Al Jones Heads Court of Review; Student, Faculty Members Listed

Allyn Jones has been elected to the post of Chief Justice for the newly created dormitory Court of Review. The Court of Review is a fact-finding agency which has been formulated to handle dormitory problems that the individual dorms cannot handle themselves.

The entire Court consists of seven members - three from the administration and faculty, and four from the dormitories. The permanent faculty and administration members are Dean Cole as director of the women's dormitories; Mr. Elliot, director of male dormitories; and Mr. Hoover as a member of the faculty.

Other students on the court are Betsy Hoeschele and Vince Capo, members of the junior class; and Doris Gademan along with Jones as representatives of the senior

The only two offices of the organization are the Chief Justice and the Secretary. Betsy Hoesche-le was elected to the office of secre-

The Court will act as a factfinding board with the power of ena to investigate any dormitory case which has been brought to its attention. The Court may then submit a written report of the facts to the Administration, and, if it wishes, request permission of the Administrative Council to let the Court act as a Court of Review and judge the case.

All meetings of the organization will be closed. The Chief Justice will preside over the meetings and will also inform the defendant of the verdict of the Court.

The Court of Review shall have the power to subpoena students and to request the appearance of faculty and administration members as witnesses.

If a student fails to answer a subpoena to appear as a defendant or refuses to cooperate with the Court of Review, the Court will mittee, before the meeting.

Thirteen seniors have been named to represent Wilkes in the publication, "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

The publication, which was started twenty-four years ago, gives recognition to the students by listing personal and college records in the annual edition.

Selection of seniors for this national honor was made by members of the college faculty and administration, in cooperation with the national publication. Criteria for selection included the student's scholastic standing, leadership ability, general citizenship, and cooperation shown in educational and extracurricular activities.

Students are nominated by members of the faculty and administration. The list of nominees is then sent to the Who's Who publication for acceptance.

Each student who becomes a member receives a certificate of recognition awarded by the organization and benefits of the Student Placement Service provided by the organization.

Real Estate, Tax Plans, Others on Agenda

by Lynne Dente

The sixth annual tax clinic of the Northeastern Chapter of the Penns Ivania Institute of Certified Accountants will be held here today and tomorrow in Stark Hall.

The purpose of this clinic will be to further the understanding of taxation by providing a common meeting ground for certified public accountants, attorneys, and other interested parties.

Among the topics of discussion will be "Pension and Profit Sharing Plans," "Estate Planning," and as a final topic on Saturday afternoon, "Tax Avoidance vs. Tax Evasion." Following each session a discussion period will be held.

Sponsors of the sixth annual tax clinic are the Northeastern Chapter, Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Commerce and Finance Department of Wilkes College.

John P. Kelsey, C.P.A., will discuss the important tax aspects of reorganizations and other tyres or companies today at 2:30 p.m.

Tomorrow at 9:00 p.m., George Craven will begin the day's sessions by covering topics dealing with real estate. Types of tax plans and benefits will be discussed by Harry S. Gross, C.P.A., and the last topic of discussion, presented by David Beck, will be on tax eva-

This morning members of the clinic heard opening remarks by Albert G. Metz, Treasurer of the P.I.C.P.A., and Dr. Samuel Rosen-berg, head of the Commerce and Finance Department of Wilkes. Donald J. Kester, C.P.A., and David C. Rothman started the clinic's sessions by discussing real estate and profit-sharing plans.

Christmas Formal Sets "Winter Scene"

by Sandy Biber

Students attending the Lettermen's Christmas formal next Friday evening will find that the gymnasium has been transformed into a "Winter Scene," as the name of the dance aptly implis. Dancing will be from 9 p.m. to midnight.

Supplying music for dancing will be Lee Vincent and his orchestra. During intermission the members of the Lettermen's Club will sing Christmas music, led by Dean George Ralston, club adviser.

Santa Claus will be on hand to greet everyone, and in keeping with the Christmas spirit, he will present each young lady with a favor.

Tickets, which are $4.00 per couple, can be purchased from any letterman. Committee chairmen for the dance are: co-chairmen Carl Havira and Joe Morgan; decorations, Jim Neddoff and Ron Simms; tickets, Bob Chew and Barry Yocum; refreshments, Pat Shovlin; chaperones, Jay Olexy; invitations, Lou Davis; programs, Joe Hiznay; favors, Ed Kemps; publicity, Mar Antinnes and Paul Aquilino.

