Faculty Wives Meet

The annual fall tea sponsored by the Wilkes Faculty Women in honor of their new members was held last Sunday in Weckesser Hall. The organization is composed of members of the faculty, Administration, and wives of faculty. Greeting the guests at last Sunday's tea were: Mrs. Norine Allen, president, Mrs. Helen West, vice-president, Mrs. Betsy DeCosmo, recording secretary, Mrs. Cathy Zavada, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Carmela Earl. Also pouring at the tea were: Dr. Ruth Jesse, Mrs. Kay Siles, Mrs. Odie Chwalek, and Mrs. Helen West. Mrs. Francis Michelini was also present to greet the new members.

The new members of the Wilkes Faculty Women include: Mrs. John Anaza, Mrs. Victor Baiz, Mrs. Herman Benecke, Mrs. Joel Berlatsky, Mrs. Harrie Caldwell, Mrs. Thomas Copley, Miss Gay Foster, Mrs. John Furlow, Mrs. Kathryn Gregory, Mrs. Donald Henson, Mrs. Klaus Hohm, Mrs. John Jardine, Mrs. Charles Joseph, Mrs. Donald Jost, Mrs. Elaine Lacey, Mrs. Anne Liva, Miss Kathleen Mattei, Mrs. Thomas Moran, Mrs. James Moss, Mrs. Carl Schaefer, Mrs. Edward Stockham, Mrs. Frank Szumilo, Mrs. Stephen Tillman, Miss Casimir Tyburski, Mrs. Stanley Ushinski, Mrs. John Wasileski, Mrs. William Weber, and Mrs. David Williams.

The organization has many activities planned for the year including a Family Picnic this Sunday to be held at Francis Slocum State Park where families will bring their own food. On October 14 there will be a discussion at the home of Alice Collins on the book Notes From Underground, taken from the notes of Fyodor Dosogevsky. October 30 the group plans a Dinner Dance in honor of the Michelini's to be held at the Treadway Inn.

A principle function of the organization is a scholarship which is given each year to a student. To help with the fund raising activity, the women are selling notepaper with a Wilkes College Building engraved on the front. This paper is available in the book store.

Inaugural Ball Set For Tonight

The Wilkes College Faculty Women will host their annual dinner-dance tonight at 7:30 p.m., in the Grand Ballroom of the Treadway Inn. This year's affair is being held in honor of President Francis J. Michelini and his wife, Anne Marie.

Decorations in the traditional fall colors of green and gold will set the festive atmosphere in the Ballroom.

The evening will begin with a Dutch Treat Cocktail Hour from 6:30 to 7:30. Dinner will be served after the cocktail hour and will include prime ribs of beef as the main course. Dancing from 9 till 1 will feature Bobby Baird and his orchestra. Members and guests were asked to make advance reservations at the cost of $8 per person.

Arrangements for this annual event were made by co-chairman—Mrs. John Hobrok and Mrs. James DeCosmo. Assisting them in an advisory capacity were Mrs. John Chwalek and Mrs. George Siles.

Mrs. Bernice DeVorzon and Mrs. Arvid Lestrom supervised the decorations. Reservations for tonight were handled by Mrs. Charles Wilkes.

Invitations issued

All college personnel received invitations to the dinner-dance. Those attending will be greeted at the receiving line by Dr. and Mrs. Michelini, the honored guests of the evening and Dr. and Mrs. Jack Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert West, Mr. and Mrs. Jon Hobrock, and Mr. and Mrs. James DeCosmo.

This event marks the first official event honoring the new president of Wilkes—and will take the place of an Inaugural Ball at the time of the inauguration in November.

The Faculty Women's Club is composed of women on the faculty and the wives of men on the faculty. Mrs. Jack Allen serves as president. In addition to the annual dinner-dance, the group is active on campus in various service and social events.

Wilkes Unit Plans Hobby Night Nov. 11

A Hobby Night featuring displays of many different hobbies and Christmas projects will highlight the Wilkes Faculty Women's meeting November 11 at 8 p. m., in the faculty lounge of the college commons.

