'Spacemen' To Highlight T.D.R. - Lettermen Fashions

Proceeds Go to T.D.R., Lettermen Student Aid; More Events Announced

by Lee Baiera

A fashion show entitled "Fashions Out of This World" will be presented by the Lettermen and the Theta Delta Rho Sorority this Wednesday night in the gymnasium at 8 p.m. Co-chairmen of the show are Carmella Insalaco, Lynne Boyle, and Ira Himmel.

Rockets, planets, space ships, and stars will provide an ideal setting for the fashions from Louis Rosenthal's and Isaac Long's which will be modeled by the Lettermen and TDR members. These models will emerge from a space ship modeling travel, sporty, casual, dressy, and formal clothes.

TDR models for the show are: Ruth Ann Borum, Carol Thomas, Brenda Evans, Helen McHale, Jane Rescorla, Shirley Hitchner, Jocelyn King, Pat Fushek, Mary Homan, Jean Broody, Mary Louise Spinelli, and Pat Bedeski. Lettermen models for the show are: Carl Havira, Bob Chew, Don Pierce, Bill Woll, Marvin Antinnes, Barry Yocum, Vince Capo, and George Gacha.

According to the co-chairmen, the show will begin with a Martian radio announcer advertising his product, Sram, which is, of course, Mars spelled backwards. Barry Yocum and Carl Havira will participate in this skit.

Mrs. Louise Vincenti, well-known in fashion and radio circles, will narrate the show. Door prizes will include a fruit basket from Insalaco's Market, a hair set from John, Your Hairdresser, a can of paint from Raker's Paint Factory, candy from The Spa, and a cigarette lighter from Coon's Gift Shop.

Free refreshments, including punch and cookies, will be served. Tickets may be obtained from members of either Theta Delta Rho or the Lettermen's Club at sixty cents apiece. All proceeds from the show will be divided equally between the TDR and Lettermen's Scholarship Funds.

Committees for the show are as follows: entertainment, Moncey Miller; theme, Pat Hemenway; staging, Bob Chew; tickets, Carol Emanski and Barry Yocum; wardrobe, Marcia Senderovitch; refreshments, Lee Baiera and Connie Stukowski; program, Joanne Yurchak; publicity, Pat Fushek and Carl Havira.

Junior - Senior Banquet

The Junior-Senior Banquet will be held on May 13 at 6:30 p.m. at the Europa Lounge. This banquet is held in honor of the senior members and terminal students of TDR who have been active in the sorority. Bracelets will be awarded to those members being honored.

Mother's Day Tea

The TDR Mother's Day Tea will be held at McClintock Hall next Friday from 3 to 5. Mothers of TDR members are invited to this affair.

Chairman of this social event is Jean Broody.

BLOOD DONOR DAY TODAY; STUDENT COOPERATION URGED

by Jean Shofranko

Did you know that every minute . . . every day . . . over eight bottles of blood are used to treat the ill and injured, in the United States alone? Where do these four million bottles of blood come from each year?

Human blood naturally comes from human beings; and YOU, as a member of the human race can help supply needed blood by donating a pint of YOUR blood today at the Red Cross Blood Center, 156 South Franklin Street. Mr. John G. Reese, chairman of Blood Donor Day, reports that Wilkes students may give blood today from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Wilkes College Blood Donor Days have been held annually since 1951. However, it is interesting to compare the 41 pints of blood donated in December, 1958, with the 136 pints of blood donated in December, 1952. Unfortunately, the number of contributors have been decreasing with each drive.

Being a blood donor has a number of advantages. You not only provide blood for people in immediate need of it, but you provide blood insurance for yourself and your immediate family.

Hundreds of people in local hospitals need blood each month. They can have it with no charge for the blood itself — if the blood has been put into the bank by local people.

Under the blood insurance program, every individual assures himself and his immediate family of an emergency blood supply upon donating a pint of blood. This one donation provides nationwide blood insurance for a six-month period. Wilkes students now residing in other states have already taken advantage of this feature.

If you or your family are going to be hospitalized and may need blood, and if you've contributed, contact Mr. Reese. He will make arrangements for your blood needs to be supplied.

Each Blood Donor Day the cliché, "I need all the blood I have," is heard throughout the campus. In a few cases this may be true, but in the vast majority of cases the potential donor is afraid! Actually, giving blood is an "advanced blood test", and the complete process takes one-half hour.

Let's make an imaginary donation.

The Blood Center is located behind the Red Cross Building. It may be reached by crossing Franklin Street in front of the Bookstore. As you enter the registration room you will be met by an individual who will take your vital statistics such as name, age, height, and telephone number. Do not forget to give your class because percentages will be tabulated on a class basis.

After you've registered you'll step on a scale and your height and weight will be measured. This determines whether you can donate a half-pint or a full pint of blood, according to your physique.

