the president. She served for one year as a senior interviewer for the California State Employment Service and left to accept a position as administrative assistant in the California State Department of Education where she served from 1936 to 1945.

Miss Cole has served as educational director of the Virginia Cancer Society at Richmond; as assistant to the managers of Pendle Hill, graduate school for social research at Wallingford, Pa.; as a teacher - counselor at the Sacramento Senior High School in Sacramento, California; and as an administrative aide in the U.S. Office of Education in Washington. She has experience in varied phases of counselling work.

The new Dean of Women is affiliated with many professional organizations, including the American Association of University Women, the Washington, D.C., Audubon Society, the Mental Health Association at Washington, the California League of Women Voters, California Teachers Association, and the National Education Association.

Continentals to Play

This evening the Senior class will present something novel in the way of a Friday night's entertainment. The source of this fun and frolic is Bobby Baird and his Continentals.

Dancing will be held from 9 to 12 in the gym as usual, but then comes the change. Baird and his group will present a half-hour jazz show featuring a cool cornet familiar to those who frequent a well-known West Side bistro.

General chairman of the dance is Myron Suseck. Assisting him are Charles Garis, tickets; Robert Pitel, music; Reginald Trzeskowski, refreshments; Michael Goobick, publicity. Chaperoning this dance for the Seniors are Edward Heltzel and Arthur Hoover.

The original plans made for this evening included a Senior Spectacle. This hour-long show filled with comedy skits had to be cancelled because of a loss of key personnel. At this time of year, many out-of-town commitments come up, especially among Seniors in regards to employment. The Senior class has kept is promise, however, to have something more than the usual Friday night dance.

IN FRIDAY CAMPAIGN

by Robert Bearley

Blood Donor Day was held last week at the Red Cross Blood Center, 156 South Franklin Street. The results for the day were 26 persons accepted as donors and 2 persons rejected. Donations were accepted from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Several persons arrived too late to donate and were asked to come back at a later date. For this reason the campaign was extended until today to make a full week.

The campaign has been held annually in the spring since 1951. Here is the list of the number of donations for the years 1951 through 1958:

Mrs. Doane became Dean of Women in 1954. In addition to her position as Dean of Women, she also served as faculty advisor to Theta Delta Rho and the student assembly committee.

Recalling her first days at Wilkes, Mrs. Doane said, "I came to assist as Dean of Women for a three-month period, and when asked to stay, I was very glad because I felt the challenge of working as Dean to be a very real and interesting one.

"The sharing with these young women, their joys and problems, was not only gratifying in that I was able to assist when and where needed; but it also added to each new day a variety of great scope. Gaining the confidence of shy women and feeling it possible to give them encouragement and advice, created many moments of deep satisfaction.

"Even though the prospect of leisure and travel is a happy one there will be many moments, I'm sure, when both Dr. Doane and I will wish that we might once more share the joys of the young women and men of Wilkes College."

Mrs. Doane was born in Mansfield, Pennsylvania. She began her studies for a teaching career at Mansfield State Teachers College. After her graduation from Mansfield, she did advanced work at Emerson College, Boston, Massa-chusetts. While at Emerson she taught English at the North Street Settlement, near the Old North Church in Boston. She remembers this first teaching experience as an exciting and interesting challenge.

Thirteen years ago the Doanes moved to Wyoming Valley and established residences at Idetown and Wilkes-Barre. Mrs. Doane has been a prominent figure in welfare circles, serving as a member of the State Advisory Committee for the welfare of children in rural areas, a member of the Child Welfare Committee and the Planning Council of the Wyoming Valley Community Chest.

She was also a member of the Board of Public Assistance in Luzerne County, a member of the Executive Board of the Northeastern Heart Association, a member of the State Advisory Committee on Child Adoptions and president of the Children's Aid Society of Tioga County. Mrs. Doane is also past president of the Wyoming Valley Women's Club and the Penn-(continued on page2)

EDITORIAL

Thanks, but Not Good-bye

Five and a half years ago Wilkes was honored by having Mrs. Gertrude Allen Doane come as Acting Dean of Women. Original plans called for Mrs. Doane to stay for only three months, to finish out the semester. Through the urging of Dr. Farley and the student body, she has remained with us for a much longer and gratifying stay.

