rels

ume 45, No. 15 bruary 18, 1993

Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania Wilkes University's Weekly Student Publication

related to other attacks

nother attack eported on likes campus

m Staff Writer

Safety on campus is

s which oced last semese, according to f of security d Cookus, not d to the recent

Not all stus are scared of king in groups alone, but some e been taking cautions by carding the campus all night.

Another student, Sue still there.

Seares, suggests that there be more "lighting, security guards in each dorm."

The security system at ragain an issue. On Febru-Wilkes has improved since last Lat approximately 10:40 semester. Chief Cookus said Sea student was repeatedly curity is making the effort to make adin front of Barre Hall. the campus safer by enhancing mace or Operation Alert. the lighting system, cutting back This kind of protection shrubbery, and by keeping stus not satisfy all students. dents aware. There are also sevsudent thinks there should eral zones on campus that secrity more security guards guards patrol on foot.

Security Chief Cookus

The danger, however, is

Republican club re-forms for the first time in 5 years

By LANCER BENSON Beacon Columnist

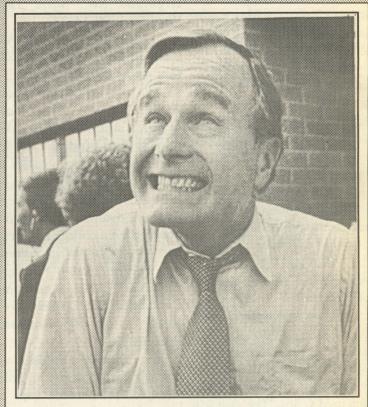

On Wednesday, February 3, Student Government approved and recognized the newly formed College Republican Society as an official Wilkes University club.

This is the first time since 1988 that Wilkes has had a young republicans organization. In that year, the previous republican club folded as a result of deficient enrollment, and a lack of a faculty advisor.

This year is different. A supportive faculty advisor, Dr. Harold E. Cox, oversees the coordination of the newly established College Republican Society and its 18 members.

During the course of meetings at the end of last semester and over break, the group drew up its three page constitudent Government, it was deter-Wilkes' campus.

Parliamentarian, Gail Humphrey said, "Their argument was convincing. They brought up the sides of political issues." fact that, during the election, politics was not being covered suffi- and inform," said club chairman,

President GeorgeBush enjoys retirement

tion. After presenting it to Stu-ciently and many people were not. Al Mueller, "For right now aware of many of the independent we are concerned in getting mined that the club's formation candidates who were running for ourselves up and running." would be a beneficial addition to president. They said the club that covered the election only ad- ties planned by the new club Student Government dressed Bush and Clinton. This include: frequent meetings new club [College Republican and discussion periods, Society|seems geared to show all bringing in guest speakers,

"Our goal is to educate and distributing literature.

Some of the activiparticipating in mock trials.

Pre-Med Society hosts seminar

I from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

sicand reconstructive surand medical school at the treat skin burns.

WILKES-BARRE - The Health Science Center at Brookout will host a seminar the top 10 percent of his class. His ducted by Dr. Francis postgraduate work has taken him ini on March 2 in SLC to Johns Hopkins Hospital in Bal-Currently practicing with in Rochester, Minn.

Dr. Collini has also written ms in Wilkes-Barre, Dr. many articles on the subject of Certified by the American Its University Pre-Med lyn, from which he graduated in Boards of Surgery and Plastic Surgery, Dr. Collini has received the Merk Manual Award and the American Medical Association timore, Md. and the Mayo Clinic Physicians' Recognition Award. Dr. Collini has been honored as a guest contributor to Outlook in Plastic Surgery, in which many of in graduated from Co-plastic surgery ranging from skin his articles have appeared. He is a tha University and at-grafting to instructions on how to member of the AMA and the Pennsylvania Medical Society.

INSIDE... What's going on....2 News..... Features.....7 Editorials.....5 Sports.....10

WHAT'S GOING O N . . .

Yearbook pictures will be taken of graduating seniors and seniors selected to Who's Who on Tuesday, February 23 from 1 p.m. until 8 p.m. in room 203 of the Marts Center. This is the last chance for May graduates to have their pictures taken by Varden Studios. If you have chosen a private photographer, a black and white wallet size photo should be submitted to Karen Mason, second floor of Conyngham Hall, by March 1. Appointments may be made by contacting 831-4238.

The Admissions Office is seeking students to serve as tour guides for the Spring 1993 Open House on Saturday, March 13. A meeting will be held on Wednesday, March 10, at 3 p.m. in Chase Hall.

A new campus organization is being formed. The Student AIDS Awareness Committee will hold its first meeting on Thursday, February 18 at noon in SLC 361. The club will help plan the next World AIDS Day at Wilkes. Also, the club hopes to bring the Project NAMES AIDS Quilt to the Wilkes' campus. For more information contact Debbie Zehner in SLC 367 at Ext. 4753.

CAREERS and the disABLED Magazine will host a career fair and conference on Feb. 25-26, 1993 at the Washington Hilton and Towers in Washington, D.C. For more inhibiting write CMC, 200 Connecticut Avenue, Norwalk, CT 06856-4990, or call 203-853-0500.

Applications are now being accepted for graduate fellowship programs sponsored by the U.S. Department of Energy and administered by the Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education. ence or engineering discipline by May/June 1992. Selection is based on academic performance, 576-9558.

submissions for their newest call (202) 535-7528. publication, The Book of Ameri-Waterford, MI 48328.

summer internship to the winner exam. of their Ralph Flamminio Meand several of his/her favorite information call 826-1100. clippings to: Ralph Reichart, PA 16701.

day and spring break trips to call (212) 759-4050. major U.S. cities, national and 925-6004 or (215) 925-6005.

The Jewish Community

Terri Libenson, whose 344-5252. comic strip "Zero" appears in munity Center.

Scholarship applicarecommendations, and a state- tions are available for members share nature with school chilment of career goals by the ap- of the Selected Ready Reserves dren who visit the Bear Creek plicant. For more information for the 1993-1994 school year Nature Center on field trips. call Tom Richmond or Cheryl from the Department of Veteran Training series will be held on Terry at 615-576-2194 or 615- Affairs. Applicants must be in- March 25, April 1, and April 8 or terested in careers in nursing, or March 26, April 2, and April 9. Sigma Publishing is occupational and physical The training programs will be now seeking, by invitation only, therapy. For more information held from 9 a.m. until noon.

can Collegiate Poetry. Those for the Fundamentals of Engi- 18, to register. There is no fee for interested should write immedineering (FE) exam is being the program. ately: Sigma Publishing, 4217 changed so that each test-taker Highland Rd., Suite 188, will only be allowed to use a ment have any interesting stosupplied-reference booklet. The ries that you would want to be The Pennsylvania As- FE examis one of the first steps in published in this year's sociated Press Managing Edi- the engineering registration pro- Amnicola? If so, then we would tors Association is awarding a cess. The new format will be like to hear about them. The $1,000 scholarship and a paid implemented for the October 1993 dorm or apartment with the best morial Scholarship. Juniors perform at the Kirby Center on on them. Please drop off all subwho plan to pursue a career in March 3 at 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. missions at the Amnicola office journalism, have print experi- Reserved seats are available at on the 2nd floor of Hollenback ence and reside or attend college the Kirby Center Box Office, Tri- Hall by Feb. 18th. Include your in Pennsylvania should send a angle Pharmacy-Mountaintop name and phone number where cover letter, a college transcript and all Ticketmaster outlets. For you can be reached.

chairman, APME Scholarship Contest for College Students is have taken part in some type of Committee, c/o The Bradford accepting entries until June 11. community service before mak-Era, P.O. Box 365, Bradford, Entries must be five minutes or ing a fund request to Student under in length and express the Government. As well, a copy of American Youth Hos- the theme: One Person Can Make each club's constitution must be tels is offering weekend, holi- A Difference. For entry forms sent to the Student Government

February 27 is the deadstate parks and various other lo- line for entries for the 1993 Mrs. cations at greatly reduced rates. Pennsylvania America Pageant. For more information, write to Applicants must be at least 18 AYH, Delaware Valley Coun- years of age, married at least six cil, 624 South Third Street, Philamonths, and at least a six-months delphia, PA 19106, or call (215) resident of PA. Call (412) 225-5343 for more information.

