

Lynne Boyle Is Chosen '59 Homecoming Queen

Princesses Jean, Moncey Complete Court

Both Serve College,
Church, Community

Misses Jean Shofranko and Moncey Miller were chosen by the students to reign as Princesses of the royal court of Queen Lynne. The charming brown-haired beauties will accompany the Queen during her numerous visits throughout the week end of activities.

Adding more glory to the occasion, the princesses and Queen Lynne will lead the Homecoming Car Caravan in the latest model autos and at the football game they will be escorted in full military style. Glimmering jewels, flowers, and gifts will complete the regal picture.

Princess Jean

Princess Jean, an attractive brown-eyed senior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shofranko, 141 Spring Street, Wilkes-Barre. She is majoring in secondary education and plans to teach English and social studies following graduation.

Princess Jean is the Feature Editor on the Beacon and also the student Public Relations Assistant at the college. Her news coverage work also includes serving as Student Correspondent for WBRE — radio and television.

A member of her class council last year, Princess Jean also worked on the Amnicola staff and is on the Executive Council of Theta Delta Rho.

During her days at Coughlin High School, Princess Jean was an active member of the editorial staff, the Latin Club, chorus and orchestra. She still found time to work part-time at the Osterhout Library in the city.

Princess Jean is very active in her church, where she has been teaching Sunday classes for four years. She is also a member of the church choir and a member of the church youth group, the Young People's Society.

Princess Moncey

Princess Moncey, lovely blue-eyed beauty, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester H. Miller, 91 Charles Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Princess Moncey is majoring in elementary education and has been an active member of her class throughout her four years at Wilkes. She was class secretary for the past three years, a council member of her class for four years, and a member of the college band during her sophomore year.

Presently she is correspondence secretary of the Education Club, treasurer of the Women's Chorus, chairman of the student assembly committee, and treasurer of Theta Delta Rho.

A graduate of Meyers High School, Princess Moncey was active in the Future Teachers of America, the band and modern choir. Princess Moncey also teaches Sunday School at her church, Central Methodist, city, and at present, she works part-time at the Osterhout Library as a clerical worker.

Following graduation in June, Princess Moncey will gain a more permanent title as the wife of Glenn Carey, 1954 graduate of Wilkes. Their future plans include a move to the state of Washington where Glenn will be employed as an engineer with Western Electric. Princess Moncey plans to teach in that area.

Homecoming Activities Include Football Game, Soccer, Alumni Tour

by Fred Jacoby

Before the Open House tonight at the Kingston House, the alumni will tour the decorated buildings on campus. The alumni might also be interested to note the new buildings acquired recently.

Parrish Hall, formerly the Glen Alden Building, and Chapman Hall are the most recent of the acquisitions. Hollenback Hall, formerly the Placement Center, has been converted into a men's dormitory.

Saturday plans will begin with an Executive Council meeting of the Alumni Association. At noon a picnic will be held on Chase Lawn for the alumni, faculty and administration.

A soccer game, Wilkes vs. Hofstra, will be held at 10 a.m. in Kirby Park. Later tomorrow afternoon Wilkes will meet Lycoming in the Homecoming football game in Kingston Stadium.

Halftime activities will include the crowning of the Homecoming Queen and her Court. Later Saturday evening the classes of '39, '49, and '54 will hold Reunion Dinners. The times and places of these dinners were not available at press time.

The annual Homecoming Dance will be Saturday night at the Irem Temple Country Club. Dress will be informal. Seniors have been invited to this dance for a specific reason, that of becoming acquainted with the procedure of Homecoming.

Bulletin

Steve Robertson was elected president of the freshman class last night in a landslide race featuring a remarkable 80% turnout of voters who cast 327 votes.

Tom Saba was elected Robertson's vice-president. Other winners:

Treasurer, Conrad Wagner
Secretary, William Hunt
Student Government, Lorraine Rome, Jim Walters, Dick Barnes.

