RULES DISPUTE RESULTS IN WEINER'S RESIGNATION

S. C. Parliamentarian Calls Point of Order On Lawrence Decision

The usually reserved Student Council meeting resulted in fireworks last Tuesday. Before the meeting terminated, two members, Larry Amdur resigned a chairmanship and Les Weiner resigned from his elected position as parliamentarian.

Larry Amdur's decision to resign as Chairman of the Constitution Committee was not wholly unexpected. Amdur explained to the Council that personal obligations, such as outside work, make it impossible for him to continue serving his chairmanship efficiently.

Les Weiner's resignation, however, was totally unexpected. Weiner withdrew from his office as parliamentarian since he felt that parliamentary procedure was being violated.

At previous meetings, the Council voted not to engage singer Steve Lawrence for the forthcoming Cinderella Ball. However, Larry Amdur challenged the decision by recalling the issue to the floor for a re-vote. This resulted in Weiner's action, since the balloting was tied and Don Reynolds, Council president, cast the deciding vote against bringing the issue to the floor.

In a statement to the Beacon, Weiner said, "The issue of having Steve Lawrence sing at the Cinderella Ball has brought before the Council a problem in parliamentary procedure.

"Up until this issue was brought before the Council, it was my opinion that the Student Council was being run according to Roberts Rules of Orders, Revised, which it was my duty to enforce.

"The Council has, in my opinion, refused to follow these rules on this issue; and therefore, I submitted my resignation to protest this unprecedented action."

The Council voted to reimburse promoter Len Brader for the expenses he incurred while obtaining Steve Lawrence for the Ball.

Jim Stevens, engineering student, represented the engineers and stated that the latter department does not want to be listed with the seniors in their sophomore year. Consequently, the request will be taken into consideration for amendment in the student constitution.

Two campus clubs, the CCUN and the Chemistry Club, were allotted funds to attend conferences. The former group was given $99 while the latter received funds to accommodate twenty-seven students.

Co-chairmen Les Weiner and Nancy Morris are scheduled, along with their committee members, to meet with the deans concerning the Council's scholarship fund.

Tippet on Dean's List

Jack E. Tippet, Kingston resident, has been added to the college Dean's List for having compiled a B-plus average last semester.

Tippet is a candidate for a bachelor of science degree in commerce and finance and will graduate in June.

Debaters Enter Harvard Tournament

by Ruth Younger

Two 2-man debating teams will leave today to represent Wilkes at the Harvard Invitational Tournament. John Bucholtz and Jesse Choper, Fred Roberts and Bruce Warshal will make up the two teams. Dr. Arthur Kruger, coach of the debating team will accompany the debaters to the tournament.

Each team will debate six rounds; three rounds upholding the negative and three rounds upholding the affirmative of the National debate question, Resolved: "That the United States should discontinue direct economic aid to foreign countries."

The two first teams will meet in a final round Saturday evening after a banquet given for all the debaters and judges of the tournament. Dr. Kruger said that the teams have worked hard to prepare for this debate and he has high hopes that they will be successful. The record for these teams this year is 28 wins and 11 losses. They won two tournaments and placed second in two others.

Monday, Dr. Kruger received a letter from James L. Kincaid, President of the Harvard Debate Council.

In the letter Mr. Kincaid said: "We were extremely pleased to see that you intend to enter such fine debaters as John Bucholtz and Jesse Choper in the Harvard Tournament. We expect to see them give St. Anselm's team a real fight for first place. May I compliment you on having such fine gentlemen to represent your college. My colleague and I met them at the 5th round at Boston University. Although it was not successful for Harvard in terms of winning and losing, we enjoyed the debate with Wilkes."

St. Anselm won the Harvard Tournament last year; they are sending the same team to defend the title this year. Wilkes defeated Harvard at the Boston University Tournament.

Next week the debate teams will enter the District Seven Elimination Tournament where five teams will be chosen to enter the West Point National Tournament.

BIOLOGY, CHEMISTRY CLUBS TO ATTEND EASTERN CONFERENCE

by Frank Gallia

The Biology and Chemistry Clubs are sending a delegation of twenty-seven students to the eleventh annual Eastern Colleges Science Conference to be held this weekend in Washington, D.C. Club presidents Natalie Gripp, Chemistry, and Les Weiner, Biology, will serve as the official representatives of their respective departments.

Five papers will be presented to the conference by members of the Wilkes College Biological Society. One hundred twenty-five papers will be presented by representatives of the ninety colleges attending, thus making Wilkes one of the top contributors to the conference.

Four of the papers will be presented in a symposium entitled, "The Use of Agar Media for the Qualitative Study of Antigen-Antibody Precipitin Reactions". The first of these papers was prepared by Jerome Stein and is entitled, "The Agar-Gel Diffusion Test — A Discussion of Principles, Applications and Technique".

The second paper, "The Resolution of Ragweed Pollen into Antigenic Constituents", was prepared by Leslie P. Weiner.

"The Study of Antigenic Constituents of, and Immune Responses of, Staphylococcus aureus" is the title of the third paper which was prepared by Vincent Drapiewski. The last paper of the symposium, "A Study of the Possible Presence of Non-essential, Non-toxic, Ingredients of Bacterial Exotoxins Contributed by Culture Media", was prepared by Samuel C. Mines.

The fifth paper was prepared by George Weaver and Sam Puma. This paper is entitled, "The Determination of the Correlation of the Dissolved Oxygen Content and Known Pollution of the Susquehanna River".

Class Seeks Nominees For Mr. President Title; Inauguration March 29

by Marion J. Klawonn

The Sophomore Class will inaugurate a new dance and a new idea at their Presidential Ball on March twenty-ninth in the gym.

"Mr. President" will be the title given to the man elected to the latest office on campus. He must be an active member of his class and an active member in some of the clubs. All male students at Wilkes are eligible for the nominations which will take place in the cafeteria from twelve to one o'clock today, March 15, and also on March 18 and 19.

The names of the "top ten" will be published in the Beacon on March 22. Final vote by the student body will take place on March 25, 26, and 27 in The Commons. Then, there will be a breathless wait until the night of the dance to see who is Wilkes College's "Mr. President."

The Sophomore Class will present many lovely gifts to "Mr. President" and the "First Lady", his date.

Gene Marchetti and his orchestra will play for this unusual dance. Admission is three dollars a couple and a no-corsage ruling will be in effect.

