Fifteen Named to Who's Who

National Publication To List WC Seniors In Annual Edition

by Jim Eidam

Fifteen seniors have been named to represent Wilkes in the publication, "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges". The following have been selected to represent the College: Lois Betner, Gwen Evans, Margaret Jones, Marion Klawonn, Michael Goobic, Helen Miller, Robert Morris, James Moser, Robert Pitel, Fred Roberts, John Saba, Mary Louise Spinelli, Robert Thomas, Wayne Walters, and Patricia Yost.

The publication, which was started twenty-three years ago, gives recognition to the students by listing personal and college records in the annual edition. The '58-59 book will be published during the summer.

The criteria used for selecting students for this honor are: scholarship, leadership and cooperation in educational and extracurricular activities, general citizenship and promise of future usefulness.

Students are nominated by members of the faculty and administration. The list of nominees is then sent to the Who's Who publication for acceptance.

Each student who becomes a member receives a certificate of recognition awarded by the organization and benefits of the Student Placement Service provided by the organization.

Lois Betner

Miss Lois Betner is the daughter of Reverend William A. Betner, 1423 West Kerbaugh St., Philadelphia, Pa. She is a Secondary Education major with Biology as her major field.

Miss Betner serves as president of the Wilkes Chapter of the C.C.U.N. and State chairman of C.C.U.N. She is also a member of the Biology Club and T.D.R.

She was a member of the councils of her freshman, sophomore, and junior classes and also served as publicity chairman of the junior class last year.

Gwen Evans

Miss Gwen Evans is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Evans, 246 McLean St., Wilkes-Barre. English is her major field of study. Miss Evans is vice-president of the Debating Society and a member of the varsity debating squad.

She is a member of T.D.R. and has been a member of the Education Club, Mixed Chorus, and the Manuscript and Beacon staffs. Miss Evans has been the recipient of many scholastic awards, among these are the Fowler and Williams competitive scholarship and the Linda S. Morris award. She serves as supervisor in charge of five English remedial classes and student supervisor in charge of a French remedial class.

Margaret Jones

Miss Margaret Jones is an elementary education major and is a resident of Kingston. She is currently serving as president of the Education Club and has participated in several conferences in this capacity.

She is also a member of Theta Delta Rho and the National and Pennsylvania Student Education Associations.

In addition to her activities at Wilkes, Miss Jones is active in Y.W.C.A. work and is an adviser of Kingston Junior and Senior Y-Teen Club.

Marion Klawonn

Miss Marion Klawonn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Fred Klawonn, 16 Slingerland Avenue, Pequannock, N. J. A resident of Sterling Hall, she is a secondary education student, with social studies as her major field.

Miss Klawonn is editor-in-chief of the Beacon and has been a member of the staff since her freshman year. In her junior year she was an assistant editor of the paper. Her other activities at Wilkes include T.D.R. and the senior council.

She was an active member of the girls' basketball team during her first three years here and has also been a member of I.D.C. and treasurer of Sterling dorm.

Michael Goobic, Jr.

Michael Goobic, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Goobic, 31 Center Street, Hudson, is an accounting major.

Goobic is president of the Lettermen's Club, vice-president of the senior class, and has been an active member of the varsity baseball team.

He is also a member of the Wilkes Jaycees, and has been affiliated with the Amnicola and the Collegians. He was a member of the 1958 Homecoming steering committee and served as executive vice-chairman of the science conference held at Wilkes last spring.

Helen Miller

Miss Helen Miller, a resident of Pittston, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller. She is an art major.

Art editor of Amnicola in her junior year, Miss Miller is now serving as editor-in-chief of the yearbook. She is also a member of Theta Delta Rho and the Education Club.

Miss Miller has done much work for other campus organizations in designing posters and programs and set designing for Cue 'n' Curtain.

Robert Morris

Robert Morris, son of Mrs. Margaret Morris, Forty Fort, resides in Kingston with his wife, the former Patsy Reese. Morris will receive his Bachelor of Science degree in Commerce and Finance in January.

He has been an active student government member and is the president of this organization. He is also active in the Wilkes Jaycees, the executive council of the senior class, and has participated in varsity wrestling, of which he is now assistant coach.

Morris also participated in the student exchange program with Hampton Institute and has been named to the Dean's List on several occasions.

James Moser

James Moser, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Moser of Danville, Pa., is majoring in chemistry at Wilkes.

He has been active in the Inter-Dormitory Council and has served as president of this group for two years. He is a member of the Wilkes Jaycees and the Chemistry Club.

A Dean's List student, Moser was one of the dorm students to serve on the student exchange program with Hampton Institute.

Robert Pitel

Robert J. Pitel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Pitel of Kingston, resides with his wife at 143½ Culver St., Forty Fort. He is an accounting major.

