

The Beacon

Volume 46, No. 7
October 14, 1993

Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania
Wilkes University's Weekly Student Publication

Journalism and the 21st century is theme for conference

By ALLYSON HANNIGAN
News Writer

Wilkes University will be hosting its second annual High School Journalism Conference on Friday October 22.

The Communications department has invited students from 16 area high schools to participate in a day of workshops and lectures from both local and national journalists.

This year's theme is "Journalism and the 21st Century."

The conference is set up so that area students can get hands on experience in different areas of the communications field.

Students will also have an opportunity to get up front and personal with those "who have made it" in their field.

The conference begins at 8:30 a.m. with registration and sign ups for workshops in the Marts Center. Following registration, greetings and opening remarks will be given by Dr. Bradford Kinney, chair of the Department of Communications.

Afterwards, Dr. J. Michael Lennon, Vice President of Academic Affairs, will make welcoming remarks from the university and introduce this year's keynote speaker, Ms. Trish Hall a Deputy Editor of the Living Section of the New York Times.

Hall will present a speech, "You and the Year 2000--How Should I Prepare?"

Students will then have a chance to attend a workshop of their choice from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m.

The following workshops will be offered:

"News Technology: You and the Public"

By: Mr. Larry Stirewalt
News Director, WBRE-TV

"Bad News: The Media's Fault?"

By: Ms. Allison Walzer
VP & Editor, The Times
Leader

"Evolving Corporate Communications Environments"

By: Mr. Bill Bachman
Senior Director, Corporate Communications, Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Northeastern Pennsylvania

"Preparing to Get There"

By: Ms. Trish Hall
Deputy Editor, Living Section, New York Times

After the workshops have concluded, there will be an hour panel discussion with a question and answer period.

This time will give students an opportunity to ask any questions they may have for the panel of workshop moderators.

Students will also be provided with lunch and a tour of the campus.

The conference will conclude at 1:45 following closing remarks with Dr. Jane Elmes-Crahall. Professor of Communications.

The workshop is open to university students.

Kinney and Communications Professor Thomas Bigler, coordinators of the conference, are very optimistic about the outcome of this year's conference.

file photo

Professor Tom Bigler

Blood drive turnout could've been better

Special from the Health Services Office

Thanks to all of you who took the time to donate blood at our first blood drive of the year.

The turnout was moderate and we sincerely appreciate those of you who have donated approximately 125 pints of blood.

The following donors were the recipients of the prizes awarded at the drive:

$20 gift certificate from Anesco: Emily Forman

$20 gift certificate from

Stroud's: Heather Avery

Brunch for two at Genetti's Legends Restaurant: Chandra Castetter

Tickets for two at F.M Kirby for Gallagher: Jeff Crahalla

Tickets for two at General Cinema, Wyoming Valley Mall: John Dorunda and David Reel

Commuter Punch Card for Cafeteria: Barton Weidlich

Flower centerpiece from Washington florist: Capt. Louis Werder

The residence hall with the highest percentage of students donating blood was Ross Hall,

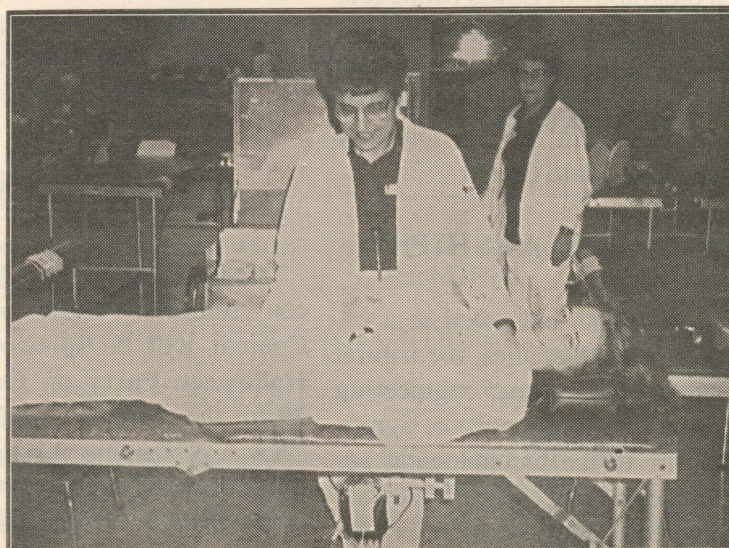

photo by Jen Barkas

Blood drive held in the Marts Center last Thursday.

led by Stephenie Kramer. They will be awarded with a dorm pizza party for their contribution.

