FOREWORD

Four short years ago Wilkes College welcomed a new freshman class to its campus. During our stay we experienced Wilkes in its multiplicity of stimulating aspects, including the intellectual, the social, the cultural, and the athletic. We became a part of Wilkes, upholding all that it stands for. And now that we are leaving we will take a part of Wilkes with us—the fruits of the past four years. We will take with us the important and enduring things, the intangibles, and also the memories of all that Wilkes has meant for us. Each year we try to capture the essence of these memories in concrete form in the AMNICOLA. In the following pages you will find traces of 1969.

YEARBOOK DEDICATION

The editorial staff of the AMNICOLA dedicate this edition to Miss Annette Evans whose interest in her community and in Wilkes College has enriched the lives of many thousands.

Miss Evans early offered her support to the College and, throughout her many years of service on the Board of Trustees, has supported every effort to broaden and liberalize the program of the College and to improve its standards.

Although her interests are as broad as the program of the College, her special interests are in the performing arts. Her breadth of vision and keen interest have influenced the character of these programs and the results of her interest are revealed in the new buildings that have been dedicated to intellectual and artistic purposes.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1969

Every class that has graduated from Wilkes has faced some special challenge.

In the early years of the College, our graduates emerged into the discouraging years of the "Great Depression." Before the Depression had ended, our graduates and students found themselves involved in the Second World War. And then, following this war, all of us found ourselves involved in the ideological conflict and in the "Cold War," which is a part of it. Simultaneously, we are caught in the turbulence of revolutionary change created by the scientific and technological revolution. We can only hope to meet the varied challenges of our times by critically examining our dilemma and by cultivating independent thought and sound judgment.

You are completing your undergraduate studies in the midst of international, racial, group and personal tensions resulting from continued conflict and radical change. You must live with these tensions, and if you are to play a constructive role in this world, you must cultivate clarity of vision, soundness of judgment, and stability of character. These personal qualities are required of those who are to maintain personal integrity and poise.

I hope that, during your years at Wilkes, you have gained broader vision, have learned to distinguish the trivial from the relevant, and have acquired a faith that the problems of our times can be resolved by those who involve themselves in constructive effort.