Joe Morgan, co-chairman of the dance, announced that the members of the faculty are cordially invited to attend.

New Registration Policy

Upperclassmen will be favored in a new "seniority" scheme to speed up the twice-a-year headache of registration, according to news released by the College Registrar, John Whitby.

The new plan calls for the early registration of seniors first, then registration by classes downward to the freshmen. This was explained as an attempt to see that each student gets at least one chance during his four years to be registered with a first choice in the making of his schedule.

In the past, seniors often have been denied the chance to take electives because sections are quickly filled by underclassmen who must take the same courses as requirements.

Also, the new idea for spacing out the registration crowd will facilitate each student's chance to realize a tailor-made program, if each student adheres to his pre-registration schedule

Seniors will be the first to register from 9 until 10 o'clock on the morning of January 29. Class determination will be by the Student Roster. Students entering 7th or 8th semesters will be considered seniors.

From 10 until 11, those entering their 5th and 6th semestersjuniors—will register, and sophomores—those entering 3rd or 4th semesters—will register until Noon. All others will have from 1:00 until 2:30 p.m. to complete registration.

All students are advised to see that their financial affairs are in order before attempting to register.

Long Over-due

Reform along these lines has been needed for a long time, but we must inject here the observation that, despite apparent haphazard tactics in the past, there has been a steady speedingup process taking place. Each semester found things progressing a bit more smoothly in spite of constantly increasing enrollment.

Students will probably hail the latest development as one of the final stages of a saner registration program, although we suspect that there may be some initial unrest among the lower classes. We can only offer the consolation that their time will

Letters To The Editor:

Editor, Beacon Staff Wilkes College Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Mr. Editor:

I would like to thank all persons who joined the caravan to Scranton University and helped to make it a huge success. There were thirty cars in the caravan, and of these, ten entered the competition for best decorated car. I feel that I am correct in stating that a good time was had by all.

Special thanks to Steve Robertson, my assistant in the venture. Dr. Farley also receives thanks for acting as judge for the decorating competition.

In addition to expressing gratitude for cooperation, I would like to comment on the article in last week's Beacon which covered the caravan. The first comment I have to make is that the caravan was ten minutes late in leaving, rather than 30 minutes as stated by your reporter. This delay was caused by the large turnout which had not been anticipated.

The second comment I have to make is that the article more aptly describes a drag race with cars "zooming around corners." was not the case, for at no time was any speed limit exceeded as there was a police escort every foot of the way; Wilkes-Barre police, State Police, and Scranton police.

This leads to another comment, for the police were not primarily concerned with getting us out of their hair as is implied in the article. The Wilkes-Barre escort led us over a route which enabled many people to see the caravan. In doing this, he encountered more traffic signals, etc., than he had to.

The Penna. State Police served as an escort for the primary purpose of safety, for their presence acted as a deterrent to speeding, passing, etc. At the Scranton city line we were met by a police cruiser driven by a traffic control sergeant. He led us through lights, in and out of traffic, and got us to the stadium in record time.

Though the route covered was short, I would like to add that Chief Ruddy had proposed a route through the shopping district. I felt that this would involve too many problems for him and chose the shorter route. At that time he also stated that he would be willing to cooperate every two years as long as Wilkes plays at Scranton.

I feel that the behavior of the drivers reflects their intelligence as college students. Though a few gave in to the horn-blowing urge. most observed the city ordinances of Scranton and Wilkes-Barre which forbid horn-blowing. The sergeant who escorted us to the stadium remarked that he was glad that there weren't too many violations of this ordinance.

As for the statement that the caravan should do things for the relations between Scranton and Wilkes-Barre, I willingly agree. The cooperation granted to us by State Police of Wyoming Barracks and the Scranton Police Department were beyond expectations. The Wilkes-Barre Police, I am sure will return this cooperation if Scranton U. has a caravan to our home game next year.

Sincerely, John F. Marriott, Car Caravan Chairman

(Ed. Note: Apparently Mr. Marriott was not in the final one-third of the caravan where cars did indeed "zoom" as drivers sought to catch up with the rest of the parade. Our writer saw the humor in the situation. Ten drivers, at least, saw the trip our way. The others no doubt agree with Mr. Marriott. We humbly bow to the Marriou. 2-1 decision.)

