often honored in the breach than in the observance, but concerning liquor laws, such is no longer the case. Those of our advertisers whose places of business realize a large segment of their incomes from the sale of alcoholic beverages jeopardize their license to sell same when their establishments are frequented by minors.

We are not prone to argue the "rightness" of the arbitrarily set age of 21 as the dividing line between adult and minor. The law has established that and has provided for punishments in cases of violation. "Right" or "wrong," the law is the law.

What we are driving at now, is the fact that certain of our students who fall below the dividing line are fond of frequenting those places. This practice could very well lead to local merchants being forced to close for thirty days, a hardship which, in some cases, may put as many as sixteen to twenty gainfully employed people out of work.

Even though the minor simply sit quietly with a sandwich and soft drink before him, in a place where alcoholic beverages are served it is considered "frequenting." The owner who permits that "frequenting" is considered to be contributing to the delinquency of minors, a deed punishable by law. Be governed accordingly.

Bookkeeper's Nightmare

A final word concerning local merchants, whether our advertisers or not. When organizations purchase items from business places, the price of the merchandise is generally paid by the College upon billing when proper requisition procedures are observed.

Simply, this is accomplished by obtaining the desired merchandise and a bill for it. The bill is taken to the advertiser or other proper authority for approval, then paid through the Finance Office.

Much confusion results when the Finance Office has no authorization for purchase and receives a bill demanding payment. Unable to determine, in many cases, which organization made the purchase, the Office is forced to withhold payment.

The business house must then bill the organization for the amount by mail. Often these bills are very small, but must be carried as outstanding on the merchant's books. Sometimes as much money is spent on postage trying to collect the bill as the value of the merchandise.

The whole silly, wasteful mess can be avoided so simply. A moment's thought, observance of sound business principles, plain common sense and co-operation can erase repetition of this nuisance.

THE MAILBAG

Attention Campus Observer:

In last week's Beacon, the Campus Observer referred to the fact that having a 'W' shaved on one's head was banned, illegal, brutal, ridiculous, and an unreasonable practice. These adjectives do not describe at all the situation that happened at Wilkes College, in particular, Barre Hall Dormitory.

The fraternalism and spirit of Barre Hall is the finest to be found on any campus. The 'W' cut into the hair of two of its freshmen are results of these attributes. The 'W's' were given in good spirit and accepted by the freshmen in good spirits. The freshmen involved were not forced but volunteered quite willingly to receive a 'W' in the hair.

Every member of the dormitory participated in the ceremony which brought the upperclassmen and freshmen together in wholesome school spirit. I feel that this ceremony is becoming a tradition of Barre Hall and Wilkes College certainly needs a few traditions.

I agree with the Campus Observer on one point, "Let's Honor the 'W'." The freshmen involved were not harmed, they volunteered, and now only two weeks later, their hair has returned to its normal state. They feel that they have honored the 'W' and I heartily agree.

The Observer also suggested that the upperclassmen give merits in the form of smiles and thank yous as well as demerits to freshmen. Either the Observer is naturally pessimistic or not observant, or both. There is an air of friendliness between the upperclassmen and freshmen that is unequalled in any school. I suggest that the Observer open his eyes and take a little of his own advice by showing a little college intelligence.

Respectfully submitted,
C. Eugene Stickler
President, Barre Hall

Dear Campus Observer:

In reference to your column in last week's Beacon, I would like to take a few exceptions to your views on Initiation and Hazing.

The Initiation program at Wilkes is set up by a capable group of upperclassmen and maintained by the Tribunal, on which several of my fellow senior classmates serve. Your statement that hazing doesn't show college intelligence is an insult to those who work hard to make the program a success.

If you feel that the program's so-called, idiotic attempts at humor are foolish, then perhaps you can make a few sensible suggestions as to what the initiation program should be like.

The initiation program is performing its purpose of bringing freshmen into our society and, what you call infantile displays, with a few exceptions, are within bounds.

Dave Roebuck
Secretary of Butler Hall

OPEN LETTER

To: All Students

The student health program is entirely an insurance program—for illnesses or accidents incurred after the beginning of the school term.

Office hours of the college physician must be adhered to strictly, except, of course, in emergency. Office is at the corner of South and South Franklin Streets, phone VA 3-0929.

Hours:

Monday to Wednesday:
9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

Friday:
9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

A student who feels that he (or she) is too ill to go to the office during the above hours should contact his proctor (or her head resident) and arrange for a house call by the college physician.

House calls will usually be made between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. or between 5:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m., except in emergencies.