You will now enter the medical history room where you will spend five minutes telling someone about your past medical history. (If you've ever had jaundice, malaria, or hepatitis, you're disqualified from being a donor.) Your blood will be tested (free) to determine your hemoglobin or iron content, your blood pressure and your pulse rate.

After you've left the medical history room comes the big moment. You're ready to give your blood! A specially trained regis-

Wilkes Chapter 10th in Nation, Pictured in National Magazine; Citation and Wrist Watch Given

"I am so happy to be able to advise you that Wilkes College Chapter of S.A.M. was No. 1 in the nation in the Hamilton Watch Award Competition for percentage increase." This statement was received in a recent letter from Professor Harold Fischer, the Director of the University Chapter Division of the Society for Advancement of Management.

The Hamilton Watch Award Competition is a method by which the University Chapter Division of S.A.M. stimulates the growth of the University Chapters. At the end of the school year each of the six chapters who qualify (two in total membership increase, two in absolute membership increase, and two in percentage increase) is presented with a citation and a Hamilton electric watch. The watch is then presented to the member who had contributed most to the membership increase of the chapter. Pictures of the presentations are published in Advanced Management magazine, which has international circulation among colleges and universities and business and management personnel.

Since its reorganization in January the Wilkes Chapter of S.A.M. has been working under the assumption that a dynamic chapter with a broad program of activities and expansion of services to its members will experience a significant growth in membership. As a result of its numerous and varied activities the chapter has experienced a phenomenal growth. At present the membership total stands at 110, a 647% increase over last year, thus making the Wilkes Chapter the 10th largest of the 151 chapters in the nation.

The Wilkes S.A.M. Chapter has also won the distinction of having been elected into the "100 Club", a select group including only those chapters which have exceeded the 100 mark in membership enrollment.

Some of the activities which the chapter has sponsored are: forums on employee motivation, discussions on management training on both college and plant levels, a lecture on what management seeks in college graduates, an enlightening view of medical compensation insurance, and field trips to local industries.

In addition to the activities sponsored directly by the Wilkes Chapter, the members have taken the opportunity offered by the Northeastern Pennsylvania Senior Chapter to attend many of their meetings. The Senior Chapter has presented excellent speakers and lively discussions on current management problems. The highlight of the year was a visit of Dr. Lillian Gilbreth, the foremost expert on time and motion study.

The Wilkes College Chapter will continue to present activities which will aid in supplementing the text book and in developing the philosophy of management in the student, "Industrial Progress Through Enlightened Management." The progress of the Wilkes Chapter of S.A.M. is in keeping with the spirit and highest traditions of Wilkes College!

Freshmen Will Sponsor "Hawaiian Holiday" Tonight in Commons

by Lee Baiera

The Freshman class will salute the fiftieth state of the union, Hawaii, at their second sport dance of the year entitled "Hawaiian Holiday."

The dance will be held tonight upstairs in the Commons from nine to twelve. The admission price of fifty cents appropriately signifies the entrance of the fiftieth state.

Palm trees, leis, sea shells used as ash trays, and pineapple shells with candles will set the mood for the dance. Leis will be given to all those attending. Music will be provided by the Blue Notes. Free refreshments consisting of punch and cookies will be served.

During intermission Albert Kishel, president of the Freshman class, will play the guitar with the band as an added feature.

tered nurse will remove "the precious liquid" while you rest for ten minutes. A Red Cross physician will be present during the complete process.

After your blood is bottled and ready to be processed and typed, you will be served coffee or fruit juice and sandwiches in the canteen.

As you leave the Blood Center you'll realize that you've made a good business deal. By donating a pint of blood, you've not only "done a good deed", but you've taken out a free insurance policy that covers YOU and your family.

GIVE NOW! "No doctor can transfuse a promise."

EDITORIAL

Mixed Emotions

The elections of last week revealed that students can generate a little interest in voting provided there is some added attraction. The voting machine used for the elections brought many previously uninterested students rushing to the polls just for the sake of using the handy gadget. For most students last Thursday's election presented the first opportunity to step into and use the voting machine. It provided a little practice for the "real thing" for the under-21 population on campus. Unfortunately the election committee only procured one machine and the long lines deterred the less enthusiastic voters.

For those of you that felt slighted because you didn't have time to wait, and therefore couldn't vote, we can only offer our weak condolences on your earthshaking misfortune.

A surprising number of people have come up to us during the time between the election and press time and asked us to "blast" the election officers for their lack of foresight in getting only one machine. In the first place, we don't agree with you in your accusations, and we further see no point in "blasting" the officers. The election officers are perfectly aware that one machine was not enough and we have been told, by the president of the election committee, that having one machine was the idea of the officials in the Court House — not the election officers.

