Flappers to Make Scene At "Roaring Twenties" Dance This Evening

by Cynthia Hagley

The gay, carefree "20's" are here! Tonight's Jaycee dance will feature all uninhibited flappers. All those who wish to join the happy group can dress to fit the occasion.

As for music, the Blue Notes will play in the style of the "20's," while dance fans will have the opportunity to compete in a Charleston contest.

Decorations in the gymnasium will follow the mode. Jaycee members and their assistant workers at the dance will be in the costume of the period.

Refreshments for the evening will go along with the era. Root beer especially brewed, rumor hath it in the basement of Chase Hall, will be sold at the dance. The vendors will serve potato chips and pretzels on push carts and will circulate throughout the gym. Students are requested to bring their own mugs.

Because of the "prohibition era," no "weapons and flasks" will be allowed in the gym proper and must be checked at the door. The management of the dance does not guarantee those in attendance freedom from "raids."

Admission price is 50 cents with activities continuing from 9 to 12 p.m. All dormitory students who will be attending Wilkes next semester are invited to be the guests of the Jaycees at this dance.

Castle Scene to Greet Couples Attending Cinderella Ball

by Ralph Price

The decorations for next Friday's Cinderella Ball promise to be exceedingly elaborate, and the decorations committee is working very hard to make them a success. Al Kishel, the sophomore class president, is the chairman of the committee. This committee will hold a mass meeting at noon on Wednesday in Stark 116 to organize workers in helping with decorations. Everyone interested in lending a hand is urged to attend.

The decorations committee for the ball is using blue and white as the dominant theme. Much work has been done on this theme and the accompanying effects by Mrs. Joseph Miller of West Pittston. Mrs. Miller has had a great deal of experience in this type of work, and the committee members are very grateful to her for her aid.

Medieval Castle

Guests will pass through a beautiful garden as they move through the lobby toward the gym, which will be transformed into a medieval castle, complete with stone walls and pillars.

The couples will find themselves walking on a carpet of grass, and they will enter the "castle" by walking down an aisle enclosed by gold cord. The interior of the gym will be decked with blue. Blue netting and twinkle lights will hang between the pillars, giving an effect of a starlit sky. A huge chandelier will top off the overhead decorations, while swords and shields will complete the castle effect. Nestled in the middle of Jack Melton's bandstand will be Cinderella's throne. A crown representing Cinderella will be suspended above the throne. Leading up to the throne will be a regal, blue carpet.

Revelation at Midnight

Cinderella was elected in an all-class general election yesterday, but the glass slipper will not be placed on the foot of the chosen one until midnight Friday. Prior to the naming of Cinderella, the candidates will be escorted to the throne by their dates. While this is taking place, a background on each candidate will be read.

The one who is chosen will receive a transistor radio; she and her attendants will each receive a silver bracelet. On the receiving line for Cinderella will be chaperones, Dr. Reif and Mr. Ralston, Dick Salus, Gordon Roberts, and John Hosage.

The Biology Club will be in charge of the refreshments at the affair. This concession was awarded to the Biology Club by a drawing.

There are 320 tickets available for the ball. Each class president will get 40 tickets to sell, and each Student Government member will be responsible for ten. Corsages can be bought Thursday afternoon in the Bookstore at reduced prices, which were obtained by special arrangements. Tuxedos can be rented at John B. Stetz, 9 East Market Street, or at David Baum's Sons, 198 S. Washington Street, at prices ranging from five to six dollars.

Radio Club Awaits Arrival of License

Results of the recent election in the Amateur Radio Club are as follows: president, Albert Kishel; vice-president, Herbert Kline; secretary, John Biga; treasurer, Kenneth Krupinski.

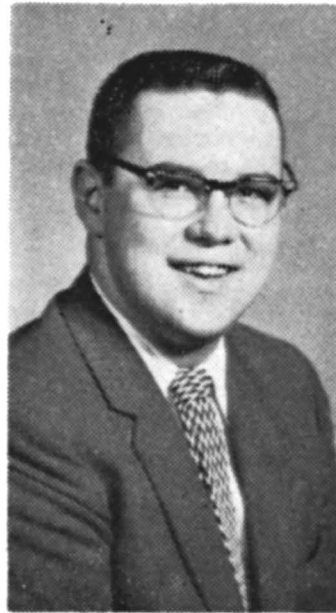

The club has sent to the Federal Communications Commission for an amateur radio license. This should arrive within the next two or three weeks, and the station will be set up on campus.