The private practice of the col-

The Campus Observer

To all the freshmen who think they have a "good thing" going for them in this column, they'd better think again. The freshmen were lucky last week; this week the shoe is on the other foot.

All freshmen are required to attend all Tribunals. A noon class is the only excuse for absence. If you think that Initiation proceedings have been rough, you will be surprised to know that they are going to become considerably rougher. Previously, the penalties have been of a humorous nature. This is no longer true. All penalties given now will be of a constructive nature, with a definite purpose. With the exception of dormitory initiation, upperclassmen can NOT give penalties; only the Tribunal has this function.

MORE ON INITIATION

Initiation is NOT over. Without co-operation from the freshmen, the Initiation period may be prolonged until this co-operation is received. Those freshmen who feel above such traditions will not face the Tribunal, but will be sent direct to Dean Ralston, who is quite capable of handling the situation. Dean Ralston also stated that upperclassmen should refer to page 79 of the Student Handbook. These regulations and ONLY these regulations may be enforced.

Dinks and ties must be worn by male freshmen; co-ed freshmen must wear dinks and carry a Wilkes pennant. Rumors that the dinks, etc., need no longer be worn are FALSE. Dormitory and day freshmen students are subject to the rules of Initiation and the Tribunal.

IS THE 'SPIRIT' WILLING?

What has happened to our school spirit? There does not seem to be any school spirit at all. Cheering is almost a mockery, as the large percentage of the cheering comes from our cheerleaders, and not from the student body. The idea for a flash-card section at sporting events is an excellent one. It can't be done by a handful of students; it will take at least 260 students to make it a success.

54 YEARS WITH THE SAME WOMAN!

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gittins, 71 North Landon Avenue, Kingston, on their 54th wedding anniversary. They are the parents of Millie Gittins, "Manageress" of the Bookstore. Sam is our favorite "exterior decorator," always ready with a joke or some of his droll conversations with the squirrels. Sam is a painter on the Wilkes College Maintenance Department.

All letters addressed to this column will be printed the week they are received, and answered the following week in this column. Letters pro and con may be addressed to the Campus Observer, care of the Beacon.

Yours truly,

The Observer

Foundation Aids Polish Program

The first full-scale exchange program with Eastern Europe since World War II will enter its third year under the support of a new $325,000 Ford Foundation grant to the Institute of International Education, IIE president Kenneth Holland announced today. The Ford Foundation Polish Program has been gradually opening cultural contacts between Poland and the United States since the fall of 1957.

Administered in the United States by IIE, the exchange program began after Poland's 1956 uprising resulted in the easing of international travel restrictions. Since then, the program has brought approximately 75 Polish professors and specialists to the United States and provided for 15 American professors to travel to Poland as consultants, lecturers and special researchers.

The Polish visitors, most of whom are self-taught in English, have been hosted by more than 30 American universities and over 20 U. S. businesses and industries.

The new grant is the fourth which IIE has received from Ford for support of the Polish Exchange Program.

lege doctor makes the above regulations necessary. However, it is the desire of the College and the physician that any student who is ill or injured receive proper medical care.

Self-diagnosis and self-treatment are to be discouraged. When in doubt, contact your proctor, head resident, Dean Cole or Dean Ralston, or the office of the College physician.

A review of pre-school examinations of all freshmen revealed a large number who have not had the full series of polio vaccine injections. While the College health program cannot be responsible for giving these injections, it is strongly urged that all students who have not had at least three (3) injections arrange to receive them preferably from their family doctors as soon as practicable. The College does not want an epidemic of poliomyelitis this year or any other year.

Yours for a happy and healthful year,

Campus Projects Aired at SG Meeting, Court of Appeals Positions Complete

by Jim Jackiewicz

On October 6, 6:06 p.m., the regular meeting of the Student Government was called to order by President Gordon Roberts. Copies of the minutes of previous meetings were received and approved.

Among the reports of standing committees one of the most interesting was that of Jim Stephens, Spirit Committee Chairman. Jim related that in accordance with the newly revived school spirit movement, cowbells for use at football, soccer, and basketball games are being ordered and will be sold by committees. Paper shakers and "mums" are being made by Theta Delta Rho. TDR is also handling sales.

Stephens asks for support from upperclassmen at the pep rally, to be held on Chase Lawn Friday, October 9, and at future rallies. The Homecoming soccer game, along with the football game, will be publicized.

Bill Davis reported on the United Fund Drive on campus. A two hundred dollar profit is expected from the United Fund Dance, to be held tonight.