The people who bothered to go to the trouble of getting a machine here should be congratulated for their thoughtfulness.

As for those who couldn't vote, we would like to point out that when we went into Chase Theater at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon there was no one using the machine. If you had to work, or had a ride home or had nine hours of class on Thursday, then perhaps you have a gripe. We have the feeling however, that anyone who really wanted to vote, could have done so.

On the brighter side of the election picture was the amazing job done by someone in cleaning up all the posters. To the person or persons responsible for the quick work — nice going.

Moving back to the dimmer side of the story, we find that several ambitious candidates took advantage of the rather liberal policy of the college in having flyers mimeographed free of charge. From Mr. Whitby's office comes the justified decree that the office will no longer run off flyers announcing club meetings, political views and the like. We hope that the people who over-used their privileges realize the effect their actions will have on innocent students who will suffer. —mjk

Letter to the Editor...

Dear Madame Editor:

The idea of compulsory gym classes is a much discussed topic among members of the student body. There are many students, especially males and including myself, who find the oft-times ill-conducted gym classes a complete bore. Still it is necessary to parade around the gym floors for four semesters to qualify for a degree.

I will agree that many students, perhaps even a majority, enjoy taking gym, but consideration should be given also to the minority group who find gym a waste of time.

I feel that the administration should look into the possibility of an alternate course to be substituted for those students who dislike taking gym, and I can think of no better course than one in first aid.

First aid instruction is offered at many of the leading colleges and universities throughout the country, and it has proven to be a worthwhile undertaking. No one ever knows when such training may save a life.

I have submitted this letter in the hope that the idea will come to the attention of the administration, and that they will look into the matter.

Respectfully,
STEVE COONEY

THE MAILBAG

To: The Student Body of Wilkes College

From: The Student Government
Subject: Conflicts on the Activities Calendar

In June of 1958, representatives of the Student Government, with the aid of Dean Ralston, prepared an activities calendar for the '58-59 school year. As a part of that calendar, they awarded to the Freshman Class two activities dates, October 31, 1958 and April 17, 1959. Unknown to the Student Government, or the Administration, the CCUN, at some subsequent time, scheduled the MGA for April 17-18-19. By the time the conflict was discovered it was too late to reschedule the MGA and the Freshman Class had to make arrangements for another activities date. On April 1, the CCUN submitted a formal letter of apology to the Student Government.

The Student Government feels that this does not wholly resolve the issue. It still remains that the CCUN irresponsibly scheduled an activity on a date which had been previously reserved for the Freshman Class. This type of promiscuous scheduling by any organization can not be tolerated. Were it tolerated, it would mean that any organization could hold any event they desired on any date they desired. This would lead to unwarranted competition and eventually mayhem. Student loyalty would be split and eventually they would refuse to attend any social affairs.

NO ORGANIZATION IS PREFERRED TO ANOTHER.

In view of the circumstances, the Student Government suggests that CCUN make a public apology to the Freshman Class.

PUBLIC INVITED TO SUNDAY CONCERT

A concert of varied music will be presented by the college band Sunday afternoon at 3 as the final offering of the year by the music department Town and Gown series.

Students, parents, and the general public have been invited to attend. There will be no tour of the campus, as has been the custom on past parent day concerts.

Following the musical program, a reception will be held in the foyer of the gym for all those in attendance.

CLASS MEETINGS

Graduation plans, activities, and procedures were outlined by Dean George Ralston at Tuesday's senior class meeting in Pickering Hall.

Commencement activities are scheduled as follows:

Wednesday, June 3:

Dinner dance in Hotel Sterling Crystal Ballroom at 7 p.m.

Thursday, June 4:

Class-sponsored outing.

Friday, June 5:

Commencement rehearsal at 10 a.m. in gym; class picture and luncheon on Chase Lawn following rehearsal.

Saturday, June 6:

Outing at Dr. Farley's farm for seniors, faculty, families.

Sunday, June 7:

Baccalaureate at 5 p.m., reception for seniors and parents to follow.

Monday, June 8:

Commencement exercises at 8 p.m. in the gym; Alumni party at American Legion Home to follow.

Dean Ralston explained the necessity of each senior getting his "check-out sheet" signed properly. He also referred to graduation procedure, with a special graduation committee which checks all academic records. Any individual problems should be discussed with Mr. Ralston, and written requests may be submitted to the graduation committee for consideration. Additional graduation information will be available in about two weeks.

The class was reminded of their gift selection — a bulletin board to be installed near the cafeteria entrance, and Middle Atlantic Conference pennants for the gym.

Next meeting of the senior class will be held on Thursday, May 14.

JUNIOR CLASS

by Steve Cooney

The regular Junior class meeting was held Tuesday in Stark Hall at which time the new officers were installed, and nominations were held for a Student Government position.