Congratulations to all of you. We appreciate all the effort you put into this first blood drive.

We look forward to seeing you at the second blood drive of the year scheduled for February 17, 1994.

What's Inside?

- Colonels 5-0—p12
- Violent Femmes—p 7
- Beavis & Butthead—p 5

WHAT'S GOING ON...

OCTOBER 14

Are you bored of just watching T.V.? Then why not see a play at the Kirby Center? Neil Simon's Lost in Yonkers will be opening on October 14 at 8:00 p.m. The play is a heart-warming, heartbreaking journey back into 1942, where two young boys live, love, and grow under the dominance of their iron-fisted grandmother. The play has won four Tony Awards including Best Play. Tickets can be purchased at the Kirby Center Box Office or by calling (717) 826-1100.

A new exhibit is coming to the Sordoni Art Gallery. From October 10 through November 14, the Photo National Exhibit will be on display. The display features the works of contemporary photographers representing a microsurvey of current trends in American Photography. The Gallery is open to the public daily from noon until 5 p.m. and Thursday evenings until 9 p.m. Call the Sordoni Art Gallery at (717) 831-4325 for more information.

The 18th annual Luzerne County Folk Festival is scheduled for October 14-17 at the 109th Armory in Kingston. Admission is $4 for adults, $1 for students and free for children under 12. For more information call 288-2489.

OCTOBER 16

The Da Ponte Quartet will perform at 8 p.m. on October 16 at the Dorothy Dickson Darte Center for the Performing Arts. Schooled in Hungarian tradition of ensemble playing, the quartet has gained considerable critical acclaim since their formation in 1991.

OCTOBER 17

The American Heart Association Walk

needs volunteers to help with registration to make sure that the walkers have enough water. The walk will be on October 17 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. If you're looking for something simple yet rewarding, come out and help support the walk. If you think you would be interested in helping, call Amy Mazur or see her or Mary Hession on the third floor of the Student Union Building.

Come out to Marywood College on October 17 for The Palloza Illusion Festival. The concert is an attempt to slightly imitate "Lollapalooza," a national summer tour that consists of major alternative bands. The Palloza Illusion Festival will feature local bands from the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre area such as tribes, LZ English, and Rosetta Stone. The festival will be held on Marywood Campus, in the parking lot behind the Human Services Center. Tickets are $3.00 in advance and $5.00 at the gate. Advanced sales will be held at all area colleges and universities. Proceeds benefit Marywood's chapter of the American Advertising Federation.

OCTOBER 19

Dr. Donald Miller, author of a biography of Lewis Mumford, will present a lecture "Cities in Evolution," on the place of man in the natural world, on October 19 at 8 p.m. at the Dorothy Dickson Darte Center.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Students interested in a career in mathematics, the natural sciences, or those engineering disciplines that contribute significantly to the technological advances of the United States are invited to apply to the Barry M. Goldwater Scholarship in Excellence in Education Program.

In April 1994, the Foundation will award scholarships to students who will be college seniors or juniors during the 1994-95 year. In order to be considered for an award, students must be nominated by their institution. The deadline for all applications is December 15, 1993. For eligibility requirements and more information contact Dr. Bing K. Wong in SLC 145 by November 1, 1993.

LOOKING AHEAD

Start planning your Halloween costumes. The Commuter Council will be sponsoring a Halloween Party on October 29 for the children of REACH. They are planning for loads of fun, costumes, and food to celebrate the day. If you are interested in helping with the party then call Amy Mazur.