NOTICE

All seniors are advised to make appointments to see Mr. Whitby concerning graduation requirements. Miss Davies, secretary to Mr. Whitby, will arrange these appointments.

Queen Lynne, a senior elementary education major, will make her first official appearance at the bonfire pep rally tonight at 7:30 at the Hanover Township High School athletic field.

A busy weekend of activities will follow including parties, a parade, the football game, and several dances. A regal reception is expected for the Queen and her Court at each and every affair.

The official coronation ceremonies will take place during halftime of the Homecoming football game at Kingston Stadium, with Dr. Eugene S. Farley doing the honors.

Queen Lynne and Princesses Jean and Moncey will receive gifts, memorable of this occasion, from the Beacon, the Alumni Association, and the Student Government, to mention a few.

Miss Boyle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Wesley Boyle, and resides with her parents at 97 Park Place, Kingston. She is active in the college sorority, Theta Delta Rho, as social chairman; a member of the Education Club, 4 years; she has been on her class council for the past 4 years; a member of the college band her first two years at Wilkes; and she was a member of the Student Council her first two years at the college.

A graduate of Kingston High School, Queen Lynne was president of the Future Teachers of America Club at her school during her senior year, and also a member of the National Honor Society. In 1956, she represented Kingston High School at the State Band held at Frackville, Pennsylvania.

During August of this year, the pretty blue-eyed, blonde coed was a member of the College Board established by Isaac Long's of Wilkes-Barre.

During her freshman year at Wilkes, Queen Lynne was selected as the "Best Dressed Coed," and during that same year, she was nominated as a candidate for the coveted title of "Cinderella."

Though very active in campus activities, Queen Boyle still finds time to participate as unit leader in the Girl Scouts. For the past three years, she has been an associate member and waterfront director at the Girl Scouts Camp.

Queen Lynne recently became engaged to Charles Austin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Austin, 100 West Bennett Street, Kingston. No wedding date has been set; however, the immediate future for our Queen, following graduation in June, will be a teaching career.

EDITORIALS —

Welcome Home

We are pleased to see all our old friends once more and extend to all alumni a hearty "welcome home." We hope that the returnees enjoy their weekend.

Students have worked hard and long to do their part in making this weekend a success. It seems that everyone on campus has had something to do with some part of the preparations. There are so many events, arranged by so many people that it would be too great a task to list them here.

Student Government, the classes, clubs, administration, faculty — all have played equal part in the beehive of activity which has led to this day, the beginning of Homecoming 1959. We on the Beacon staff have been besieged with space requests throughout the past four weeks. We have done all in our power to honor these requests in order that all of the Homecoming affairs receive ample coverage. If, in some way, we have missed some coverage, blame it on the hectic times, not on intentional oversight.

Get Home Safely

Perhaps we should inject here a sober thought. We enjoy having our friends back with us, but more important, we want to see them again, year after year.

With the wide range of parties scheduled between now and Sunday evening, it is a good guess that a certain percentage of the high spirits will come from bottles. We neither condemn nor condone, we merely state a fact of Homecoming life.

For those of the celebrants who find themselves subjected to the rigors of too many liquid refreshments, may we sincerely express the belief that gasoline and alcohol form a lethal combination? A casual examination of past years shows that there have been no reported cases of serious accidents involving Wilkes people at Homecoming time.

The record looks good. We hope everyone takes special pains to keep it clean.

Hail to The Queen!

No Homecoming celebration is complete without its Queen, and the Beacon extends its heartiest congratulations to the three winners of a close, exciting ballot.

Queen Lynne adds her name to the list of five previous Homecoming Queens, and certainly none of those beauties was lovelier. The tradition of beauty, personality and regal bearing is upheld with this year's choice.

Princess Moncey and Jean complete the court and the electors have done well again. Both are of royal caliber, hard-working and sincere, perfect complements to the Queen of what surely will be the best Homecoming celebration ever held here.