Faithfully yours,

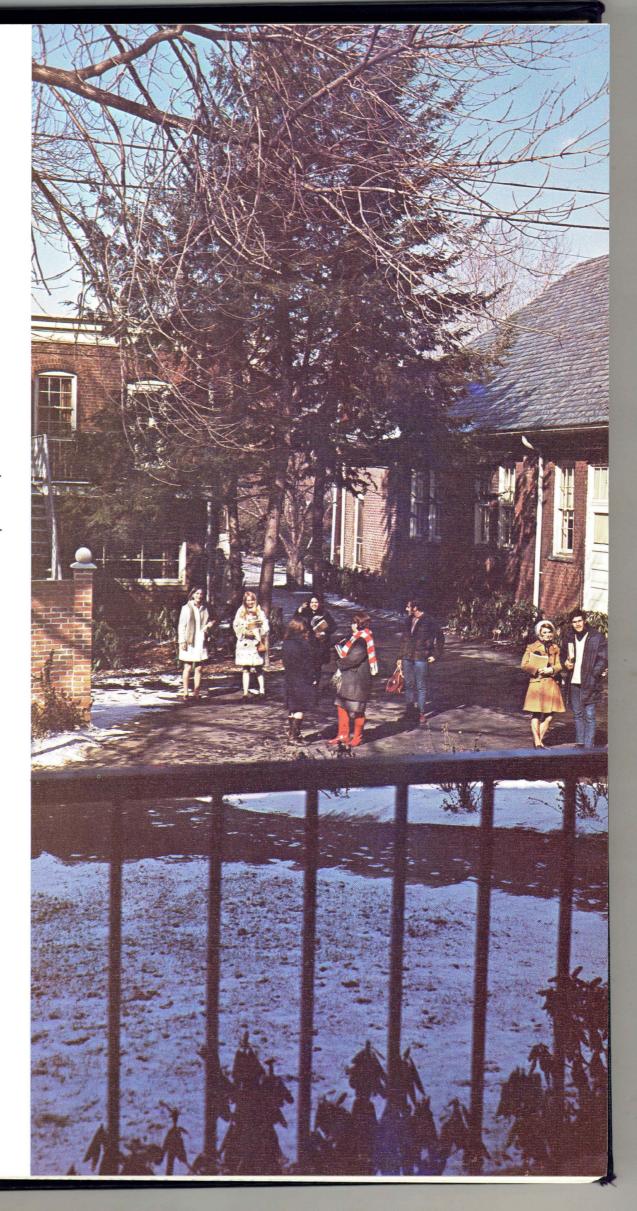

Eugus Farly

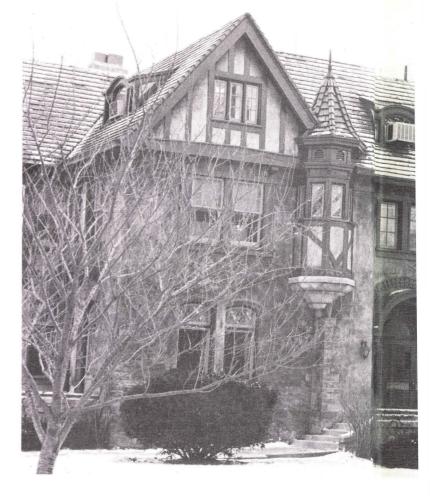

"At Wilkes we offer no final answers to the great questions that challenge mankind. We are not 'authoritarians' nor do we believe that final answers are attainable. We do believe that only by a continuing search for better answers and by a consideration of all alternatives can we hope to improve man's lot on this planet."

Dr. Eugene Farley on the occasion of the Opening Convocation.

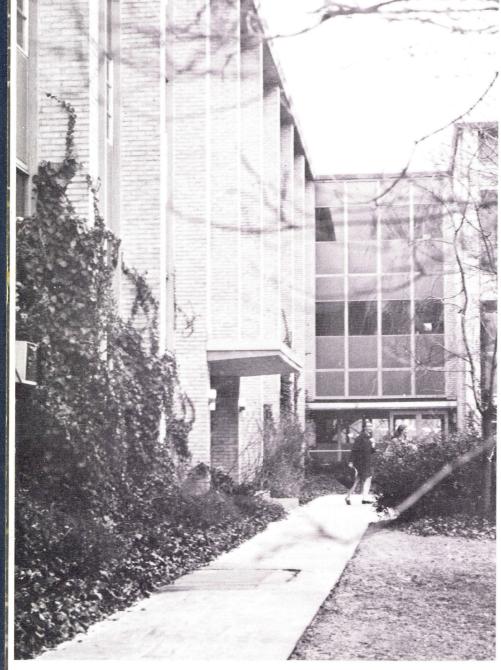

C A M P U S

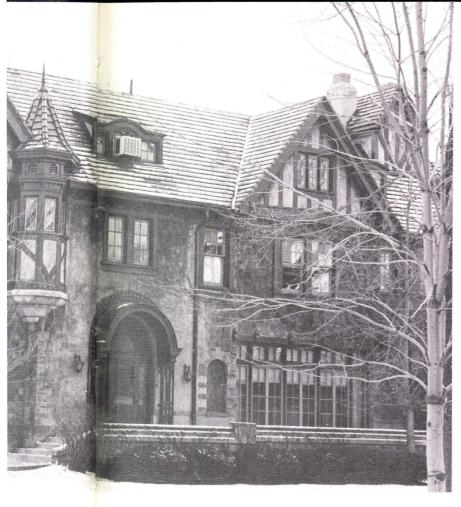

The Wilkes College campus is a combination of the old and the new, the quaint and the modern. It becomes a home-away-from-home for many students—a home which provides time for fun and relaxation as well as constructive activity. There are many facets of the college: buildings, staff members, professors, organizations, and above all, students. It is in this environment that the Wilkes student learns of life.