All of these papers were prepared as projects within the Biological Society. The research for the four papers of the symposium was done at the Biological Research Laboratory under the direction of Dr. Sheldon G. Cohen.

Boyle, Frey, Homan Favorites Of Student Body in Balloting; Re-voting Scheduled for Tuesday

Over 275 students voted in the Beacon's "Best-Dressed Girl Contest", and oddly enough a three-way tie resulted. Lynn Boyle, Nancy Frey, and Mary Homan each received the same number of votes, thus necessitating a new election.

Since there will be only three well-dressed candidates in the running, competition is expected to be stiff and heated, and the voting heavy. The new election will take place next Tuesday from twelve until three o'clock in the cafeteria, and the voting will be supervised—that is, a Beacon member will furnish ballots to each person as he votes, and will use a student roster to prevent any "honest" student from voting twice.

ST. PATRICK'S TEA IN MCCLINTOCK HALL

by Marion J. Klawonn

Theta Delta Rho will hold its annual St. Patrick's Day Tea in McClintock Hall this afternoon from three to five o'clock.

Co-chairmen Rose Weinstein and Marilyn Carl have been busy sending out invitations to all the local high schools. The sorority expects a large representation from each school to attend the Tea. This annual affair, in conjunction with the Washington's Birthday Tea, is held to acquaint high school girls with the Wilkes campus and the sorority members.

A tour of the campus has been arranged for the guests after the Tea. The girls will be shown through McClintock and Sterling Halls. They will then be shown some of the buildings and classrooms on campus.

Working with Rose and Marilyn are: Marilyn Warburton, hostess; Judy Gommer, publicity; Pat Bedeski, refreshments; Barbara Ritter, house; Nancy Payne, name tags; Linda Passereli, clean-up.

ENGINEERS' DANCE TO FEATURE COMBO

by Gail E. MacMillan

The Engineering Club will hold its second dance of the year tonight in the gym. The dance entitled "The Slide Rule Swing" is named after the much used instrument of all engineers.

Jerry Stephens, club president, is chairman of the affair and has appointed the other officers to assist him. They are: Tony Coray, vice president; James Owen, secretary; and Ted Kowalski, treasurer.

Also assisting are the following committees: Publicity, Peter Pisaneschi, chairman, Robert Boravich and Stanley Novak; refreshments, Bart Sokol, chairman, Frank Blawowski, Nick Keller, and Lee Eckert; tickets, Ted Kowalski, chairman, Joseph Sincavage, Art Belles, Tony Coray, Nelson Stauffer, and Nick Siecko; decorations, Tony Coray, chairman, Paul Cera, and Norman Tabor.

Music by the Statesmen will be furnished from 9 to 12 o'clock. Admission is 50 cents.

Dixieland Jazz Concert And Cabaret Scheduled; Strum Combo will Play

The Economics Club will sponsor a combination Dixieland Jazz Concert and Cabaret, "The Spring Fling," next Friday. Irene Tomalis, chairman, has announced that Jerry Strum's Dixieland Combo will furnish the music for the first presentation of the proposed annual affair.

The event is designed with the individual student in mind. Half of the gym will be reserved for those who really want to "trip the light fantastic," while the other half will be set up cabaret style for students who, in observance of Lent, may (continued on page 2)

Mary Homan, a suave, brown-haired lass who resides at McClintock Hall is also one of the proud possessions of the freshman class. A Medical Technology student, Mary is a representative on the Student Council, the Freshman Class Council, and Theta Delta Rho.

Nancy Frey, another blonde, blue-eyed beauty on campus, is the only upperclassman in the trio. Nancy, who is an English major, is active in the college sorority, Theta Delta Rho, and modeled in the sorority's spring fashion show last year. She was graduated from G.A.R. High School where she was a drum majorette and newspaper editor.

Although the Beacon has mentioned this fact many times before, we feel that the importance of this warrants repetition—this is not a popularity contest. Students are urged to judge students on the basis of imagination, use of accessories, personal grooming, and just plain "common sense." We think we have one of "the" well-dressed women on campus, and we hope that the students have the interest to help us prove it.

SOFTBALL LEAGUE SEEKING ENTRIES

John Reese, Director of Intramural Sports, has announced that all persons interested in playing softball should begin to assemble their teams.

Team captains will be required to present their squad rosters to Mr. Reese as soon as they are able, in order that schedules may be drawn up.

There are no requirements for entrance into the softball leagues except having enough players to field a team.

Anyone who is interested in acting as an umpire is urged to contact Mr. Reese at once.

When all teams have been made up and rosters submitted, a meeting of team captains will be announced. At this meeting, schedules will be arranged, student officials and directors will be appointed, and rules governing the conduct of the games will be explained.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS

Voting for co-captains and the Joseph G. Gallagher award will take place all day Monday in Mr. Picton's office, third floor, Chase Hall. Be sure to vote!

Orchids

The fine work of six biology majors in preparing research papers for the Eastern Colleges Science Conference, being held this weekend, will again put Wilkes in the academic spotlight.

Four of the papers were prepared as by-products of the research project being conducted in the college's Biological Research Laboratory. Dr. Sheldon Cohen supervises the laboratory.

This is another example of the fine work being done by the science students of the campus and should be a sign of future achievements which will come when the completion of the Stark Science Building improves the facilities of the science departments.

Our congratulations to Les Weiner, Jerry Stein, Vince Drapiewski, Sam Mines, George Weaver and Sam Puma.

Manners and Parking

While our athletic teams have made favorable impressions with their good manners and fair play at home and away, the rest of the students have been quite lax here at home.

One has but to park one's car in the student parking lot at South Franklin and South Streets to find this out. Through common courtesy one would expect a person blocking another car in to leave the key in the car. This is unusually done. However, it would also be nice if those who take cars out of the lot would put the cars they move back in proper places.

We do not mean that each car should be put back in the same spot from which it came, but that they be returned to the lot so that anyone wanting to repeat he procedure may do so without a major feat of engineering.

It all boils down to the Biblical philosophy: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

International Education Bulletins

Fellowships for study in Denmark and Sweden have been offered to American graduate students for the 1957-58 academic year by the two Scandinavian governments.

Closing date for both competitions is April 1, 1957.

Three fellowships have been offered by the Danish Government through the Ministry of Education. These include funds (3900 kroner) for a year of study at an institution of higher education and a short orientation course. Grantees should have funds to pay their own travel and incidental expenses. They may, if eligible, apply for Fulbright Travel Grants.