We on the Beacon can't help injecting a note of personal satisfaction in the selection of one of our own staff members. We are deeply pleased that the students recognize what we have always known, that Princess Jean is worthy of royal recognition.

Regrettably, in every election there are only so many winners. In this instance the three were chosen from a field of ten nominees. Perhaps it was unfair to subject the electors to such a difficult task; all of the runnersup in the election were evenly matched. They were: Georgianna Sebolka, Pat Fushek, Lou-Ella Maringola, Marie Realmuto, Beverly Butler, Jan Cornell, and former princess Joan Llewellyn. When such as these are in a race, it is little wonder that our election was so close.

CLASS MEETINGS

SENIOR CLASS

by Steve Cooney

A variety of topics were discussed at this week's senior class meeting held in Stark Hall.

Final plans were made for the class sport dance to be held in the gym tonight. Jack Melton's orchestra will play, and cider and donuts will be served. The name of the affair is "The After Glow," keeping with the theme of the Homecoming Weekend.

The senior class gift committee was also formed, and Christine Winslow was appointed chairman. Volunteers were asked to join this committee. The class gift committee will decide to what use the class memorial fund will be put. Each senior will have donated eight dollars each by the end of this year, and the money will be used to leave a lasting memorial of the class at the college.

Gordon Roberts, president of the Student Government and member of the senior class, spoke to the group about the many fellowship opportunities being offered to seniors. Any senior interested in finding more information about these fellowships should see Dean Cole or Mr. Chwalek.

Final report of the Homecoming committee was given, and chairman Bob Beneski asked for volunteers to help set up the class display. The next meeting of the senior class will be on November 12, in Stark Hall.

JUNIOR CLASS

Members of the junior class convened Tuesday at the First Presbyterian Church Auditorium, where the compulsory class meeting was held.

Plans were discussed for the "Cemetery Swing," junior class dance, which will be held October 30. William Raub is general chairman of the affair.

Reports were given by Skip Gladstone, class ring committee; Beverly Major, Student Government representative; Anne Curley, School Spirit Committee representative; and William Davis, general chairman of the United Fund Drive.

Members of the newly appointed executive council were introduced by President Gilbert Davis.

The sophomore class met last Tuesday at the Jewish Community Center and formulated plans for a coming dance. The affair entitled, "The Sophomore Soccer Swing," with the theme being the soccer team.

This theme was decided upon because the sophomores feel that the soccer team does not have enough support from the student body. The dance will be held November 6th, in the gymnasium. The music will be played by the "Dynamics," a new local group.

A plan to raise one hundred dollars for the United Fund was discussed, but the idea was vetoed. Establishment of a used book department was also discussed. The sophomores would sell books, making approximately twenty cents on each. The books would be left at a designated spot, containing a note showing the desired price. All unsold books would be returned to their owners.

The advisors of the class, Mr. Pinkowski and Mr. Connelly, made short speeches expressing their pride in the class, and the honor of being its advisors.

FRESHMAN CLASS

by Pat Rossi

Allyn Jones presided over the freshman class meeting which was held on Tuesday, October 20. He served as chairman of the meeting since the freshman class president had not been chosen up to that time.

He spoke briefly concerning the United Fund contributions and the various activities which will take place this weekend to celebrate the annual Homecoming.

Mr. Arthur Hoover, one of the freshman class advisors, was introduced to the class. The bulk of the meeting was devoted to the campaign speeches given by the various freshmen who hope to be elected to some class office.

Campus Observer

Homecoming Weekend provides the opportunity to show some school spirit. Decorations, dances, the bonfire, and the football and soccer games would be a failure without school spirit. The alumni show enough interest in their school to return to it; students should show their interest in the decorations, attendance at dances and the bonfire, and support of the football and soccer teams.

SECRET KEPT

"Who is the Homecoming Queen?" could be heard all over campus this past week. In previous years, the supposedly "well kept secret" was known by 50% of the student population before the official announcement. This year it was different. No one, except the officials concerned, had any knowledge of the winner. Even the names of the nominees were not divulged. This is the way it should be. The excitement and surprise are well worth the waiting.