Pitel is at present the vice-president of student government and is parliamentarian of the Wilkes Jaycees. He has been a member of his class council for the past two years.

He is also a member of the Amnicola business staff and was a member of the steering committee for the recent Homecoming observance.

Fred Roberts

Fred Roberts, a resident of Shavertown, is a political science major.

Roberts has been very active on the debating squad since his freshman year and now serves as president of this group. He writes a feature article, The Roving Chimera, for the Beacon.

A Dean's List student, Roberts has recently been named by the student government to serve in a student capacity on the college Court of Appeals.

John Saba

John M. Saba, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Saba, 51 Fort St., Forty Fort, is a biology major and has recently been accepted for the fall term, 1959, at Hahnemann Medical College, Philadelphia.

Saba has been active in the biology club and is currently serving as president. He was vice-president of the freshman class, and has served on the assembly committee.

FESTIVITIES BEGIN WITH RACE AT NOON

by Lee Baiera

The sophomores will present their first dance of the season tonight at the gym from 9 to 12. Music will be provided by Jay Miller and his band.

The name of this dance is the "Dogpatch Squeal," and the theme will center around Ye Olde Dog-patch. This was chosen because of the nearness of Sadie Hawkins' Day, which is traditionally celebrated throughout the nation.

Elizabeth Cobourn

A Sadie Hawkins Race, which will take place on Chase Lawn at 12:30 today, will start the "ball rolling." Elizabeth Cobourn, chairman of intermission, has announced that any girl who attends the race and catches her man is eligible to participate in the mock marriage which will take place during the intermission of the dance. The intermission entertainment will also include a sack race and an egg-throwing contest.

A drawing will take place and the person having the right ticket number will win the door prize, which is a pig by the name of "Salome." Barry Yocum, master of ceremonies, will draw the ticket.

The chairman of this affair is Dick Kniffen. Assisting him are Sandy Ungar and Skip Gladstone, co-chairmen of publicity; Peggy Kratz, chairman of decorations; Bill Davis, chairman of ticket sales; Mike Gatto and Jean Jablonski, co-chairmen of refreshments; Elizabeth Cobourn, chairman of intermission entertainment; and Barry Yocum, chairman of clean-up.

As usual the dress of the dance will be sporty, but if any "cats" want to create something "Daisy Mae or Little Abnerish," go right ahead.

NOTICE!

There will be an important "Beacon" meeting today at noon in the "Beacon" office, 159 South Franklin St., third floor. All staff members are required to attend.

NOTICE!

In place of a regular assembly program, the second compulsory class meeting session of the year will be held at the gym on Tuesday. Absence from the meeting will be counted as an assembly cut.

EDITORIAL —

Cat Got Your Tongue?

At the beginning of the year the old topic of an honor system reared its head and galloped fleetingly across the pages of the Beacon. The story was given the headline on page one simply because we thought that there might have been some feeling, pro or con, about the idea. We even suggested that opinions be expressed via the Letter to the Editor column. But, as usual, there was no response to this rather interesting and controversial question.

The so-called Student Leaders didn't show a tremendous amount of interest either, as only about one half of the questionnaires distributed to this esteemed group have been returned to the Student Government Committee. We wonder what would happen if the committee in charge of evaluating the system recommended that it be adopted. If they did this, and if the suggestion were passed into law — so to speak — the turmoil would be tremendous. Everyone would either be screaming or cheering, the Letter to the Editor section would overflow with complaints and compliments, and the Commons' walls would quiver and shake with gusts of wind emitted with the lusty bellows of those stung.

The point is, to get any opinion from anyone on campus you almost have to do something earthshaking like sticking students with pins, or passing a rule without consulting each and every person.

We, however, will never let an opportunity to sound off go by. We waited for a full month before we decided to force our opinions on the student body. We had hopes of being able to get in the last word; however, if we must first, that's all right too.

Up until May of last year we wouldn't even have considered an Honor System a sane idea, but after finals last spring, we changed our minds fast. The cheating at the annual 'Lap Board Party' was the rule rather than the exception. We discovered that we were not the only one to see the mass departure from honesty, many others commented on it also.

With an Honor System, students who see cheating can report it and have their statements listened to. Under the system we have now, you almost have to have a picture of the crime being committed before the authorities will consider your complaint. This is natural under our present system, we have proctors and they are supposed to be the only viewers of cheating. But we would like to see how four or five faculty members can possibly cover the massive gym effectively enough to see all. They just can't do it — nor should they have to.

Perhaps it is the general feeling that the cheater has to live with himself and his conscience — so why be bothered? This is fine — if you don't happen to be one of the unlucky students in a class where the 'curve' marking system is used. This may seem to be a rather material complaint against cheating, but it is one substantial reason for having an Honor System.