The Swedish Government is giving three fellowships through the Sweden-America Foundation. These awards are administered in the United States by the Institute of International Education and the American - Scandinavian Foundation. Stipends include 4500 Swedish crowns for the academic year. It is expected that tuition will be waived except at the International Graduate School for English-Speaking Students at the University of Stockholm, for which the tuition is approximately $30. Candidates must pay their own travel and incidental expenses. They may study at the Universities of Gothenburg, Lund, Stockholm, and Uppsala, and at other approved institutions.

New York, N.Y. March 6, 1957—U. S. students optimistic on international conditions are booking summer passage to Europe in increasing numbers. And more ships added to the trans-Atlantic run are making it possible for more student travelers to journey abroad. To meet the increased demand the non-profit Council on Student Travel has just announced several additional sailings with space for students and teachers. The Council reports that trans-Atlantic bookings by educational travelers are up 15 per cent through March first.

This year the Council expects to arrange 10,000 one-way passage for students and teachers, an increase of 30 per cent over last summer, and the largest number of persons served by the Council during its eleven years of operation.

"Inquiries to the Council by students and teachers planning to travel independently are running 30 per cent ahead of last year," said John E. Bowman, Executive Director of the Council. He added that the educational travel programs sponsored by the Council's 43 member agencies are experiencing a similar increase.

Three One-Act Plays Cast

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Subject The recent editorial on names for dances

It would be appreciated if the would make up his mind to be editorial writer of the Beacon either in favor of school spirit or against it, so that we ordinary readers might know where he stands. If he wants to strengthen such spirit, as he professes to, then what is the purpose of joining a writer from a foreign campus in an attack on Wilkes groups which have enough spirit and pride in their organization, and in their chosen field, to display their own particular, stylized names at their "lighter" social functions. Perhaps some people would like to see everybody follow one, drab, stereotyped style, but there are many who would resent any such pattern or regulation.

In my opinion, the organizations of this college should not be intimidated by those wielding the power of ridicule, but should continue to act as they see fit, using names of their own choosing, which suit them (albeit, not everyone else). More power to the individualists among us, with nothing against conformists as long as they do not try to force others into their own, set mold.

Respectfully yours,
JIM CORNELIUS

(Editor's Note: We must admit that Mr. Cornelius has a point and that he puts it across well. However, we remain unconvinced. The originality is there, to be sure, but it smacks of the originality of high school. Let's have more "college spirit", which is just about the same thing, but on a higher intellectual level.)

LOCAL NEWSWRITER PRESS CLUB SPEAKER

by M. L. Onufer

Mr. John Bush, a member of the staff of the Wilkes Barre Sunday Independent, spoke to the Press Club at its last meeting. Mr. Bush is an alumnus of Wilkes and an ex-member of the public relations department.

Mr. Bush's topic, "The Role of the College Student in the Modern Newspaper", was one which created much discussion in the period that followed. Mr. Bush felt that the need for college-trained people in the modern newspaper is becoming almost a must. The newspaper covers a wider range of material, and therefore, the reporters must have a background to cope with it. He personally has felt that his own college training has constantly been a benefit to him.

One of the most frequent of the questions asked in the discussion was how to make a seemingly dull news story lively. Mr. Bush, who has a reputation for adding interest to his news stories, said that in working for a weekly such as the Independent, it is necessary to find an "angle" for a story because the news usually has been covered in some other paper by publication time. He added that his most effective method was "human interest". This will connect the story closer to the reader. He stated that "angles" are a part of the style of modern journalism and showed examples of this from his own experience.

You needn't be afraid of the person who does a lot of loud and blustery talking. When you can hear the thunder, the lightning hasn't struck you.

Pepperdine Graphic

Dear Editor:

Next Sunday, March 17, the Philharmonic String Quartet will appear at the Wilkes College Gymnasium at 4:00 P.M. The program will include three quartets, each representing a musical period.

Classical: Haydn, Quartet in D Major;

Romantic: Brahms, Quartet No. 1 in C Minor;

Modern: Barber, Quartet in B Minor.

The above program should stimulate a great deal of interest not only in the Campus, but in the entire region which has undeniably reached a high level of culture. The program is open to the public, and the music major students are especially invited to attend.

Members of the Quartet are: Ferdinand Liva, first violin; Albert Barbini, second violin; Eugene Brandstadter, viola; Enzo Liva, cello.

Sincerely yours,

FERDINAND LIVA

P.S.—BIG student recital coming up on Sunday, March 31.

SYRACUSE TO OFFER WASHINGTON SEMINAR

An on-the-scene seminar that will take students to Washington, D.C., for an intensive three-week study of the Federal government in action will be offered by the Summer Sessions Division of Syracuse University during June 10-27, 1957. The course is open to all college students and may be taken on a credit or non-credit basis.

A major theme of the 1957 "Washington Seminar" will be United States foreign policy. Conferences will be held with officials in the various agencies responsible for formulating and implementing the nation's foreign policy, and with diplomatic representatives of foreign countries, and the Organization of American States. Other conferences will be arranged to provide the members of the Seminar with a cross-section of governmental and citizen activities that go on in Washington.

Participants in the Seminar will be able to meet and talk with top officials in various executive departments, such as the Department of State, International Co-operation Administration, U. S. Civil Service Commission, U. S. Bureau of the Budget; with members of both

by Barbara Vose

Cue 'n' Curtain will present another program of three one-act plays in Chase Theater on March 27, 28, and 29. Two of the plays, Submerged and March Wedding, are in modern day settings, and a third, The Maker of Laws, takes place in ancient Egypt.

Don Henry will direct The Maker of Laws which was written by John Bayly. It is a high comedy concerning a king who finds himself in the predicament of following his own laws.

Submerged, directed by Fred Whipple, is a tragedy of a crew trapped in a submarine. The circumstances display the emotions, character, and conflicts of the individual men.

Andy Evans will direct March Wedding. The plot is about a girl who is planning to marry a man because she believes he has aided her father. The intended-groom actually has been the causes of her father's troubles.

Some of the characters will be portrayed by Bill Schlingman, John Macri, Steve Poleski, Peter Gale, Larry Amdur, Dave Kistler, Shirle Baroody, Merri Jones, and Daisette Gebhardt.

houses of Congress; and with staffs of Congressional committees. In addition, students will confer with press representatives, and with labor union and trade association executives.