QUIET, FROSH!

The freshman class meeting last Tuesday brought many critical comments, both from freshmen and from Mr. Hoover, an advisor of the class. The comments stemmed from the rowdy actions of several freshmen during the meeting. While campaign speeches were in progress, a group of freshmen was so noisy and disrespectful that their own classmates could not be heard. Freshmen, you are no longer children in high school; you are college students, and should act like college students.

CAN'T SPELL

A "flyer" distributed last Tuesday informed the student body of a "DINER-dance." Just out of curiosity, which DINER will it be held at? Or how many "DINERS" will be dancing?

CURTAINS FOR C'N'C?

Cue 'n' Curtain has made several requests to the administration for new curtains . . . to no avail. The Cue 'n' Curtain has been promised a new theater for several years, but it has never become a reality. The curtains are almost a "must" this year. The stage curtains now in use are so tattered that they are used as little as possible. New curtains will cost about $700. The budget is cut as small as possible with the hope of including the curtains; if the curtains ARE included, the other items on the budget will suffer.

Head Librarian Publishes Book

Poetry, Short Stories
Written by Mrs. Vujica

by Cynthia Hagley

Mrs. Nada Vujica, head librarian for the college, published her fourth book in Croatian recently. It was published under her nom de plume Nada Kestercanek in Buenor Aires.

This book includes a selection of short short stories, lyrical essays and impressions. It was printed in Buenos Aires because of the large settlement of Croatian-speaking people in that country.

Five anthologies of Croatian literature have included some of Mrs. Vujica's poetry. She has had a few selections published in past issues of the Manuscript.

As far as English publications are concerned, Mrs. Vujica has assisted with factual articles in reference works on Croatian language and literature.

Head librarian for seven years, Mrs. Vujica received her master's degree in library science from Maryland College. She and her husband, Dr. Vujica, chairman of the Philosophy Department, have been at Wilkes for thirteen years. Her first book in Croatian was published before she came to Wilkes.

Cue 'n' Curtain Plans Two-Act for December; Try-outs Next Week

by Gloria Zaludek

All future thespians take note. Casting auditions for Cue 'n' Curtain's next production, "The Man Who Married A Dumb Wife," will take place next week at Chase Theater.

Anyone at Wilkes may try out for the parts in a cast of seven males and three females. Mr. Groh, club advisor and director, will supervise and direct the try-outs for the play which will be presented December 3 through December 5. Those interested in scenic design should check the call board for notices concerning future meetings.

Cue 'n' Curtain extends a welcome to all the alumni, and invites all past members to visit the theater during Homecoming. Also, all department heads, executives, and interested members have worked with co-chairmen Barry Gintel and Steve Cooney on a Cue 'n' Curtain Homecoming display which will be shown at W. South Street in front of the cafeteria.

On November 3 the club advisor, officers, and heads of committees will be the lunch guests of the drama department at Mansfield State Teachers College.

Football, Soccer Tilts Headline Homecoming Weekend Activities

Booters Still Winless, Test Flying Dutchmen; Havira Sparks Attack

by Donald B. Hancock

Tomorrow the Wilkes soccermen play the first of a two-game home stand against the Flying Dutchmen from Hofstra College. The booters will be out to get their first win of the season against one tie and two defeats.

In soccer, Wilkes has a record of five wins and no defeats against Hofstra, winning the last time by a score of five to one.

In the commotion created by Homecoming, many are inclined to forget that the soccer team, too, as well as the football team, has a home game tomorrow. As far as timing is concerned, it couldn't have been arranged more conveniently; the soccer game against Hofstra gets underway in Kirby Park at 10:00 a.m. and is over at about noon, leaving ample time to take in the football game in the afternoon.

The second and last game of the homestand is against Muhlenberg College on Wednesday afternoon in Kirby Park and will be the last opportunity for the student body to see the team in action.