The Dean of Women's office at Wilkes has been different from those in other colleges since Mrs. Doane came. In other institutions of higher learning, to be "called to the Dean's office" usually means only one thing, — trouble. Here at Wilkes, a call from Mrs. Doane or a visit on the spur of the moment usually mean a pleasant experience. Mrs. Doane has been nothing but courteous and helpful to all students who sought her aid whether it be a personal or academic problem. Many times she has been sought out to answer questions on any subject from where to buy cokes for a dance to the scholastic average necessary for graduation.

Men and women students have always felt free to just drop in to see and chat with Mrs. Doane emphasizing her amiable disposition and willingness to serve others.

Theta Delta Rho has also gained much by having Mrs. Doane as their advisor over the years. She has been the quiding force behind the growth and spirit of that organization, helping in many ways to solve the problems common to most

The Inter-Dormitory Council has recently honored the retiring Dean by naming the Outstanding Female Dormitory Student award after her. Since Mrs. Doane has been an outstanding Dean, it is fitting to give an award named in her honor to the outstanding female resident.

Her services have not been limited to the Wilkes campus. She has been a prominent figure in service organizations throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania, serving on many child welfare committees and charity projects. Her life has been dedicated to the betterment of young people.

We hope that her retirement will be in word only, and that she will continue in her work with young people because we firmly believe that she has done much to make Wilkes a friendly

Her ability to remember the name of each and every student has never ceased to amaze us, and we have the feeling that she will never forget the students of Wilkes, just as those students will never forget her.

We are sure that the students join us in thanking Mrs. Doane for a job more than well done and wishing her and Dr. Doane all the happiness that they deserve.

J. PYATT TO PRESENT RECITAL ON SUNDAY

by Michael Salinsky

On Sunday afternoon, at 3:30, Miss Jean Pyatt will give a senior recital in the Wilkes gymnasium. The soprano, a Music Education major at Wilkes, is the director of the Women's Chorus here, and under her tutelage the chorus has risen to new heights of recognition throughout the Wyoming Valley and elsewhere.

Miss Pyatt had been a voice pupil of Mr. Wilbur Isaacs for four years. She is now studying under Mr. Richard B. Chapline, who is a newly acquired member of the Wilkes faculty.

A member of Theta Delta Rho Miss Pyatt is familiar to many Wilkes students for her appearances in various Cue 'n' Curtain musicals. She also sang in a recent assembly and has received compliments for her emotional realism.

Miss Janet Cornell will accompany the soprano on the piano. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pyatt, Govier Street, this city, Miss Pyatt will graduate this June from Wilkes.

'MANUSCRIPT' STAFF PLANS DISTRIBUTION

George Black, editor of the Manuscript, the college's literary publication, has announced that the editorial staff plans distribution of the magazine during the last week of this semester's classes.

The magazine, greatly expanded from past issues, will contain sixtyeight pages of work submitted by students of Wilkes. Eight pages of the publication are devoted to art and music expression. Included in the art work are five original paintings submitted by four per-

The remaining portion of the Manuscript will contain short stories, essays, and poetry which have been selected from works submitted to the staff for evaluation and consideration for the magazine. Several of the major works contain appropriate llustrations.

Next week's Beacon will contain a preview of some of the highlights of the forthcoming Manuscript.

I.C.G. Sponsors Talks By Political Candidates, Thatcher Is Moderator

by Jean Shofranko

A panel discussion to acquaint the student body and Valley residents with the issues involved in the forthcoming primary elections was held in the Commons Monday evening. Wilkes Chapter of the Inter - Collegiate Conference on Government and Politics sponsored the affair.

Speakers were three Republican candidates for the office of District Attorney and one Democratic candidate. The moderator was Dr. Harold W. Thatcher, chairman of the history department.