THE LIBRARY — OLD AND NEW

As change and growth are inevitable aspects of progress, Wilkes is continually expanding. The need for larger accommodations for the many volumes used in a college education and for study areas for the increasing number of students brought forth plans for a new library. The result is the new Eugene Shedden Farley Library.

HAMPTON WEEKEND

A friendship between two Deans, Ralston and Hawkins, sparked the Wilkes-Hampton exchange program more than ten years ago. Each year a group of students from Wilkes spends several days on the Hampton Institute campus, after which a group from Virginia visits our campus. The students attend classes and enjoy a variety of parties, picnics, and banquets.

MONDAY: COMMENCEMENT

Dr. John A. Perkins, chairman of the board of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., and commencement speaker, spoke on "Freedom, Responsibility, and Doing Good." He cautioned this year's class that they should not think that they are the first to discover freedom, and cited the example of Wilkes and Barre, supporters of the colonial cause. Along with committing ourselves to doing good, we should "bring to jobs not only a well-trained mind, but such devotion and creativity as will make old products better and bring new ones into being."

THE GOLD MACHINE

By winning their 29th straight victory over Lebanon Valley, the Colonels reached further milestones on their four-year rampage—their third consecutive unblemished 8-0 seasonal record, fourth Middle Atlantic Conference crown in a row, and finally regaining the big one. The big one is the Lambert Bowl, which is symbolic of Eastern small college supremacy.

The Colonel's victory skein started on September 28th deep in the blue mountains of Vermont. With Joe Zakowski doing the pitching and Joe Skvarla catching the bouquets, the Colonels stung a 31-9 defeat on the baffled University of Vermont. The speechless New Englanders soon found out who the heck Wilkes was.

The Greyhounds of Moravian College were the next victims on the Colonels' waiting list. Senior quarterback Rick Simonson, who had replaced Zakowski in the second quarter, found Joe Skvarla eight times to scuttle the punchless Hounds 40-0.

RAMBLES ON!

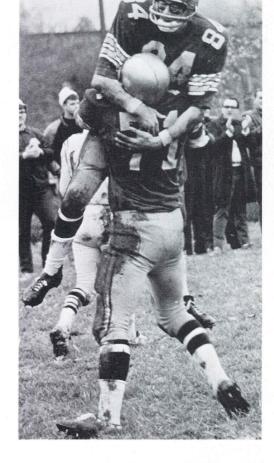

Delaware Valley was figured to be the toughest opponent of the year for the Blue and Gold. The game was a lot closer than the final 31-3 score indicated. The game was close until Wiendl struck terror into the hearts of all Del Val fans when he broke the game wide open with touchdown punt return gallops of 86 and 62 yards.

After three straight away contests, the Blue and Gold opened their home slate against Ithaca College. Piling up a 21-7 fourth quarter lead, the Colonels had to hold on for dear life as the Bombers unleashed a torrid passing attack to come within two points of subduing the Wilkesmen. An Ithaca last-second drive was thwarted by a 39-yard interception touchdown return by Jay Holliday, giving the Colonels a 28-19 victory.

Upsala provided the opposition for the next contest. Wilkes saw their 9-0 lead evaporate to 9-7 in the fourth quarter. However, the Colonels managed to hold their lead.

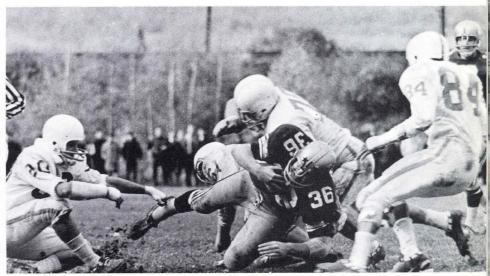

... the agony of defeat.