Bucknell 5, Wilkes 2

Last Friday afternoon, the soccer team traveled to Bucknell University and was defeated in a lopsided contest by a score of five to two.

The Colonels constantly harried the Thundering Herd throughout the first half but were frustrated in their attempts to get by opposing fullbacks to score.

Displaying obvious confidence, the Bucknell fullbacks played much farther toward midfield than is normally expected and their goalie lounged a good ten yards in front of the goal. Their confidence was shaken somewhat as the Colonels outplayed the Bisons in the first half.

Bucknell took a one to nothing halftime lead and came back in the third period to make it two to nothing. Carl Havira, Wilkes center forward, tied up the score with two goals in the third frame.

In the last period the Bucknell team came to life and displayed team play that they had altogether failed to utilize in the first half of the game and pushed in three goals to clinch the victory.

Colonels Meet Warriors, Seek Second Victory; Field Aggressive Line

Lycoming College provides the competition for the football team in the 12th annual Homecoming program. Game time is 2:00 p.m. tomorrow afternoon at the Kingston Stadium.

The Colonels, fresh from a victory over the Ursinus Bears last Saturday, will be out to bring back their second consecutive win and to capture their second Homecoming game in as many attempts, having beaten Ursinus in 1958, 8-0.

Lycoming comes to town with a two won, two lost record. The Warriors have beaten Bridgeport, 30-6; and American International College, 10-0; and have lost to Albright and Juniata on the past two Saturdays.

Coach Dave Busey will present a squad of 56 players to the Wilkes fans including 12 lettermen and 38 freshmen.

Little "peppercorn" guard Ed Receski, 165-pound senior, will lead the Warrior line again this year. Receski is considered a strong candidate for Little All American honors.

Other top performers Coach Busey depends upon are backs Burton Richardson, Stan Okotkewicz and Stanley Zebron. The latter is a freshman, who has been playing sensational ball for the Warriors.

Two local products are also expected to see action for Lycoming. Bill Ainsworth, ex-Kingston athlete, will be performing at an end position, and Joe Zollner, member of Kingston's 1958 championship team will be running out of the fullback slot.

Wilkes 25, Ursinus 15

Last Saturday the Colonels registered their initial victory of the present campaign, when they rallied in the final period for two touchdowns to beat the Ursinus Bears, 25-15.

With the linemen playing a rough, hard-charging game (holding the Bears to 17 yards rushing and 25 passing) and the backs running fast and shifty, Wilkes displayed its top offensive punch of the year.

Outstanding in the contest were Fred Williams, Bill Schutter, Marv Antinnes, Frank Spudis, Ray Marchakaitus, Al Dobrowski, Jack Makaravitz, and Ray Yanchus.

Co-ed Bowling League Revamped; Sokira's 245-595 Leads Scorers

by John Nork

The newly re-organized intramural bowling league opened its action Sunday night at the J.C.C. The pinfall started with the Blitzkriegs taking three points from the Flatballs, the Kingpins taking three points from the Gutterdusters, and the Smashers ending in a two-point deadlock with the Pinbusters.

Ed Stofko, with his 183-484, was high man for his Blitzkriegs with Bill Watkins helping with a 165-466. High man for the Flatballs was John Matthey with a 154-469. Jerry Chisarick stayed close behind with a 165-459.

Jerry Kulesa bowled a 188-507 for his Kingpins as they took three points from the Gutterdusters. Jules Heller aided the victory cause with a 170-450. Dick Myers, 179-515, and Dan Lewis, 210-490, were high men for the Gutterdusters. The Kingpins' victory earned them a first-place tie with the Blitzkriegs.

Dave Sokira bowled the evening high of 245-595 for the Pinbusters as his team and their opponents, the Smashers, each settled for two points. Emil Petrasko aided his Pinbusters by rolling a 173-453. High men for the Smashers were John Sapiego and Mark Adelson with a 176-513 and 181-456 respectively.