The Northeast Theatre Center will sponsor Dr. David I. Ensemble will present "Love Barras Family Health Fair on Trilogy" at the Scranton Cul-Monday, March 22 at the Wyo-tural Center. Performances will ming Valley Mall from 10:30 be given February 11-14 and a.m. until 12:30 p.m. Free February 19-21. Curtain is at 8 formation on attending or exscreenings are being offered for p.m. each night with the excepglaucoma, blood pressure, hear-tion of the Sunday shows which ing, vision, oral cancer, podia- open at 2 p.m. Students will be try, postural and fitness testing. admitted for $5. For tickets call

The Afa Open, a regional The Times Leader, will be the juried art show, will be exhibited guest speaker for February's at the Afa Gallery in Scranton Luncheon Forum hosted by the beginning on March 6. The ex-Jewish Community Center's hibit is open to all visual artists. Lecture Committee. The Artists are invited to submit up to To be eligible, forum, which is free and open to two works for jurying. Works will students must have received their the public, will begin at noon on be accepted at the gallery on Febundergraduate degrees in a sci- February 18 at the Jewish Com- ruary 27 and March 3 and 4 from noon until 5 p.m. each day. For information call 969-1040.

Volunteers are needed to Anyone interested should call The Open-book format (717)472-3741, before March

Does your dorm or apartstory in the form of an article David Copperfield will will have a special feature done

All clubs and organiza-The Christopher Video tions must first prove that they Office, care of Gail Humphrey.

Mon-Thurs 4:30-10:0 Fri & Sat 4:30-11:00 Dinner-Sun 4:00-9:00 243 S. Main St., WB 825-79

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

ALASKA SUMMER EMPLOYMENT

FISHERIES - Students Nec Earn $600+ per week incame or $4,000+ per month on fist boats. Free Transportation! Re and Board! Over 8,000 openium No experience necessor Female. For em rogram call: 1-206-545-4155 Ext. A5272

Student Employment Service
Achievement Through Adventure

$200-$500 WEEKLY

Assemble products at home. Es selling. You're paid direct. Ful Guaranteed.FREE Information 24 Hour Hotline. 801-379-290 Copyright #PA04645

GREEKS & CLUBS

$1,000 AN HOUR!

Each member of your frat. sorority, team, club, etc pitches in just one hou and your group can raise $1,000 in just a few days!

Plus a chance to earn $1,000 for yourself!

No cost. No obliga 1-800-932-0528, ext. 65

THE BEACON

Wilkes University's Weekly Student Newspaper VOL. 45 NO. 15 February 18, 1993

> 1992-93 Editorial Staff Bonnee Breese Editor In Chief

Wendy Raughley — News Editor Patty Puerling —Features Editor Bob Simmons—Sports Editor Missie Chinchar — Assistant Sports Editor Lynn Krutz —Co-Copy Editor Andy Gulden—Co-Copy Editor Rima Saad —Photo Editor Stacy Heck —Ad & Business Manager Dana Alexander Nolfe —Advisor

EDITORIAL POLICY

Editorials reflect the views of the writer, but m necessarily of The Beacon staff. Letters to the Editor are welcomed but are limited to 500 words or less. All letters must be signed. Letters can remain anonymou only if signed and requested by the writer.

LOCATION—2ND FLOOR HOLLENBACK HALL MAILING ADDRESS-WILKES UNIVERSITY, P.O. BOX 111; WILKES PHONE (717) 824-4651 EXTENSION 2962, FAX EXTENSION 2963

C.A.R.V. making to getarian i to open ye global and

HE BEACON

The club me

C.A.R.1

For more

pplications ar

A State Civil S epartment of T lines are app for fall co-ops

Figh

Jo

The L Bisex of Wi

The LGBA every S Alumn Learning are invited we will n they are meeting. V Wilkes Ur Barre, 18

gua

-Thurs 4:30-10:00 & Sat 4:30-11:00 n 4:00-9:00 St., WB 825-7989

OYMENT RTUNITY

A SUMMER OYMENT r week in cannerier month on fishin insportation! Roover 8,000 opening

loyment Services
Through Adventure

O WEEKLY ets at home. Easy! I e paid direct. Fully

REE Information ine. 801-379-2900 nt #PA046450

& CLUBS N HOUR!

er of your frat. m. club. etc ust one hour st a few days!

nce to earn r yourself!

528, ext. 65

wspaper

tor itor

Editor

nager

r, but not the Editor or less. All nonymous

111; WILKES-

ON 2963

etarianism and the Environment)

AR.V.E. is a club for students dedicated to king their lives better, as well as the world nd them. It is not mandatory that you be a rian to join. The only requirement is a desire men your mind to new things and to look at bal and local issues from a new perspective.

dub meets every Thursday at 11 a.m. in SLC 380.

ILR.V.E. yourself a better future. Take care of your planet!

for more info, contact extension 4243 or 4244.

cations are at the co-op office, 3rd floor, Max Roth Center the Civil Service Engineering Interns -DER ment of Transportation Interns - Naturalists, PA Civil Service less are approaching. It is also time for technical majors to apply rfall co-ops in local industries.

WILKES

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BUSINESS COMMUNICATORS

I. A. B. C.

Join the 2nd. Largest Professional Communication Organization in the World. For WILKES I.A.B.C. Contact:

Carmela Osborne 824-7285 or Meg Fallin 824-4651 ext 5063

Fight Isolation Foster diversity

the Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Association of Wilkes University

he LGBA of Wilkes University meets every Sunday at 6:30 p.m. in the Alumni House next to the Stark arning Center. All interested parties e invited to attend. Or, if requested, we will meet people confidentially if hey are not ready to attend an open eeting. We can be reached at: LGBA, lkes University, Box 1291, Wilkeslarre, 18766. All correspondence is guaranteed confidential.

Aids awareness committee formed May bring quilt in December

By JENNIFER JAMES Beacon Staff Writer

New things come and go every day, but occasionally something comes along which is worthy of interest and attention. The new Student Aids Awareness Committee at Wilkes University fits the bill. The group, headed by Mrs. munity. Debbie Zehner, held its first meeting today at noon in SLC

First of all, they hope to educate young people on the dangers of the growing AIDS epidemic. The group will help plan the World AIDS Day activities both on and off campus. The Committee will also train Wilkes students to be peer counselors who educate local high school students and the com-

Another goal of the Committee is to bring the Project NAMES AIDS Quilt to Wilkes The group has several for World AIDS Day 1993. The goals. quilt is a patchwork of more than 21,000 panels representing AIDS victims from 29 countries. The quilt covers more than 15 acres.

Some panels on the quilt simply have the name of an AIDS victim, while others tell a story with images. The Student AIDS Awareness Committee wants to bring the quilt to the area in hopes it will open eyes to how this disease is affecting millions of people worldwide.

Spend spring break in Florida Help hurricane victims

WILKES-BARRE-The Student Community Service Council, in cooperation with Student Government, is sponsoring an "Alternative Spring Break" trip to Dade County, Florida to assist with the ongoing rebuilding efforts as a result of Hurricane Andrew. Over the past several months hundreds of college students across the country have given their time to this effort.

The Wilkes group will depart in a campus van on Saturday, April 3, arriving at the University of Miami, on Sunday, April 4. Druing the stay in Florida, accomodations will be provided by the University of Miami. A full schedule of work has been arranged for Monday through Friday morning. The group will then head back to Pennsylvania with an expected arrival on Saturday evening.