What do you think about it???

Four Wilkes Students Passed State Board Nursing Examinations

by Jean Shofranko

Four junior Nursing Education majors, listed below, were notified recently that they have passed their State Board Nursing Examinations which were held September 26 and 27 in Harrisburg.

Ruth Naomi Volansky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Volansky, 133 Nicholson Street, Wilkes-Barre, is a graduate of Wilkes-Barre Township High School. She received her training at the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. She is a member of TDR and the Biology Club.

Augusta Monica Sidari, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Sidari, 521 North Wyoming Street, Hazleton, is a resident of McClintock Hall. She is a graduate of Hazleton High School and the Hazleton State Hospital School of Nursing. She, also, is an active member of TDR.

Joyce Marie Mascari, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mascari, 128 East Walnut Street, Kingston, is a graduate of St. Ann's Academy, Wilkes-Barre, and St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, Reading. Miss Mascari is a member of TDR.

Beverly Ann Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Butler, 232 Inman Park, Wilkes-Barre, is a graduate of Hanover Township High School and the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. She is a member of the Junior Class Council, TDR, and the Biology Club.

The State Board Examinations which are composed of a series of five tests in the major fields of nursing are formulated by the National League for Nursing. They are administered to all nursing aspirants in order to determine the ability and knowledge which the graduate nurse has accumulated in three years of training. Only by passing these tests can one become a registered professional nurse.

LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS TO PLAN TAX CLINIC

by Steve Cooney

Top experts in the tax field will assemble at Wilkes College on December 5 and 6 for their fifth annual tax clinic.

The clinic will be sponsored by the Commerce and Finance Department of Wilkes College, the Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and the Northeastern Chapter of Pennsylvania Accountants.

The aim of the tax clinic is to further the understanding of taxation by providing a common meeting ground for certified public accountants, attorneys, and other interested parties. All meetings for the group will be held in Stark Science Hall, and Dr. Samuel Rosenberg, head of Wilkes Commerce and Finance Department, will address the group at the opening session.

Invited to attend the clinic are the lawyers of Luzerne County and Lackawanna County, the bankers of both counties, and public accountants and certified public accountants from many areas in Pennsylvania.

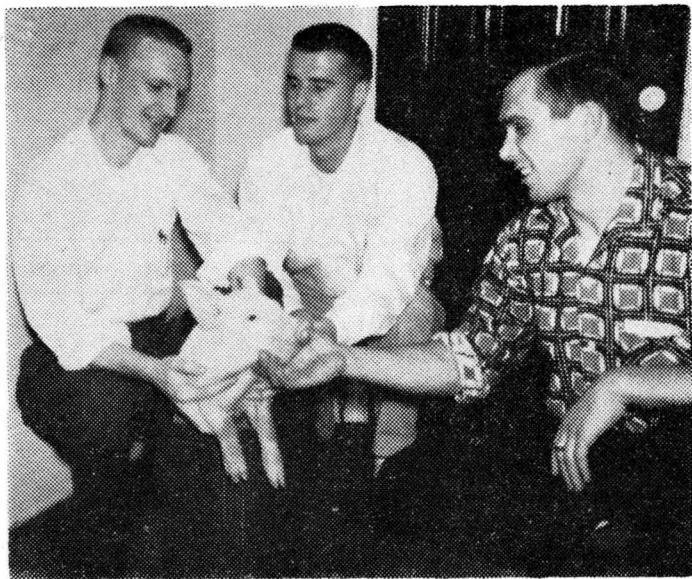

THE TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR

The typographical error is a slippery thing and sly.

You can hunt 'til you're dizzy, but it still will get by.

Til the forms are off the presses
It's strange how still it sleeps;
It shifts down into a corner
And it never stirs or peeps.
That typographical error,
Too small for human eyes,
Til the ink is on the paper
It grows to mountainous size.
The boss just stares with horror
Then he grabs his hair and moans;

The copy reader drops his head
Upon his hands and groans.
The remainder of the issue may be as clean — As clean can be
But that typographical error
Is the only thing you see.

SNICKER-SEEKING SENIORS' STUPENDOUS SHOW SATURDAY

The never-say-die senior class (of Titanic Taffy Tear fame) are at it again. Since the males who participated in the tug-of-war did such a bourgeois job of losing to the Fearless Faculty-ites, the entertainment at tomorrow's half-time will be in charge of three members of the fairer sex and only one of the opposing sex.

We take pride in announcing this senior FIRST: tomorrow, four seniors (3F & 1MM*) will be major nuisances, or rather majorettes, with Mr. Moran's ardent followers, popularly known as the Wilkes College "Band".