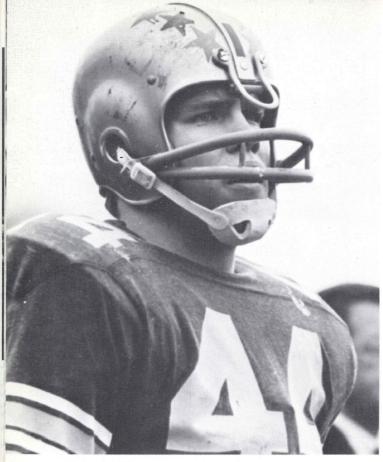

The joy of victory ...

Victory number 27 came with a 28-0 conquest over Dickinson. In the annual homecoming contest, the Gold Machine gave the old grads something to cheer about by annihilating the visiting PMC Cadets, 34-0.

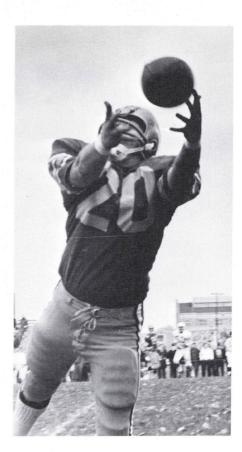

Charley Fick drives hard for the Colonels.

Joseph C. Wiendl, the first 12 letter man in the history of Wilkes.

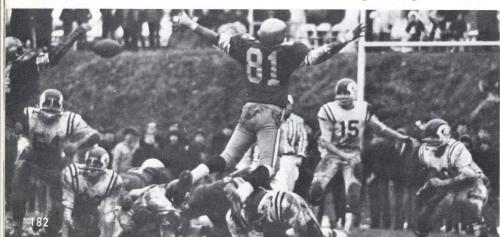

The Colonel finale ended with a loud bang as the high-flying Lebanon Valley Dutchmen invaded Wilkes-Barre with a concealed weapon, mainly in the form of the old shotgun offense. The visitors filled the air with an MAC record 51 passes and nearly blew the Colonels off the map until a determined Wilkes defensive alignment dug in to gain a hardfought 23-16 victory.

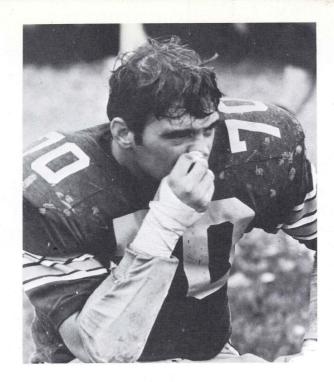

The Colonel defense fought hard against Leb Val.

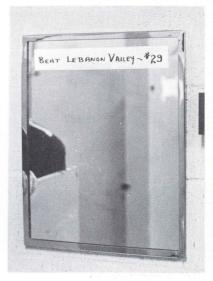

The 1968 season proved to be a record shattering one, filled with plenty of excitement as 32 marks were either broken or extended. The Colonel defense established a new squad record by picking off 22 passes.

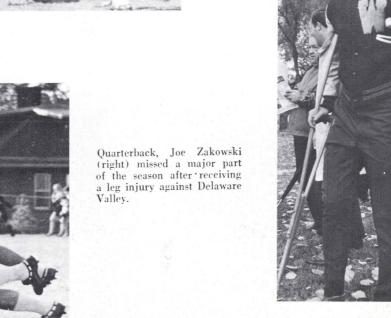

Joe Skvarla, the top pass receiver in the Northern Division, MAC, established himself as the greatest Colonel end in history by snaring 47 passes for a total of 848 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Superstar, Joe Wiendl, Wilkes' first 12-letter man, ended his four-year grid career in fine style with a total of 15 interceptions, 10 touchdowns (all punt or interception returns), and 103 punt returns for a total of 1,303 yards.