In his report on the proposed honor court Mike Armstrong announced that the committee will meet today at 3 p.m. in Student Council Office, second floor of the Bookstore. Preparations will be made at this meeting for a thorough airing of this controversial measure.

Freshman Orientation chairman Bob Washburn announced that the attendance at tribunals is declining. Another important issue discussed was the changeover to a more constructive program for the duration of hazing.

In the lunch area on the first floor of Parrish Hall where new cigarette, milk, and soft drink vending machines have been installed, ash trays will be provided for students desiring to smoke.

A short discussion concerning the Student Leader Conference followed. Chairman Paul Klein reported that the meeting will be held on the second floor of the Commons, Wednesday, October 28, at 6 p.m.

New business consisted of discussion of the Homecoming Dinner-Dance and the granting of activities permits to the Lettermen's Club to sponsor their annual raffle. The ICG was also granted permission to sell Christmas candy to raise funds. Perhaps the most important issue in the new business was the nomination and election of persons to fill positions in the Student Government Court of Appeals. Bill Raub, junior, and Michael Bianco, sophomore, were elected to the student positions. George Elliot and Dr. Stanko Vujica were appointed to the faculty posts, and Robert Morris was selected as administrative member of the Court of Appeals.

Rules for Decorations of Homecoming Weekend Repeated by Committee

Plans for Homecoming displays should be in motion now. This reminder is from Allyn Jones, chairman of Homecoming Decorations.

The theme of the displays this year is "Wilkes vs. Lycoming." The nickname of the Lycoming team is "The Warriors" (Indian Warriors), and their colors are blue and gold.

The judging of the displays will be done Friday evening, October 23. The criteria for judging will be: adherence to the theme, originality of thought, lighting, and over-all appeal.

The maximum amount to be spent on each display is $25, and it is urged that the displays be constructed stable enough so they will last until Sunday evening, October 25.

There has been a slight change this year in the awards that will be given for the best displays. That is, there will be two small trophies given, one to the best display among the girls' dorms and T.D.R., and one to the best display among the men's dorms and remaining organizations.

Besides these, there will be a larger trophy given to the best over-all display. This larger trophy will be handed on to each year's winner, and if an organization should win this trophy three consecutive years, possession becomes permanent.

There is one restriction placed on all displays this year. That is, there is to be no HUMAN element in any display at the TIME of judging. All displays are to be completely free of any act or pageant.

If any organization is planning to decorate, inform Allyn Jones of the desired location and the person in charge of the display as soon as possible. Any organization which decorated last year will have priority to their previous location.

Flash Cards Planned By Spirit Committee; Open to All Students

by Lynne Dente

The proposed flash cards for the Wilkes - Lycoming Homecoming game were the main topic of discussion at the last School Spirit Committee meeting. Suggestions were made to have approximately seventy people represent each of the four classes.

Thespians to Do 'Something Unspoken' In Exchange Program with Mansfield

Bob Evans, president of Cue 'n' Curtain, has announced that the group will have an exchange program with Mansfield State Teachers College on November 3. Members of Cue 'n' Curtain will travel to Mansfield to entertain at their assembly. The play to be presented is "Something Unspoken" by Tennessee Williams, starring Mary Frances Swigert and Virginia Lyons.

Wilkes Debaters Go to Lehigh U.

Club Orators Will Speak On UN for Kiwanis Club

by Gloria Zaludek

Dr. Kruger, debate club advisor at Wilkes, will be featured speaker at a Workshop at Lehigh University, Saturday, October 24.

The Debate Club of Wilkes College plans to attend the Workshop to study debating topics and technique. At this Workshop, Dr. Kruger will speak on attacking defenses; he is also planning to attend a convention of the Debating Association of Pennsylvania Colleges, held at the Sheraton Hotel in Philadelphia, October 16-17.

The Wilkes debate club orators, divided into two panels with Mike Bianco and Donald Murray as co-moderators, will deliver speeches on the Political, Social, and Economic aspects of the United Nations.

The first panel, with Michael Bianco, Aaron Hastie, Barry O'Connell and Linellen Charlton, will speak at: the Wyoming Rotary Club, Oct. 22; Pittston Kiwanis Club, Oct. 27; Swoyerville Kiwanis Club, Oct. 28; and the First Presbyterian Church, Nov. 11.

The second panel, featuring Donald Murray, Evelyn Godlesky, and Allen Luster, will speak at: the Nanticoke Lions Club, Oct. 20; the Wilkes-Barre Quota Club, Oct. 26; and the Wilkes-Barre Lions Club, Oct. 29.