Open Letter To: Dr. Chas. B. Reif Dear Mr. Reif:

ARTILLERY PARK

The administration has been attempting to lease Artillery Park in Kingston for use as a Wilkes athletic field. The lease must be granted by the State, and as yet, several politicians in Harrisburg have neglected to sign the necessary papers. The lease, once granted, is to be of long duration. For this reason, the administration has made certain plans to renovate the entire grounds of Artillery Park.

First, the grandstand will be torn down completely, with the possibility of using certain sections for bleachers. The main part of the park will become a football stadium, with other sections devoted to tennis courts and other athletic facilities. The grounds are in dire need of care, but once they are landscaped, they should remain in good condition. The bleachers on the grounds at present in center field may or may not be used, depending on their condition.

The approval of the politicos in Harrisburg is expected at any time. soon as these signatures are received, work will begin at the park.

To the Observer's knowledge, no name has yet been selected for our new athletic field. The Observer suggests that students submit their ideas on names for the field to this column. These entries will be published in this column, at which time the student body will be asked to make a selection. The entry chosen by the student body will then be submitted to the administration for approval.

POLICIES QUESTIONED

Did you observe the assembly program this past Tuesday? Several prominent and pertinent questions were asked, but were not really answered as much as they were explained. Dean Ralston's statement that athletic scholarships are not given because of "policy" does not answer the question. WHY is "policy" against athletic scholarships? Dean Cole also excused herself very nicely when asked about the 9 o'clock curfew for freshman females. Dean Cole stated that it was 'policy" here when she arrived, and she merely continued it. is it "policy"? What is the reasoning behind these policies?

Mr. Robert Morris was asked a question concerning the shortage of space. He answered that plans have been formulated to remedy the situation next semester, but that doesn't help the students now. These plans should have been made previous to the start of this semester last Semester.

The assembly session was far too short to answer all the questions. This column will attempt to answer these questions in the near future. STUDENT MAIL ROOM

The student mail room is located in the basement of Chase Hall. An occasional visit to this room by students, both day and dorm students, would clear out a backlog of mail that has accumulated since the beginning of the semester.

DOCTOR? An item of humorous interest appeared in the local papers recently: "DOCTOR George Ralston gave a short after-dinner speech. . . . Didn't know we had such a person on campus, did you?

Russian Students Visit Temple U.; Discuss Soviet Education System

Twelve Russian college students visiting various colleges in the United States were dinner guests recently of the Temple University's Student Council. At the dinner meeting they revealed many interesting facets of Russian education.

As you fully realize, you read a letter pertaining to you and your methods, whih was written in extremely bad taste. It was amazing, that a college senior had the gall to write such a childish letter.

To us, Dr. Reif, a gross injustice has been done to you. We know that the "poison pen" child who claims to be a mature individual represents not even one per cent of your students.

As far as his proposed duel with you is concerned, it is evident that the individual is a frustrated hero who has been watching too many adult westerns.

Only a neurotic individual would have had the gumption to write a letter of that type. Dr. Reif, we're

R. J. Myers,

A short note of thanks for the grand reception accorded the WGBI gang at the "Bop." It is most gratifying to know that "Shupert's Alley" is listened to and appreciated by the fine people at your school.

As I said on the phone, on the air, and at the gym, Wilkes will always be tops in my books. Remember, I am always at your service.

The first question, directed at Dean Ralston, concerned the purpose and duties of the Evaluation Committee. Mr. Ralston stated that the primary duty of this committee is to evaluate each student's scholastic record to see that he is meeting the requirements for his degree. He added that if the school catalogue is changed with regard to requirements for a degree, the student follows the catalogue for the year in which he matriculated. Gordon Roberts was asked what

HE WHO LAUGHS LAST . . .

The following appeared in the sports section of the Maryland "Diamondback" after the Wilkes upset victory over Susquehanna last month.

"SENTIMENTAL FAVORITE: Last Thursday the DBK predicted the outcome of 31 college gridiron clashes. Included was one small college game billed as a "sentimental favorite." In this one, favored Susquehanna played underdog Wilkes. The contest was printed strictly as a laugh.

"The DBK sports staff picked Wilkes on the basis of a comparative score. The only common opponent for the two was Ursinus. Susquehanna had slaughtered Ursinus 63 to 0 while Wilkes had its hands full but finally won, 25-15. On this common ground it figured that Wilkes would be ground to ashes at the hands of Susquehanna.