Four class members were nominated to occupy one of the Student Government positions in the event that one of the four regular representatives is elected to the presidency of the Student Council. The Student Government constitution requires that each class has four representatives on the council, not including the person acting as president.

George Reynolds, Jim Stevens, Carol Brominski, George Gavazzi, and Barbara Bachman, were selected as candidates for the tentative position. Election will take place in Chase Theatre on Friday, May 22, if needed.

Plans were also made for the annual class car wash to be held in the near future. Proceeds will be given to the local workshop for the mentally retarded children.

This year's class outing was also discussed. Miss Christine Winslow was appointed chairman of the outing committee. Any class member interested in helping plan the outing may contact Miss Winslow.

BARRE HALL MEN RE-ELECT STICKLER

The men of Barre Hall elected dormitory officers for the coming year last Monday. Gene Stickler was re-elected president, while Jerry Esterman, George Watson, Dick Hoeker, and Les Andres were voted vice-president, treasurer, and social director, respectively. Barre will be represented on the Inter-Dormitory Council by Vince Capo and Dave Peters. Officers will begin their duties in September.

NOTICE!

All BEACON reporters are requested to report to the BEACON office at noon today for an important meeting. Assignments will be given out at the meeting.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

by Mike Salinsky

On Tuesday, the Sophomore class (next year's Juniors) met in Stark Hall, room 116. The main purpose of the meeting was to install the newly elected class officers and Student Government representatives. They are: president, Gil Davis; vice-president, Maurice James; treasurer, Dorothy Ford; secretary, Arlene Gallia; Student Government representatives, Bill Davis, Mike Armstrong, Martha Menegus, and Beverly Major.

The meeting began at 11:05 a.m. with Sophomore President Gil Davis presiding. The minutes of last Tuesday's meeting were read by Secretary Arlene Gallia. Treasurer Dorothy Ford gave the treasury balance, $239.68.

In case the new president of the Student Government should turn out to be a sophomore, a nomination was held for possible candidates to replace him in the Student Government. Those nominated were: Robert Hewitt, Mary Ann Kachmar, and Skip Gladstone.

Wednesday, June 3, has tentatively been set as the date for the class outing, according to Maurice James, general chairman of the affair. This date is the last day of the spring semester final examinations. The class cast an informal vote on the proposed site of the outing. The two remaining possibilities are Wolfe's Grove, and Twin Lakes. Since the availability of the sites, plus other pertinent information is not absolutely certain, these sites are not definite. President Davis informed the sophomores that the class itself will provide solid refreshments.

Chairmen of the various committees for the outing are: planning, Betsy Hoeschle; activities, Bob Hewitt; refreshments, Edward Jakowski; and cleanup, Stan Irzinski.

The last class meeting of the school year was slated for May 14, 1959, it was learned from Davis.

FRESHMAN CLASS

by Phyllis Iannuzzo

A compulsory meeting of the Freshman class was held last Tuesday in the Commons.

The meeting was called to order by out-going President Victor Turrowski. Dr. Charles Reif, class advisor, installed the new officers. Dr. Reif then led the class in their class salute.

The meeting was then turned over to in-coming President Albert Kishel, who in turn introduced the newly elected officers of the class.

Mr. Russell Picton, Alumni Secretary, gave a brief summary of the proposed Freshman Memorial Fund. Reports were given by various committee chairmen on the dance to be held tonight in the Commons, and on the project for underprivileged children. Copies of the Freshman Constitution were passed out to those in attendance.

Notice

Members of the Wilkes Chapter of S.A.M. are cordially invited to the Northeastern Pennsylvania Senior Chapter S.A.M. regular monthly meeting to be held at 8 p.m. this coming Monday evening, May 4, at the Europa - Twin Grill, Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. F. E. Green, Jr., industrial engineer, Eureka Specialty Printing Company, Scranton, will serve as moderator for an open discussion on "Employee Motivation." Mr. Green, a past president of S.A.M., will answer specific questions through open discussion with other businessmen who have similar motivation problems.

S.A.M. feels sure that those who attend will leave this meeting informed and well-versed in employee motivation. Prospective S.A.M. members for the 1959-60 school term may attend.

C'n'C AWARDS DINNER TO BE HELD MAY 16

by Steve Cooney

Cue 'n' Curtan will hold its annual Awards Banquet to close its year of activities in the Commons on Saturday, May 16, at 5:30 p.m.

At this banquet, "oscar" will be presented to individuals who gave outstanding performances in the categories of best actor and actress, and best supporting actor and actress. An award will also be presented to the person whom the executive council of the club considers to have given the most assistance backstage.

A committee composed of faculty members and headed by Dr. Chapman will decide the winners of the acting awards.

Installation of new officers will also take place at the supper. These new officers, along with the club moderator, Mr. Al Groh, will comprise the new executive council of the club.