The three young maidens who have unselfishly given of their time and talent for this unworthy cause are: Mary Louise Spinelli, Barbara Vose, and Jan Cristello. As for the remaining member of the quartet— ? ? ?

The senior class is doing its utmost to entertain the football fans. The class is under the impression that instead of gorging themselves sick with food at the game, the fans should laugh themselves sick at the austere, aristocratic upper-classmen in their valiant attempts on the field. The sprightly, spirited seniors supposedly show school spirit and we commend them! . . . Happy Majorette-izing!

EDUCATION CLUB CONFERENCE FOR LOCAL H. S. STUDENTS TODAY

PHYSICIST TO SPEAK IN FIRST OF SERIES

Walter Selove, associate professor of physics at the University of Pennsylvania, will present the first of a series of science lectures on Thursday, November 20, 8 p.m., at the gym.

The science clubs of Wilkes are sponsoring the lectures, which are based on the general topic, "The Atom and the Future of Our Civilization." Keynotes of the series are: awareness of the atom and what it can mean to our future survival, and international relations.

Mr. Selove is presently vice-chairman of the American Federation of Scientists and former chairman of the Radiations Committee of the Federation.

His lecture will be on the subject, "Science and Survival." The session, like the others to follow, is open to the public. There is no admission charge.

Subsequent lectures will be given on Tuesday, January 6, and Tuesday, March 3. Lawrence S. Finkelstein, recipient of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, will speak on "The Atom and International Relations" on January 6.

On March 3, Lyle Borst, chairman of the physics department at New York University, will speak on "The Peaceful Uses of the Atom." Mr. Borst is the former chairman of the department of Science and Engineering at Brookhaven National Laboratories, and senior physicist at Clinton Laboratories, Oak Ridge.

CHRISTMAS FORMAL ON DECEMBER 12

The Letterman's annual Christmas Formal will be held on December 12 from 9 to 12 in the gym. This is the only formal to be held at the college this semester. Lee Vincent and his orchestra will provide the music for dancing and the lettermen will entertain at intermission with the annual carol singing.

Tickets may be obtained from any letterman on campus for $4.00. Co-chairmen for the strictly formal affair are Bob Yokavonus and Carl Zoolkoski.

Final Totals Revealed For UF; Students Reach 73 Per Cent of Quota

by Marilyn Krackenfels

Now that the United Fund drive is over for the year, with Wilkes College having exceeded its quota, the final figures for the students contributions have been announced.

Classes:
Freshman	$187.31
Sophomore	138.00
Junior	140.32
Senior	134.60
Total	$600.23
Clubs:
Biology	25.00
C.C.U.N.	5.00
Chemistry	5.00
Education	10.00
History	10.00
I.R.C.	5.00
J.C.C.	5.00
Lettermen	25.00
T.D.R.	25.00
Senior Class	15.00
Total	$130.00
Other Sources	$147.00
Grand Total	$877.23

The Wilkes quota was $3400, of which $1000 to $1200 was to have been contributed by the student body. Unfortunately this $877.23 is $122.77 behind the minimum of $1000. Thus, it is quite obvious that it was the contributions of the faculty and personnel that put Wilkes "over the top".

LETTERMEN CONDUCT USED BOOK CAMPAIGN

The Lettermen's Club will conduct its book drive beginning Monday, November 17. They will collect all books used in survey courses and then give them to incoming freshmen who lack financial aid.

Students wishing to donate books to this cause may do so by putting them in boxes which will be placed around campus for this purpose. If the book is not in current use it will be accepted since it may be used in future years. Any freshman who is in need of aid is eligible to receive these books.

Chairman of this drive is John Thomas, assisted by Bob Payne and Clete Miller.

ACTIVITIES LISTED FOR BUSY PROGRAM

by Connie Stukowski

The Education Club is sponsoring an Education Conference which is open to students of the regional high schools today.

Between fifty and seventy-five students are attending the conference. The affair is intended to acquaint students with Wilkes College and the teaching profession as a career.

The program commenced with a reception at 9:00 a.m., at which education majors were present to greet the prospective teachers and to answer any of their questions. This was followed by a movie entitled, "What Greater Gift," and speeches by Mr. John Chwalek and Mr. John Whitby. Those attending will then be treated to a luncheon at which the Collegians will entertain.

The afternoon's program included a lecture at the Science Building and a number of tours. Students will have the opportunity to visit an art display at Harding Hall, to examine exhibits prepared by the CCUN and the Biology Club, or to witness three one-act plays which the Cue 'n' Curtain Club arranged. The program will culminate with a tea at McClintock Hall.

The planning and arranging of this year's conference was handled by the Education Club with Margaret Jones serving as president. Acting as chairman of the affair is Connie Yahara who is assisted by the following committees: Sylvia Kusek, name tags; Bob Kuchinski, tours; Joan Llewellyn and Beth Reed, mimeographing; Moncey Miller, Barbara Bachman, Mary Ellen Zwiebel, registration; Nancy Wooster and Love Ann Alexander-wicz, social.