Transportation, lodging, and a meal stipend are covered through the support of Student Government and the Student Community Service Council, Space is limited for the trip. Interested students may apply by sending their name, address, and phone number with a brief statement of interest to Gail Humphrey, Student Community Service Council, at Conyngham Student Center.

1993 Miss P.A. World preliminaries at CPA

Delegates and staff for the Miss at Murray's Inn. 1993 Pennsylvania competition will call the Darte Center "home" for three days this week while in town for this official state preliminary event to Miss World America.

Semi-finalists will arrive Thursday, February 18. The finals will be staged at the Darte Center on Saturday, February 20 at 7:30 p.m.

Dawn Timmeney of WBRE-TV and Jon-David Wells of WARM radio will

Judges for the event will be Calla Urbanski and Rocky Marvel, U.S. National Pairs Champions, and a well-known New York City casting direc-

While in Wilkes-Barre for the week-end, the semifinalsists will participate in press conferences, special dinners hosted by area restaurants, and other public appearances around

Sharon Belden, Miss host the show, followed by an 1992 World America, will be WILKES-BARRE— informal reception afterwards on hand for all of the events at the Darte Center this week-end. Belden is an Interior Design student from Florida. Liz Cebak is Miss 1992 Pennsylvania.

Corporate sponsors for the event are WARM radio, WBRE-TV, R.K. Furs, and Genetti Hotel and Convention Center. Overbrook Restaurant, Peking Chef, and Murray's Inn will host several dinners.

Students will receive a discount at the Box Office with a valid student I.D.

Said Samatar

Nightline consultant discusses his tripto his native Somalia

Thursday, February 18, 1993 in the CPA 8 p.m.

History professor named President

WILKES-BARRE

Wilkes University history proing in the fields of Bulgarian and the United Kingdom.

- Pittsburgh.

fessor Dr. Dennis Hupchick was doctorate in modern European recently elected president of the history from the University of Bulgarian Studies Association. Pittsburgh in 1993. He has writ-A professional association of ten many books and articles on North American scholars work- the subject of Bulgarian culture.

His latest book is scheduled studies, the BSA has a member- for release in March. The Bulship of 210 individuals and 20 garians in the Seventeenth Ceninstitutions in the United States tury: Slavic Orthodox Society and Canada, with affiliated and Culture under Ottoman Rule members in Bulgaria, Germany is a societal examination of the Wilkes-Barre with his wife, role played by the orthodox reli-Dr. Hupchick is currently gion in preserving the Bulgarorganizing the Fifth Joint Meet- ians' ethnic self-identity during ing of Bulgarian and North the 500-year period of their rule American Bulgarists, to be held by the Islamic Ottoman Empire. in May 1994 at the University of A 1992 Wilkes faculty development grant helped support the Dr. Hupchick received his final preparation of the manuscript for publication.

> Dr. Hupchick's other articles on Bulgarian culture focus on life in the 17th century and Bulgarian education. He also served as an editor for James F. Clarke's book The Pen and The Sword: Studies in Bulgarian History.

> Dr. Hupchick resides in Anne-Marie.

Attention:Local students who reside in the greater

Wyoming Valley Career Placement will be recruiting nannies in the Max Roth Center on Thurs, Feb. 25, 2p.m.-4p.m.

Elementary education, soc, or psych majors a plus, 20-40 hrs. per week. Caring for infant & toddler experience, as well as own transportation a must.

References required,

Stop in Max Roth Center between 2 and 4.

The Beacon

Needs writers like you!

Wilkes University Blood Drive

Thursday, March 4, 1993 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM Lower Level Of The Marts Center

> Fabulous prizes!! Free Dominos Pizza!! Free Cupcakes!!

Become part of the Wilkes Team to defeat Kings in the blood drive!

Plus.....meet the Colonel and the Blood Drop in person!

What's the deal? Did v the discretion of ou rectional signs to their

These directional sign ssions office directing

Does this mean that arents could by-pass or ext campus awaiting ne

It would seem as if odies. You say why bus usiness as well as educa ure this out. So why the Word has it that some iver and Academy Stre me Wilkes students th ust protect your own rotect it from intruders

Ask your friendly adn ow the answer.

Remember, we've fina rcampus ours!

This W Compiled by Will

uary 15, 1966 -- The n proposes federal k merican families iary 16, 1970 --- Nex wicil school districts

ary 19, 1970 Sou to prevent the feder to create a racial bal ry 18, 1970 — Sen oicrai funds to scho iom residential scen ary 21, 1965 --- Mail on Ballroom in New uary 21, 1795 - Free

The Psychology Honor Society, Psi Chi, is seeking new members. To qualify you must meet these requirements:

- 1) Be registered as a Psychology major or minor.
- 2) Have an overall GPA of 3.0, Psychology GPA of 3.25.
- 3) Have completed 3 psychology courses or have com-
- pleted 2 psychology courses and are currently registered • for another.
- If you feel that you are qualified contact Dr. Bolander.

you!!!

s Center

EDITORIAL-

King's College That-A-Way

What's the deal? Did we allot a certain amount of our campus the discretion of our arch rivals King's College to post actional signs to their campus? It seems as if someone made too-boo.

These directional signs were placed indiscretely by our adusions office directing folks right pass us.

Does this mean that prospective visiting students and their units could by-pass our campus and follow the signs to the utampus awaiting new students.

It would seem as if we would want the business and the business are in the business as well as education, it doesn't take much of a brain to business as well as education, it doesn't take much of a brain to buse business as well as education, it doesn't take much of a brain to buse business as well as education, it doesn't take much of a brain to buse business and the business are in business as well as education, it doesn't take much of a brain to business as well as education, it doesn't take much of a brain to business as well as education, it doesn't take much of a brain to business as well as education, it doesn't take much of a brain to business as well as education, it doesn't take much of a brain to business as well as education.

Word has it that someone took one of the signs down from the and Academy Streets. If this is true, it must have been some Wilkes students that learned by their schooling that you must protect your own property. You would only do this to recet it from intruders so that no one will trespass on your entervy.

Ask your friendly administrator, he or she will undoubtedly Remember, we've finally got some school spirit. Let's keep wrampus ours!

This Week In History

Compiled by Wilkes University History Club

drary 15, 1966 — The United States Civil Rights Comson proposes federal legislation to outlaw harassment of to-American families.

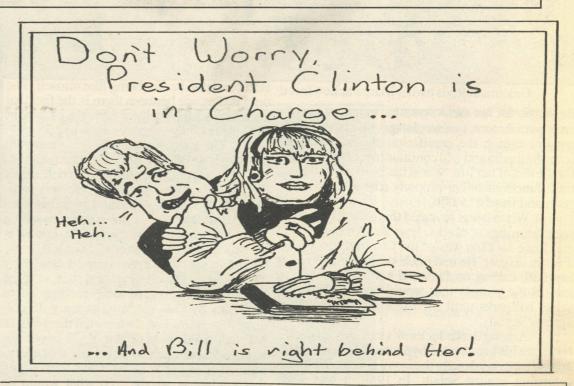

emary 16, 1970 — Nixon establishes a task force to assist a mucil school districts which have been ordered to coury 19, 1970 — Southerners in the House and Senate opto prevent the federal government from resorting to by to create a racial balance in schools.

mary 18, 1970 — Senate passes an amendment that esfeleral funds to school districts whose racial imbalance is from residential segregation.

Frany 21, 1965 — Malcolm X is shot to death in the Work Ballroom in New York. City.

may 21, 1795 — Freedom of worship in France.

Matt Hrabousky is a senior at Coughlin High School. His cartoons appear weekly in The Beacon.

Inclement Weather Policy

It shall be the responsibility of the Dean of Student Affairs to monitor weather conditions that might result in a decision to cancel classes or move to a compressed schedule. The Dean of Student Affairs shall consult with the Vice President for Academic Affairs or the General Officer on duty informing him of her recommendation.