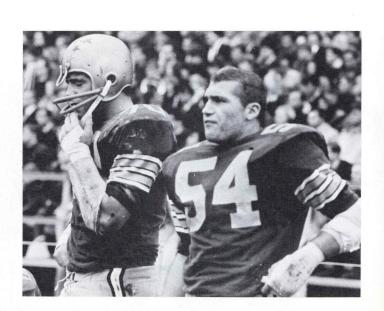

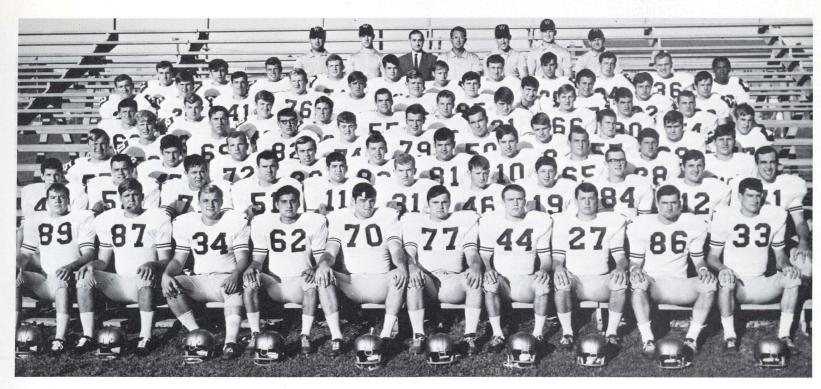

P. J. Kane closed out his career in fine style by accumulating 154 tackles and assists.

Mini-back freshman Ted Yeager logged 577 yards on 131 carries in his rookie year.

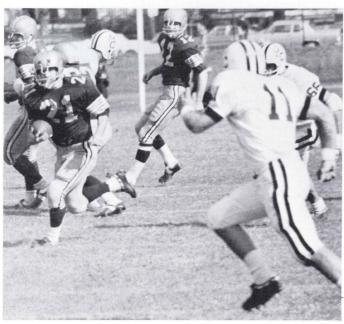

Wilkes fared well in post-season honors with five members gaining mention on the Little All-American team. Gaining the distinction were tri-captains Joe Wiendl, Bruce Comstock, and Bill Layden plus Joe Skvarla and Joe Zakowski.

SOCCER

This year's campaign wound up with an overall season's record of eight wins and three losses.

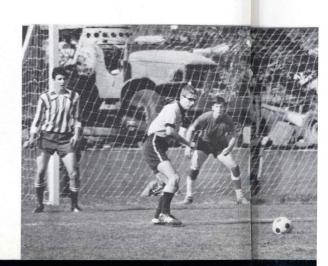

Big Ed Manda turned in another season of stellar performance. Ed was chosen as a member of the All-Tri State Team, which included the states of Pennsylvania, Delaware, and New Jersey. He was also honored with an appointment to the All-American Soccer Team.

Co-captain Jim Kennedy received an honorable mention from the MAC team.

Along with Manda and Kennedy are three other bootmen who ended their career with Wilkes this year: Co-captain Don Spruck, John Santo, Jerry Yaremko, Dave Ralston, and Ray Downey. Downey, incidentally, overcame injuries from a summer automobile accident in order to represent the Colonels on the soccer field during their Fall campaign.

GRAPPLERS TAKE MAC CHAMPIONSHIP

The matmen of Wilkes College, under the direction of Coach John Reese, captured another MAC championship this year. The grapplers compiled an overall record of fourteen wins and only one loss. The defeat came from Lycoming College, who outscored the Colonels by one point; the decision was Wilkes 14 and Lycoming 15.

Among the honors garnered by the grapplers was the capturing of the Wilkes Open Crown by Andy Matviak and Joe Wiendl; Matviak and Wiendl were the second and third men in Wilkes' wrestling history to capture that crown.

Joe Wiendl, along with being voted the most valuable wrestler, captured the NCAA college division crown, his second title of this nature within two years.

A successful campaign drive allowed all members of the team to participate in the NCAA championship held this year year at California Poly. Wiendl, however, was the sole carrier-home of the bacon.

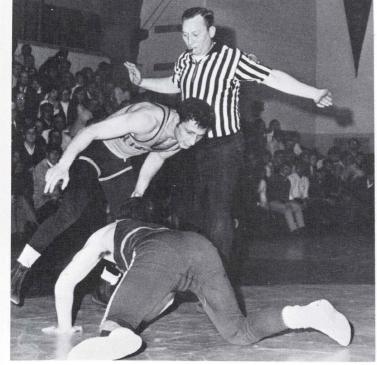

Joe Wiendl also represented Wilkes in the NCAA university division held at Brigham Young University, but he was eliminated in the quarter-finals of that tournament.