The club's active debaters, Roberta Feinstein and Michael Bianco, co-managers, and Aaron Hastie, Linellen Charlton, and Barry and Brent O'Connell, have begun extensive research in preparation for nationwide debate upon this year's topic: "Resolved: the Congress should be given the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court."

There have been no definite dates for these debates.

It was also proposed to take the names of the campus organizations who would definitely appear at rehearsals and the forthcoming game. For all students interested in participating in the flash card section, there will be a meeting in the gym Wednesday, October 14.

A committee consisting of Gene Stickler, Claire Hunder, Georgianna Sebolka, Dick Hunder, Alice Bailey, and Carol Giaritta, was organized to work between the school spirit committee and the band. It was suggested that printed cheers be handed out at the games.

Mention was made of the anticipated surprises at the Homecoming game, and it was suggested that school participation at the games might be increased by the selling of cow bells.

The first plays to be performed at Chase Theater will be presented possibly the third week in November. Cue 'n' Curtain will present a two-act play entitled "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife" by Anatole France. They also plan to do a one-act play which will probably be "The Appolo of Bel-lac," written by Jean Giraudoux and adapted by Maurice Valency.

Notices concerning the casting of the two plays will be posted on the call board in front of Chase Theater during the week. Mr. Alfred S. Groh, the advisor of Cue 'n' Curtain, will be in charge of the casting and the directing of the productions.

The following chairmen were appointed to various committees at the last meeting held September 30: Ray Litman, stage manager; Howard Allen, lighting director; Judy Ruggere, wardrobe mistress; Mary Frances Swigert, publicity director; Pat O'Brien, makeup; John Tridek, properties and furniture; Pat Hemingway, house and program; and Steve Cooney and Barry Gintel, theater duty.

Nominations were also held to fill the vacant positions of historian and secretary. At the final elections held on Friday, October 2, Steve Cooney was elected historian and Pat Ide was elected secretary.

The importance of the Saturday morning workshops was expressed to the new members. They not only can learn much about the theater here, but they can also gain points by attending which will go toward earning a gold or silver key for service.

YMCA Life-saving Plan For Skilled Swimmers Will Start October 14

by Sandy Biber

The Young Men's Christian Association, 40 West Northampton Street, will conduct a co-educational life saving course beginning Monday, October 14, at 7:30 p.m.

The course will be held every Monday and Wednesday from 7:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. until 16 hours or more of teaching are completed.

The cost of the course for non-members is $6.50. Members need only pay for the text book, which is 50 cents and for a badge, if they wish, for 60 cents.

In order to qualify for the course one must be 17 years of age and be able to swim 50 yards of the side, breast, elementary back, and crawl strokes.

The course will consist of learning the regular life saving rescue routines and defensive tactics plus 6 different methods of artificial respiration. At the end of the course a water and written test will be held to verify the qualification of the applicants.

This course is not sponsored by the American Red Cross but is under the authorization of the Y.M.C.A. and is fully recognized in aquatic circles.

Tony Thomas, aquatic instructor of the Y.M.C.A., and his assistant, Dick Bradshaw, will conduct the course. Any further questions may be directed to them. Mr. Thomas strongly urges that anyone seeking a job as a life guard next summer take this opportunity to strengthen his qualifications.

Lockerroom Chatter

By RAY YANCHUS, Sports Editor

A car caravan of Wilkes students is being planned for tomorrow's game at Chester, Pa. A number of automobiles have been signed up to make the trip and a large contingent of Colonel rooters should be on hand when the team takes the field against PMC.

Anyone interested in becoming part of the caravan, whether you have a car available or are simply trying to get a ride with someone else, is advised to contact Vince Capo at Barre Hall any time today or early in the morning. The Barre Hall phone number is VA 3-9003.

INJURIES MOUNT

The Wilkes football forces received another dent this past week when it was learned that tackle Jerry Loewen will be out of action for possibly four weeks with a fracture of the leg. Big Joe Stralka will also be sidelined longer than expected and will not be available for duty this Saturday against PMC.

End Ray Marchakaitus is still hobbling on a weak ankle but is reported as being ready for limited action and should be in the thick of things tomorrow.

During the past week scrimmage also took its toll on the coaching staff. The same day that Loewen was injured, Coach Pinkowski who is always ready when it comes to a little head-banging (he never wears a helmet) received a knee injury that put him on the sidelines for the rest of that day and maybe for the remainder of the season.

Line coach George Lewis, who wasn't taking any chances after getting racked up in a previous scrimmage, donned pads for the festivities but they were unable to keep him off the banged up list as he received a badly swollen hand for his efforts.