Students who desire to take the course for credit will receive three-hours' credit at Syracuse, which is transferable to their own institution under its regulations. For credit, each student will be required to submit a research paper within six weeks after the end of the Seminar. Ample time will be given the student to collect material for his project while in Washington.

Girls' Chorus Plans Membership Drive

by Carol Breznay

Girls' Chorus Director Marilyn Carl has announced that the group now has approximately 35 girls on roll, but that any girls interested in joining are invited to do so as soon as possible. Rehearsals are held in Gies Hall A, Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 12:15 P.M. sharp, and end at 12:50.

Since its organization in the fall of 1955, the chorus has made several successful appearances. Among these were programs presented for the Women's Association of the Forty Fort Methodist Church, the Education Club of Wilkes, and the TDR Old Peoples' Party. The girls were well received and complimented on their lively presentation of selections.

The next singing engagement will be the faculty tea, tentatively scheduled for either the first or second week in April.

Basia Mieszkowski, 1956 graduate, was first director of the chorus. She was succeeded by Ann Faust, senior music major. Miss Faust is now teaching full-time in West Hazleton Schools. Marilyn Carl, member of the Junior class, was recently appointed director, and has done a fine job with the girls.

Some of the numbers the girls are currently working on are Blue Moon, You'll Never Walk Alone, Deep River, Welsh Lullaby, Lift Thine Eyes, and The Woman in the Shoe. Several new numbers are under consideration and will be added to the repertoire.

Group singing is pleasant relaxation, and all coeds are invited to drop around during practice and sing along. Charter members of the chorus, as well as other regular members, are reminded to attend rehearsals regularly as not much time remains till the next engagement.

Chem Club to Show Film

"Atomic Physics", a film in five parts, will be presented by the college chemical society next Wednesday in the Chase Hall projection Room.

Anyone interested in this topic is invited to attend since the film will answer several questions concerning the atom.

'The Gold Coast Votes' Film Shown Yesterday; History Club Sponsors

"The Gold Coast Votes" was the title of the film showed yesterday in the Biology Building. The film was sponsored by the History Club.

The Dominion of Ghana, which the film was about, is the world's newest nation. It is composed of many states which were former British protectorates and colonies.

The Gold Coast, a former colony which has had home rule since 1954, is a part of Ghana. This film is a documentary of the free elections held there.

Ghana and the Gold Coast, in contrast to the rest of South Africa which stands for segregation, white rule and suppression of the Negro, is the first all-Negro government in the British Commonwealth of Nations.

NAVAL OFFICER TO VISIT

A Naval Officer will visit the campus on March 19, 1957, to provide interested students with information concerning the many and varied officer programs available in the Navy. He will be located in Hollenback Hall from 11:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND CAMPAIGN BEGINS TODAY; $60,000 GOAL

by John Pisaneschi

Wilkes College scholarship fund campaign shifts into high gear today seeking $60,000 for scholarships, it was announced by Gilbert S. McClintock, chairman of the Wilkes board of trustees.

Chairman of the campaign is F. E. Parkhurst, prominent city insurance broker and a member of the college board of trustees. A kickoff luncheon is being held in the Crystal Ballroom of the Hotel Sterling today at 12:15 to formally open the campaign.

The drive, which will end on March 29, will be composed of nearly two hundred workers and of these, one hundred fifty will be actual campaign workers. Russell Picton, director of development of the college, is in charge of the mechanics of the drive.

College trustees, Miss Mary Koons and Miss Annette Evans, will head the campaign workers, who have been assigned to twenty-five teams for the drive.

Due to requests for aid for promising and needy young people, the college has found it necessary to raise its scholarship fund goal this year said Mr. Parkhurst.

Last year's scholarship campaign, then headed by Harry F. Goeringer, succeeded in raising more than the designated goal, collecting some $51,000. In order to meet increased needs, the campaign this year has been expanded to include more workers and donors.

Chairman of the campaign stated that it has been gratifying, since the aid of the community has been enlisted, to note the interest and support friends have given our young people.

Two follow-up report sessions are planned; the first of these will be held on March 25, and the second on March 29.

BOOK COLLECTION IN FINAL WEEK

Recent College Texts Sought by Wilkes CCUN To Aid Asian Students

by M. L. Onufer

The campaign, "Books for Asian Students", is entering its final week. During the past two weeks many of the faculty and the students have contributed their unwanted textbooks to this drive sponsored by the Wilkes Chapter of the Collegiate Council on the United Nations. Containers have been placed in the halls of the dorms, cafeteria, library, and bookstore, as a reminder to donate a book.

Many have so far responded to the drive, and many useful textbooks have been collected. But, perhaps, there are still many who have forgotten to bring in a book. Everyone must have at least one unwanted textbook around the house. Mary West, general chairman, asks everyone to try to donate a book during this final week.

The club is interested in collecting college-level textbooks published since 1945. They can cover any field. The books will be sorted by Bonheur Nasser before they are packaged for overseas delivery.

The CCUN has also asked many community organizations like the Wyoming Valley Council of Churches to help support this drive. If the campaign is successful, a member of the Wilkes Chapter can win a scholarship to the CCUN Institute in New York. Scholarships are awarded to colleges on the basis of their size and their response to such projects as this drive.

Silver Opinion Contest To Award Scholarships For Pattern Selections

During the month of March, Reed & Barton, America's oldest major silversmiths, are conducting a "Silver Opinion Competition" in which valuable scholarship awards totalling $1050 will be offered.

Wilkes College has been selected to enter this competition in which the first award will be a $500 scholarship; second prize is a $250 scholarship, and the third, fourth, and fifth awards are $100 scholarships.

In addition, there are 100 other awards with the winners having the option of winning either a $25 savings bond or a "starter set" of sterling silver, fine china and crystal with a retail value of $45.

In the "Silver Opinion Competition" an entrant is asked to name her favorite china pattern, her favorite crystal, and the sterling silver pattern she likes best. Then in her own words she must tell why she likes the particular designs. She can use as few or as many words as she likes. There is no set limit.

Entries will be judged on the basis of interesting opinions rather than on literary techniques. Closing date is midnight, March 31.

Mary West is the student representative who is conducting the "Silver Competition" for Reed & Barton at Wilkes. Those interested in entering the competition should contact Mary for entry blanks and for complete details concerning the competition rules.