John Marfia, Dennis Verzera, and Joe Wiendl attained the title of MAC champions at the annual meet held at Muhlenburg College this year.

The Tim Adams Award, presented annually to the Most Courageous Wrestler, was received by Dennis Verzera. The sophomore grappler participated throughout most of the season despite being hampered with a broken nose.

John Marfia compiled a record of 11 wins and 1 loss, following closely behind Wiendl's 14-0, Matviak's 13-1, and Gary Willets' 13-1. Aggressive Ron Fritts (177, 191, and Hwt.) registered an 11-1-1 log.

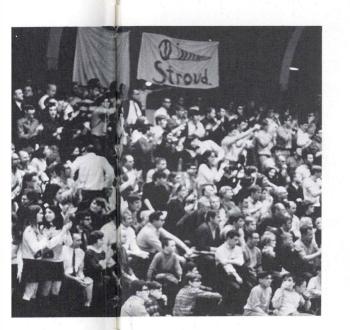

This year terminated a spectacular wrestling career for veteran Joe Wiendl. Joe finished his days as a Colonel matman with a brilliant mark of 49 wins against 1 loss, that loss coming during Joe's sophomore year.

This season's campaign marked the sixteenth year that Mr. John Reese has coached the Wilkes College grapplers. This year's log brings a 135-25-6 cumulative record to this well-respected gentleman.

BASKETBALL

BEST SEASON SINCE 1958

Coach Ron Rainey's fourth year at the helm as hardwood mentor for the Colonels proved to be successful as the squad compiled a 13-11 record, their best mark since the 1957-58 season.

Big 6' 3", 200 pound junior Herb Kemp turned in another outstanding season by accumulating 401 points in 24 outings. He also ranked number one with the hoopsters by pulling down 257 rebounds.

Team captain and the only senior on this year's squad, William "Bo" Ryan played remarkably again this season. The 5'11" guard from Chester, Pa., turned in his best performance against Susquehanna University by racking up 43 points.

The "Montrose Men," Bill Grick and Jay Reimal, once again drove the ball with great speed to outwit the opposition.

Christmas recess brought with it the start of the Pocono Classic at East Stroudsburg State College. In the first game the Colonels met a tough Lafayette squad, who possessed more height and strength than the Colonel quintet. Jay Reimel and Herb Kemp both received injuries in this game. Kemp, with blood gushing from his eye, stayed out only long enough to get the wound cleaned. The next day saw the Raineymen go back into action against the Kutztown Bears. The outcome was another loss as Reimel reinjured his knee and Ockenfuss, the lone remaining big man on the squad, was lost with a broken ankle.

Freshman Ray Frey (30) jumps high for two.

Rich Davis, who arrived on the boards midway in the season, dumped in 158 counters by hitting on fifty-one percent of his shots.

Bill Umbach, 5' 11" sophomore, accompanied by his usual phenomenal poise and versatility under pressure, averaged close to sixteen points per game as he totaled 379 points.

Freshmen Ray Frey, Frank Jannuzzi, Tom Kennedy, Dave Kurosky, and Charlie Wetzel promise to be explosive in years to come, as this year's showing indicates.

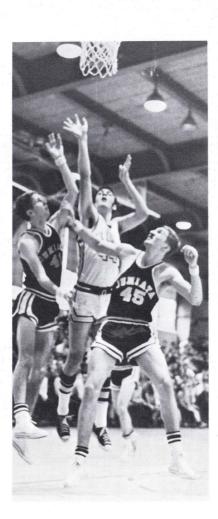

Although the overall record showed a 13-11 log, the hoopsters home game mark was ten wins and two losses as compared to a 3-9 record on the road.