In the event of inclement weather University officials will make every attempt to render a prompt decision regarding whether classes will be canceled. This information will be disseminated on campus and to the media and will indicate whether classes are canceled or if we are moving to a compressed schedule. Copies of the compressed schedule are available at the Registrar's Office, the Offices of the Deans of Student Affairs, and the Residence Life Office.

The University recognizes that our commuting students come from a wide geographic area and that road conditions can vary greatly. Common sense and good judgement should act as your guide as to whether you can get to the University, or whether you need to leave earlier than the announced closing time. We would anticipate that the Faculty will respect your judgement in these matters when you inform them upon your return to campus.

COMPRESSED SCHEDULE Monday, Wednesday, Friday

Normal	Compressed
8:00-8:50a.m.	10:00-10:40a.m.
9:00-9:50a.m.	10:45-11:25a.m.
10:00-10:50a.m.	11:30-12:10p.m.
11:00-11:50a.m.	12:15-12:55p.m.
12:00-12:50p.m.	1:00-1:40p.m.
1:00-1:50p.m.	1:45-2:25p.m.
2:00-2:50p.m.	2:30-3:10p.m.
3:00-3:50p.m.	3:15-3:55p.m.
4:00-4:50p.m.	4:00-4:40p.m.

Tuesday and Thursday

Normal	Compressed
8:00-8:50a.m.	10:00-10:50a.m
8:00-9:15a.m.	10:00-10:50a.m.
9:00-9:50a.m.	11:00-11:50a.m.
9:30-10:45a.m.	11:00-11:50a.m.
10:00-10:50a.m.	12:00-12:50p.m.

1:00p.m.-resume regular class schedule

Information will be given to the media and the University switchboard by 6:00a.m. for day classes and 2:00p.m. for evening classes.

Florida SPRING BREAK.
7 nights Beachfront $139-159
Quad. Deadline soon.
RESERVE rooms NOW!.
Call CMI 1-800-423-5264

Resumes' & Video Interviews
By appointment only:
(717) 822-4479
CorporateView U.S.A.
Career Services

CHEAP! FBI/U.S. SEIZED

89	MERCEDES	$200
86	VW	$50
87	MERCEDES	$100
65	MUSTANG	$50

Choose from thousands starting $50. FREE Information 24 Hour Hotline.801-379-2929 Copyright #PA046410

ADOPTION- A loving option.
We will share tender memories of Dr Seuss books, building
snowmen, baking cookies, education, love. Call Beryl or Michaelina at 1-800-377-0671

B&B SPORTSWEAR

8 South Main St.
Wilkes-Barre, PA 18701
717-825-5596
customized t-shirts • caps jackets •sweatsuits • fund raisers patches •heat transfers
personalized while you wait
THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL:

Water repellant lined sport jackets 50% off!

Beacon Columnist

the music for her racist remarks, in regard to concrete punishment, two weeks ago. Of course this is not to mention the crucifixion she has received from the media and will continue to receive perhaps for the rest of her life. Schott has been banned from most functions of her property (the Reds) for one year, and fined $25,000.

When it was revealed that Schott had made racial slurrings of blacks, Jews and Asians, Reverend Jesse Jackson was of the first to throw up his arms in disgust. He had made the threat to boycott baseball, calling on fans and ballplayers alike to join in the pickets that would be established at select ballparks until sufficient action was taken against Schott.

Among Jesse Jackson's obvious character flaws are his bigotry and hypocrisy. When considering them, one detects the irony involved with his campaign against Schott. In 1988, it was Jesse Jackson who let out his own most memorable racial slurs including those infamous "Hymietown" remarks. There has also been rumors that he has had undesirable things to say about Koreans as well. Furthermore, there have been numerous allegations over the years that Jackson had made many cruel racial comments about whites (surprised?) However, investigations by the media or the printing of such alleged quotes would likely be turned around by his oration skills as discriminatory plots against him.

The question here is: did anyone ever attempt to take Jesse Jackson's private property away from him as a result of his racial slurs, such as his "Hymietown" remarks intended for the degradation of Jews? The answer is: no. However, they did do this to Marge Schott.

In no way can Schott's remarks be justified. They were obviously racial slurs and the exploitation of those slurs made our national pastime look bad. She is undenyably a bigot, judging from her comments. However, no matter how disturbing the bigotry of this woman is to us, it is her right to say what she wants in private conversation. It is not constitutional to take someone's property away from them because of what they discuss in private. No one took Jesse Jackson's property from him. He was never banned for a year from attending the places of worship that he preaches at.

As far as Marge Schott goes, let her be recognized for what she apparently is, a racist. As for Jackson, let him be recognized for what he is as well, a racist. As far as baseball goes, a more relevant issue seems to be the lack of front office positions awarded to minorities. In this aspect, it seems that the Reds are no different than most other pro baseball organizations. This is a far worse reflection on the sport than anything Marge Schott could possibly conjure up in private conversation. Until Schott is proven guilty for discriminatory public or business dealings in a court of law, she should not be banned from her property no sooner than Jesse Jackson should be banned from his. As stated, it's ironic that Jackson would be so quick to head the campaign against Schott considering that he is every bit the bigot she is. What a hypocrite he eye.

Cincinnati Reds owner Marge Schott faced is to condemn her for being like himself. The only difference between them is the fact that Jackson is supposedly a civil rights leader. This aspect only enhances such hypocrisy.

> On a syndicated talk radio program last week on WILK, Jesse Jackson was reported as saying something in the defense of Zoe Baird's criminal activity. He was paraphrased as saying Zoe Baird runs her own show, and that she is not some good little white boy who follows every rule. I don't at all understand this. To try and put it in some sort of perspective, I remembered a quote by Thurgood Marshall (my personal favorite black leader) in regard to his feelings about Malcolm X. This year in a January 30 column, The Times Leader reported that in 1977 Marshall said of Malcolm X, "I never got along because I just don't believe that every thing that is black is right and everything that's white is wrong." To what would be Malcolm X's likely delight, Schott's remarks are a good illustration of white being wrong but by the same token, Jackson's remarks and history of racial slurs prove Thurgood Marshall's theory that everything black is not always right.

From now on, Jesse Jackson's political motives should be in question, as well as his hypocrisy and bigotry. Look at his view on boycotts. He is appalled by the United States' economic sanctions on Haiti, saying that such sanctions come down on the people and bring them hardships. However, Jackson fully backs the same treatment of South Af rica. Don't economic sanctions on South Af rica bring suffering to its people as well as such sanctions inevitably hurt the Haitian people? Perhaps the more publicized apartheid in South Africa bring Jackson a more affluent political bandwagon to ride on. If Haiti's government were more exploited by American media, no doubt Jackson would ride that wagon instead. Finally, I suppose a hypothetical successful boycott on baseball would do nothing to harm the economic welfare of major baseball cities.

Bigotry is wrong and inhibits a peaceful society. It should be recognized and ex ploited, but we should be careful how we go about it. Affirmative action, as proposed by Jesse Jackson, and so far as it is used to deny people constitutional rights is a hypocrisy. I s employing destructive tactics resembling those in which it purports to correct. Such tactics hurt people to the point that their resulting anger may turn to hatred and even bigotry. With this, discrimination is enhanced as opposed to abolished. In dealing with bigotry, fighting fire with fire is not the answer education is. Lets tell our children about the Marge Schotts and Jesse Jacksons of the world and the destructive nature of their thinking. This is better than showing them how to generate more hatred by taking an eye for an

The Scent In the Wind

by Al Mueller

Last Thursday the faculty voted to remove the universal foreign language requirement from the core curriculum. F some, this bodes well. For others, it leaves much to be desired. A for me, I'm not quite sure. The reason for my uneasiness is that I'm not sure whether the arguments presented by both sides were debated, or if they were accepted at face value. If the former is true. then the incoming students were treated justly. However, if the latter is true, then the faculty has made a terrible mistake.