Plans for the banquet include a buffet style supper, the traditional candlelight ceremony, speeches by the Award committee and honored guests, and entertainment later in the theatre.

Any member of the student body is entitled to attend the affair if they in any way assisted the club in any of its productions. Faculty members are also invited.

Local Politicians Speak Here on Monday To Local I.C.G. Groups

by Steve Cooney

The I.C.G. club is sponsoring an evening of talks from local government candidates to be held next Monday in the Commons at 8 p.m.

These talks will bring together the candidates from the Democrat Party and the three factions of the Republican Party — the Regular Republicans, the Loyal Republicans, and the Victory Republicans. They will each present their platforms and hold a question and answer period.

As of press time, Attorneys Silverblatt, Olexy, and Kanjorski, from the Republican slate, and Attorney Teller from the Democrat Party have consented to talk. Dr. Harold Thatcher, head of the history department, will be moderator for the evening.

The I.C.G. club has announced that there will be no admission charge for the evening, and that refreshments will be served.

Representatives from all local colleges, Misericordia, Marywood, King's, and Scranton University, will attend this special program, and all interested students from Wilkes are also urged to attend.

Applicants for Editorial Jobs Have Week Left

Beacon and Amnicola editorial staffs wish to remind the student body that application letters for editorial positions for next year are due by May 8, one week from today.

As announced in last week's Beacon, newspaper staff positions open next year include: editor-in-chief, two assistant editorships, sports editor, and business manager. Letters of application should be sent to Mr. Francis J. Salley, Beacon adviser, and should include information on past experience in newspaper work, position applied for, and personal data. Positions will be given on basis of the application letter.

Letters of application for positions on next year's Amnicola editorial staff should be submitted to the Publications Committee, in care of Mr. Cathal B. O'Toole. Letters should contain the same basic information as that stated above.

The available positions on next year's Amnicola are: editor-in-chief, assistant editor, photographer, copy editor, art editor, and business manager.

Deadline for applications has been set at May 8 in order to enable the Publications Committee to meet and recommend those persons best qualified. Appointments for next year will be announced in the final edition of the Beacon on May 22.

GIRLS' CHORUS HAS BUSIEST SEASON EVER

Over thirty voices strong, the Girls' Chorus is engaged in one of its most extensive programs of singing engagements during the spring semester under the direction of Jean Pyatt, president.

Next Wednesday the chorus will sing a medley of popular songs at the Fashion Show. The medley will contain the following numbers: I Feel a Song Comin' On, I'm in the Mood for Love, It's a Most Unusual Day, Don't Blame Men, and Cuban Love Song.

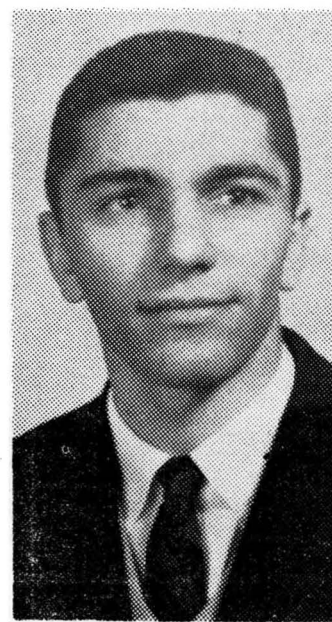

The sextet will include: Jean Pyatt and Peggy Kratz, first sopranos; Gale Hughes and Sallie Price, second sopranos; Pat Lutz and Judy Shacachis, altos. Pat Yost will be accompanist for this program.

Last Tuesday the Collegians and Girls' Chorus presented a sacred concert for the fund-raising drive of the Dallas Methodist Church. The church was remodeled last fall.

Last Friday night the combined group presented the same concert at the Dunmore Methodist Church, in another fund-raising program. The Tuesday night concert at Dallas included an organ recital by Bill Peters. In addition, Jean Pyatt, a soprano, sang, "Hear Ye, Israel". Merritt Wheeler, tenor, sang, "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot". Accompanists for the entire program were Pat Yost and Walter Umla, piano and organ; Tom Kanas and Jack Evans, trumpets.

NEXT WEEK'S SR. SPECTACLE TO BE STRICTLY FOR LAUGHS

The Senior class announces their approaching Senior Spectacle and dance to be held one week from today. The evening will start at 9 in the gym.

Tom Ruggerio

Scott Trethaway and Thomas Ruggerio will act as emcees for the show. It will be approximately one hour in length and will be strictly devoted to comedy. All the members participating will be from the Senior class. Famous celebrities and faculty members will make their appearance on the stage that evening. According to the rumors around campus, the chorus line will be the hairiest ever seen.