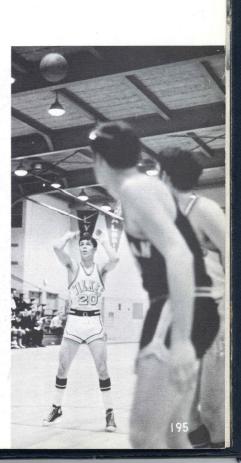

This season has been the fourth that Mr. Ron Rainey has served as coach for the Colonels. Since he inherited the head coaching reins at Wilkes, Coach Rainey has done a remarkable job in building up a winning spirit in the Wilkesmen. Next year's team promises to be a successful one. Only one player, Bo Ryan, will not be seen on the court following graduation.

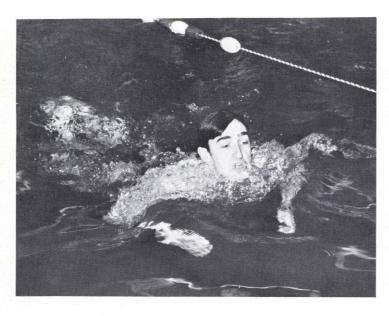

While the Colonels did not win every game on the schedule, the season did prove one thing: pride, teamwork, desire, and a tremendous will to win can often overcome what appears to be an overwhelming advantage held by a supposedly superior opponent.

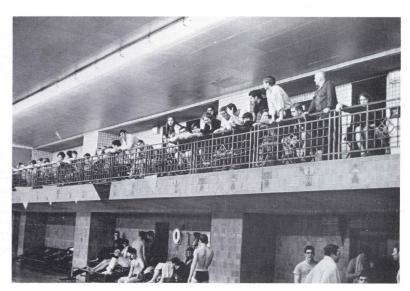

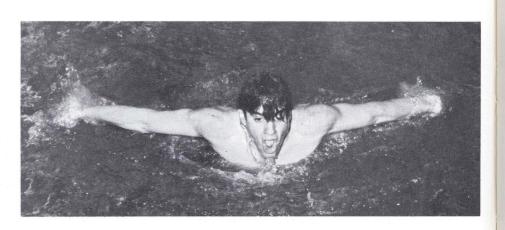

SWIMMING

The Wilkes mermen splashed against fierce competition during the 1968-69 campaign as they wound up with a 1-9 log. The squad was successful in defeating the swimmers of Philadelphia Textile for their sole victory.

Swimmers Jim Phethean, Owen Lavery, and Pat Burke represented Wilkes in the MAC's this year. At the annual sports' banquet Jon Valentine was voted Outstanding Swimmer of The Year.

This season also marked the completion of Ken Young's reign as coach.

COLONELS JUST M

The Wilkes College baseball Colonels completed one of their most successful seasons in the school history during the 1969 campaign, finishing with an overall mark of 11 victories and 2 defeats. The Wilkesmen were 10-1 in MAC play, just barely being edged out for a second consecutive MAC crown by Upsala College.

The Blue and Gold were torrid from the plate hitting for a team average of .309 for 14 contests. This appeared to be the difference between the winning and the losing as opponents only hit the Colonel pitching for a .220 clip.

The charges of Coach Roland Schmidt also showed poise on the base paths, stealing a record 49 times. In addition six Colonel regulars cracked the charmed .300 hitting circle.

Sokolowski had a sparkling freshman year winning four out of five decisions.

1969 MARKS THOOF VARSITY LA

1969 marked the introduction of a varsity lacrosse team to the Wilkes College athletic program.

The first match held provided the Wilkesmen with a 13-8 come-from-behind victory over the Kutztown Bears. Dave Bogusko put on a tremendous six goal performance to lead both teams in scoring. Bogusko, incidentally, came into the game without any offensive experience.

The second victory came to the crossmen by defeating the Kutztown Bears again, this time at home on Ralston Field. The 5-4 victory came as Tom Selecky dented the net with the winning goal as only seconds remained in the game.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The women's basketball team ended its season with an overall record of 5-5. Although the log indicates only a mediocre season, the five defeats which were handed to the Colonelettes could easily have gone either way in that only one game was lost by a difference of greater than four points.