Intramural Football League Gets Underway; Honeymooners Win Two

The curtain opened on the 1959 Intramural football season with the Honeymooners, Human Beans and defending champion Shawneeites as early favorites to rule the loop. A strong defensive-minded Gore Hall squad is the league's dark horse.

Clem Gavenas led the Honeymooners to victory in the season's opener against a determined Hollenback team, 12-9. "Jumbo John" Matthey and "Slim Ralph" Hendershot played lonely ends for the Honeymooners (not "B.O." but a new, radical, offensive spread).

Bernie Radecki caught the winning pass as passing wizard Gavenas threw the ball into the end zone and Radecki fought off two defenders to claim the score and victory.

The Honeymooners' second victory came over the Dorm Demons, 20-7. Once again the stone-wall defenses of "Jumbo," "Slim," and "Daddy" Radecki led the way for the win. Vince Capo starred for the Demons but could not compare with the aerial antics of "Slingin' Bob" Socecinski.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

"El Booto" Williams Earns Honors, Grabs Blocked Punt, Scores 6 Points

by George Tensa

"Big Freddy" Williams is the recipient of this week's Beacon award. The 245-pound tackle was one of the major factors in the 25-15 Colonel victory over a favored Ursinus College last Saturday.

Fred Williams

One of the stalwarts of the Blue and Gold line for the past four seasons, Fred was at his best on Saturday when he was the fifth man in the Bears' backfield all afternoon throwing ballcarriers for big losses and causing several fumbles.

The outstanding play of the game came early in the third quarter when Fred blocked a punt, picked up the ball and raced 15 yards into the end zone for the Colonels' second touchdown to put Wilkes ahead at that time, 12-8. It was the first score ever registered by the burly tackle in his college career.

by Mary Frances Barone

The After Glow, sponsored by the Senior Class, will be held in the gymnasium from 9-12 tonight. Jack Melton's seven-piece combo will provide the music, and the donation will be fifty cents.

The Seniors selected the theme "After Glow" for a special reason. The dance is preceded by the big, glowing Homecoming bonfire, and the bonfire leaves its certain affects, an afterglow.

The decorations for this dance will follow an autumn theme complete with pumpkins, cornstalks, and bonfires. The Cider and doughnuts for refreshments also add a little something special to the atmosphere.

The proceeds of the After Glow will be placed in the Senior Class fund. This will aid the Seniors in the payment of their various expenses.

A special invitation is extended to the Alumni, and the Seniors are looking forward to see them at the After Glow tonight. The Alumni will have a chance to rehash old times and stories with their friends from Wilkes.

The general chairman of the dance is Pat Fushek. Committee chairmen are: Clancey Dennis, decorations; Dave Roebuck, tickets; Allyn Jones, orchestra; Carol Haracz, refreshments; Judy Richardson, publicity. The chaperones for tonight's affair are Dr. and Mrs. Vujica.

Contributions For UF Fall Behind Schedule

by Wayne Thomas

Dr. Charles E. Reif, director of the 1959-60 United Fund Campaign at Wilkes, has announced that $623 has now been collected for the drive. Members of the freshman class have contributed $243, $175 was received from the United Fund Dance, $135 was collected from upperclassmen, and $70 was contributed by individual clubs.

Dr. Reif stated that he felt confident that the goal of $1500 would be reached, but he also said that contributions have fallen behind schedule.

At a meeting of Wyoming Valley United Fund workers held last Wednesday, 51% of the returns were reported and these contributions had increased 10% over last year's donations. The goal set for the community United Fund is $1,273,000. If this goal is not reached, many agencies will be forced to curtail some of their services.

The United Fund Campaign closes at Wilkes on October 28, when Dr. Reif will deliver the final report at the United Fund dinner. All students who have not yet made their contributions are urged to do so as soon as possible.

Dinner Dance Tomorrow At College Gymnasium; Buffet Style Dinner

by Carmella Insalaco