Community Concert membership applications for the 1957-58 season can be obtained from Mrs. Vujica in the Library. ($7.50 for 4 concerts, including the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra and Jascha Heifetz, world famous violinist.)

Contribute your old textbooks to the all-college drive Books for Asian Students. Boxes are available in the rear hall of the Library.

Tickets for the testimonial dinner (March 20 at 6:30) for Miss Grace W. Estes, retiring librarian of the Osterhout Public Library, can be purchased from Mrs. Vujica.

ELLIOT TO SPEAK AT NEXT ASSEMBLY

At next week's assembly, Mr. George Elliot will give a speech entitled "The Right to be Free".

In our present society there is a great emphasis on conforming. This is revealed by the similarity in dress and actions, sneer at "egg-heads", and the popular expression "following the crowd".

Mr. Elliot feels that this is a lamentable situation and that progression is most likely to come through the efforts of the small minority of non-conformists.

He is making a plea for tolerance for this small group who are generally misunderstood and frequently the object of ridicule.

BUFFET SUPPER HELD BY EDUCATION CLUB

by M. L. Onufer

The Education Club, already making plans for their fall semester activities, formally installed the new officers Tuesday evening. These officers were elected at the last meeting of the fall semester.

A buffet supper preceded the installation ceremonies in the cafeteria. Nancy Morris, retiring president, administered the oath to the officers-elect by candlelight. Joseph Ludgate, a junior, succeeded Nancy as president; Naomi Kaufer, a junior also, will be the vice president. Emma Minier, another junior, was elected corresponding secretary; Carol Hallas, a junior, treasurer; and Janice Reynolds, a sophomore, librarian.

Chairmen of the club's standing committees were also elected and installed along with the officers. They are Beth Reed, sophomore, and Joan Llewellyn, freshman, social committee; Ruth Younger, junior, publicity; Rita Matiskella, junior, program; Dorothy Thomas, junior, finance; Nancy Schmalzriedt, junior, membership.

AREA H. S. STUDENTS ATTEND CONFERENCE

Another in a series of annual career conferences for local high school students was held Friday by the Guidance and Placement Center with nearly 130 students from 13 high schools attending.

John J. Chwalek, placement director, and Dana Verry, professor of secretarial studies, directed this conference dealing with secretarial work and job opportunities in that field.

Clifford Bigelow, secretary-manager of the Wyoming Valley Motor Club, was principal speaker. He discussed the traits and abilities which make a good secretary.

Other speakers at the conference were Mrs. Gertrude A. Doane, dean of women, and Mr. John P. Whitby, director of admissions.

Cortez Peters, world champion at the portable typewriter, was also present and demonstrated many of the unusual tricks possible in typing.

High schools represented at this conference were Ashley, Exeter, Edwardsville, Swoyersville, Kingston, Nanticoke, Newport Township, Hanover Township, Plymouth, Dallas-Franklin, and Wilkes-Barre Township.

Jones Stickler Winner

Charles Jones, junior dormitory student, was recently informed that he is one of the winners of the Stickler contest currently running in the Beacon. Charlie won twenty-five dollars for his Stickler.

The Beacon is unable to print the winning rhyme because all rights have been given to the Lucky Strike Company.

Cheerleaders Schedule Practice Tryouts; Seek Members to Fill Squad

The cheerleaders will hold practice tryouts for the cheerleading squad every Thursday at 11 A.M. at the gymnasium. Any energetic freshman, sophomore or junior is invited to participate. Previous cheerleading experience is not required.

Final tryouts will be held sometime after Easter vacation, and approximately six new cheerleaders will be chosen. Cheerleading sweaters and skirts are provided by the school.

Tentative plans for the coming school year consist of creating new cheers, distributing copies of the cheers at pep rallies and games, and holding regular practice at a time convenient to the squad.

Alison Rubury and Judy Menegus may be contacted for further information.

Collegians to Perform Before Alumni Today; Other Concerts Listed

The Collegians, musical representatives of Wilkes College, will round out their busiest month with a noon-time concert for a Wilkes Alumni meeting at the Hotel Sterling today.

Last night, the men, directed by Sam Lowe, sang for the meeting of a Luzerne-Lackawanna Counties Bankers' Association at the Hotel Casey in Scranton. This morning they gave a full concert for the student assembly at Coughlin High School.

On Wednesday night, the chorus journeyed to West Pittston for a performance at the high school, part of a show put on by the Nurses' Association of that community.

Last week, following their well-received concert at the Wilkes Student Assembly, the group performed before the Plymouth Kiwanis Club on Wednesday night, then gave a Friday morning concert at G.A.R. High School, followed by an afternoon program at Kingston High School.

On May 7th, at the Wilkes College gym, the Collegians will sing at the banquet to be given by the Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce.

DR. PITTS SPEAKER AT TEMPLE ISRAEL

The Rev. Dr. John Pitts, member of the philosophy department and pastor of the Welsh Presbyterian Church, Wilkes-Barre, was guest speaker at Temple Israel last Friday evening. Dr. Pitts' sermon, "The Right to be Free", was delivered at the Sabbath Evening services. A representative group of Dr. Pitts' congregation accompanied him to the Temple.

The visit reciprocates a similar visit paid by Rabbi Abraham D. Barras and a representative group of his congregation to the Welsh Presbyterian Church several weeks previously.

After the service, a special social in honor of the guests was held in Weiss Hall.

MORGAN NAMED ATHLETE OF WEEK, RECEIVES AWARD FOR THIRD TIME

Hits 514 Point Total, Leads Team to Finest Performance in Years

George Morgan, the Colonels' high-scoring champion, was selected the Beacon's Athlete of the Week for the third time this year.

In the final game for the Wilkes cagers at Stroudsburg last week, George hit for a remarkable 14 out of 18 tries from the field in rolling up 32 points. The night's work brought the prolific scorer's season total to 514 points, the highest ever recorded by a Wilkes basketball player.

Proving that this mark is no accident, due to the "saturation" type of scoring employed by some of the nation's leading point-makers, George has hit for a percentage of nearly six completions of every ten attempts. His final record shows that his shots were completed no less than 57 per cent of the time, a mark that will probably stand for some time.

George has been the leading scorer for the Davismen all season. He has been a constant team player as well, and has been a defensive standout in every game.