After the show is over, there will be dancing till 12 p.m. This part of the evening is under the supervision of Myron Suseck, general chairman of the dance. Assisting him are Charles Garis, tickets; Robert Pitel, music; Reginald Trzeskowski, refreshments; Michael Goobic, publicity. Chaperones for the dance are Edward Helzel and Arthur Hoover.

The students of Wilkes will get all of this for 50 cents per person. Among the several acts in the show is a roving mike routine. This will bring the emcees, Trethaway and Ruggerio, down into the audience for some light-hearted fun. Be prepared!

'DON QUIXOTE' WILL BE SHOWN

Another first-rate foreign language film, Don Quixote, directed by Raphael Gil, will be shown next week in Stark 116.

Three showings of the Spanish language film will run for two days. Wednesday evening the picture will be shown from 6 until 8 o'clock. On Thursday there will be two performances, from 11 until 1 and from 3 until 5.

English sub-titles make this delightful rendition of Cervante's deathless satire enjoyable to all, and the language department urges all students to take advantage of the appearance of this classic on campus.

Critics have been high in their praise of this film, particularly concerning the photography, which "dramatizes each adventure of the lunatic knight . . . a joy to the eye." (New York Sun).

J. S. Barstow, N.Y. Herald-Tribune, says, "it translates the satirical qualities of the work with remarkable clarity . . . Cervantes' jibes at 16th Century chivalry . . . come through in unbelievable screen terms."

Ray's Recruits Break Deadlock, Down Snafus by Thin Margin, 5-4; Blivets Maintain Lead in American

The National League tie for first place was broken Wednesday as Ray's Recruits downed the Snafus in one of the most hotly contested games so far this season. Clem Gavenas pitched an excellent game for the Recruits in their 5 to 4 victory over the Snafus.

The victory was the third in succession for Recruits and sets the scene for the game next week between them and an oncoming Phonies team. A victory for the Phonies next Tuesday would throw the National League into a three-way tie between the Phonies, Snafus, and Recruits.

In Wednesday's game the Recruits showed evenly balanced hitting power as Selody, Yanchus, Kemmerer, Havira, Kubicki, and Lewis all had one hit apiece.

The faltering Snafus were bolstered by a triple and a single from Gil Gregory and hits by Norm Charnoski, Bill Michaels, Marv Antinnes, and "Perky" Perkowski.

The Blivets are still top dogs in the American League and should succeed in their pennant drive as their one remaining game is with a comparatively weak Financier team.

The games left to be played in the schedule are:

TENNIS TEAM DOWNED BY LYCOMING, 8-1; HALPERIN, WOLL COP FIRST TEAM POINT

CLAY COURT COLONELS — Pictured above are the men who carry the Blue and Gold banner into combat on the tennis courts. Only in its third year of competition, the team has had very limited success, but enthusiasm is high. Most of the players are new to intercollegiate play and experience will provide for a better outlook next year. First row, left to right: Carl Juris, John Thomas, Paul Bleifer, William Woll, Michael Samberg, Jim Swaback. Second row: Mike Armstrong, Peter Back, Ira Himmel, Dirk Dunlap, Bernard Shupp, Mark Halperin, George Gavales.

Saturday the Lycoming Warriors to journeyed this branch of the Susquehanna and proceeded to down the Blue and Gold tennis team, 8 to 1.

The doubles team that cracked the barrier for the first Wilkes team point of the year was composed of Mark Halperin and Bill Woll.

Their single point was the last possible tally of the meet and offered no real serious threat to the eight point lead built up by the Warriors.

Lycoming refused to give any ground the easy way as they contested the single tally in a closely-fought event, 6-2, 3-6, and 6-2.

In the singles, the leadoff man for the Colonels, Jim Swaback, got the team off to a bad start as he went down, 0-6 and 2-6.

Ira Himmel showed a lot of effort and one of the most closely contested games of the meet as he went under, 5-7, 6-2, and 2-6.

In the third singles, Dirk Dunlap failed to produce as he went down, 0-6 and 0-6.

Paul Bleifer played another tight game and showed a ray of hope for the team as he continued to improve, but drew a loss with 5-7, 8-6, and 4-6.

Mark Halperin suffered the next defeat at the hands of the experienced men from Lycoming, 4-6 and 0-6.

Bill Woll also showed a much improved game as he offered a maximum of resistance but failed to gain the point by: 6-4, 5-7, 4-6.

The doubles say the Colonel team of Dunlap and Swaback edged by Pollitt and Eney of Lycoming, 2-6 and 3-6.

Ira Himmel and Paul Bleifer were the next Wilkesmen to go down the boards as they dropped, 1-6 and 3-6.

Then the team of Halperin and Woll copped the single point from Crockett and Good with a 6-2, 3-6 and 6-2.

