

HOMECOMING '85 A REAL SUCCESS AND HOMECOMING '86 PLANS ARE UNDERWAY

Wilkes College celebrated its 38th Annual Homecoming on October 4, 5 and 6, when students, faculty and staff were on hand to welcome hundreds of returning alumni to campus for the weekend celebration.

A special part of this year's festivities was the honoring of the first graduating class of the college, (then known as Bucknell University Junior College). This class of 1935 concluded the weekend with a gala dinner dance held at the Sheraton Crossgates in Wilkes-Barre, where they were honored as the "Golden Colonels," and each received a commemorative diploma.

While the afterglow is still there. Tony Shipula is busy planning the next homecoming which will lake place on October 17, 18 and 19, 1986. Mark your calendar and watch for further details. Shown are the Golden Colonels, from left to right, seated:

CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS CELEBRATES 20TH BIRTHDAY

Wilkes College marked the 20th Anniversary of the Dorothy Dickson Darte Center for the Performing Arts at the Encore Gala performance on Tuesday, October 22 and the John Wilkes Club Dinner on Wednesday, October 23.

The Encore Gala, an evening of theater in the Center for the Performing Arts, showcased many alumni and friends who had their first taste of theater on the Wilkes College stage. Performers included many well-known community members and other out-of-the-area people who are professionally established from all walks of life, and who have fond memories of their years spent at Wilkes College.

The Encore Gala also paid tribute to the Darte-Darling family, whose support has contributed significantly to cultural development at Wilkes. Dorothy Dickson Darte was largely responsible for the building of the Center for the Performing Arts, but insisted that her contributions remain anonymous. It was not until after her death thất the Center bore her name. Following the Encore Gala, Mrs. Darte and her family were honored by the Board of Trustees at the John Wilkes Club Dinner on Wednesday evening. The Center for the Performing Arts was rededicated in the memory of Mrs. Darte's daughter, Kitty Darling, and grandson, Edward Darling, Jr. Mrs. Darling's husband, Edward Darling, Mangelsdorf, accepted a rededication plaque, to be placed in the lobby of the Dorothy Dickson Darte Center.

ALUMNI PHONOTHON RAISES $54,456

Alumni and friends of the college lurned out for the entire month of September to volunteer their time for the annual phonothon, and with great success! The phonothon raised $54,456. Raising the largest total amount was

Joyce Girard, '70, and Mary Argenio, ad-ministrative aid for the Office of Foundations and Grants Management. Director Tony Shipula said, "This year's campaign was a huge success - we exceeded last year's pledges by at least 30% and expect more donations from alumni who did not specify the amount of their gifts." Tony also praised the volunteers, "So many people devoted their time and we developed a real team spirit."

Sandy Beynon, director of Foundations and Grants Management and Richard Charles, Dean of Development and Exter-

Volunteer Dean George Ralston.