The six-foot-four junior has managed to take away 20 rebounds on several occasions, and can be counted on for at least 15 or 16 every game. His height is an obvious advantage for these duties, but Morgan goes beyond that. He combines a keen sense of timing with plenty of natural grace and ability in order to salvage two-pointers from what might well become goals for the other team.

George is the first man to be honored with the title of "Athlete of the Week" three times in one year since the great Jim Ferris turned the trick two years ago.

The 21-year-old Business Administration major will be returning to the cage wars next season, and with the veteran squad he will have helping him, he may pose a threat to his own scoring record.

With the last publication of the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau's statistical report, the stellar center was listed ninth among small colleges in the nation in points scored, and tenth in the nation in average. Since that report was published, he probably has advanced in both departments, making him a good candidate for "Little All-American" honors.

The Sports staff of the Beacon wishes to extend him their heartiest congratulations on a job well done.

SPRING DRILLS OPEN WITH GYM SESSIONS

The 1957 edition of the Colonel baseball team is now in the making. Indoor workouts began in the gym last Monday afternoon under the tutelage of Head Coach John Reese.

Bill Mock, one-time member of the now-defunct Wilkes-Barre Eastern League Barons will assist Mr. Reese. Bill will be in charge of the Colonel batterymen. This is his first year as a member of the baseball coaching staff, but he is by no means a stranger to Wilkes athletes. He previously assisted George Ralston as basketball coach before Mr. Ralston became Dean of Men.

So far, about 20 men have reported to try out for the team. Returnees from last year's squad include: Mike Goobic, Bob McGurrian, Bob Sokol, Eddie Birnbaum, Joe Parsnik, Mike Dydo, Ronnie Rescigno, John Harvey, and Al "Minnie" Manarski.

Newcomers include mound hopeful "Zip" Gacha, fresh from a great season with the Colonel cagers, and Ralph Hendershot. Ralph was also a member of the basketball squad, and hopes to take over the centerfield position vacated by Jim Ferris last year. Both men are freshmen.

Coach Reese has announced that there are still plenty of positions to be filled, and that he is looking forward to having a strong bench for this year's 16-game schedule. Anyone wishing to try out for a spot on the team need only to report to the gym any day after 3:30 P.M.

The schedule for the season was not officially released when the Beacon went to press, but a pre-season tentative schedule shows the diamondmen on the road for their first contest. They will be in Bethlehem to take on Moravian on April 3.

On April 10, the team opens a three-game home stand against the Rough Riders of Rider College. On Saturday, April 13, Albright will be the opponents. The home series will be concluded on April 18 with the Ithaca Bombers providing the competition.

Other opponents, most members of the Middle Atlantic Conference, include: Dickinson, Scranton, Fairleigh-Dickinson, Lycoming, Ursinus, Muhlenberg, East Stroudsburg, Lebanon Valley, and Susquehanna.

These facts have not yet been made official, and are to be considered tentative until such time as the schedules are released by the office of the Director of Athletics.

Rosie's Crew Checks Checkmates By 41 Pins; Perog and Schechter Make Bid for All-Events Crown

CAGERS TOP ESSTC, RECORD 12-TH WIN

Coach Eddie Davis registered two "firsts" last Saturday night. His charges turned in an 86-80 revenge win over East Stroudsburg State Teachers College for his first winning season at the helm of the Wilkes cagers, while his wife back home in Wilkes-Barre's Mercy Hospital completed the double play by presenting him with a baby girl, the couple's first child.

The news of the birth came five minutes after the Colonels put on a great second-half rally to pull ahead of the Teachers and register win number 12.

The score was just one point off that of the previous defeat of the Teachers registered at Wilkes. The score of that overtime game was 85-80.

For the Colonels, it was again the combination of Morgan and Gacha that did the damage. Big George hit for 14 out of 18 tries from the field and tallied 32 points, while "Zip" Gacha had six goals and three fouls for a 15-point performance.

To complete the season's statistics, Morgan has hit for a remarkable 57 per cent of his tries from the field and has become the first cager in Wilkes history to exceed 500 points in one season. George now has 514.

The Colonels have scored a total of 1,634 points this year for a per game average of 81.7. They have held the opponents to a 1,506 total for an average score of 75.3 points per game.

These figures emphasize the fact that Coach Davis has produced the most successful team in the annals of Wilkes basketball. The team has played some of the most exciting games seen in local collegiate circles for a long time.

TENNIS TEAM NEEDS PLAYERS AND COACH

From the office of Dean George Ralston, Director of Athletics, comes word that a tennis team will be formed to compete in the three-game schedule released this week.

Mr. Ralston would like to hear from anyone who cares to compete in intercollegiate tennis. More important, however, is the need for competent coaching. Mr. Ralston is unable to handle the chores himself because of his work as Dean, and would like to have someone step up and take charge of the team.

The first meet will be played at home on April 20 with the Scranton Royals.

On April 26, the team will play (continued on page 6)

On Sunday night, on the Jewish Community Center's alleys, the first round of the Intramural Handicap Bowling tournament saw the Rose Tattoo's, despite the small handicap they had, edge out the Checkmates by 41 pins.

The 2830 three-game series of the Tattoo's places them in the position of being the team to beat. Pete Perog, with a 252-609, and Rosie Weinstein, with a 215-526, led Rosie's red hot Tattoo's to an early lead.

Leading by only 14 pins after the second game, the Rose Tattoo's bowled a tremendous 982 to counter the huge 953 series rolled by the Checkmates.

The Checkmates gave the Tattoo's a tough battle as Tom Myers and Bill Tremayne bowled 204-590 and 221-593, respectively.

Other action saw Werner's Learners hit a 2558 series; Bob Scally leading them with a 205-557.

Paul Schechter and Matt Kessman were high for the Ashley Aces with 227-605 and 197-539, respectively. Ann Bates headed the Wilkes Finest with a 206-583.

The Unknowns managed to bowl a 2326, in spite of the use of a "blind". Leading them was Ken Selody with a 204-552.

In the race for the All-Events Champion, Pete Perog and Paul Schechter are giving defending Champion Bill Tremayne plenty of trouble.

This coming Sunday, March 17, the Pickering Five, led by Larry Cohen, and the Economics Club, captained by Bill Ewasko will bowl on alleys 3 and 4 to make their bid for the team championship.

Anyone who wishes to bowl and has not yet organized a team should come to the JCC Sunday at 7:15.

Teams will be assembled from those men and women who have not yet been assigned to a specific team.