Art, handicrafts, needlework and collections will be displayed and a demonstration by Mrs. Shashanka Mitra will show how to arrange the Indian saris she has made. Program chairman is Mrs. B. Hopkins Moses, assisted by Mrs. Robert A. West.

In addition, the presentation of the club's Eleanor Coates Farley Scholarship will be made at this meeting to a Wilkes coed student by the scholarship chairman, Mrs. Robert E. Ogren. A project of originating and selling Wilkes College stationery has been initiated by the Faculty Women, who are also undertaking other projects this year to underwrite the scholarship fund under cochairmen, Mrs. Richard Orlovski and Mrs. Charles E. Wilks.

November, '70

Club president, Mrs. Jack Allen, will preside at the business meeting following the presentation. It is hoped that club members, new or old, who have hobbies and have not already been contacted, will call the program chairman and plan to display them. Hostesses will be Mrs. John G. Reese, chairman; Mrs. Robert S. Capin and Mrs. Thomas J. Moran. Mrs. Ronald G. Rainey is chairman of arrangements.

Coming meetings for the year's program include a Christmas meeting, December 9, with program by the Wilkes Madrigal Singers and Miss Charlotte Lord; a covered dish dinner on January 23, with the Wilkes International students as guests and a musical program by Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Joseph of the Wilkes faculty; a talk, "Trends in Travel," by Miss Agnes Gregson on February 17; a watercolor demonstration, by Prof. J. Philip Richards on March 16; Japanese flower arrangement, by fellow member Mrs. Tomiko Sugiyama on April 14; and the spring luncheon and installation of officers on May 15.

Scholarship Awarded

Mrs. Robert E. Ogren, scholarship chairman of the Wilkes Faculty Women, is shown at a recent meeting presenting the club's Eleanor Coates Farley Scholarship to Miss Linda Schesney, Wilkes College senior. At right is Mrs. Jack Allen, club president.

Miss Schesney, an English major, is a graduate of Hanover Township High School. She lives with her aunt, Mrs. Edna Sisco, in Lee Park.

Named in honor of the former "First Lady" of Wilkes College, Eleanor Coates Farley, the Scholarship is presented annually to a worthy Wilkes student by the Faculty Women.

DECEMBER

Wilkes College Women Plan Christmas Program

Christmas music, featuring the Wilkes Madrigal Singers, under the direction of Prof. Richard B. Chapline, will be presented at 8 pm., Wednesday, at the Dorothy Dickson Darte Hall, corner of South and River Streets, by Wilkes College Women.

Dr. Charlotte V. Lord, a member of the English Department of Wilkes College, will present a reading. She will be accompanied by pianist Miss Diane Konodor, a Wilkes freshman and student of Mrs. Anne Liva in the School of Music.

Since the regular business meeting will not be held at this time, the program chairman, Mrs. B. Hopkins Moses, has announced that each member is encouraged to bring a guest to enjoy the outstanding Christmas program and holiday refreshments. Hostess chairman, Mrs. Ronald Rainey, has named the following as hostesses for the meeting: Mrs. Joseph T. Bellucci, chairman; Mrs. Frank A. Szudmilo, Mrs. Harrie E. Caldwell and Mrs. Reed D. Faculty Women
To Entertain
Student Group

The Wilkes Faculty Women will entertain members of the International Students of Wilkes College Club Saturday at 6:30 p.m. in the Wilkes dining hall. Miss Margarita Tsatsaronou of Athens, Greece, a junior in engineering, is president of the newly formed International Club. Special dishes and desserts prepared by the Faculty Women will be served.

A musical program will be presented on the violin and piano by Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Joseph. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph are graduates of West Virginia University and both received their masters degrees from the University of Illinois. They have extensive experience as performers and concert soloists with both the University and City Symphony Orchestras in West Virginia and Illinois. Mr. Joseph is a faculty member of the Department of Music.