Colonels at Susquehanna Tomorrow

John Harvey sprints safely to first base on Susquehanna error.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

HENDERSHOT'S HITS AID WILKES VICTORIES; BOOMING BAT EXPLODES EXTRA BASE BLOWS

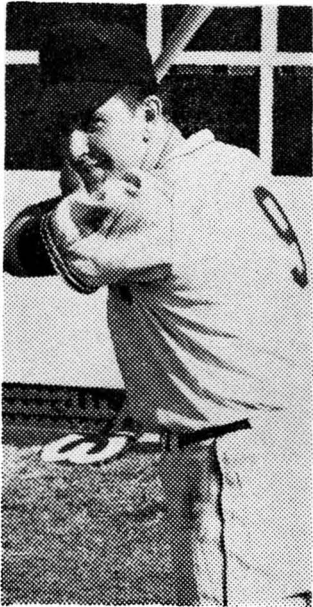

Ralph Hendershot, one of the best long-ball hitters to wear the Blue and Gold spikes in some years, earned the Beacon's "Athlete of the Week" title for his performances in the Colonels' two recent diamond victories.

With his explosive bat, he provided the winning blow in the 5-4 squeaker over the Lycoming Warriors last week; then, before the Saturday home crowd, led the parade of extra base hits in the Susquehanna tilt.

In the Lycoming game, he singled sharply to move John Harvey home with the winning run to climax a two-run rally for the 5-4 win.

Prior to Saturday, however, the big outfielder had to settle mostly for singles. In the game against the Crusaders he found the range and his bat began to boom again to the tune of a soaring, 375-foot round-trip blast and a fence-rattling double to account for three RBI's.

Not content to lead the 14-hit barrage against the hapless Susquehanna nine, he even answered an SOS by Coach Pinkowski to re-live another converted outfielder, Mike Dydo, on the mound.

Although he was treated not too kindly by the Crusaders, he did a creditable job in the unfamiliar role, and showed promise of easing Pinkowski's pitching headaches.

A two-letter man, Ralph also puts in a busy season in indoor competition on Eddie Davis' basketball team. He has been a member of the team for three years and the fans still bring his name up when speaking of long shots, remembering his 60-foot thriller in the 1958 season.

Hendershot gained his high school experience in both basketball and baseball at Larksville. He is a junior, working towards a B.S. in Secondary Education, majoring in history.

Diamondmen Seek Wins on Road; Colonels Continue Winning Ways, Hendershot, Dydo, Ontko Star

Bad weather and wet grounds forced a one-day postponement of Wednesday's scheduled game with the Scranton Royals. The game was re-scheduled for late yesterday afternoon at Artillery Park. Results were unavailable at Beacon press time.

Golfers Split at Home, Defeat Lycoming, 12-6, Bow to Scranton, 13-5

by Dan Lewis

Scranton

Hampered by a downpour, the golfers were defeated by Scranton University, 13 to 5, last Tuesday at the Irem links.

Pete McLaughlin turned in the only individual win for the team with a 2 to 1 victory, while Al Stralka and Jay Olexy tied their opponents, receiving 1½ points each.

Bob Januszko, Pete Perog, and Ed Mikolaitis had a disappointing day as they fought their way over the drenched grounds only to lose by the shutout rout, 3 to 0.

Lycoming

The Blue and Gold golfers broke into the win column a week ago at home with Lycoming College.

Playing under blue skies and ample sunshine, the linksmen showed great form and turned in their best performance to date, a 12 to 6 winning score.

Individual wins were turned in by Ed Mikolaitis, Bob Januszko, Pete Perog, and Pete McLaughlin; while Al Stralka broke even with his opponent.

Jay Olexy fought hard scoring birdies on the sixth and eighth holes, but in vain, as he was shut out in the point department.

The individual results:

Bob Januszko, W, over Stan Okutuvewicz, 2½ to ½; Ed Mikolaitis, W, over Tony Donaldson, 2 to 1; Pete Perog, W, over Bill Engler, 3 to 0; Pete McLaughlin, W, over Grant Jones, 3 to 0; Al Stralka, W, and Clem Palmi played to a tie, 1½ to 1½; Dave Lee, L, over Jay Olexy, 3 to 0.

Yesterday the Colonels were scheduled to play Mansfield at home, but at press time, it was uncertain whether the match would be played. The results, if any, were too late to make the deadline for this edition.

Two away tilts feature the baseball team's activities for the coming week.

Coach Pinkowski's nine travels to Selinsgrove, Pa., tomorrow where they meet the Susquehanna Crusaders for the second time this season.

Wednesday the Colonels go against the Lycoming Warriors at Williamsport, Pa.

Wilkes edged Lycoming with a late rally last week at Artillery Park, 5-4.

Saturday's Results

Hits rained to all parts of Artillery Park last Saturday, as the Colonels pounded out a 10-5 victory over Susquehanna.