"Thus Wilkes illogically received the nod as the tearful choice. The result? You guessed it. Wilkes 12, Susquehanna 7. Amen brother, Amen."

It's a puzzlement:

When you're old enough to go to college, you're old enough to go out with girls. When you're old enough to go out with girls, who needs college? Oh well, there's always Coke.

Shawneeites Defeat Honeymooners, 26-6; Take Touch Grid Title

by George Tensa

The Shawneeites captured their second consecutive Intramural touch football championship by downing a game Honeymooner squad, 26-6. This contest was a "do or die" bid by both teams for league laurels as they ended the season with identical records of 6 wins and 1 loss.

John Mattey started the scoring when he pulled in a Clem Gavenas pass and scampered 45 yards for the Honeymooner score. This run was one of the most exciting gallops of the season as "Crazy Legs" broken field running confused the entire Shawneeite secondary. This was the lone score of the first quarter as the Shawneeite defense held and Ralph "the Toe" Hendershot's punting for the Honeymooners kept the Shawneeites deep in their own territory.

Early in the second stanza Tom Pugh hit Don Mattey with a 35-yard pass and then arched a TD pass to "Tosh" Karmilowicz. The try for the extra point was unsuccessful and the score remained knotted, 6-6, at halftime, although the Honeymooners did muster another threat. This threat was thwarted by George Tensa as he intercepted a pass in the end zone.

Tensa struck again in the third quarter when he intercepted his third pass of the game and legged it into touchdown land. The play was set up by the hard charging Shawneeite line of Ronnie Roski, Yorath Evans, and 'Mountain Man' Salsburg. A pass for the extra point was successful when Tom Evans made a beautiful catch of a Walt Ciolek pass. The Shawneeites scored again in the third quarter after Clancy Dennis deflected a Honeymooner pass into the hands of Ken Thomas who returned the interception to the 20 yard line. Again the Pugh to Karmilowicz combo clicked and the Shawneeites enjoyed a 19-6 lead at the end of the third quarter.

A "sleeper pass' from Walt Ciolek to Tom Pugh accounted for the fourth Plymouth score and Jim Stevens' pass to "Rabbit" Polanowski accounted for the extra point. The Shawneeites captured the crown with their valiant 26-6 vic tory and accepted a bid to oppose the Colonel football team in the Kernel Bowl.

Swimming Team in Training For Six-Meet MASCAC Schedule

by Don Hancocl

The 1959-1960 season marks the third year of intercollegiate swimming at Wilkes since it was renewed in 1956. A team had existed here in the late 1940's but it was dropped as an intercollegiate sport during the Korean War because of lack of participation.

Colonel Squad Takes First "Kernel Bowl"; Beats Shawneeites 14-12

by George Tensa

Snow flurries set the stage for the Kernel Bowl game at Kirby Park. A "hefty" Colonel varsity football squad was a thirteen point favorite over a gallant Shawneeite team in the first bowl classic.

The first quarter went scoreless with a strong Colonel line, boasting "Jungle Jim" Brunza and Freddy Williams, keeping the Shawneeites off balance and a Shawnee secondary knocking down Schutter's passes.

Tom Krisulevicz scored for the Colonels early in the second quarter as he followed the "flying wedge" into the end zone. Rich Rees pulled extra point. Late in the same stanin a Marv Antinnes aerial for the za Bill Schutter hit Al Dobrowalski with a pass and behind some nice blocking by Ray Marchakaitus and "Mustang" Marv, Al scored the second TD. Score at halftime was 14-0 in favor of the Colonels.

In the middle of the third quarter George Tensa intercepted a Colonel pass and this set up the Shawneeites' initial score. Tom Pugh hit Kenny Thomas and the lanky end outdistanced the Colonel defenders in a 65 yard pass play. The attempt for the extra point was blocked by Brunza.

Late in the final stanza the Shawneeites scored again after Tom Pugh recovered a fumble on the six inch line. A pass from Ciolek to Karmilowicz accounted for the touchdown but again the attempt for the extra point failed and the game ended with the Colonels victorious, 14-12.

Since its renewal, interest in it has grown and the number of participants in the sport has increased each year. A schedule in the MASCAC Swimming Conference has been formed and has added to the enthusiasm.