An argument that is normally advanced against universal language requirements holds that only 8% of U.S. colleges and universities force students to take a foreign language, and that, if Wilkes wants to be competitive, it must nuke foreign languages from its "must do" list. What many people forget, though, is that among the colleges that require students to take the second language are schools like the University of Chicago, Northwestern University, Harvard University, the University of Virginia Stanford University, Yale University and American University Certainly these are not names to be ignored. So, shouldn't Wilks be more concerned with following the example of these bigger name schools than with the example of Luzerne County Community College and King's College?

To be fair, though, arguments in favor of the universal la guage requirement do not fare much better. One argument typ cally advanced in favor of language courses is that students won have enough exposure to other cultures unless they have intermediate-level knowledge of a foreign language. However, many cases, students come to Wilkes with a solid background French, German, Italian, Spanish or Russian. A glance through results of the competency tests administered during orientation enough to demonstrate this. Should these students, then, be force to take foreign language courses? Furthermore, if you merely la around, you can see that there are a plurality of cultures on the campus. If the mere act of attending Wilkes isn't exposure to other cultures, I'm not sure what is.

The fact that counter-arguments can be raised to the count arguments presented here is not being disputed. What is ur consideration, however, is the following question: when the vote came down in last Thursday's faculty meeting, were the arguments truly considered? Can we ever be sure that the form languages vote wasn't another example of the majority beating on the minority?

The study of foreign languages extends a student's range knowledge and expression in significant ways, providing acc to materials and cultures that might otherwise be out of re Those students considering graduate school should realize they will need competency in a second and, sometimes, at language to satisfy the advanced degree requirements. T preparing for a job in the workplace should know that, accord to Forbes magazine, if you speak only English, you will miso on 80% of all business transactions over the next quarter-century Finally, if you are a military person, having competency foreign language is as essential as having your shoes shineder

While no one can reverse the consequences of last Thursd vote, we can discuss them at length. Maybe the elimination of universal foreign language requirement will make Wilkes m competitive and will better prepare students for the requirement of the 21st century. Then again, maybe it won't.

JENNIFER JAME acon Staff Writer

Clarinetist Robert formed Monday night A as part of the Wilkes sity Concert and Lectur s. He played piece ulnec, Weber, Horo nderecki, Schuman odman. Pianist N loquin was Olivia's acc hist for the concert.

Olivia began studying c. t at the age of 5 with er. He later studied v er clarinetists, most nota ward Green, Willi sbarro and Bob Wilber. rently studies privately w mas Martin, Assistant Pr

omedia

PATTY PUERLING

con Features Editor

Where were you on Satu night at 9 p.m.? Those who were not in the SU ed an excellent comedia Bloom from New Yor gave a great performance Bloom's humor kept th ence on their toes. His ac lved character bits, anec sand lots of improvisation one of his impressions, he Bruce Springsteen doing ar ression of Scott Bloom org at McDonald's. Bloom d his performance with a a "Yank Me" medley, sloom has been seen on E's "Evening at the oov", MTV's "Half-Hour edy Hour" and VH-1's d-Up Spotlight." He is vactive on the New York comedy club circuit. He headlined at Catch A Ris-Mar, Dangerfield's and The visation.

ent Vind

ller

nove the universal re curriculum. Fo ch to be desired. As neasiness is that I'm by both sides were If the former is true, ly. However, if the ible mistake.

d against universal f U.S. colleges and inguage, and that, if e foreign languages rget, though, is that to take the second chicago, Northwestversity of Virginia, merican University. o, shouldn't Wilkes ple of these bigger ne County Commuof the universal lan-One argument typis that students won't nless they have an nguage. However, in solid background in A glance through the during orientation is lents, then, be forced e, if you merely look y of cultures on this n't exposure to other aised to the counterited. What is under stion: when the final meeting, were these sure that the foreign majority beating up a student's range of ys, providing access ise be out of reach. should realize that sometimes, a third quirements. Those now that, according sh, you will miss out ext quarter-century. ig competency in a r shoes shined every es of last Thursday's ne elimination of the make Wilkes more for the requirements

FEATURES

azz clarinetist dazzles the C.P.A.

ENNIFER JAMES

on Staff Writer

larinetist Robert Olivia med Monday night in the Aspart of the Wilkes UniwConcert and Lecture Se-He played pieces by ec, Weber, Horovitz, erecki, Schuman and lman. Pianist Marc uin was Olivia's accomt for the concert.

Nivia began studying clarithe age of 5 with his er. He later studied with erclarinetists, most notably ard Green, William arro and Bob Wilber. He tly studies privately with mas Martin, Assistant Prin-

Symphony Orchestra. Olivia received his undergraduate degree in music education from School of Music.

cipal Clarinetist of the Boston Wilkes College and his master's dergraduate degree from Bosdegree from the Manhattan ton University and, like Olivia, received his master's from Peloquin received his un- Manhattan. He is presently completing his doctorate at Manhattan.

along with Olivia, Peloquin, offered a spectacular show, dazzling the audience with his flawless musicianship.

Olivia and Peloquin will make their Carnegie Recital Hall debut on April 3. The Wilkes University Department of Music, Theatre, and Dance will sponsor a bus trip to the performance. For more information contact the music department at extension 4420.

lomedian blooms in the SUB

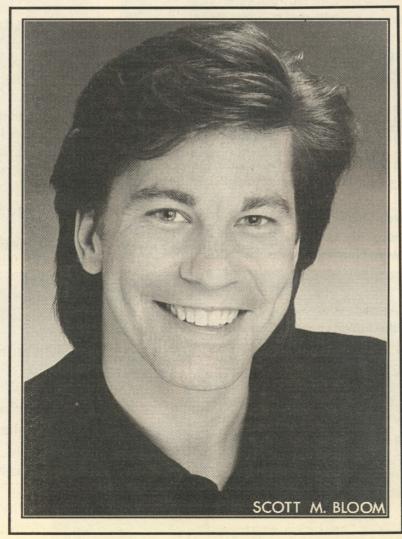

PATTY PUERLING

on Features Editor

Where were you on Saturhight at 9 p.m.? Those of who were not in the SUB ed an excellent comedian. Bloom from New York gave a great performance. Bloom's humor kept the hence on their toes. His act lved character bits, anecand lots of improvisation. one of his impressions, he Bruce Springsteen doing an ression of Scott Bloom orng at McDonald's. Bloom d his performance with a a "Yank Me" medley, Bloom has been seen on E's "Evening at the mov", MTV's "Half-Hour nedy Hour" and VH-1's nd-Up Spotlight." He is nactive on the New York romedy club circuit. He headlined at Catch A Ris-Nar, Dangerfield's and The rovisation.

UP & COMING ALBUMS

Release Date: February 16th POISON, Native Tongue-

The music on their new album, which follows the tripleplatinum-plus Flesh and Blood album, is powerful, urgent and fierce. This album marks the debut of Poison's new guitarist, Richie Kotzen.

Release Date: February 23rd

DURAN DURAN, Duran Duran- Duran is back with an unbelievable new album featuring their top 10 hit single, "Ordinary World." Look for a summer tour.

LOW POP SUICIDE, On the Cross of Commerce-This is Low Pop's first full length release since their 1992 Disengagement EP.

SCHOOL OF FISH, Human Cannonball- Human Cannonball further showcases the uncanny knack for combining pop hooks with a grungy, neopsychedelic edge that the SOF boys have made their trademark sound.

SNEAK PREVIEW:

Be sure to look for BUTTHOLE SURFERS, JOE COCKER and more!!