The prospects of an undefeated season next year are very promising. However, the team will be losing the valuable service of seniors Donna George, Ruth Bartoletti, and Jane Rifenbury, all of whom have played varsity ball for four years. Returning starters will be juniors Sharyn Pavidis, Judy Moshier, Lynne Wescott, Jonnie Supulski, and sophomores Sandy Bloomberg and Judy Gibbons.

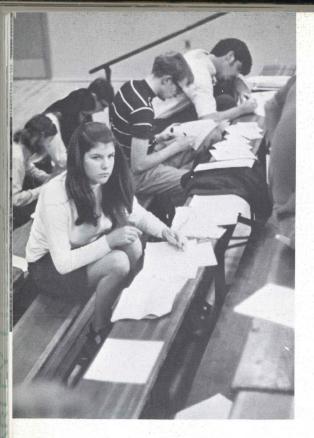

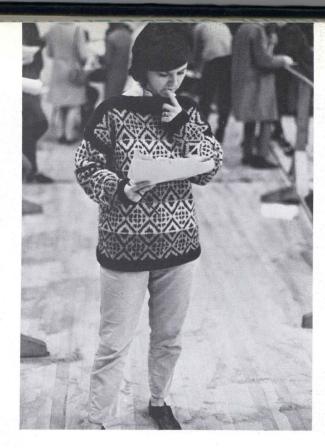

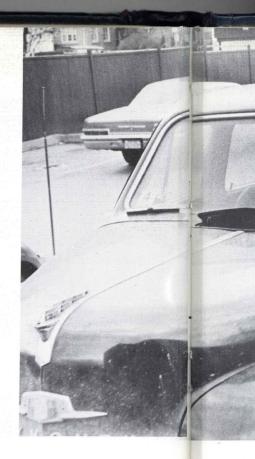

avidis, Judith ulman, Kathy exis Buchina,

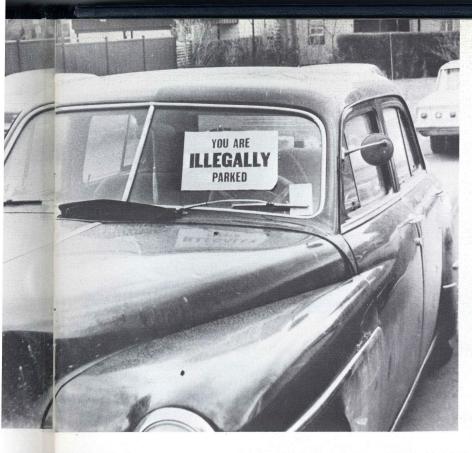

The year has now come full circle—from registration to finals, and everything in between. This has been a brief look at the people, places, and activities that go to make up a college and its campus. There were serious moments of study and discussion, and such things as the parking problem. There were lighter moments, too; gossiping in the caf, playing cards, talking on the phone, attending sports events. A combination of all these aspects with academic development, is the type of education one receives at Wilkes.

THANK YOU

Saying "thank you" seems like so little recognition for a job well-done, but dedication to a time-consuming job cannot go unnoticed. Amid mountains of pictures, "ghosts," and a soda machine with empty bottles, ten devoted members of the staff worked diligently to compile another volume containing memories of Wilkes.

Thank you ...

TOM—for taking care of all those first semester headaches and being always willing to do more than your share. Best of luck with the 1970 AMNICOLA.

JACK—for being in two places at once; where would we have been without you?

MARY—for organizing the dorm section and for starting the "guditis" epidemic.

SUE—for wrestling with the organization section and smiling even when it rained.

JANICE—for helping with the faculty section and doing an endless number of triplicates.

BOBBI—for typing copy, even when you couldn't read the handwriting. MIKE—for struggling with the budget and those ads.

RAY—for helping out when we needed you.

A special thanks to Evelyn and Gail, and Grace, for the outside help we needed.

Thank you, too, to Mr. Colson for having so much patience and understanding, and to all those who in any way contributed to the AMNICOLA '69