The schools added to the schedule this year include East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, Pennsylvania Military College, and Millersville State Teachers College. There are six meets on the schedule, including a number of teams just entering the intercollegiate swimming circles.

Returning to the team this year are team captain Carl Havira, who placed fourth in the breast stroke in the 1958 Middle Atlantic Swimming Tournament; Pat Shovlin, backstroke artist; and Art Eckhart, freestyle specialist.

Upon this group and ten others who have turned out for the team, Coach Russell Licton has placed the hopes for a successful season at vilkes in intercollegiate swimming competition.

Home Upener January 9

The season opener is against Dickinson College at home at the YMCA pool on January 9, 1960. Last year Wilkes was defeated by Dickinson by a score of 66 to 20. Although Dickinson has lost several of its big men, it will be by far the toughest opponent Wilkes will meet this season.

Coach Picton, pleased at the turnout of new material and considering the fact that Dickinson will be without several of last year's outstanding men, is optimistic about the meet and hopes to give Dickinson a surprise.

Last year's record was one win and three losses and the team this year hopes to in; rove upon that record considerably.

Colonel Bowlers Test Bloomsburg "Five"

An unofficial Colonel bowling team travels to Bloomsburg on Sunday to tackle the Huskies of BSTC at the Midway Lanes. Both teams are composed of the leading scorers of each college's intramural bowling league.

This is the first venture by either college into competitive bowling, a new idea in local intercollegiate sporting events. The match is billed "inter-intramural" affair, neither team having any official sanction or recognition as representative of its school.

Plans are for the two teams to eet again in a return match in Wilkes-Barre within a short time. Site of the match will be the Jewish Community Center, with Jimmy's Central Lanes and Kingston Lanes as alternates in case of conflict.

Representing the Wilkes co-ed league will be Dan Lewis, Emil Petrasek, Dave Sokira, Bill Watkins and Dick Myers. Alternate members of the team are Fred Jacoby, John Sapiego and Jerry Chisarick.

Team members are reported to be in estigating other matches to keep a full schedule. One reason for the intercollegiate venture is to promote interest among the students in bowling, particularly in the intramural program.

Girls' Basketball Season to Open

by Lynne Dente

Miss Marita Zoolkoski, girls basketball coach, recently comed a banner turnout of 26 aspirants for the starting positions on the team.

A schedule has been arranged and will include the teams of Moravian, Muhlenberg, and Misericordia. However, the girls saw action Wednesday in a scrimmage with Wyoming Seminary.

Miss Zoolkoski, in her coaching debut, has some fine prospects to work with this season especially among the large turnout of frosh. She urges the students and faculty to lend their support to the team by attending both the home and away games. Home games will be played at the gymnasium and no admission will be charged.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL N O T I C E

This is the final call for Intramural basketball rosters. Rosters plus captain's name must be turned in to Mr. Reese no later than December 11. League schedules will be prepared over the Christmas vacation and play will start in January.

Blitzkriegs, Gutterdusters in Tie; Sokira Hits 245, Jacoby Hits 235

The Wilkes Bowling League saw many of its top bowlers in a slump Sunday night, November 22, as many of the big guns slipped out of the limelight.

A clean sweep victory by the Gutterdusters over the Kingpins highlighted the events of the evening. The victory dropped the Kingpins from second to fourth place, and put the Gutterdusters, formerly in fourth place, into a second place tie with the Blitzkriegs. In other contests, the Blitzkriegs defeated the Flatballs, 3-1, and the Pinbusters copped three points from the their victorious Gutterdusters with 440, Estelle Manos 143-264, Anne a 200-559 and 170-486. Jerry Kulesa, 173-430, and Tom Dysleski, 157-418, were high for the losers.

Fred Jacoby rolled a 235-529 to help his Blitzkriegs in their drive for first place. Dave Godsiskowski helped with a 179-487. John Mattey was high for the Flatballs with a 189-501. Jerry Chisarick stayed close behind with a 194-484.

Dave Sokira regained his old form Sunday as he toppled a 245-617. Along with Emil Petrasek, 162-468, he enabled the Pinbusters to hold on to first place. John Sapiego, 175-462, and Mark Adelson, 155-437, were high men for the last place Smashers.

The scoring:

Gutterdusters — Lewis 200-559, Shupp 170-486, Dick Myers 165-451, Lois Tremayne 152-400, Carl Borr 140-393.