Letters from Wyoming

BY ANDY GULDEN

Co-Copy Editor

As the Grammy Awards approach it is interesting to note the abundance of music awards shows on television. We have the International Rock Awards, the Billboard Awards, the Country Music Awards and a new show you may not yet be aware of, the Andy Awards. This new show, which will be broadcast on the Weather Channel at 2:15 a.m. on April 31, will be hosted by Zsa Zsa Gabor and will feature a plethora of categories which are a bit off the beaten path. Here are the nominees...

The Used-to-Be-Good Award: This trophy will be given to the artist or band who was, at one time, on the cutting edge of rock 'n' roll but, for some reason, has abandoned its role as trend-setter and followed the pop music herd. This year, we nominate: Genesis, U2, Eric Clapton and the Black Crowes. If one were to place a wager on this award, Genesis would be a safe bet. Once at the forefront of progressive rock, Phil, Mike and Tony are now writing ballads which would make Michael Bolton cringe.

The Biggest Bell-Bottoms Award: This one could be a toss-up between Tori Amos and Chris Robinson (Black Crowes), with En Vogue running a distant third. However, when doling out this trophy, we must consider the musical talent of the individual in question. Amos is blessed with enough talent to make it easy to overlook her warped sense of fashion. Robinson, however, is an elitist whiner who is on the downside of a brief career. He wins hands down.

The If-I-Had-A-Gun Award: The closest competition of the night should happen here. Michael Bolton, Garth Brooks and Billy Ray Cyrus are so evenly hated among voters (namely, myself) that it's impossible to predict a winner at this time.

The Lifetime Achievement in Drugs Award: There is no competition in this category, so no nominations were taken. Congratulations go out to Keith Richards.

The Most Incomprehensible Video Award: Metal has provided us with some of the most intelligent music of the nineties. However, the nominees in this category have had difficulty converting their words to images. Metallica's "The Unforgiven" and Guns N' Roses' "Don't Cry' are honorable mentions, but the easy winner will be "November Rain." How the hell does that girl

The Hypocrite of the Year Award: Sinead O'Connor will look good regardless of the winner of this trophy. In one corner we have Madonna, who proved her innocence and virtue by ridiculing O'Connor's lack of faith in the Catholic Church. In the other corner we have the crowd at the Bob Dylan tribute concert, who did the same, despite the fact that they were gathered to honor the original protest singer. I pick the crowd. Who says the fans don't matter?

The Most Depressing Song Award: Every country song written in the last year is nominated for this one. However, the winner is Eric Clapton for "Tears in Heaven." I'm sorry that your son died, but did you have to make the rest of us feel suicidal, too?

The Song that Offended the Greatest Number of Ignorant People Award: It's a two-way battle between Ice-T ("Cop Killer") and King Missile ("Detachable Penis") for this one. However, Ice-T gets the nod because his song actually means something.

The Poser Award: This is a two-man race between Bono and Garth Brooks. However, since Bono did, at one time, have something resembling talent, the nod goes to Brooks, the biggest joke since the Beach Boys.

The If-I-Have-to-Hear-That-Song-One-More-Time Award: This is between "End of the Road" by Boyz II Men and "I Will Always Love You (For the Rest of My Life Until I Get Hit by a Truck)" by Whitney Houston. Between the two of them, they were Number One on the charts for 4,000 straight weeks. However, the odds are with Houston, whose song accompanied an equally inane movie.

The Person-or-People-You'll-Never-Hear-From-Again Award: Kris Kross, House of Pain, Spin Doctors and Billy Ray Cyrus are certainly deserving of this honor. However, the winner will be Marky Mark, who finally ran out of songs to copy. Did you even know he released a second album?

Sexiest Female Artist: Mariah Carey. Any questions?

The Dumbest Song Award: The battle for this coveted statuette is between five "artists" who share an equal chance of taking home the award. Tom Cochrane's "Life Is a Highway" is the most cliche-ridden song in years. The Heights' "How Do You Talk to an Angel" stayed on the charts longer than the show stayed on the air. Def Leppard's "Make Love Like a Man" confirmed everyone's suspicions that Joe Elliott is, indeed, a male. "I Love You Period" proves that Dan Baird should never have left Georgia Satellites. "Baby Got Back" by Sir Mix-a-Lot talked about butts. What a high concept that is.

The winner, however, will be Billy Ray Cyrus' "Achy Breaky Heart." Just for bringing country back to the charts, Cyrus deserves this very special award. We wish him the best of luck in his career as a Chippendale's dancer.

WCLH-FM Top 35 Feb. 9 to Feb.14

- 1. Nirvana
- 2. King Missile
- 3. Ned's Atomic Dustbin
- 4. Lemonheads
- 5. Faith No More
- 6. The The
- Screaming Trees
- 8. Jesus Jones
- 9. Ministry
- 10. Simple Minds
- 11. Ween
- 12. Erasure
- 13. Matthew Sweet
- 14. Red Hot Chili Peppers
- 15. Peter Gabriel
- 16. The Smiths
- 17. Dinosaur Jr
- 18. Phish
- 19. Henry Rollins
- 20. Arrested Development
- 21. Sunscreem
- 22. Soul Asylum
- 23. Quicksand
- 24. Messiah

- 25. B-52's
- 26. Alice In Chains
- 27. Shonen Knife
- 28. School of Fish
- 29. Annie Lennox
- 30. Pearl Jam
- 31. Mother Love Bone
- 32. Stone Temple Pilots
- 33. Neneh Cherry
- 34. Belly
- 35. Silverfish

Adventure Picks

- 1. Living Colour Stain
- 2. The Spirit Valentine-Shower of Sparks
- 3. Clannad Fuaim

Compiled by Andy Gulde Music Director at WCLH

Top 10 Ways to Kill Michael Bolton

- 10. Put Nair in his shampoo bottle
- 9. String him up by his own vocal cords
- 8. Sign him up for the Chia Pet Hair Club for Men
- 7. Let him walk around Public Square for five minutes
- 6. Give him false eyelashes and a pair of high heels, and him to San Francisco in a neon pink and green Volkswi
- 5. Let him choke on a hairball of his own creation
- 4. Play "Time, Love, and Tenderness" over and over a until his eardrums bleed
- 3. Make him write his own songs
- 2. Throw him into a horny, acid-abusing group of "Bo Hills, 90210" fans
- 1. "Forget" to make the Michael Bolton doll anatomical

Contributed by: Jenna Porpiglia and Marisa Rae

14

2's ce In Chains nen Knife ool of Fish nie Lennox rl Jam ther Love Bone ne Temple Pilots neh Cherry

enture Picks

verfish

ng Colour - Stain Spirit Valentine - A wer of Sparks nnad - Fuaim

led by Andy Gulden Director at WCLH

to Kill olton

rds Club for Men e for five minutes of high heels, and send and green Volkswagen own creation " over and over again

ing group of "Beverly on doll anatomically

larisa Rae

WINTER WONDERLAND

•Enjoy helping others? LITERACY

•Have a few extra hours or some spare time?

•Like working with and meeting new people? •Need work experience or a resume resource?

•Need service hours for a class or course?

•Want to know if you're making the right career choice?

•Possess special skills you would like to share with

•Need a service project for your club, class or organization?

If you answered yes to one or more of the above questions, then.... Student Community Service is for you! Contact the Educational Dept. & Wilkes University's PA Literacy Corps at 831-4680 or 831-4687 for more information.

Volunteer To Tutor

Loaded with Gazar Bacon, ground beef, mozzarella and cheddar cheeses.

CALL US! 829-2900 154 S. Pennsylvania Ave. CA Hours: 11AM-1AM Sun.-Thurs. 11AM-3AM Fri. & Sat, OAM FRI & SAT.