Both coaches quickly beat a path to the hospital the next A.M. for X-rays to determine the extent of the injuries. The old bones just aren't what they used to be and sometimes it takes the hard way to find that out.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM IN MAKING

Another first may be accomplished in the near future at Wilkes as interested personnel are at work trying to form a cross country team to operate on an intercollegiate basis. Dr. Gaito, Psychology professor, is acting as advisor to the boys showing their interest in taking part in this venture.

Tentative plans include placing the Wilkes distance men in a race or two against big league competition to see how the boys fare and whether the sport can be placed on a college to college basis next year.

This will be a formative season for the marathon men and a lot will depend on the turnout of personnel and the earnestness displayed by the candidates.

Anyone wishing to join the cross country team should report to Dr. Gaito, or one of the following members of the squad: Tom Hurley, John Nork, Frank Machung, Joe Stretanski, Greg Lester, Ray Ozehoski, and Ralph Pinsky.

Co-ed Bowling League Begins Official Season

by John Nork

The Wilkes intramural bowling league opened Sunday night as Team No. 1 gained four points by forfeit. This automatically put Team No. 1 in first place with a record of 4-0. Bob Licato rolled a 142 high for the team with a 370 series. Jules Heller settled for a high game of 139 and a series total of 401.

Molecules 3, 8-Balls 1

Dave Gozdiskowski and Bob Hewitt led the attack for the Molecules as they downed the 8-Balls, 3-1. The win earned the Molecules a second place tie with the Pinbusters, each team taking 3 points. The 8-Balls slipped to a last place tie with Team No. 2, as Jerry Chisarik of the 8-Balls rolled a series high of 487 with a game high of 176. His efforts were in vain as his team was edged out of a win, losing by a mere 16 pins.

The scoring:

Molecules: Jim Bogdan 135-345, Roger Cease 126-353, Gozdiskowski 166-431, Hewitt 165-472.

8-Balls: Chisarik 176-487, Lois Tremayne 108-314, Dave Sokira 153-434, Dick Barber 134-357, Dick Myers 149-368.

Pinbusters 3, Team No. Two 1

John Sapiego topped a 462 series with a single high of 179 as he led his Pinbusters to a 3 to 1 victory over Team No. 2. The Pinbusters, for the first time since this team was formed, slipped into second place. Bernie Shupp starred for Team No. 2 with his series of 488, which was high series for the night among the teams, and a single game high of 204, which was the high single score among the teams. Even with this advantage, along with good support from the rest of the team, Team No. 2 could not overcome the pinfall registered by the Pinbusters.

The scoring:

Pinbusters: Fred Jacoby 158-448, John Sapiego 179-462, Emil Petrasek 162-459.

Team No. 2: Mark Adelson 152-404, Bernie Shupp 204-488, Tom Dysleski 151-412, Marshall Brooks 143-393.

Take to Road in Effort to Score First Victory of Season; PMC to Field Veteran Team

The football team hits the road tomorrow for its first away contest, facing Pennsylvania Military College at Chester, Pa., at 1:30 p.m.

PMC boasts a record of 1 win and 1 loss at this stage of the gridiron campaign, having beaten Wagner, 20-12, and losing to Western Maryland, 14-7.

Rick Rees

The Cadets have 12 returnees from last year's squad which edged the Colonels, 20-14, in the closing seconds of the game. Veterans will be at every position except the right halfback slot where sophomore Bob Coe will get the nod.

Coach George Hansell expects to get lots of service from senior co-captains Jack Kirlin, at guard, and Jack Martins, at fullback, and has a speedy halfback in sophomore Walt Crate.

Last season Coach Hansell's charge escaptured the Middle Atlantic Conference Southern Division championship with a 7-2-0 record.

Moravian 28, Wilkes 6

Last Saturday the Colonels suffered their second loss of the season when the Moravian Greyhounds came through with a 28-6 victory.

John Williams, freshman and former Wyoming Seminary star, was the whole show as he ran and passed the Greyhounds to the win.

Wilkes put the damper on the Moravian "satellite offense" in the first quarter but the Greyhounds rolled to two TD's in the second period and one each in the remaining periods.

The Colonel offense was spotty through the first three quarters, with fullback Marv Antinnes doing the bulk of the running. (See Athlete of the Week). Antinnes drove relentlessly over the tackle slot and up the middle to pace the Wilkes ground attack throughout the game.

Wilkes caught fire at the start of the last quarter and after a pass interception stopped on drive, the Colonels registered a TD on two passes, a run by Teddy Gordon to the 6, and a final aerial to Gordon for the score.