Victorious Colonels Open Home Campaign Morday With Juniata

The basketball team continues on the road tonight when it goes to Williamsport, Pa. to tangle with the Lycoming Warriors in a regullarly scheduled Middle Atlantic Conference game.

The Colonels will be out to match their 1958-59 output against the Warriors when they won two contests, one being last year's home opener, 79-71, and a later victory at Lycoming by the score of 64-59.

Lycoming will be counting heavily on its veterans of last year to put them back on the winning track in the basketball wars after experiencing the most dismal seasons in the school's history in 1958.

OPEN WITH VICTORY

The Colonels defeated the Susquehanna Crusaders in their opening game Wednesday night, 73-66, on the latter's court. grabbed a 43-38 halftime lead as a result of an all-court defense against the Crusaders which paid off in the point column for the Davismen.

Susquehanna came back to tie the score in the second half at 59-59, and then took the lead at 67-64. However, a last minute spurt by the Colonels brought the victory to Wilkes, 73-69. George Gacha was high man with 26 points, and Bernie Radecki tallied 14 counters.

Home Opener

Eddie Davis' charges will give the home fans their first look at Wilkes basketball Monday night when they meet the Juniata Indians in the college gymnasium at 8:15.

Coach Arnold Greene welcomed back only two lettermen from last season's team which won 13 games while dropping 9. The returnees are Jack Heading, a junior from Johnstown, Pa. and Steve Gerlock, sophomore from Mount Union, a. Heading led the team in scoring and rebounding in his freshman yea, and should be the biggest threat in the Juniata lineup. Gerlock, standing at 6' 5", also is a fine Gerlock, scorer and a big man under the boards.

The remainder of the Indians' starting lineup is doubtful as Greene will have to dip into sophomore and freshman candidates to come up with a first five.

The Colonels will be seeking to avenge an 80-64 defeat handed to them by the Indians last year a Huntingdon, Pa.

General chairman for the affair was Bianca Moscato. Publicity was handled by Carol Tangora and arrangements for refreshments were made by Mary Ann Lee.

An Oriental atmosphere was supplied by Chinese decorations and the Chapman girls wearing oriental apparel. Further adding to the Oriental flavor were Japanese low tables and cushions for those having refreshments. Dance music was provided by the Ambassadors.

During the party, the Chapmanites presented an unparallelled floor show. Annette Barbini danced a jazz interpretation to begin the production. Her act was followed by two piano solos by Tom Hrynkiw. A hula and chorus line, composed of Chapman girls, were the climax of the extravaganza.

Applications for loans for the coming spring semester will be available on the first floor of Chase Hall today until December 18. A sample application will also be osted. Any student who has a question regarding the loans should see Mr. Morris, whose office is located on the first floor of Chase Hall.

A committee composed of most of the members of the administration will evaluate the applications. Grants will be made on the basis of need, and each candidate must have an average of at least 1.85. The application of any student whose grades are in doubt will be held until the grades for the present semester are received in order to make a fair evaluation.

Although some preference will be given to students majoring in education, engineering, mathematics, modern foreign languages, or science, the basic criterion for determining who shall receive a loan will be the need of the student.

If a student who receives a loan becomes a teacher in a public elementary or secondary school after graduation, the payment of his loan will be reduced 10 per cent a year up to a maximum of 50 per cent. For example, if a student borrows $1,000 over a period of four years and enters the teaching field, his payment will be reduced 100 plus interest every year for his first five years of teaching. The remaining $500 may be paid within ten years after graduation.

It should also be noted that interest does not accrue while the student is in college, in graduate school, or in the armed forces for a period up to three years, nor does repayment begin during this period.

If a person who make a loan becomes disabled or dies, the unpaid balance of the loan is cancelled. If a student transfers to another college which is participating in this program, the student's records regarding the loan will also be transferred.

This week four Wilkes debaters will travel to Temple University to participate in the Temple Novice Tournament.

The national debate topic for this school year is: "Resolved: that Congress should have the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court." There will be four rounds of debate, in which Barry O'Connell and Jerome Krasa will uphold the affirmative side of the question, and Brent O'Connell and Frank Riofsky, the negative side.

Roberta Feinstein, senior member and president of the debating society, will accompany the team to Philadelphia. For the past sevthe dehaters working intensively with Dr. Kruger gathering pertinent information and practicing the techniques of debate. This will be their first intercollegiate experience.