At this time seven people are studying for their amateur licenses, in connection with a training program sponsored by the club. Code practice sessions are held after every meeting. These people will take their tests within the next week.

The Administration has given the club its support and made arrangements for the club to have quarters of its own next semester.

BOOKSTORE NOTICE

All special accounts at the Bookstore will close on Friday, May 13, at 5 p.m.

Three Research Grants Received by College; Two for Undergrads

by Jean Shofranko

Three new research grants, made to members of the biology department by the National Science Foundation, will launch new projects in the research program of the College.

Two of the grants provide expressly for undergraduate participation, the first time a granting agency has made funds available for this specific purpose at the College. The third will implement research, under the direction of Dr. Charles B. Reif, chairman of the biology department.

The undergraduate grants made by the Division for Special Projects in Science Education, will provide for one two-year $4850 project and one $300 project. The former will be directed by Dr. Reif and will involve lake studies, determining the chemical conditions necessary for biological productivity.

The second grant affording student opportunity for special research will be conducted by Dr. Francis J. Michelini, also of the biology department, and will be an evaluation of the possibilities of using histochemical tests as aids in cancer diagnosis.

Dr. Reif will also direct research "into the chemical differences between organisms in which chlorophyll is implicit and organisms dependent upon them."

Soph Car Wash

Jules Heller and Bob Conway announced Wednesday that final arrangements for the sophomore class car wash project are complete. The site of the project is Arnold's Service Station, opposite the Post Office on West South Street.

With Spring Weekend beginning next Friday, the sophs jumped on the chance to give everyone a break in the preparations for the three-day festivities. They hope to relieve the pressure of fixing up by taking care of every car on campus.

For $1, the sophomores will wash any car from 8 o'clock in the morning until 5 p.m.

Weekend Plans Set; Campus Organizations Take Part in Carnival

by Mary Frances Barone

The Cinderella Ball, a carnival, and an All-College outing will be the highlights of one of the most complete spring weekends the college has ever known. James Stephens and Doris Gademan, co-chairmen of the annual affair, and the School Spirit Committee have made plans to make it a memorable occasion.

The initial event for the weekend will be a punch party sponsored by TDR at the Commons from one to three o'clock Friday afternoon.

"Cindy Ball"

The Cinderella Ball will be held in the gym from nine to one o'clock Friday. At midnight Cinderella will be crowned Queen of the Ball. Co-chairmen are Dick Salus and John Hosage.

Carnival

A water ballet, under the direction of Cynthia Dysleski, will be presented at two o'clock Saturday afternoon in Meyers High School girls' swimming pool.

On Saturday evening a carnival will be held in Parrish Hall parking lot. All campus organizations are invited to set up booths at the carnival. The proceeds will go to the organizations sponsoring the booths. Refreshments and continuous dancing will be available. Two bands, Jack Melton and a group of Wilkes students, will provide the music for dancing.

In the event of inclement weather the carnival will be held in Chapman and McClintock Halls.

The final phase of the Spring Weekend will be the All-College outing at Wolfe's Grove. The outing will be on Sunday, May 15, from 1 to 9 p.m. Wolfe's Grove has facilities for roller skating, dancing, baseball, and picknicking. The park is also equipped with a sheltered pavilion which can be used in the event of rain.

Jay Keller, chairman of the outing, is planning to conduct a car caravan to the Grove which will leave Wilkes at about 12:15 p.m.

The committee for Spring Weekend is also preparing notices to be distributed next week describing the events of the weekend and containing a map of directions to Wolfe's Grove.

TDR Installs Officers At Wednesday's Banquet

by Gloria Zaludek

The installation of new officers for Theta Delta Rho will take place Wednesday evening, May 18 at 7 p.m., during a banquet at the Europa Lounge.