Wilkes continued to move the ball well after this outburst, but could not push the ball over again.

The Colonels garnered 11 first downs to an equal number by Moravian, showing that the Blue and Gold were not outplayed by any means.

End Frank Spudis played an aggressive defensive game as he continually racked up Moravian ball-carriers who attempted to sweep his end, and was a big thorn as he frequently penetrated into the backfield to smother the quarterback.

Big Fred "El Booto" Williams, co-captain for the contest was another stalwart on the forward wall. Williams made bone-crushing tackles all over the field before he was forced to the sidelines with an ankle injury.

Coach Pinkowski expressed praise over the performance of halfback Tony Amato whose running and quick kicking were exceptional. The freshman speedster is rapidly turning into a future Wilkes star.

End Rick Rees, who was moved over to that slot from his regular tackle position, was another stand-out for the Colonels as he played fine defensive ball and grabbed off a long pass to lead a Wilkes drive downfield.

cules, and Team No. 1 battles the 8-Balls.

"And I thought I was a good driver..."

never takes a thing for granted!

Every driver should expect the unexpected and be prepared to react fast. So don't take anything for granted. Overconfidence can dull the sharpest reflexes. Many of the 37,000 people killed on our highways last year might still be alive if good drivers never relied on chance. Drive as though your life depended on it—it does!

Where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!

Super Sub!

It's been said that the atomic submarine "Nautilus" stays submerged so long that it only surfaces to let the crew re-enlist.

Perhaps for this reason, the Navy has taken valuable space aboard the "Nautilus" for the only soft-drink vending machine in the entire submarine fleet.

Naturally (or you wouldn't hear about it from us) it's a Coca-Cola machine. And not unexpectedly, re-enlistments are quite respectable.

Rugged lot, those submariners. Great drink, Coke!

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Speedy Offense and Crushing Defense Earn Marv Antinnes "Beacon" Award

Leading Wilkes ground-gainer Marv Antinnes' salient performance against the Moravian Greyhounds earned him the laurels as this week's Beacon "athlete."

Marv's stellar ball-carrying exhibitions have averaged four yards per carry and earned him the reputation as the "Bob Anderson of the Middle Atlantic Conference."

In Saturday's game, the Greyhounds showed much respect for the running abilities of fullback Antinnes as they placed a floating backer to protect the Moravian secondary against Marv's bull-like rushes.

His offensive play was shadowed only by his defensive generalship. After numerous sorties in the direction of Antinnes, the Greyhounds' quarterback decided that there were other places that might offer ground-gaining opportunities. Marv's bone-rattling tackles have made him a feared linebacker and one of the Colonels' most reliable players.

Marv's freshman year was spent playing center, but last season Coach Pinkowski realized that Marv's attributes could be utilized to a fuller extent in the backfield. This switch proved very fruitful for the Colonels as they finally received the line-bucking, hard-running halfback they needed to put Wilkes football on the map.

Football isn't Marv's only athletic prowess as last year found him emerging from the wrestling scene as "king pin" in the 167-lb.

class of the Middle Atlantic Conference.

Antinnes is a Junior this year and is majoring in Secondary Education. He is a graduate of Forty Fort High School, where he took district wrestling honors and starred on the Flyers' track and football squads.

Coach Ferris Counts on Vets To Carry Bulk of Work Load; Havira, Morgan, Davis Return

At 2 p.m. tomorrow, October 10, the Wilkes College soccer team takes on Wagner College in the second game of the season and the first of the three home games. The Colonels have had only one past contest with Wagner, having defeated them in last year's contest at Staten Island by a score of four to two.

Lou Davis

The bulk of the work falls on the five returning lettermen, of which three: co-captains Joe Morgan and Carl Havira, and backfield man Lou Davis, are seniors. Carl Havira, Stevens Tech of Hoboken, N. J., handed the Colonels their initial defeat Wednesday on two goals in the third quarter. Final score was 3-2.

Stevens led at halftime, 1-0, but Lou Zweibel tied the match in the third with a goal. However, the two winning tallies for the Engineers came shortly after. The Stevens defense then staved off a Wilkes rally to preserve the win.

Carl Havira scored the other Wilkes goal on a pass from fullback Joe Morgan.

who played outside left on the line last year, has been shifted to center forward, to fill the position left vacant by the graduation of last year's top scorer, Nick Giordano.

Joe Morgan and Lou Davis will contribute needed experience and hustle to the backfield, Morgan as center halfback and Lou Davis as a fullback.