Mrs. Michael J. Barone and Mrs. Roy E. Williams, co-chairman, have chosen the following committee:

Mrs. Robert S. Capin, Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson, Mrs. Stanley B. Kay, Mrs. David M. Leach, Mrs. Ronald G. Rainey, Mrs. John G. Reese and foreign student chairman Mrs. Bing K. Wong. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Richard G. Raspen, or Mrs. Eugene S. Domzalski.

Wilkes Faculty
Women Will Meet

Wilkes Faculty Women will meet tonight at 8 at Chapman Hall. Speaker will be Miss Agnes Gregson, who will talk on "Trends in Travel."

Assistant vice president of the First National Bank of Wilkes-Barre, Miss Gregson is manager of its travel department and active in community affairs. She has widely traveled and will talk on the new developments and changes taking place in the travel industry, and the new opportunities available for those who wish to travel.

Miss Gregson will be introduced by the program chairman, Mrs. B. Hopkins Moses. Meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Jack Allen, with reports from committee chairmen. Hospitality committee consists of Mrs. Richard G. Raspen, chairman; Mrs. Stephen J. Tillman, Mrs. Paul A. Torelli and Mrs. Herman P. Benecke.

Mrs. Robert Scott is dormitory mother of Chapman Hall.

Wilkes Art Professor
To Address Faculty

J. Philip Richards, associate professor of the Wilkes art department, will present a demonstration in water color on Tuesday at the Wilkes faculty women's meeting.

Mr. Richards, a graduate of Syracuse University, has exhibited his work both regionally and nationally and has won more than 28 prizes. Many public and private collectors boast of a "Phil" Richards work of art.

A business meeting will be held prior to the demonstration in Catlin Hall, 92 South River Street. Mrs. Ronald Rainey will be the hostess for the evening.

The cook books, written from recipes of the Wilkes women, will be ready for distribution at the April meeting.

WILKES FACULTY WOMEN -- ANNUAL MEETING

Dear Faculty Women:

Next Wednesday, April 14, at 8 p.m. we shall hold our Annual Meeting at the U G I Building, 247 Wyoming Avenue, Kingston,— with a three-ring attraction!

First, we'll have a delightful program on Japanese Flower Arrangement by our own fellow member, Tomiko Sugiyama, who has spoken before several other groups and taught a class at the YWCA on flower arrangement. A very talented young woman, Tomiko holds degrees from two colleges in Tokyo, speaks several languages, paints in oils, and is as decorative and charming as her own lovely arrangements. You'll want to see her program.

Second, with President Norine Allen presiding, there'll be the Annual Meeting, report of the nominating committee, and election of officers for the coming year.

And third, Ann Wilks has completed the monumental task of compiling our W.F.W. Cook Books and will have them then to distribute. Your reserved orders will be there for you, and you may remit the $2.00 cost of each by cash or check made payable to Wilkes Faculty Women,— Fund Raising. The books are outstanding! Be there to get yours.

Our hostesses for the evening will be Sara Lee Colson, chairman, Carolyn Reif, Arvilla Leach and Marilyn Rozelle.

The U G I Building, our meeting place, is located in the first block north of Kingston Corners, next to the Top Hat Diner, and has a convenient, well lit parking lot in the rear, reached by the driveway between the U G I and the Top Hat. Our meeting room is on the lower level. Enter by the front door (or from the parking lot), descend the stairs on the left (through the doorway), and bear left into the small auditorium.

The Book Discussion Group will meet this month on Tuesday, April 20, at 8 p.m. at the home of Ann Wilks, 50 Carlisle St., Wilkes-Barre. Let's Eat Right To Keep Fit by Adelle Davis, the book to be discussed, is available for $1.25 at the Book and Card Mart. Ann requests if you're coming that you please notify her by telephone (825-6376) by Sunday, April 18. You may park on Carlisle St. or in the Mercy Hospital parking lot, which is on Roosevelt Terrace off Hanover or Horton Street, and directly behind her house. The lot is in the middle of the block, and you can go through the lighted, brick garage to the house.

Sincerely,

Betty Hopkins Moses

Installation Held By Wilkes Faculty Women

Newly-elected officers of the Wilkes Faculty Women are shown with the retiring officers at a luncheon at McClintock Hall. Mrs. Franck G. Darte, II, chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Robert A. Allen, retiring president and installing officer, Mrs. B. Hopkins Moses, president.