The speaker - candidates were Attorney Stephen A. Teller, candidate on the Regular Democratic ticket; Attorney Arthur Silverblatt, candidate on the Regular Republican ticket; Attorney Joseph P. Olexy, Loyal Republican Party candidate; and Attorney Peter Kanjorski, Victory Republican Party candidate.

Dr. Thatcher termed the session 'a discussion of democracy at the grass roots level". Each candidate employment in Luzerne County and spoke for fifteen minutes.

Attorney lamented the decline in hit the Republican administration to certain foreign countries but defeating a distressed areas bill that would help this region.

Attorney Silverblatt told of the social welfare program of the present county administration and what is being done for the benefit of the area's aged and infirm. He added that the county commissioners, T. Newell Wood and J. Bowden Northrup, who are seeking another term in office, went into office with certain pledges and have kept them.

Attorney Olexy said that there were two issues in this campaign. He enumerated them as and simple morality in government. He commented that certain types of unsavory characters who exist in the county as "hangers on" ought to be eliminated. He claimed the members of his ticket are "un-

Attorney Kanjorski, Victory Republican Party candidate, managed by Senator Harold E. Flack, said that it is the wrong time to build a county home for the aged and infirm and struck out at the unwarranted expenditures of the present county commissioners. He asserted that this is the time the county is least able to finance a county home because of the drop in coal assessment. His slate, said Kanjorski, proposes no man connected with a coal company be a county assessor.

J. METCALFE WILL ADDRESS ASSEMBLY FOR TENTH TIME

Mr. John C. Metcalfe, distinguished Washington news analyst and commentator, will make his tenth return engagement to Wilkes as a speaker at this Tuesday's assembly. Mr. Metcalfe is also one of the foremost prize-winning journalists in the nation. With over a quarter of a century of reporting experience on some of America's greatest newspapers, he has gained a wide reputation as an interpreter of American foreign policy.

Metcalfe has traveled extensively in the United States, Europe, and Latin America, covering many great international conferences in these parts of the world for leading publications. His articles from Washington, New York, Europe, and Latin America have been syndicated throughout the world.

Among the awards given to him for outstanding achievement in American journalism are: National Headliners Silver Plaque, Chicago Advisory Board Americanism Gold Plaque, Chilean Legion of Merit Decoration, and Norway's St. Olav Medal.

He began his journalistic career in 1925 with the Associated Press in Chicago. He subsequently reported for the San Antonio Light and the Chicago Times. Later he became the Washington Diplomatic Correspondent for Time Magazine and the New York Herald-Tribune. He has also been the chief Washington analyst and syndicate writer for Worldwide Press Service. Mr. Metcalfe is a contributor to various publications of articles on national and foreign affairs. He has also been a commentator and news analyst on television and radio net-

Among many famous beats scored by him were his scoops on the abdication of King Christian X of Denmark in World War II; Turkey's severance of diplomatic relations with Germany; the content of the Chinese-Soviet post-war treaty; U.S. backing on cession of the Saar to France; revelation of the secret Yalta agreement with Bert Andrews, of the New York Herald-Tribune; interview with Andrei Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign minister, when the latter walked out of the United Nations Security Council over the Iranian dispute; United States recommendations for United Nations Charter changes and several major upheavals in the Kremlin.

Mr. Metcalfe has given some 3.000 professional lectures in the past 22 years and has talked in 48 states and in foreign countries.

He was the first reporter to focus national attention to subversive activities. He turned investigatorreporter and spent six exciting months inside the German-Ameri-

A committee of government officials and educators will review requests requiring justification to determine whether the extra funds should be awarded. This necessitates a careful approach of the student applications by the colleges before submitting their requests to the government. Final figures should be available by September.

Last year $7,847 was awarded to Wilkes, to which the College added $1,000. These funds were distributed to 40 applicants. The administration has expressed an opinion that the 1959-60 allotment may be as much as three times last year's figure, but emphasizes the need for students to use reason and careful study in making their applications.