Led by the extra base blows of centerfielder Ralph Hendershot and third baseman Bobby Ontko, Wilkes registered 14 hits for the contest. Hendershot and Ontko each collected a home run and a double, with Ontko's home run leaving the field at the 430 foot mark.

Big Mike Dydo twirled for the Blue and Gold and garnered his third win of the campaign as against one loss. Dydo pitched eight innings of scoreless ball, giving up two hits, striking out eight, and walking one man, before being relieved by Hendershot in the ninth. Dydo also chipped in with three hits to aid his own cause.

Hendershot took the mound in an experimental move on the part of Coach Pinkowski, who is searching for an adequate starter to take some of the pressure off Dydo.

The Harvey brothers, ex-Nanticoke stars, continued to hit the ball well as freshman Dick Harvey collected two bingles, both being of the bunt variety, and older brother John slashed a double.

First baseman Sam Zgarski belted a two-bagger and Don Goo-bie, Jerry Lawrence, and Paul Aquilino each came through with a hit, to give the team 14 for the game.

SCHECTER TO FURTHER STUDY AT NEW YORK U. LAW SCHOOL

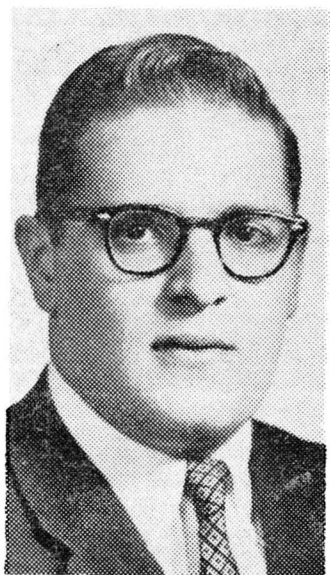

by Art Rogovin

Paul Schecter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schecter, 261 Washington Avenue, Cederhurst, New York, has been accepted to New York University School of Law. He will begin his studies in the fall of 1959.

He is a senior accounting major and resides in Ashley Hall. During his four years at Wilkes, Schecter has participated in numerous activities on campus. He is presently serving on the Senior Class Council and has been active in the Inter-Dormitory Council, Junior Chamber Commerce of Wilkes, Economics Club, and Intramural sports. Schecter also served as treasurer of the Twelfth Annual Eastern Colleges Science Conference, as well as being named to the Dean's List.

In addition to his activities at Wilkes, Schecter is currently employed by Abraham Marcus, a local C.P.A.

Upon completing his studies at N.Y.U., Schecter plans to sit for the New York State C.P.A. and Bar exams. These will enable him to achieve his ambition of practicing law and accounting in New York City.

Election Results Show Decrease in Voters

The posters have been taken down, the voting machine sent back to the Court House, and the new class officers have been installed.

The amount of students voting this year was a slight decrease from last year's figure, 541 compared to 414, but president of elections R. T. Mattioli mentioned that the long lines around the election booth discouraged many students who did not wish to stand in line for an hour to vote.

But the voting was steady all day, reported Mattioli, and it was necessary to keep the polls open until five o'clock, instead of the scheduled three o'clock closing, to accommodate the overflow of students.

This is the first time in four years that the classes used a voting machine to conduct elections, and the novelty of the plan did encourage many students to cast their vote. Mattioli pointed out that two election machines should have been used to accommodate the overflow crowd, and that in the future if the election machines are used again more than one machine will be needed.

HAMPTON INSTITUTE GROUP HERE IN EXCHANGE PROGRAM

by Elizabeth Cobourn

For several years Wilkes, through the Inter-Dormitory Council and Student Government, has exchanged students with Hampton Institute in Virginia. The purpose of this exchange program is to meet students from other schools and share ideas and experiences with them.

A group of students representing Wilkes visited Hampton two weeks ago. These included Pat Bellardina, Louella Meringolo, Pat Yost, Bob Amey, Allyn Jones, Dave Roebuck, Art Rogovin, and Gene Stickler. The two chaperones for the trip were Mr. Miller and Mr. Tener.

The Men's Council at Hampton was sponsoring Men's Weekend and had many activities planned. Hampton exchanges with five schools besides Wilkes, and each school sent representatives, making it an eventful and rewarding weekend for all who went.

This weekend the Hampton students are coming to Wilkes. The entire student body is invited to attend any or all of the activities planned. Friday night, Hampton students will be guests at the dance at the gym. Saturday morning at 11:00, a coffee hour will be held in Weiss Hall, where faculty and students will have the opportunity to meet the Hampton group.

Dr. Farley has graciously invited the Hampton students, as well as the Wilkes student body, to an outing at his farm at 2:00 Saturday afternoon. McClintock dorm is giving a party at 9:00 in honor of the Hampton students. All Saturday's activities are free of charge.