WC Student Government Plans Annual Dance; Committees Announced

by Phyllis Iannuzzo

On Friday, November 28, the annual "All College Dance" will be held in the Wilkes College gym. Music will be provided by Bob Moran and an orchestra, courtesy of the Music Performance Trust Fund.

General chairman for the affair is Carl Zoolkoski. Committee chairmen assisting him are: Chaperones, Barbara Federer; decorations, Paul Klein; music, Bob Washburn; invitations, Mike Bianco; refreshments, Bob Pitel; entertainment, Dick Salus; publicity, Bill Davis.

All students are invited to attend, especially students from other colleges who are home for the Thanksgiving holiday.

This dance is sponsored annually by the Wilkes College Student Government. In past years, the dance has been a big success and it is hoped that this year's will top all others for attendance. As in the past, the dance will be free.

Hoffman Hits the Top With 633, Gains Second; Pinbusters Still Lead

Hill Hoffman and Dan Lewis tangled in a scoring duel in Sunday night's intramural bowling, with Hoffman coming out on top and setting a new season high series mark at 633. Lewis finished with the night's high score, 238, but Hoffman had games of 199, 221, and 213 to eclipse Dick Myers' old three game series mark of 587.

Hoffman's effort moved him out of third place in individual standings to second. Lewis leads the pack with an even 190 average. Hoffman has 185. Emil Petrask went from second to third on his 172 average. Warren Denman is fourth with 170, John Sapiego is tied for fifth with Joe Shemanski at 164, and John Kuhar is next with 162.

Pinbusters 4, Raider 0

In league play, the Pinbusters continued to dominate the loop with an 18-2 record, taking four points from the Raiders. Fred Jacoby was high for the 'Busters with 216-583. Pete Maholik led the losers on 168-445. The scoring:

Pinbusters: Jacoby 583, Don Wilkinson 190-490, Emil Petrask 169-467, and Bill Watkins 170 and 123.

Raiders: Maholik 445, Florence Kornblatt 154-412, Len Glassberg 159 and 117, Larry Choper 158 and 111, Andy Lowenberg 126 and 111, Bob Licato 130 and 122, and Bob Hewitt 120.

Tenpins 3, Teetotalers 1

The Tenpins moved into a third place tie with the Teetotalers when they took three points from the faltering squad. John Kuhar led the way to the win with 183-467. Gene Brozowski was high man for the losers with 174-439.

The three-point win brought the Tenpins to their present position after a three-week climb from Yesterday the booters won their sixth game from a strong Philadelphia Textile team. Both Wilkes scores came in the first quarter with Carl Havira scoring first via a penalty shot and Evan Pappanicholas next with an assist from Lou Zwiebel.

In the final two minutes of play, Don Pierce saved the day for the Colonels by stopping the ball at the goal with a beautiful head shot.

Last Saturday the Colonels showed a stout defense and a timely offense to take its 5th win of the season in an exciting match with Lycoming. The Williamsport college scored first, but Wilkes scored when it counted in beating the Warriors from Lycoming, 2-1.

Center forward Jim Sichinger scored Lycoming's only goal on a beautiful shot from ten yards out in the first period. This was the only shot that the Lycoming team got at the Colonels' goal in the first half.

The Colonels came back to tie the score in the second quarter on a fine play by inside left Len Frankowiak, who bounced a loose ball past the Lycoming goalie.

Seth Anshah, inside right, provided the winning goal on a beautiful play early in the second half.

In all, the Colonels took twenty-three shots at the visitor's goal while giving up only about a half-dozen shots at its own goal. As can be seen by the figure the Colonel's backfield played an outstanding game. Goalie Bob Payne had his easiest day of the year because of the play of backs Lou Davis, Joe Morgan, Pete Perog, Ed Zwiebel, Don Pierce, and Bob Chew.

The Colonel line was led by center forward Nick Giordano and outsides Carl Havira and Evan Pappanicholas. At inside were the Colonel scorers, Frankowiak and Anshah and Tom Ruggiero. The Wilkes team dominated play for the entire match, but strong, fast and determined Lycoming halfbacks kept the outsides from assisting Giordano in any fast-break attacks on the Warriors' goal. The soccer team from the Williamsport college is definitely a young team on the up-swing and will probably be a dangerous opponent next year.

The Colonels are now 6 and 3 for the season and 4 and 2 in Middle Atlantic Conference play.

next-to-last place in the league. The scoring:

Tenpins: Kuhar 467, Cliff Brothers 169-464, Tom Evans 141-411, John Matthey 146-398, and Don Matthey 129-343.