FREE TRIPS AND FREE MONEY

INDIVIDUALS AND STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS WANTED to promote the Hottest Spring Break Destinations

CALL THE NATION'S LEADER

INTER-CAMPUS PROGRAMS

1-800-327-6013

CRUISE SHIP JOBS

STUDENTS NEEDED! EARN $2000+ MONTHLY SUMMER/HOLIDAY/FULLTIME WORLD TRAVEL

Caribbean, Hawaii, Europe, Mexico

Tour guides, gift shop sales, deck hands, casino workers etc.

NO EXPERIENCE NEEDED

CALL 602-680-4647 EXT. 1147

Due to the Fall Break there will be no issue of The Beacon on October 21.

INTERNSHIP/CO-OP FAIR

Wednesday, October 20, 1993
12 noon-4 pm

CAPITAL UNION BUILDING

PENN STATE HARRISBURG
Middletown, PA

.....

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
MR. DOUG ALLEN

WGAL-TV News 8 weathercaster

FREE ADMISSION, TO REGISTER

Contact your college's Internship/Co-op office
CAROL BOSACK
831-4645

THE BEACON

Wilkes University's Weekly Student Newspaper
VOL. 46 NO. 7 October 14, 1993

1993-94 Editorial Staff

Patty Puerling
Editor In Chief

Gina M. Tagnani

Lynnmarie Rosencrance

David McCabe

Lynn Krutz

Brad Hays

Jennifer Barkas

Teri Granahan

Julie DePue

Al Smith

Jim Carns

Dana Alexander Nolle

News Editor

Features Editor

Sports Editor

Co-Copy Editor

Co-Copy Editor

Photo Editor

Ad Manager

Business Manager

Technical Manager

Distribution Manager

Advisor

EDITORIAL POLICY

Editorials reflect the views of the writer, but not necessarily of The Beacon staff. Letters to the Editor are welcomed but are limited to 500 words or less. All letters must be signed. Letters can remain anonymous only if signed and requested by the writer.

LOCATION—2ND FLOOR HOLLENBACK HALL

MAILING ADDRESS—WILKES UNIVERSITY, P.O. BOX 111; WILKES BARRE, PA 18766

PHONE (717) 831-5000 EXTENSION 2962, FAX EXTENSION 2963

Jeanne

By MARLENE M
News Writer

On Monday, N
at 7 p.m. in the CH
White will be shar
sonal story of traged
Jeanne White's so
White, a hemophili infected with the
through a blood tra Jeanne was an a son who had foll
traditions and beca
Dolly," a woman worked at Delco El
General Motors sub
"Delco Dolly" wo
plant, cooked dinne to bed. The same followed the next c Dollies" also had a
that seldom exten
the city limits.

So it was quite when, one week be mas in 1984, Jean that Ryan had cor HIV virus through a fusion. Although gave him only six live, Ryan wanted t normal life. He wa in school and Jeann
mined to let him.

The White's hor
gan to abuse the refuse to allow Ryan Jeanne turned to the
the media for help
Ryan became a relu
national celebrity
White became an

ORGAN

Jeanne White to speak at Wilkes during AIDS Awareness Week

MARLENE MATOSKY

News Writer

On Monday, November 29 at 7 p.m. in the CPA, Jeanne White will be sharing her personal story of tragedy and hope. Jeanne White's son was Ryan White, a hemophiliac, who was infected with the HIV virus through a blood transfusion. Jeanne was an average person who had followed local traditions and became a "Delco Dolly," a woman who who worked at Delco Electronics, a General Motors subsidiary. A "Delco Dolly" worked at the plant, cooked dinner, and went to bed. The same routine was followed the next day. "Delco Dolly" also had a world view that seldom extended beyond the city limits. So it was quite a surprise when, one week before Christmas in 1984, Jeanne was told that Ryan had contracted the HIV virus through a blood transfusion. Although the doctors gave him only six months to live, Ryan wanted to maintain a normal life. He wanted to stay in school and Jeanne was determined to let him.

The White's hometown began to abuse the family and refuse to allow Ryan in school. Jeanne turned to the courts and the media for help, and soon Ryan became a reluctant international celebrity and Mrs. White became an educator to the masses.

The Whites won the initial battle. The courts forced the town to allow Ryan to attend school, however the town didn't accept the ruling.