The Male Doubles will be postponed until Sunday, March 24.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE SET FOR GOLF SQUAD

Jack Curtis, who will direct the Wilkes golf team, has announced a tentative schedule for the squad. At this early date, the meets are not definitely set, but with time growing short, Coach Curtis would like to hear from any interested parties.

The home course for the Colonels of the Fairway will be the Irem Temple Country Club. These greens are considered among the finest in the East.

The first match will be on the road between Hofstra and Scranton in a three-way tourney on April 26.

Medalist play in the Middle Atlantic Tournament will be held at the Mount Union Legion Country Club on May 10th and 11th.

A match with Lycoming, originally scheduled for the same date, May 11, will be set aside for a later announcement.

The team will then travel to Bethlehem on May 13 to play Moravian. They will return to the home course the following day to take on Scranton U.

They will complete their season at home against Lycoming on May 18.

Curtis announced that he would like all potential candidates to get out to the links as early as possible for warm-up play on their own.

Anyone is welcome to come out to the preliminary drills which will be announced in the next few days.

SPORTS SPURTS

by DICK MYERS, Sports Editor

BOWLING ETIQUETTE LACKING

During the past bowling season and the first rounds of the current Intramural handicap tournament, we have noted that there is a glaring lack of common courtesy among the students at the JCC alleys.

One of the first principles in bowling etiquette, as in driving, is to courteously extend the "right of way." This is a simple thing to remember. Always allow the bowler to the right to bowl first, no matter what lane you are in.

Myers

When you have the right of way, and another bowler is awaiting the return of his ball, be kind enough to allow him to take it off the rack before going into your approach. This is courteous, but it also enables you to make your delivery free of fear that the other man will upset you by reaching for his ball just as you are about to release yours.

On the same subject, but in a different vein, it is imperative that the bowlers observe the starting times as scheduled. Too often, there is much needless confusion caused by thoughtless souls who come loitering in at 7:45 for a match slated to start at 7:15.

The directors of this league are students. They have not been given even the slightest consideration by their fellows for the thankless task they have taken upon themselves. They are hounded, angered, and disappointed every Sunday night by the people who should know better.

If anyone who is listed in any of the upcoming events finds himself unable to make it, he is expected to notify Jane Keibel at Sterling Hall as soon as possible. If anyone who has already submitted himself as an entrant in one of the handicap events does not show up to bowl on his appointed night, he will be required to pay the entry fee anyhow. These fees are for the purpose of getting trophies to be presented to the individuals who faithfully observes the criteria. It is unfair to deprive them, by thoughtlessness, of the awards they may win.

AMBASSADORS OF GOOD WILL

We have received several reports of high praise for the Colonel mat team. These reports concerned not athletic accomplishments, which are well respected, but rather, the general bearing and attitude of the squad as individuals.

The officials of Gettysburg College and of the Middle Atlantic Conference have expressed their appreciation for the behavior of the boys while they were staying down there for the tourney. One of the men stated that he had never seen such polite and careful men. The training room personnel, gym attendants, and even the coaches of the other teams made similar comments on this matter.

Whenever anything was done for one of the boys, he always gave a smiling "thank you," never asked for anything without saying "please"; they were in general quiet, well-behaved, well-dressed and always a good example for the others.