Teetotalers: Brozowski 439, Dick Myers 159-429, Bob Morris 163-419, Wayne Walters 142-384, Merle Cohen 133 and 83, and Peggy Salvatore 96.

Bio Club 3, Goldbricks 1

The scoring battle between Hoffman and Lewis was the feature of a 3-1 win for Hoffman's Bio Club entry and pulled the team out of a three-way tie for last place. The scores:

Bio Club: Hoffman 633, Lee Humphrey 157-415, Marty Tansy 152-405, and John Maylock 148-384.

Goldbricks: Lewis 609, Ed Dun-

RUSS PICTON IS NEW SWIM COACH, TEAM NEEDS MORE CANDIDATES

Russ Picton is assigned to mentor the newly re-formed natator squad. Head football coach in 1955, versatile Picton plans to have the splashers in top notch physical shape for the coming season.

Picton, presently Director of Development and Alumni Secretary will now redirect some of his energy and athletic ability into revitalizing the 15-man swimming team.

This is the second year that the re-formed team will present itself in intercollegiate competition. Until 1957-58, 1949 was the last year that Wilkes was represented in the aquatic world.

Last year's team record did not show any figures on the asset side of the team ledger; however, there are indications that this year's squad will at least break into the winning figures.

The new members of the squad have begun to train in earnest and are counted on to offer stiff opposition in intra-team rivalry to such returning lettermen as backstroker Pat Shovlin, 440 distance man Bernie Wahalla, and 110-yard freestyler Morgan Davis.

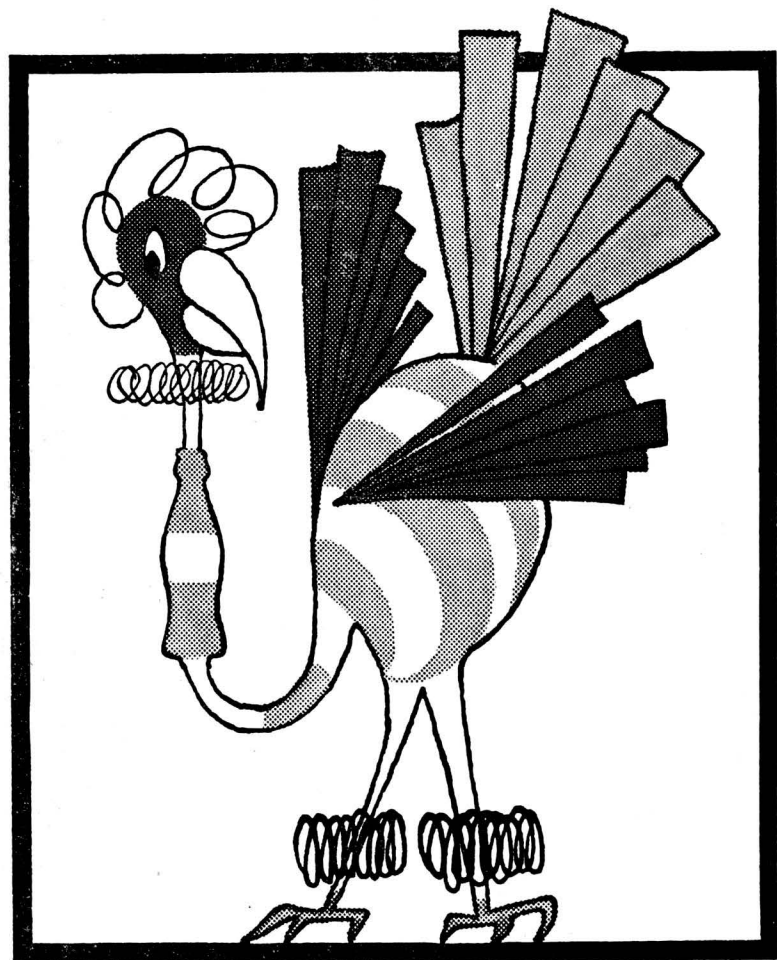

The squad is still in dire need of divers and will, of course, accept any new candidate for the team. Practice is held every week day from 2 until 4 in the afternoon.

SHAWNEES TAKE OVER LEAD IN 'TOUCH' PLAY

The race for top honors in the intramural touch football conference continues to tighten as the Shawnees ousted the Human Beans from first place last week with a 40 to 6 rout.

Leon Cyganowski threw six TD passes to lead the tall men from Plymouth to their fourth victory. George Tensa continued to clamp down from his defensive position in the backfield to hold the opposing teams scoring average to three points per game.

Walt Glogowski scored the single tally for the Beans on a long end around. Ronnie Roski, Richard Foy, and Fran Mikolanis kept the defenders running in circles as they caught two TD passes apiece.