Newly-elected officers for the sorority are: president, Carol Thomas; vice-president, Nancy Tinklepaugh; secretary, Bianca Moscatto; treasurer, Leona Baiera. In addition to the installation of officers, TDR will present bracelets to its senior members.

Entertainment for the affair will be a reading by Mary Frances Swigert, a senior English major from Forty Fort. Ruth Ann Borom has provided the publicity and Betsy Tubridy is in charge of invitations.

Reservations for the banquet can be made by contacting Carol Thomas, Anne Curley, or Pat Riviello. Those attending may choose a full course dinner of either lobster tail for $3.30, or roast turkey for $2.75.

Ex-Athlete Injured

It was with shock that we learned of the jet plane accident to Lt. Neil Dadurka, Wilkes '57, in California on Wednesday. The Beacon received confirmation yesterday of the critical nature of Lt. Dadurka's injuries. He was injured in a crash near Los Angeles on a routine flight from the U. S. Marine air base at El Toro. One leg was amputated and he is still listed in serious condition.

Mary Homan, Wilkes senior, is in California now to be near her fiance. The couple had planned a June wedding.

Sports fans at Wilkes will remember Dadurka as one of the outstanding Colonel football players and the heavyweight wrestler on the first Middle Atlantic championship team for John Reese. He was president of his senior class and was an honored member of the list of Beacon "Athletes of the Week."

We join his friends on the campus, his family, and his fellow pilots in wishing him a speedy recovery. As a Wilkes athlete, he was accustomed to come-from-behind battles and his efforts frequently saved the day for the Colonels. We are sure that his playing-field courage will be a vital factor in this, the greatest battle of his life.

A Job Well Done

We are awaiting the final financial report from the junior class Armstrong jazz concert, but all indications are that the project was a resounding success at the box office. That the affair was otherwise a success goes without saying. We have heard glowing reports from people we never expected to see at a jazz concert in addition to the expected praise from longtime Satchmo fans.

When the juniors' president, Gil Davis, first asked our support for this project in the Beacon offices late last year, we lauded his ambition and offered the opinion that he couldn't possibly have picked a better drawing-card to break the "big-name barrier" at Wilkes. We felt certain that he and his class could do the job, but we expressed grave doubts that a profit would be realized in excess of $150-200.

It is apparent that when the final figures are known we will have to "eat crow," for it looks like our cautious estimate will be nearly doubled. This is of no consequences to anyone but the juniors, however. The important thing is that a long-argued project has been attempted at last. We feel that the day of big name bands for formal dance affairs is far in the future, but the class of '61 has proved that big-name entertainment is not only possible, but profitable.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"NOW, LESSEE~WHOSE TURN TO GIVE THE NEXT SPEECH?"

Letters To The Editor:

Dear Sir:

In order to clear up any misconceptions that might exist in the minds of Wilkes College students, we wish to record our common agreement on certain matters of principle and procedure. Although there has appeared to be serious differences of opinion among us, we find ourselves to be in basic harmony in regard to the essential problems and challenges now faced by the Student Government. In fact, we solicit the interest and cooperation of all members of the student body in attempting to correct any weaknesses which may now hamper the further effectiveness of student self-government at Wilkes College.

All of us believe sincerely in the Student Government and the Court of Appeals, and we feel that both agencies have served the student body well. We also support both the action of the Court and of the Government in the recent I.C.G. case. We are convinced that a serious violation of the law did take place in regard to the chaperon requirement, and we are disturbed that unforeseen difficulties made it impossible for the Student Government to exercise its proper and desired function of protecting the interests of all Wilkes College students. We feel that this inability to exercise its constituted authority can not and should not be interpreted as any reflection on the integrity or ability of present Government members. If any ambiguities or loopholes exist in the law, every member of the Wilkes College community bears some responsibility and everyone should be desirous of correcting this deficiency as quickly as possible.

The students of Wilkes College can have as good or as bad self-government as they wish or deserve. It is, after all, their government, and it can only function with their continued interest and support. The careful election of members of the Government is, of course important, but of much greater significance is the good citizenship and responsibility of the various leaders and organizations on campus. Their actions and attitudes can either make student government effective and productive, or they can destroy it.