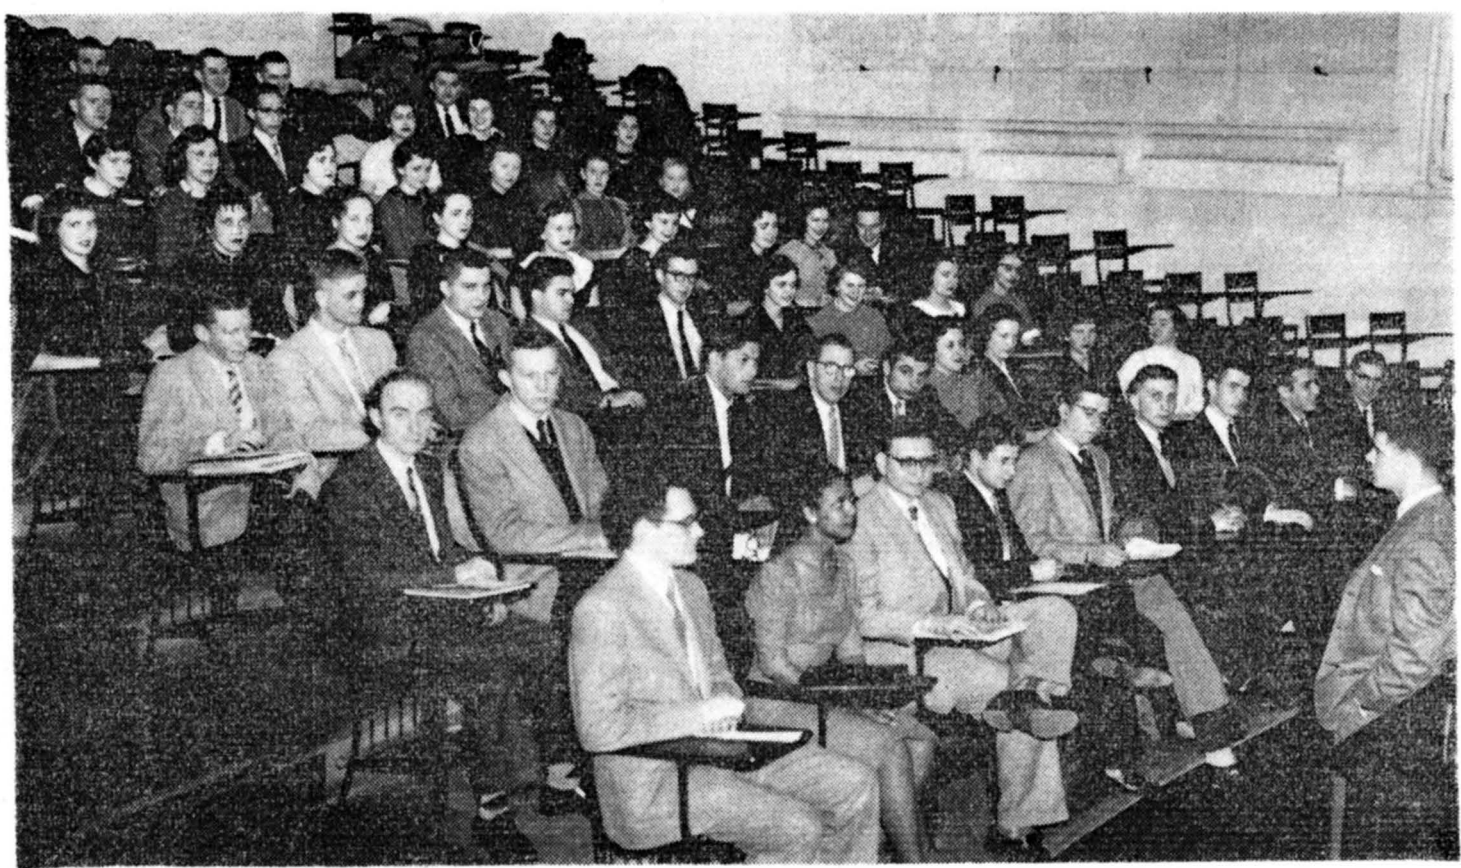

It would seem that we have more reasons for pride concerning our team than at first seemed obvious.

Although we know that the boys are generally a great bunch, it's nice to see that others appreciate these things. The wrestling team has set an example for the rest of the student body which should be observed not only when we are visiting another campus, but on our own home grounds as well.

While we're passing out the bouquets to the matmen, we certainly cannot pass up the chance to publish our sincerest congratulations to Coach John Reese, who has done a superlative job with the team and has molded them not only into champions, but sportsmen and gentlemen as well.

We also extend our heartiest double congratulations to "Poppa" Eddie Davis, who completed the most successful Colonel cage campaign to date, and became a father for the first time, all in the same night. We're sure that we can look forward to more of both events; hm, Eddie?

International Relations Club Hosts Regional Conference

Pictured above are a group of students representing ten eastern colleges assembled for the annual conference of the Northeast Region of the Intercollegiate Conference on Government, held this weekend on campus.

A model session of the Commonwealth's General Assembly was held. Bill Tremayne, president of the Wilkes I.R.C., was named to head the "Assembly".

Frank Kane, King's College student and regional director of the I.C.G., is shown addressing the group. Dr. Eugene S. Farley welcomed the group to the college. At the conclusion of Dr. Farley's speech the members retired to committee meetings to discuss such pertinent Pennsylvania problems as finance and taxation.

Tremayne presided over the afternoon meetings during which bills and resolutions developed in the morning caucus were debated.

The group also made plans for the state convention of the Intercollegiate Conference on Government to be held next month in Harrisburg.

Lafayette, Lehigh, King's, Kutztown, Scranton, Moravian, Muhlenberg, Misericordia, and Wilkes were among the colleges in attendance.

Bill Tremayne Speaker At 'Assembly' Meeting; Laws Proposed, Voted

On Sunday, the Wilkes International Relations Club hosted the annual regional conference of the Intercollegiate Conference on Government.

Representatives from ten schools in the Northeast region of Pennsylvania met in the lecture hall in a model Pennsylvania General Assembly.

The regional conference was held in order to better acquaint college students in the principles of American democracy and to prepare them for the forthcoming annual conference of ICG to be held in Harrisburg April 11, 12, and 13.

Early in the day, Bill Tremayne, president of the Wilkes Chapter was chosen speaker of the convention winning the election over Joe Rosenfeld, chairman of the Moravian College Chapter.

Appointed by Tremayne were Kathleen Stathakis, College Misericordia, clerk of the convention; Joe Rosenfeld, parliamentarian; Jim Munley, Scranton, and Ed McGroarty, King's, sergeants-at-arms; and Henry Blaze, Muhlenberg, timekeeper.

Delegates divided into committees immediately following a welcoming address by Dr. Eugene S. Farley. In his remarks, the Wilkes College president encouraged the students in their quest for knowledge of democratic ideals and challenged them to translate this knowledge into action.

The committees debated the bills presented by the ten schools and finally agreed upon three bills per committee. The Wilkes delegation found their bills resolved out of committee in all five committees.

Bill Tremayne called the afternoon plenary session to order and directed the debate on those bills which had received sanction. Committee chairmen, one of whom was Peter Gale of Wilkes, presented the bills to the assemblage.

Bitterly contested were bills on censorship, capital stock tax, mine subsidence, and many other diversified but topical subjects.

Following debate on the committee reports, the executive committee of the Northeast Region of the ICG met to plan a course of action to be followed at the Harrisburg conference.

This committee with Frank Kane, Regional Director from King's presiding gave unanimous endorsement to Bill Tremayne as candidate for state speaker at Harrisburg.

Selected for committee chairmanships at Harrisburg were Jerry Chechurka of Scranton in Taxation and Finance, and Bill Miller of Muhlenberg in Health and Welfare. Joe Rosenfeld was selected as candidate for Rule Committee chairman.

Don Jaikes, Wilkes senior, led a corps of typists from Marywood and Misericordia in quickly preparing approved reports, providing copies for more than 150 delegates.

THE KERNEL'S KORN

by Dick Myers

About this time of the year, we begin to look forward with a great deal of anticipation to our favorite sport, fishing. That's a sport where it is questionable on which end of the line is the sucker. A guy spends a small fortune on tackle, line, rods, reels, hooks, lines, and sinkers; then ends up spending five bucks at the fish market for the Friday meal, anyhow.

From the Far East comes the fish story to end them all. It seems that Papa-san took his two sons, Ah Mee and Ah Way, out for their first trip on his junk. All day long the net was producing the weirdest looking monsters ever caught in those waters.

Finally, at the end of the day, one of the most grotesque of these creatures jumped out of the net, grabbed Ah Way by the leg, dragged him overboard, and swam away. There wasn't much the old man could do but go home.

When he got there, his wife asked ed how the catch was. He showed her the monsters, and she exclaimed over the unusual variety he had caught. The old man said, "These are nothing, you should have seen the one that got Ah Way."

Then there's the guy who just goes fishing for the halibut. He always has a whale of a time. Only trouble is, he gets a haddock from too much sun. Even though he's somewhat of a shrimp, he's what you call a reel sport. Claims he enjoys rowing his own boat because it builds up his mussels.

Then there's the one about the mother sardine warning her children against taking the subway to school. She said they'd get jammed in like people.

One of her kids came home from school early. When she asked where the rest of her lads were, he asked, "Am I my brothers' kipper?"

"Your girl is spoiled, isn't she?"

"No, it's just the perfume she's wearing."