The Honeymooners beat the Chem Knights in a 21 to 7 show with John Matthey stealing most of the limelight by taking to the air and spiraling three TD passes.

The conference crown might be decided Novemebr 12, a little too late to make this edition of the Beacon. The Shawnees will play the Honeymooners. If the Honeymooners pull this one out of the fire there will be a three-way tie for first place.

The standings as the Beacon went to press were as follows:

Grapplers Trying To Bolster Team With Fresh Talent

This year's crop of wrestling applicants show that there is a possible bright spot in the Wilkes horizon, even after the last two tremendous seasons.

Coach John Reese's wrestling team looks very good in the lower weight classes but might be a little light in the heavier divisions.

The lower divisions seem to be well populated with talent. Dick Weiss, a former Wilkes letterman and recent returnee to the squad, will have his hands full trying to gain the 123-pound berth against Dick Stauffer, a Kingston graduate and Pennsylvania I.A.A. wrestling champ from last year.

In the 130-pound class, we find Jim Brewster, a rugged wrestler from Meyers who just returned from a tour of duty with Uncle Sam. Jim will find his main competition against one of G.A.R.'s finer wrestlers, John Hosage.

The 137-pound class should be dominated by Joe Morgan, a returning letterman from last year's team, who took fourth place in the Middle Atlantic playoffs.

At 147 the ranks start to thin out a little with Ronnie Bienkowski probably slated for this berth. Then at 157 the two main competitors should be freshman Ted Toluha from Lehman-Jackson, and John Delmore.

Marv Antinnes, last year's Middle Atlantic runner-up for the 167-pound class, should fill that spot adequately with another returning teammate and second place winner in the Middle Atlantic, Walt Glogowski, holding down the 177-pound division.

The unlimited, or heavyweight, division should be graced with the Middle Atlantic fourth place winner of last year, Bob Sislian.

Coach Reese would like to see a few more men come out for the team. The first meet will be on December 10, against Lebanon Valley.

MARV ANTINNES WINS AWARD AS HE LEADS GROUND-GAINERS

Leading Wilkes ground gainer Marvin Antinnes is named Athlete of the Week. Marv's stellar performance on the grid-iron chalks up a record of over four yards a carry.

In last Saturday's game, the Dickinson Red Devils showed much respect for the ball-carrying abilities of halfback Antinnes.

Marv Antinnes

Marv carried the ball well over a dozen times in the game, sitting out only a few brief minutes after a bone-rattling tackle by one of the opposition.

His offensive play was shadowed only by his defensive generalmanship. After numerous sorties in the direction of Antinnes the Red Devils' quarterback decided that there were other places that might offer ground-gaining opportunities.

Last year Marvin held down the center position while Bob Yokavonus was out with injuries. This year, Coach Pinkowski realized that Marv's attributes could be utilized to a fuller extent in the backfield.

Marv's athletic prowess is not limited to the grid field. Last year he took second place in the 167-pound class of the Middle Atlantic wrestling tournament.

Antinnes is a sophomore this year. He graduated from Forty Fort High School, where he took wrestling honors and was also on the track and football teams.

Colonels Test Royals For Second Time after Losing to Devils, 12-0

by Richard J. Myers

Football season closes tomorrow afternoon when the Colonels play host to a powerful Scranton eleven after losing a 12-0 road game to the Red Devils of Dickinson. The locals now have a dismal 1-7 record on the season and will find themselves in the role of underdogs tomorrow at Kingston Stadium.

The 2 p.m. game will be the second gridiron meeting of the two colleges. Last year Scranton took the measure of the then single-wing eleven by a solid 27-0 score.

Pete Carlesimo's Royals earlier this year took a beating at the hands of Boston College, but it was felt that they showed plenty of power as they stepped far out of their class for that game. They proved this power a week later when they walloped a hapless King's eleven by four touchdowns.

There seems little doubt that the Royals, numbering near 40, will have any trouble with Wilkes, since they have at least twelve returnees who saw action in last year's Wilkes-Scranton game at Bone Stadium.

The Colonels, however, have shown amazing fight and determination throughout the season in spite of a glaring lack of reserve strength. With only 20 to 22 men dressed for each game, it has been observed that the team should receive some kind of championship just for finishing such bruising contests as they have endured this year.

The lack of manpower has hampered the otherwise fine job of rebuilding done by new coach Pinkowski. He came to Wilkes fresh from turning out a fine machine at Clarks Summit High School and was faced with the task of building a team with no backfield returnees and a line only accustomed to the single-wing offense.

He has shown a shrewd judgment in juggling his limited lineup, placing guards at end positions, tackles at fullback, a center at halfback, and generally getting the best possible mileage out of available manpower.