Sincerely yours,
George F. Elliot
Gordon E. Roberts
Robert D. Washburn

Dear Sir:

In December the junior class voted to bring Louis Armstrong and his "All-Stars" to Wilkes for a jazz concert. With the help of the people at Wilkes, the class of '61 saw all of its hard work and initiative rewarded Saturday night when the fabulous Satchmo put on a great show before a large, enthusiastic audience.

Speaking in behalf of the junior class, we would like to thank the following:

1. The jazz concert committee and committee chairmen,
2. The Wilkes students who supported us by attending the concert,
3. The staff of the Beacon.
4. Bill Zdanczewicz and the Public Relations Office,
5. The gym crew,
6. Bill Shupert and radio station WGBI,
7. The Administration who invested their confidence in the class of '61,
8. Ray Litman and Skip Gladstone.

Armstrong and his group was a "first" for the junior class and for the College. We sincerely hope that a precedent has been established and that big name entertainment will be an annual event at Wilkes.

As soon as all financial obligations have been fulfilled, a complete report will be placed on the main bulletin board for students to peruse at their leisure.

Respectfully,
Gil Davis
Maury James

Golfers Host E. Stroud, Journey to MAC Event, Beat Mansfield State

Coach Welton Farrar's golf men entertain the linksmen from East Stroudsburg this afternoon in a match at the Irem Temple Country Club. This will be the first meeting of the two colleges on the golf links.

Monday Coach Farrar will take four men to the Middle Atlantic Tournament at Newark, Delaware. Delaware University is this year's host for the annual tourney. Wilkes will be represented by Bob Januszko, Al Stralka, Pete Perog, and John Pierce.

Defeat Mansfield

The golf team won its second match of the season when they took a 14½-3½ victory over Mansfield State on the losers' links Tuesday.

The Colonels played excellent golf all afternoon as they recorded four shutouts in the six matches.

Bob Januszko, Wilkes' number one man, led both teams with a 5-over-par 77 as he defeated his opponent, 3-0.

Pete McLaughlin was then shut out by the Mansfield player, 3-0. Al Stralka put Wilkes back on the winning track to stay with a 3-0 decision.

Pete Perog followed with a 2½-½ win. John Pierce and John Adams, two freshmen, closed out the Colonels' triumph with 3 to 0 matches.

Lose to Scranton

The Colonel golfers suffered their second loss of the season to the Scranton Royals last Thursday by the narrow margin of 10-8.

The match was tightly contested throughout the afternoon as the Colonels forged into a slight lead after nine holes, but the Scranton boys displayed a fine, all-around iron game on a golf course which played "long" to win coming home on the back nine.

Point winners for Wilkes were: Bob Januszko, 2-1; Al Stralka, 3-0; John Adams, 2½-½; and Pete McLaughlin, ½-2½.

Tuesday afternoon, May 3, the team lost its half of a tennis-baseball doubleheader to Lycoming at Williamsport by a score of 6 to 3. Himmel and Klein were the only Colonels to win the singles and the doubles team of Woll and Klein were the only Wilkes racquetmen to defeat their Warrior opponents.

Diamondmen at S.U., Seek Fourth Triumph; Lose, 5-4, to Lycoming

by George J. Tensa

The Colonel batmen will travel to Selinsgrove tomorrow to meet the Susquehanna Crusaders. It is the annual Alumni Day at Susquehanna and the Crusaders will be looking for their initial victory of the season.

The two clubs met once this season already with the Colonels coming out on top by a 5-4 score. This game took place on the Wilkes field where Jack Just twirled a beautiful relief job to preserve the Blue and Gold victory.

Last year's Alumni tilt was one of the season's most exciting games with the Crusaders edging out a 4-3 win in extra innings. Lefty Fred Fisher, who lost this year's tilt with the Colonels, will be the probable Crusader twirler and will be opposed on the mound by Gene Mathews.

On Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Upsala Vikings will be the opposition for the Colonels. The Vikings downed Wilkes, 4-2, last season and the Blue and Gold will be out to avenge the loss. Veteran pitcher George Gacha is the probable starter for the Colonels.