Qualifications

Students applying for loans under this National Defense Student Loan program must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents, fulltime students in good standing, and giving evidence of need.

Special consideration will be given in extraordinary cases where a student has a superior academic background with a desire to teach in secondary or elementary schools. Also, special consideration will be given to those entering science, mathematics, engineering, or foreign language fields.

Loans will be made up to $1,000 per fiscal year, and should be used only for college expenses. Exceptional cases will be given consideration when necessary for a student to remain in college. Repayment

Repayment may be made in monthly payments, but the principal and interest shall normally be repaid in ten equal annual installments. Interest does not begin until one year from the date a student ceases to be in full-time enrollment.

Cancellation provisions allow a ten per cent reduction of principal plus interest for each academic year of service in public elementary or secondary schools. maximum amount to be cancelled is fifty per cent. Interest on the loans will be three per cent.

The next issue of the Beacon will carry the results of the balloting that selects the "Beacon Athlete of the Year." For the past seven years the Sports staff of the Beacon has polled the coaches of the various intercollegiate teams, the Director of Athletics, Director of Sports Publicity, and Beacon Sports staff, to find the athlete most deserving of that select title.

Last year's winner of the award was Ronnie Rescigno who is presently teaching and coaching in a high school on Long Island. The year before saw an undefeated season for Jim Ward on the wrestling mats and he walked away with the year's honors.

The athletes eligible for the award qualify by being picked "Athlete of the Week" sometime during the school year under consideration. No other qualifications are necessary. He does not have to be a Senior nor to have lettered in more than one sport during the year.

This year the balloting should see several men in real contention for the title with possibly a single vote or two deciding the issue between the approximately 18 eligible men. TENNIS

The tennis team seems to have acquired the ailment that is peculiar to young teams. The swimming and golf teams both had difficulties drawing their first blood, until they gained full-time coaches in the forms of Russ Picton and Welton Farrar. The tennis team now seems to be in the throes of "being or not being." Besides the lack of a fulltime coach they don't have a regular home court on which to practice and gain the advantage of meeting teams from opposing schools on grounds with which they are entirely familiar.

On the credit side they seem not to lack for enthusiasm and seem to be getting closer and closer to winning their first meet. Hopes are especially high that they may be able to take Lycoming the second time around this season.

BEST WISHES

Best wishes are in order for Wrestling Coach and new Director of Athletics at Wilkes, John Reese. (See story on page five.)

RECRUITS GRAB N.L. FLAG; MEET BLIVETS IN PLAYOFFS

Last Tuesday Ray's Recruits copped the championship of the National League by trouncing the Phonies, 4-0. The champs finished the regular league schedule with an unblemished 4-0 record. The college championship will be decided by a threegame playoff between the Recruits and the Blivets, American League champs.

The Recruits started off with a bang, scoring all four runs in the first inning. Paul Klein, leadoff man, drove the first pitch into centerfield for a single. The next man, Bernie Radecki, received a free pass. Ray Yanchus then reached first on an error with Klein

Carl Kemmerer followed with a single, driving in the second run. The two baserunners were advanced by Fred Williams as he flied out to center, and then scored as Ken Selody doubled down the rightfield line.

Danny Lewis cut off a rally in the fourth when he grabbed a Larry Williams ground ball, stepped on second forcing out Jake Tenshaw who had walked, and tossing to first baseman Selody for the out on Williams despite being taken out of the play very effectively by Tenshaw.

Clem Gavenas received his second shutout of the season and his fourth straight victory without a loss. His pitching was near-perfect as he walked only two batters and struck out four. Many of the Phonies strained their eyes looking into the strong sun at their pop flies.