SPORTS

Better luck next season for Colonel Men in basketball

By TOM McNALLY Beacon Sports Writer

The Wilkes University 12 seconds left. men's basketball team watched FDU- Madison.

sey Devils, 70-50, in their first Madison a 54-53 upset victory. meeting this season, the Colo-fense that set the tempo for a on Wednesday. low-scoring affair. Wilkes led fouls, the opposing team is the tone for tough MAC play. awarded free throws on a oneand-one basis.

forgot to count an earlier techni- mittee as well. cal foul as a team foul, which is nels retained possession.

a point (53-52), John Harlan re- Scranton." corded his only steal of the game leading free throw shooter (87%) probably have the strength ad-Jay Turman, who was fouled with vantage on the blocks with Joe any chance of a regular season their one-and-one opportunity. key to the ball game. "We're Middle Atlantic Conference title Turman missed the front end, and not getting the ball inside vanish before their very eyes the Jersey Devils raced the ball enough. We're getting the same Monday night as they dropped upcourt. FDU's Kevin Conway effort from the big guys. only their second league game took the ball strongly to the bas- They're just not getting the in nine attempts on the road at ket, where he was fouled in the opportunities," said Rickrode. act of shooting. Conway made After defeating the Jer- both free throws to give FDU- come in the Wilkes-Scranton nels were a heavy favorite as Colonels to 7-2 in the MAC and Dates, times and match-ups they travelled to the shoe-box 15-7 overall, while securing a have yet to be determined, but style gymnasium in Madison, MAC regular season title for itappears as if Wilkes will travel Scranton University, who will to Susquehanna University, The one-time run-and- make their first appearance at the while Scranton will host gun Devils used a deliberate of- Henry Gymnasium this season Elizabethtown College.

The Colonels are the at the intermission 26-22, but a cause of the only blemish on Discoring blunder and missed free vision III's number one ranked throws late in the game proved team. Scranton comes into the to be too much for the Colonels. game with a 21-1 record, having With 1:30 left to play lost only to Wilkes in the Laurel in the game, FDU committed Line Tournament. Scranton what appeared to be their sev- avenged the early season loss as enth team foul. After seven team they beat Wilkes handily to set

Wednesday will be the "rubber match" between these According to the FDU- two explosive rivals. A Wilkes Madison scorebook, the Jersey victory not only gives them area Devils had only committed six bragging rights but may catch the team fouls. Apparently, they eye of the NCAA selection com-

First year head coach a new rule change this year. Jerry Rickrode remains optimis-Without a Wilkes scorekeeper tic about his team's chances on the trip there was no proof to against Scranton. "We're 1-1 say otherwise. So, no free throws against the best Division III team were attempted, and the Colo- I've seen in a long time, and we have yet to play them at home," With 20 seconds re- said Rickrode. "We may be the maining and Wilkes leading by only MAC team able to beat and got the ball to teammate and up well with the Royals and Natale and Chris Patackis. The Colonels now had Rickrode sees the low post as a showdown, the Colonels are The loss dropped the assured a MAC playoff birth. We need writers!

The Colonels match

Whatever the out-

For our Sports, News, and Features sections of The Beacon, Your student newspaper!

Chinchar named Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference Player of the Week

Left to Right -- Patsy McHale, Holiday Inn; Missie Chinchar; Karen Haag, Women's coach; Richard Draus, Holiday Inn

Wilkes University women's basketball player Missie Chinchar was recently presented with a plaque in recognition of her being named the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) / Holiday Inn Division III Player of the Week on January 9th of this year. Chinchar was selected after averaging over 20 points and eight rebounds a game in the King's College Lady Monard tourney which the Lady Colonels won.

The ECAC selects the Player of the Week from nominations submitted by member school while the Holiday Inn is sponsor of the award.

Chinchar is pictured receiving her award from Ms. Patsy McHale and Mr. Richard Drausd the Wilkes-Barre Holiday Inn and Wilkes Coach Karen Haag.

Bo

"To err is hun That quote sh across the globe. S yes, even the offic And yes, even spo

THE BEACON

The whole con has gone too far. television stations possible angle. Ho ed, so therefore di the foul on the Per

Needless to sa still complaining al won the game in do said during the Indi have made their fou the outcome of the

But, in the Mon ciated Press out of headline reads: "Fro

If you know any things that are certain with a referee's call coaches hate offical.

The bottom line i calls will go the wa should never be in th effect the outcome o

Now, let's talk al been kind enough to Beacon announcing Saturday. The flyer i circle surrounds the l time of the game. Of pencil, is the Lady Col supposed to be a quest mistake and forget, for me did not place uestion.

First of all, have th an discuss the problem cre on campus this s coaching, I know very Third, if we were infor we would have gladly Fourth, we do not o ow it was done where all for all of our athl ome of the stuff I've b ow may be this will p Finally, am I going omen's basketball in n the men's team?

I would like to apol e players for this, but ken care of and every ill be getting the same QUAL!!!!!!!!

THE BEACON

ers!

rts.

ea-

eon.

tern

n's coach; Richard

ly presented with

nference (ECAC)

char was selected

ge Lady Monarch

member schools

Richard Draus of

Cheers & Jeers From Bob Simmons

"To err is human, to forgive is divine."

That quote should be placed in every coaches' handbook with globe. Sometimes coaches forget that their players, or seven the officals, are human and can and do make mistakes. dyes, even sports editors make a mistake every so often.

The whole controversy over the Penn State vs. Indiana game some too far. Yes, there was a foul on the play which the vision stations showed at least a million times from every shleangle. However, the offical did not see the foul commitwherefore did not call the foul. Instead, the offical called foul on the Penn State player for pushing off.

Needless to say, the press and those die-hard Lion fans are complaining about the call. The reason may be that Indiana the game in double over-time. However, like one announcer during the Indiana vs. Michigan game, "if Penn State would emade their foul shots, that call would not have any effect on outcome of the game."

But, in the Monday edition of The Times Leader, the Assod Press out of Indiana is still bringing up old bones. The line reads: "Frosh, not ref, helps Indiana nip Michigan."

I you know anything about sports, you know there are two shat are certain: the first is that one coach will be pleased referee's call and the other won't; the second is that all hes hate officals.

hebottom line is that referees miss some calls and not all the will go the way you want them to go. However, a team dnever be in that close of a position to let an offical's call at the outcome of the game.

Now, let's talk about something here at home. Someone has a kind enough to leave a flyer on the office door of The on announcing the Lady Colonels' game for this past day. The flyer is gold with black lettering. A penciled-in tsurrounds the box listing the two teams playing and the of the game. Oh yes, at the bottom of the flyer, again in disthe Lady Colonels' record, "15-5," and what I think was need to be a question: "or did you forget." No, I did not make take and forget, even though the kind person who left this edd not place the correct punctuation mark after the ntofall, have the guts to leave your name next time so we was the problem like two adults. Second, since I am not meampus this semester because of student teaching and ng, I know very little of what's going on here at Wilkes. If we were informed that there was a game here Saturday, old have gladly run an announcement about it.

mh, we do not discriminate here at The Beacon. If that is wasdone wherever you came from, I'm sorry, but here we ral of our athletic teams, not just the men's athletics. of the stuff I've been hearing is absolutely riddiculus and wy be this will put an end to it all.

lly, am I going crazy or has there been an article on sbasketball in the last few issues of the paper and none uld like to apologize to the men's coaching staff and to ers for this, but it is out of my hands. However, it is all nof and everyone, men's and women's athletic teams, etting the same coverage they have gotten in the past—

WINTER RECESS

Break Begins Fri., February 19, 1993 5:00 PM

Residence Halls Open

Tues., February 23, 1993 12:00 Noon

Classes Resume

Wed., February 24, 1993 8:00 AM

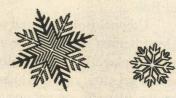

Also...

Don't Forget

February 26, 27, and 28

Get In On The Fun!

EUND RAISER

All it takes is a small group with a little energy and a lot of excitement to earn $500-$1500 in just one week! Call 800-592-2121 X313

EXPERIENCE!!