Dickinson Surprisingly Strong

Last week, the Colonels lost, 12-0, to Dickinson and were able to create only one serious scoring threat late in the first half. They were driving upfield when Marv Antinnes took a handoff from quarterback Paul Aquilino and broke through the Devil line into the unprotected middle zone.

Just when it appeared that he would pick up enough yardage for a first down, he shifted into high gear and trotted 41 yards before he was nailed on the nine-yard line.

After some unsuccessful assaults on the Demons' line, Aquilino ran an option play which went astray and the Devils took over on the 17. They began a drive against the tiring Colonels and pushed over a score with less than 50 seconds to play.

The second half found the game being fought to a scoreless exchange of possession until Bill Michaels touched a 45-yard punt which the Devils' tackle recovered. Before the Colonels could recover, quarterback Dave Wachter began a passing exhibition that led to the 12th point with 43 seconds to play.

FRANTIC FEATHERED FROLIC FORTHCOMING; FAVORS AND FALL DECORATIONS FEATURED

All birds of a feather will flock together next Friday evening as the junior class presents "Junior Birdland" at the gym. Herbie Green and his band will be music makers for the affair.

As previously announced, Henrietta II will be introduced to Wilkes society at this dance, and well-informed sources say that this year's feathered friend is but a distant relative of the proud lady turkey who bowed at last year's Birdland.

The class plans to have appropriate decorations of the fall season adorning the gym, and favors will be presented to all in attendance in addition to door prizes.

To keep the "mobs" from congregating at the entrance to the gym, plans have been made for decorations to be placed near the door to force everyone onto the floor. (Note to "some Wilkes ceds": This just may be your night to be "whirled and twirled like ne'er before"!!!)

CLASS MEETINGS TUESDAY MORNING

The year's second compulsory class meetings will be held on Tuesday at 11 a.m. in place of a regular assembly program. All students will report to the gym, where they will be directed to special sections reserved for each class.

All students are expected to attend these meetings; an absence will be counted as an assembly cut.

Regular class business will be discussed and the four class presidents will be in charge of their respective groups.

Cusick, Walters Sing Leads In Wilkes-Kiwanis Musical To be Held on December 3, 4, 5

by Richard J. Myers

Irving Berlin's Annie Get Your Gun, this year's Wilkes-Kiwanis musical production, is swiftly rounding into shape. Casting has been completed and progress on sets, scenery, and lighting problems has been more than satisfactory.

The play, which has delighted audiences all over the nation in stage and movie versions, centers around the fabulous female sharpshooter, Annie Oakley, and the trials and tribulations of two competing travelling shows, Buffalo Bill's "Wild West" show and Pawnee Bill's "Far East" show.

Steve Cooney plays the part of the lovable old "con man," Buffalo Bill. Much of the show's humor comes from the efforts of the two rivals to beat each other to towns to present their entertainment. Pawnee Bill, played by Robbie Stevens, misses no opportunity to "knife" his rival, but under the humorous touch of Berlin, the blade always seems to vanish into the handle, taking the edge from the dirty work the two showmen employ.

There are many good situations in the musical for really fine comedy and rich character development. Always an enjoyable experience, the show has become an American classic on the strength of its warmth, color and excitement.

The part of Annie, played by Barbara Cusick, is at once raucous and tender, rollicking and touching, robust and romantic. Playing both her rival and her lover Frank Butler, Wayne Walters lends his rich baritone voice to the exciting and colorful soprano of Miss Cusick.

Walters has been featured in two previous musicals, "Bloomer Girl" and "Paint Your Wagon." Miss

Steve Cooney

Cusick makes her first appearance at Wilkes in the fourth musical production in the College's history.

Miss Cusick worked with the Cue 'n' Curtain group in the summer Workshop, a Wilkes service to the community. She is a graduate of College Misericordia.

Al Groh, director of the play, explains that she was called in as a last-minute substitution for Janice Krumski who originally was to play Annie. When Miss Krumski was taken ill at the start of rehearsal, over thirty women from Wilkes tried out for the part, but were not judged capable of doing the role.

The decision to go outside the Wilkes student body establishes no precedent. Previously, Mrs. George F. Ralston, Mrs. John Detroy, and Millie Gittins have been asked to help.

The director and the cast are delighted with Miss Cusick's enthusiasm and hard work. She herself has stated that she finds the experience rewarding and challenging and that she enjoys very much working with Mr. Groh and the Wilkes students.

The play now has assumed massive proportions, involving a cast of over 40, nearly as many technical workers, most of the art department, and the maintenance crew.

Kiwanis, more than pleased with last year's smash hit, "Paint Your Wagon," has had little trouble getting ticket sales moving and reports an advance of over 2,000 sold.

The play will be presented in the Irem Temple Auditorium on December 3, 4, and 5.