You can reproduce the experiment. It's easy as π . (Yes, you can do it in the bathtub.) Assuming that you have first visited your friendly tobacconist, simply light your first Winston and smoke it. Reasoning backwards, the discovery proceeds as follows: first, you will notice a delightful flavor, in the class of fresh coffee or of bread baking. Obviously, such flavor cannot come from the filter. Therefore, it's what's up front that counts: Winston's Filter-Blend. The tobaccos are selected for flavor and mildness, then specially processed for filter smoking. This extra step is the real difference between Winston and all other filter cigarettes. Colonel 'Nine' Whips Warriors, Dydo Stars Again

by Ray Yanchus

Wednesday the Colnels romped over the Lycoming Warriors, 7-1. Pitcher Mike Dydo limited the Warriors to three hits and had three hits himself, including a double and a triple, to complete the rout over the Williamsporters.

Dydo scored the first big run in the fourth inning when Ralph Hendershot hit to right field. The Blue and Gold scored two runs in each of the seventh, eighth and ninth innings for their fourth win of the season.

The team faces three of the top eastern collegiate nines in the coming week. Rider will host the Colonels Saturday at Trenton, N.J.

The Broncs are undefeated this season, sporting a 10-0 slate. They have defeated such top teams as Wagner, Upsala, Princeton, Trenton State Teachers, Lincoln, and a strong Army nine.

Rider is well-heeled this year, having three front-line hurlers and three men batting over .400.

The mound staff is headed by big Jack Madden, a two-time winner this season and an over-all record of 16 wins and three losses during his Rider career.

Centerfielder Jim Inman leads the club in hitting with a .429 average, followed closely by second baseman Marty Brenner with .412.

Last time the two teams met. Coach Carl Nawoj's forces came Slomkowski, 2-0, and Bob Carty, out on top, 9-2.

Backstops — John Mattey and John Harvey

Ithaca Monday

Monday the Pinkowskimen battle the Ithaca Bombers at Ithaca, N.Y. An earlier game scheduled for Artillery Park was rained out.

The Bombers had a 5-1 record on April 30, including a 21-0 win over Buffalo State.

Two Bomber pitchers are sporting 0.0 earned run averages, Rich

Shortstop Wilfred Chabat paces the team with a .500 batting average and the senior second baseman is hitting .375.

On Thursday the Colonels will host the Scranton Royals. A previously scheduled home game with Scranton was moved to that city because of wet grounds.

Friday's Results

Bobby Meckwood limited Wilkes to one hit, a single by catcher John Harvey, as the Scranton Royals defeated the Colonels, 11-0. Meckwood struck out 12 and walked 3.

Mike Dydo pitched for the Colonels and was charged with his second loss of the season. Harvey's hit came with two down in the seventh inning and was a clean

Saturday's Results

Saturday the Susquehanna Crusaders edged Wilkes, 4-3, in 10 innings, the winning run coming on a single by Ted Okimura as he was being intentionally walked. Okimura lunged across the plate at a wide pitch and plunked the ball into right field for a gameclinching blow.

Freshman Pat Monaghan, former Meyers chucker, opened on the hill for Wilkes and worked seven innings limiting the Crusaders to three runs on three hits. He was relieved by Mike Dydo, who was working after pitching 9 innings the previous day, and brought his record to 3-3 for the season.

Wilkes took an early lead with a run in the third inning. Shortstop Jerry Lawrence singled, stole second and scored on an error.

The Colonels increased their lead in the fifth when Dick Harvey singled, Ralph Hendershot walked and both scored on an error by the Susquenanna third baseman.

Susquehanna came back in their half of the fifth as they collected their first base hits of the contest and tied the game with a run in the seventh, setting the stage for Okimura's unorthodox hit.

Jerry Lawrence, Ralph Hendershot, and Paul Aquilino each hit safely twice for the Colonels while Dick Harvey garnered the other Wilkes hit.

LINKSMEN UPENDED. MANSFIELD WINS, 14-4

The golfers journeyed to Mansfield Monday to take on the Teachers but ran into stiff competition and lost, 14-4. The only bright spot for the Colonels in an otherwise gloomy day was Ed Mikolaitis' near shutout win, 21/2 to 1/2. The only other Colonels to score were the two Petes on the team, Perog and McLaughlin, scoring 1 point and ½ point, respectively.