Standing are: Mrs. Chester Molley, recording secretary; Mrs. Stephen Tillman, vice president; Mrs. West, Mrs. Boyd L. Earl, treasurer, and Mrs. James DeCosmo, retiring recording secretary.

A musical program was presented by Miss Rita Singer and Charles M. Robbins, Jr., accompanied by James Ferraro. Mrs. Paul P. Zavada is retiring corresponding secretary.

Wilkes Faculty Women Salad Party Saturday

Wilkes College Faculty Women will hold a "Bring a Salad" luncheon Saturday at 1 p.m. at McClintock Hall, 44 South River Street. Mrs. Viola Tenneson is resident director.

The meeting, which will conclude the season's program, will be conducted by the outgoing president, Mrs. Norine Allen.

Other outgoing officers are: Mrs. Robert A. West, vice president, Mrs. James G. DeCosmo, recording secretary, Mrs. Paul P. Zavada, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Boyd Earl, treasurer.

A musical program will be presented by three Wilkes students who have starred in many college productions. Charles M. Robbins Jr., Miss Rita Singer and James Ferraro.

Mr. Robbins, a sophomore, is a member of the Wilkes Chorus and the Madrigal Singers, having the leading roles in such productions as: "Guys and Dolls", "Semele", "Miss Julie" and the coming musical, "The Eccentricities of Davy Crockett". Two years ago he won first place and was soloist in the Northeastern Pennsylvania Music Educator's District Chorus Festival. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Robbins of Kingston.

Miss Singer, a senior, has had leading roles in shows such as "Guys and Dolls", the opera, "Boston Baked Beans", "Lystrata", and has appeared at the Sandy Beach Summer Playhouse. Rita directed "Chamber Music" and has appeared in local establishments. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Singer of Kingston.

Miss Singer and Mr. Robbins will sing both solos and duets. The trio will be introduced by the program chairman Mrs. B. Hopkins Moses.

Mrs. Ann Wilkes has announced that there are a few more cook books available. The antiqued covers bear the Wilkes seal and the proceeds will go to the Eleanor Coates Farley Scholarship Fund sponsored by

MANY THANKS . . .

Now that it is all over, many of the people who were involved in the inauguration of Dr. Francis Michelini can breathe sighs of relief, and know that we all wish to express our deep appreciation for a job well done.

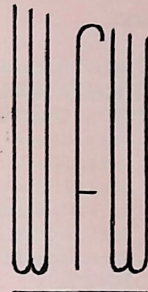

Although we could never hope to include all those who deserve an expression of thanks, surely among those who deserve our appreciation are:

- John Chwalek, the coordinator of the entire affair
 - Micki Stella and the host of secretaries on campus who helped so well
 - Dr. Charlotte Lord, whose programs were all delightful
 - the members of the overall inauguration committee, who eventually numbered nearly 30, and who planned since July for the awesome event
 - The co-chairmen, Thomas Kiley and Ralph Rozelle
 - the Honorable William Scranton who delivered a fine main address
 - the delegates and guests
 - Drew Gubanich and Aldo Farneti who supervised the student participation and rate A's for the efficiency displayed
 - all the other students including Bill Kaye, the Lettermen and Letterwomen Clubs, Circle K, Theta Delta Tho, the international students who performed, the class presidents, members of SG and IDC, all those who helped with displays of every sort, the ushers, parking attendants, hosts and hostesses, and so many more . . .
 - Dean Jane Lampe who planned the beautiful receptions
 - Bill Denion and the cafeteria staff
 - Charles Abate, Nelson Carle and the entire maintenance crew
 - Bill Gasbarro, Raymond Nutaitis, Richard Chapline and the music department
- And also
- Dr. Eugene S. Farley, the Board members, the faculty (some of whom served as "Ambassadors of Good Will"), Mrs. John Chwalek, the faculty wives, the public relations staff, and especially,
 - Dr. Michelini and his family — who are the sort of people who make us want to do so well!