Individuals and Student Organizations wanted to promote SPRING BREAK, call the nation's leader. Inter-Campus Programs 1-800-327-6013.

$$$$, FREE TRAVEL & RESUME

Chess Club Students and Faculty Women and Men All levels of chess playing Contact Paul at 825-4405 after 6:00.

NO Income Requirements NO GPA Requirements NO Age Requirements Money Back Guarantee Write Now For Information: Educational Finance Services

College Money Guaranteed

*Financial Aid *Scholarships *Grants

P.O. Box 931

Pittston, PA 18640-0931

AIR FORCE ROTC UNITS FILLED TO CAPACITY

NOT!

Don't believe everything you hear. The Air Force continues to seek outstanding students to fill future officer requirements. See yourself becoming a leader, graduating from college as an Air Force officer with fully developed qualities of character and managerial ability. Notice, too, the opportunities. Like eligibility for scholarship programs that can pay tuition, textbooks, fees...even $100 in tax-free income each academic month.

Visualize a crisp uniform that reflects pride in yourself and your ability to accept challenge. Get the picture? Now make a call! (829-0194)

AIM HIGH--AIR FORCE

SUMMER CAMP JOBS

General Counselors. Waterfront Director with LG and WSL certification. Lifeguards with LG certification. Maintenance. Six week session June 28th through August 7th. Camp Louise is located 20 min. from Bloomsburg, PA. Sponsored by the Penn's Woods Girl Scout Council. Call (717) 759-8236 for an application. EEO/AA Employer.

Tomorrow Let's Meet At The WOODLANDS

for

5-DAY

WILKES UNIVERSITY Tradition.....

ACTION ALL NIGHT LONG.

5p.m. - 8p.m. - 5-DAY with KARAOKE 8p.m. - 2a.m. - 25th HOUR DANCE PARTY with Q-102.

FRIDAY THE BIGGEST NIGHT OF THE WEEK!!

PROPER ID A MUST/DON'T DRINK AND DRIVE

SPORTS

The Man with the Wilkes spirit has the right stuff!!

By BILL PHILLIPS Beacon Staff Writer

This year, students, faculty, parents, and especially children are flocking to Wilkes' sporting events. What is so different from past years? In addition to strong, winning teams, the Wilkes Colonels have a slight advantage over opponents: Colonel Bob.

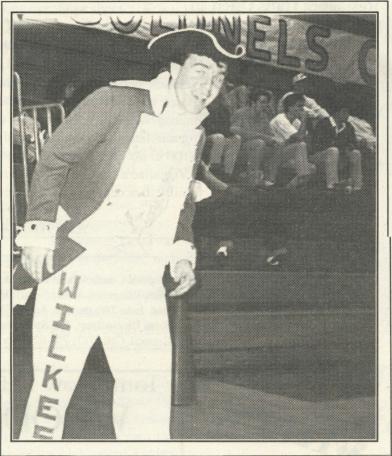

Colonel Bob is the Wilkes University mascot. Bob Wachowski received a bachelor's degree in computer science in 1989 and now is pursuing a bachelor's degree in secondary education in mathematics. A native of Fort Washington, Maryland, Colonel Bob attended Friendly High School in Friendly, Maryland, where he was Friendly High School's mascot, the Patriot.

"Aman I use to call 'Dave the umpire' and Matt Rosemary helped me get started as a mascot. A good friend, John Comesar, picked me up when the going was tough," said Colonel Bob.

Colonel Bob leads the crowd in cheers, participates on the cheerleading squad, rides a go-cart at football games, organizes pep rallies, Homecoming game, I was slam dunks a basketball while riding an eight-foot unicycle and rides a skateboard.

Bob works very hard at getting the crowd into the game and entertaining the fans. At this year's Homecoming football game, he rode high on horseback at halftime.

"The small unicycle was a family Christmas gift when I was ten years old. Six years ago, I bought the eight-foot unicycle," stated Bob.

Colonel Bob at his best.

His job is not all glory, however. He works hard at cheerleading practice, promotes sporting events around campus by distributing flyers and even climbs a tree to display a brightly colored advertisement for the next Wilkes game.

"Two weeks before the thrown from the horse while practicing for the game and sprained ligaments in my knee," Colonel Bob noted.

Colonel Bob amuses fans with a plethora of lively

"I got my cheers from junior high school kids. A 12-year-old girl gave me my 'time out' cheer at a football game. Kristin McNally gave me the 'Lean, Lean, Lean' cheer," Bob commented.

Bob volunteers his time and effort to Wilkes University. "I have a lot of respect for the athletes and coaches. They are By RAY MONZON very dedicated, and the fans are Beacon Staff Writer really appreciative," stated Colonel Bob.

to lead the men's basketball team Saturday in the Coppin State through playoffs. "Hopefully, Duals and raised their record to we can get some vans and buses 13-8, securing another winning for the playoffs. If anyone is season for the grapplers. interested in the trip, please contact me," added Bob.

thank everyone for all their sup- (38-9), Coppin State College porit.

parents have supplied food for the first-place trophy home to me at the away games. Every- Wilkes. one at all the games has been great," said Colonel Bob.

doubt, Wilkes University's big- with three wins each. Other gest fan.

Lady Colonels optimistic about season playoffs

By DAVE McCABE Beacon Staff Writer

The Wilkes University Lady Colonels kept their playoff hopes alive Sunday with an 80-48 clubbing of Middle Atlantic Conference Northwest (MAC NW) foe Juniata College.

Coach Karen Haag called the victory a "huge win."

Coach Haag thought defense and rebounding were the key elements for the Lady Colonels. The Lady Colonels held the Juniata Indians to just 27 percent from the field, and outrebounded them 59-43.

Senior Missie Chinchar freshman Lee Ann Azarewicz controlled the boards, with 19 and 10 respectively.

The Lady Colonels also held All-American candidate Annette Hoffman to 18 points, 13 below her average.

Azarewicz and fresh Michelle Shaffer held Hoffe to just 5 of 23 shots.

Again, it was Chin leading the way with 29 po for the Colonels.

Senior Coleen McG also had a big night with while junior Stacey Boyers Azarewiczhad 10 apiece. Fr man Jamie Land just m doubles with nine points.

The Lady Colonels win their last two games to three-way tie Elizabethtown College Juniata for second place. A off would then be held tod who gets the remaining

The Elizabethtown was to be held Tuesday but was postponed until evening due to the weather

The Lady Colonel on Messiah College tonight game is away.

Grapplers keep winning competition

The Wilkes University Colonel Bob is geared up wrestling team competed last

The Colonels won the eight-team tournament by de-Colonel Bob would like to feating Delaware State College (39-9) and Mansfield Univer-"The women's basketball sity (28-9) in the finals to bring

Having outstanding performances for Wilkes were Colonel Bob is, without a Erick Feese and Heith Fleisher winners for the Colonels were Brady Taylor, Chris Rid John Klesinger, Barry Scoten, Dave Fantini, Miller, Mike Evans, Monzon, George Gur Aaron Wurster and Tufankijian.

Mike Evans contin rank second in the Easter tercollegiate Wrestling ciation with a record of Heith "Pin King" is one pin away from ty school's single seasond pin record (10 pins) and sights set on the singles record of 14.

The grapplers return from their long road tript Syracuse University day at 2 p.m. in the Ma

Volume Februar

Riva

Beacon Star

can rememb continual 1 Wilkes Univ College. Wh top spot, both stantly battli and athletics, this year wil blood.

A trop the First Easte to the school most blood. K competed for the next two ye each time, and stopped in 199 to lack of inter

This ye competition ha by the schools to donors.

Wilkes of the competit blood drive of t March 4 in the from 10 a.m. to

By Lynn Krut Co-Copy Editor

Severa Wilkes students cold weather thi an annual tradit not a meeti Susquehanna Riv Club, nor is it King's annual sn What it is, is Win

Festivitie Friday night wh meet in the Marts for the opening c this battle of all 1 team, comprised of and ten males, wil week-end for the ing crowned Wint