All three of these men have a good deal of experience on the soccer field; Havira and Morgan having come to Wilkes from Girard College where they both played extensive intramural soccer. Lou Davis, a veritable man of fury on the playing field, spent seventeen months in France with the United States Army after graduating from William Penn Charter School in 1952. He earned his track letter in high school and played baseball and basketball in the service.

Having suffered greatly through graduation last June, the team has had to be almost completely rebuilt. It is during the first few games that the team needs the incentive to do their best to produce a strong team, that they need the ardent, ever-present, physical support of the student body.

Tomorrow's game will provide an opportunity for those not otherwise occupied in gainful pursuits to go over to Kirby Park and support the Ferrismen. The soccer team, like all other campus activities, needs your support.

Popularity Increase

To most of those native to this area, soccer is a relatively unknown sport; their only contacts with it being through what they read in the newspapers or the few minutes they might see of a game or intrasquad scrimmage in Kirby Park. In the larger metropolitan areas of the country, particularly here on the eastern seaboard, soccer is a well-known game and there are organized professional teams and leagues in New York and Philadelphia.

In Europe, the sport is comparable to baseball, our national sport; but to the Europeans soccer is somewhat of a passion and a national game with which everyone is familiar. It is not uncommon for a single game to draw crowds of 100,000 or more.

In South America, soccer is followed with a somewhat more zealous and often violent interest. Riots are commonplace and gunfire is expected at championship matches. During the international championship matches three years ago, the government offices in Brazil were ordered closed and boarded because the government officials feared the soccer-induced enthusiasm would boil over into the streets and have its political implications.

Intramural Gridiron Gladiators Begin Annual Competitive Combat

by Fred Jacoby

The Kirby Park Classics have begun! Once again, breathless spectators may watch those stellar struggles for the championship of intramural football. Every Monday through Thursday at 4:15 the mounds and gullies of Kirby Park resound with the cheers as these stalwarts pit their skill, not always their brains or brawn, in a struggle to emerge as victors.

A spectator may never see plays reminiscent of the "Four Horsemen", passes like those of Otto Graham, or a defensive team equal to Louisiana's "Chinese Bandits," but he will enjoy himself. The ability to outplay one's opponent does not necessarily determine the winner in these contests. Lady Luck may be in attendance, too. This fact can soon be discovered by even the most casual observer.

The first encounter scheduled was the Honeymooners vs. Ashley-

American Undergrads Tour, Study in Europe

When eighty-five American fellows and girls boarded the S/S Ryndam on September 9th they brought to more than 1,000 the number of college undergraduate students from U. S. Colleges and Universities who have participated in the study-travel program of the Institute of European Studies since its inauspicious beginnings in 1950.

The eighty-five students plus seven students who are already in Europe will begin a two semester, fully accredited course of studies at the University of Vienna and participate in two and one half months of travel-study in nine European countries.

The entire European School year plan, which includes transportation, room and board, tuition and travel, will cost them $2080.00 complete.

Butlers on Wednesday, October 7. The Honeymooners' lineup includes such stars as Bernie Radecki, Ralph Hendershot, and John Matthey, all of whom resemble the Jackie Gleason "Honeymooners." The Ashley-Butlers' lineup, which includes such stalwarts as Paul Bleifer, Don Kehrli, Al Schneider, Mark Halperin, Art Noggle, John Davis, Dick McLaughlin, and Dick Blisick is like nothing ever seen before, on the gridiron or for that matter, in North America.

Chris Leach was named student director of the league.

"HOW'S ABOUT ONE OF YOU OTHER GUYS HOLDING TH' BALL FOR A CHANGE?"

Tribunal Committee Found Guilty As Charged!

Two New Instructors, in Music, Accounting, Added to Faculty

by Marilyn Krackenfels

Two former part-time instructors, Mr. Richard Chapline of the music department, and Mr. Robert S. Capin of the accounting department, this year have been named as full-time instructors.

Mr. Chapline holds a Bachelor's Degree and a Master's Degree in Voice from Juilliard College. In 1954 he received a two-year Fulbright Fellowship and studied voice and flute in Cologne, Germany. Mr. Chapline is widely traveled, speaking German fluently, as well as French and Italian.

He has collected folk songs from the Hebrides Islands, off the coast of Scotland, and from the South Appalachian Mountains. In addition to voice, Mr. Chapline is interested in piano and the dulcimer.

Here on Campus, Mr. Chapline teaches piano and voice, and directs the Madrigal Singers. Originally from Philadelphia, he now resides at 96 South Franklin Street.