Gettysburg will host the Wilkes squad on Wednesday as the two squads attempt to finally meet on the baseball diamond. The last three seasons found the squads rained out in the season's opener.

Lycoming Wins

The diamondmen dropped a close 5-4 decision to Lycoming after 14 innings of hard fought baseball on Tuesday.

Both teams had their hitting shoes on as Wilkes gathered 13 hits and Lycoming 15.

Gene Mathews started on the hill and pitched 11 innings. Mike Schwefel relieved in the 12th and was charged with the loss. Wilkes led early in the game on a two-run single by George Gacha, but then failed to score until the ninth when Bobby Ontko tied the game at 3-3 with a triple.

Each team scored one run in the 11th and Lycoming added the winning marker in the 14th on a walk, steal and a single. Gacha had three hits, as did Ontko, while Paul Aquilino and Mathews had two apiece.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Bob Januszko Sparkles on Links, Posts Two Wins Over Top Men

by Jay Olexy

In recognition of his steady shooting and prolific scoring ability against two tough opponents, Bob Januszko gets the "Beacon's" nod as "Athlete of the Week." Beside gaining this award for the first time, Januszko is also the first member of the golf team to be so honored.

Bob Januszko

Bob demonstrated some beautiful shotmaking this past week by shutting out his Mansfield and Lycoming opponents by 3-0 scores. In these matches he shot rounds of 77 and 78 respectively as his booming drives and consistent iron game proved too much for his opponents. In addition he garnered two points and shot a very respectable 83 on a "heavy" Irem Temple course in last Thursday's loss to Scranton.

Januszko has come to be regarded highly in local golfing circles ever since his upset victory over Alex Sott, local amateur champion, in the Hollenback Club Championship two years ago. He went on to lose a close match to Frank Gavel, now the Hollenback professional, in the semi-final round. Bob also was third low medalist in last year's Dan Donnelly tourney at Hollenback.

The veteran swinger is in his third year of collegiate competition and will lead a contingent of four Colonels into the Middle Atlantic Conference Tourney at Newark, Delaware next week.

Bob is an alumnus of Coughlin High School and presently is a junior secondary education major in social studies.

Intramural Softball

The Rowdies emerged as league leaders in the National loop this week as they defeated Ray's Recruits in the battle of the unbeaten, 16-7. Frank Spudis pitched and batted his team to the win and Bill Schutter backed up his pitcher with a great defensive game at third base.

Last Week the Rowdies beat the Mutants, 21-4, while the Blivits topped the Fearless Fifteen, 14-4. Monday the Recruits won over the Blivits, 9-4, the Rowdies smashed the Fearless "15", and the Phonies won their first game, 5-4, over the Mutants.

The Human Beings continued to lead the American League as they registered two victories behind the strong pitching of Deebe. Deebe shut out the Demons, 15-0, then beat the Neurotics, 4-3. Don Gobic twirled a 1-hitter for the Neurotics but lost the game.

Other scores were: Gore 12, Aces 2; Ashley 9, Gore 8; Undesirables 9, Aces 4; Demons 11, Aces 10; and Undesirables 11, Ashley 9.

Dr. Chapman Contributes To 1960 Manuscript Issue

Final preparations are being made for the 1960 edition of the campus literary magazine, "The Manuscript", and it is scheduled to appear on campus on or about May 19.

This year's issue of the magazine features poetry, essays, and short stories written only by members of the student body, with two poems by this year's guest contributor, Dr. Robert Chapman.

According to the new policy of the Manuscript, each year one member of the faculty will be selected as guest contributor, while all other contributions to the magazine will be limited to the student body.

Editor Ronald Krysniewski, reported the cover of the 1960 magazine will offer a pleasant surprise to the students, as the traditional blue and white colors have been supplanted by a new bold and daring design and color scheme.

The magazine is distributed free to students and faculty members. Richard Kniffen, chairman of the distribution committee, announced the following pick-up spots: Parish Hall, Pickering, Conyngham, Stark, and the Library.

Bernard Shupp, a senior chemistry major, spoke on the topic, "A Look Into the World of Fuel Cells."