Bob Januszko tried hard, playing the eighteen holes with an 82 for the best individual effort the Colonels had to offer, but was shut out by Mansfield's John Rudy, a Berwick club champion, who shot a one-over-par 73.

The results:

Jahn Rudy, M, over Bob Janusz-ko, 3-0; Ed Mikolaitis, W, over Dick Nares, 21/2-1/2; Edgar Page, M, over Al Stralka, 3-0; Bill Llewellyn, M, over Pete Perog, 2-1; Ron Martin, M, over Pete McLaughlin, 2½-½; Mike McManey, M, over Jay Olexy, 3-0.

Today the Linksmen trek to Williamsport to meet the Lycoming Warriors at the Williamsport Country Club.

The top four men will then participate in the Harpur College Invitational Tournament on Saturday. The Gold Medal play will be at the Enjoie Country Club in Endicott, New York. Lemoyne College is last year's defending champion.

On Sunday the four-man squad will travel to Newark, Delaware, to participate in the Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Conference tournament. The 36-hole, Gold Medal play will feature some of the top collegiate teams in the eastern states led by a strong Hofstra squad. Lehigh University is last year's defending champion.

The Colonels will close out the season next weekend with Moravian College.

Mr. Reese will assume the duties of Dean of Men George Ralston, who has held the position of Athletic Director for many years.

Dean Ralston cited the rapid growth and expansion of facilities as one of the reasons for Mr. Reese's elevation to the new posi-

Duties of the Athletic Director are wide and varied, but chiefly, he is responsible for the scheduling of varsity athletic contests, procuring of officials for the home sports events, care and maintenance of equipment and facilities, purchase and maintenance of uniforms, and co-ordinator with the coaches on matters of the College's athletic policies.

Mr. Reese has had a great deal experience, working directly with Dean Ralston on many of the duties of Athletic Director, in addition to holding several coaching positions. He is currently coach of the wrestling team and has served as evoach of both the soccer and baseball squads.

Last year his baseball team completed its season with the best record in the Northern Division of the Middle Atlantic Conference, he has produced a Middle Atlantic powerhouse in wrestling, one which has captured three consecutive Conference championship teams and six individual champs.

Also, he took over a completely inexperienced soccer team and started the building of what is now a Conference contender under his successor, ex-Colonel soccer ace Jim Ferris, a Reese product.

Mr. Reese has shown his ability as an organizer in his duties in the annual Wilkes Open Wrestling Tournaments, one of the biggest and most successful tournaments in the nation. These events are always well-attended by colleges and universities from all over the United States who consistently comment on the efficiency of the tournament.

At Wilkes, he is also Director of the College Intramural Sports program, which annually has over 300

GOVERNM'NT ACCEPTS THREE NEW POLICIES

by Florence Gallagher

At a recent student government meeting plans were made to change the current advertising procedure by making the student government responsible for the making and distribution of fliers. At this meeting, the government also announced the acceptance of three new poli-

The plans for advertising in the future would call for the student government to buy paper with money from its budget and to distribute this paper to students as it sees fit. No fliers will be printed without the consent of the government even if the students provide their own materials.

The student government has announced that from now on a member of the Student government, so designated by the President of the student government, will have the responsibility of informing all class and club presidents of the need for form submission three weeks prior to the required date of the social event.

Failure to comply with this rule will result in loss of any future events in that particular calendar year, and dependent upon the vote of the student government. Possible cancellation of the scheduled event, unless positive proof can be given to the government that the tardiness of activity form sumission is justifiable.

If the organization has been granted a particular calendar date and another organization desires that particular date, it is the responsibility of the officers of those organizations to meet with the President of the student government to attempt to work out a mutually satisfactory agreement.

The student government should then be immediately informed of their agreement. If an agreement cannot be reached, the organization who has already received approval for that particular date in question has priority.

If the contesting organization fails to comply with this rule, it will automatically lose its remaining calendar dates on the current calendar. There shall be no club meetings scheduled for the dates when regularly scheduled class meetings are to be held. This does not pertain to special class meet-