Robert S. Capin

Mr. Capin, a native of Harrisburg, received his Bachelor's Degree in Economics from Wilkes. He is a member of the Pennsylvania and American Institute of Accountants and operates his own accounting office in Nanticoke. His first year as a part-time instructor was in 1952 and he taught here several years since then.

Mr. Capin, his wife, and two daughters reside at 331 Wright Avenue, Kingston.

Santayana and Dewey Biographies Will Be Published October 20th

On the centennial anniversary of Prof. John Dewey's birth, Oct. 20, there will be published an unusual treatment of his life and work in "Dialogue on John Dewey," to be released by Horizon Press, New York. A companion volume, "Dialogue on George Santayana," will appear the same day. Both books in this series of dialogues on modern philosophers are edited by Dr. Corliss Lamont of Columbia University.

The two books contain transcriptions of tape-recorded personal conversations about the great philosophers by their intimate friends and colleagues. The participants in the spirited discussion on Professor Dewey, whose views are still the subject of passionate controversy, are: Professors James Gutmann, Ernest Nagel, John H. Randall, Jr., Herbert W. Schneider and Mr. Milton Halsey Thomas, all of Columbia University; Prof. Horace M. Kallen of the New School for Social Research and Dr. Alvin Johnson, director emeritus of the New School; Dr. Harry W. Laidler, director emeritus of the League for Industrial Democracy; Dr. Harold Taylor, president of Sarah Lawrence College; Mr. James T. Farrell, author; and Dr. Lamont.

Participants in the dialogue on Santayana include Professors Gutmann, Kallen, Nagel, Randall, Schneider, Dr. Lamont; and Prof. Milton Munitz of New York University. Professor Kallen, who was for years assistant to Santayana, leads this discussion which contains many revealing sidelights on the complex personality whose literary essays and philosophical works have now become established as classics.

Eastman Grad Directs WC Band

A new music instructor, Mr. Larry Van Weed, has taken command of the Wilkes College Band.

Van Weed received his B.M. degree from Oklahoma City University, in the field of instrumental public school music, major instrument, trombone; and his M.M. degree in music education from the Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester.

Mr. Van Weed served as Assistant Music Director for the Harrison Grade School, 1956-57; Trombone assistant, Oklahoma City Symphony, 1957-58; and was also bass soloist and assistant Choir director at Epworth Methodist Church, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Future plans for the band include a program at Assembly, a Spring Concert, and a Parents' Concert. Plans for an Exchange of bands with another school are also being considered, but these plans are only tentative at present.

Sorority Votes To Support Play

Plan Hallowe'en Party For Needy Children

by Sandy Biber

Theta Delta Rho voted at its last meeting to sell tickets for the drama, "The Diary of Anne Frank," which will be held at the Jewish Community Center, October 27-31 and November 1-3 at 8:40 p.m.

The tickets are $1.00 and may be purchased from any member. All proceeds from the tickets will go for charitable projects which T.D.R. will undertake during the year.

The sorority's first project for the 1959 season is a Hallowe'en party for underprivileged children which is being held at the Salvation Army headquarters on October 30 from 8-9 p.m.

It was also announced that the club is entering the decorating competition for Homecoming and will take an extra part in the other events of the weekend.

At the conclusion of the meeting a formal initiation for the freshman and transfer students was held.

Unique Program for U.F. Dance To Feature New Singing Group, Himmel, Cooney and Girl Jury

The tables have finally turned on the Freshman Tribunal Committee! Because of "severe infractions" against the freshman class by the tribunal committee, the Student Government placed them on trial and found them guilty at yesterday's tribunal meeting.

GUILTY!

Steve Cooney

Student Government President Gordon Roberts stepped into the court hearings and placed the judge, Ira Himmel, prosecuting attorney, Steve Cooney, defense attorney, Bill Roots, and the entire female jury on the stand, charging them with insubordination.

The judge was accused with being too harsh with the punishments handed out to the freshmen, the prosecuting attorney was condemned for finding all defendants guilty.

The freshman class acted as a jury in the case, and after a "lengthy deliberation" found the defendants "guilty as charged."

The punishment handed down by Judge Roberts was quite severe. Ira Himmel was told to learn to play a musical instrument before the United Fund Dance, which is tonight. The two attorneys and the jury were commanded to join with Himmel and sing the words of whatever song Himmel will play on the instrument.

This punishment exercise is to be presented at intermission time of the United Fund Dance. All freshmen are required to attend this dance before the tribunal committee will be compelled to put on the program.

NOTICE!

All organization presidents are reminded that budget forms are due today. At a future date each organization and its adviser will meet with the committee to explain the request.