A group of about thirty-one Chemistry and Biology Club members, with Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Reif, left by bus on Thursday and returned on Sunday evening. The group listened to several interesting speakers and also took several educational tours. They visited Rockefeller Institute, Bell Telephone Company, IBM, and others.

Council Hosts Future Freshmen; Show Aspects of Campus Life

The Inter-Dormitory Council will initiate an information service today when its members play host to 53 members of next year's freshman class. The new program will introduce 28 women and 25 men to the routine of campus life over the weekend.

Retailing Club Tours Local Textile Plants

On Tuesday the newly reorganized Retailing Club toured two local textile plants, Natona Mills and Liberty Throwing Company.

Arrangements for the tours were made by Don Walton, a Junior Commerce and Finance student.

This semester, the club, under president Don Lewis and secretary Joe Hiznay, has toured Hess Bros. Department Store and has had a number of speakers and dinner meetings.

The Retailing Club has endeavored to promote those activities which provide a practical view of retailing, covering the operations of retail stores and contingent enterprises.

Volunteers Wanted

Under a grant for the study of allergies, the biology department is seeking sufferers of hay fever to cooperate in a summer research project. Such volunteers will be asked to permit the research laboratory to take specimens of nasal secretion in cases of nasal blockage, discharge, and sneezing resulting from allergies to grass, flower, weed, or ragweed pollen during the summer months.

Any student or faculty member who experiences seasonal rose fever or hay fever symptoms and who expects to be in the Valley this summer is asked to leave name and phone number with Miss Theresa Sapp, Room 305, Stark Hall.

Cooperation in this effort will require only a short period of time through the coming summer, during the months of June, July, or August.

Chorus Plans Songfests

The Women's Chorus under the direction of Jan Cornell, has several activities planned for the short time remaining in this semester. On May 12, the group will sing for the Retired Men's Association at the Y.M.C.A., and on May 13 they will be singing at the Kingston High School student assembly. The women have also planned a pajama party to be held at the Y.W.C.A. on May 28.

These newcomers will be the freshmen who will reside on campus in the Fall. While the idea is not to throw the visitors into a social whirl, a full program has been planned for their spare time.

Doris Gademan and John Ball are co-chairmen of the program, which is highlighted by administration outlines designed to enlighten the freshmen on College policies and regulations regarding dormitory students.

John Whitby is in charge of this phase of the weekend, which will take place tomorrow morning. After lunch the group will hear Gordon Roberts of Student Government, Allyn Jones of the I.D.C., and Steve Robertson, freshman class president.

This evening the group will be the guests of the campus Jaycees, who will host them at their dance, the "Roaring Twenties."

Tomorrow afternoon, after they have heard the campus leaders, the members of the class of '64 will attend the Wilkes-Susquehanna tennis match at Kirby Park.

The busy day ends at Hollenback Hall where a dance party will be held from 9-12. This dance is also open to all students, who are encouraged to attend and introduce themselves to the new members of the student body. Admission to the dance is free; punch will be served. Jerry Mohn is general chairman of the party, Mr. Flower will be head chaperon.

These are the silver wings of a U. S. Air Force Navigator. As a flying officer on the Aerospace team, he has chosen a career of leadership, a career that has meaning, rewards and executive opportunity.

The Aviation Cadet Program is the gateway to this career. To qualify for this rigorous and professional training, a high school diploma is required; however, two or more years of college are highly desirable. Upon completion of the program the Air Force encourages the new officer to earn his degree so he can better handle the responsibilities of his position. This includes full pay and allowances while taking off-duty courses under the Bootstrap education program. The Air Force will pay a substantial part of all tuition costs. After having attained enough credits so that he can complete course work and residence requirements for a college degree in 6 months or less, he is eligible to apply for temporary duty at the school of his choice.

If you think you have what it takes to earn the silver wings of an Air Force Navigator, see your local Air Force Recruiter. Ask him about Aviation Cadet Navigator training and the benefits which are available to a flying officer in the Air Force. Or fill in and mail this coupon.

There's a place for tomorrow's leaders on the Aerospace Team.
