Faculty

Your graduation from Wilkes College on May 18, 1980, marks an important occasion for you and for me.

During the last four years, you have encountered a multitude of experiences which have provided joy and sadness, satisfaction and frustration and restiveness. Hopefully, your experiences at Wilkes College have enabled you to be better prepared for the remainder of your life's journey.

My experiences over the past four years have paralleled yours. For these have been my initial first years of the presidency of this institution. During this period, my most gratifying eccasions have been those I have shared with the students and alumni whose successes, in part, have been molded by experiences at Wilkes.

My fervent hope for you is that in the years to come, you will pursue goals which are worthy of you and, thereby, you will have found the greatest sense of fulfillment, satisfaction, and peace.

NEW

BEGINNING

Cast the old aside but learn from it
Proceed to the new cautiously
What is done today affects tomorrow
Let's be laughing, no time
for sorrow
The waiting days, only a blink away
Expect much from us, and we
from them
A new beginning for you and 1.

DECKOUR'S BEER AND SODA

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS

OF 1980

Throughout my college career I have been involved in many extracurricular activities, of all these activities, my involvement with the Amnicola has proven to be the most rewarding. I enjoy the many long, hard, hours of work, and when the book comes out, I'm reassured that all the time was worthwhile. The first meeting always generates new faces, new ideas, new goals, and proves to be enthusiastic and exciting. I have put all that enthusiasm into trying to make this year's Amnicola the best. I have set many goals for myself and the staff, together we have strived to obtain all of these goals. However some of these goals are long term that haven't been accomplished. Yet long term in the sense that we have made plans this year to make next year's Amnicola even better. I have tried to enlarge the staff with people who are willing to work hard. The success of this book is based on these people, and they have definitely met the challenge. They like myself are aware of the importance of their work, and together we have changed the entire atmosphere associated with the Yearbook.

I would like to acknowledge and recognize the following students for their tremendous efforts throughout the year.

Illene Tinkleman, (assistant editor), Illene's ideas and hard work have proven beneficial to the Yearbook. She was responsible for the Senior section and did a fantastic job. Thanks Illene, we will miss you a lot.

Lisa Ashbaugh (assistant editor), Lisa was responsible for the sports section, and also prepared the budget to include a Yearbook in the activity fee. Thanks Lisa for your efforts.

Maggie Bunnell (business editor), Maggie while handling all the financial aspects, was responsible for the dorm section. Her hands were full and there was never a dull moment. Alas, we finished minus three dorms. I am looking forward to working with her next year.

Bob Gaetano (Photographer/Art Editor) Bobby had his hands full this year, trying to be at a million places at one time. He did a fine job and added a lot to the staff. Thanks Bobby for the great job you did.

Magan Ward (Who's Who Section), Megan did a fantastic job with a very unique approach. This section proved to be one of the best in the book. Thanks Megan.

"Pez" (Faculty Section), Pez has been on the staff for two years and has added support and enthusiasm to the staff.

Chris Reilly, Chris a new member to the staff designed the cover and divider pages. He did a great job and we couldn't have completed the book without his ideas, talent and long hours.

Frank Jeffery and Kathy Keller, both new members, wasted no time getting involved. Thank you both for your long hours and dedication.

Beth Hammer, Kathy Hoffer, and Sue Luehman, They spent many hours on various sections and did a GREAT job.

I would finally like to thank the many staff members, for without their individual input this book could not have been completed. Thanks to Larry Corona, Mike May, Chris Woolverton, Gayle Lovering, Michele Bandola, and Donny Gaetano. And finally Art Hoover, the Amnicola Advisor. I myself could not have done any of this without your support and wisdom.

Yearbooks tell a story, and the 1980 Amnicola is our chronicle of the achievements, activities, and special places and events of the school year. To most people it's just another yearbook, but to us it is a reminder of the best times of our lives. It's hard work putting it together, but it was worth it. We, the Amnicola staff, hope you enjoy it as much as we enjoyed producing it for you.