The townspeople continued to abuse the family until a bullet was shot through the White's picture window. At that point the White's began to look for a new home due to the violent threats to their safety.

Their way out of Kokomo, Indiana was the model for the made-for-TV movie, The Ryan White Story, which was based on Ryan's struggle. The White's used the proceeds from the movie to move to Cierco, Indiana where they were wholeheartedly welcomed.

In Cierco, Ryan attended school and became an honor roll student. He also obtained a driver's license, and visited Elton John and Michael Jackson.

Although Ryan's dreams were coming true, his health was rapidly deteriorating. On Saturday, April 7, 1990, five and a half years after Ryan was diagnosed with AIDS, he passed away. His mom and Elton John were by his side.

As hard as it was to lose Ryan, Jeanne remains involved with AIDS education and the fight for increased research. She is on the board of the American Foundation for AIDS Research, has testified before a Congress-sional Committee, and has worked with a publisher on her son's autobiography, which can be read by anyone from age 10 through adulthood.

Jeanne plans to continue working with AIDS patients and family. She says, "I don't care whether they're gay, Hispanic, IV Drug users or whatever. I want to keep educating people about AIDS. I know it's going to be rough watching others die. But this is something I want to do. Education is the only thing that is going to save people and we've got to get it to them. Because of Ryan, I feel it is my responsibility."

This is just the sketchy outline of Jeanne and Ryan's life. It will be much more effective and powerful when heard firsthand at the lecture.

After the lecture there will be a booksigning and reception in the lobby of the CPA at 8:30 p.m. Books can be purchased in the bookstore.

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO HELP:

QUILT DISPLAY - Volunteers are needed at the Quilt display as

- 1) Quilt monitors - Volunteers will stand at the corners of the panels and protect the display from any damage. Volunteers must wear white clothing and shoes.
- 2) Readers - Volunteers will read the names of people who have died from AIDS for an interval of five minutes.
- 3) Volunteers are needed for panel check-in, NAMES Project merchandise sales, media check-in, greeting visitors and distribution of programs.

JEANNE WHITE LECTURE - Volunteers are needed to greet visitors and distribute programs.

STUDENT AND COMMUNITY INFORMATION EXPO - Student groups (classes, clubs, etc.) are asked to develop a poster session regarding a specific issue related to the HIV and/or AIDS. Many faculty are more than willing to help with this effort.

DISCUSSION GROUPS - Volunteers are needed to serve as peer counselors for these discussions with high school groups. Volunteers must attend a training session sponsored by the Wyoming Valley AIDS Council in order to serve in this capacity.

SIGNATURE SQUARES - Individuals can prepare a 12" x 12" panel that expresses their feelings and experiences with HIV and AIDS. These panels will be sewn onto the Signature Square to commemorate the display of the NAMES Quilt at Wilkes University.

PREPARING A PANEL - Anyone can assist in the preparation of a 3' x 6' panel remembering a loved one, friend, or companion that has died of AIDS. Each panel will be displayed with the other 648 panels and eventually become incorporated into the NAMES Quilt.

Volunteer Form

Name _____ Phone _____

I would like to assist with ☐ QUILT DISPLAY ☐ READING ☐ ADVERTISEMENT

☐ GENERAL QUILT VOLUNTEERS ☐ JEANNE WHITE ☐ EXPO

☐ DISCUSSION GROUPS ☐ SIGNATURE SQUARES ☐ PANEL

Please return this form to Debra Zehner (SLC 367, 831-4753) or Mike Steele (SLC 361, 831-4763) or call Diane O'Brien (Volunteers, 831-4731), Dr. Robert Steele (Readers, 831-4522), Dr. Ellen Flint (Preparing a Panel, 831-4420), Dr. Sharon Bowar (Signature Squares, 831-4321).

Students are encouraged to become active members of the Student AIDS Awareness Committee which meets THURSDAYS, at noon, in SLC 359.

SPRING BREAK

7 NIGHTS

FROM

$ 299

INCLUDES: air, hotel, transfers, parties
and more!!!!

NAASSAU

PARADISE ISLAND

CANCUN

JAMAICA

SAN JUAN

ORGANIZE A GROUP - EARN FREE TRIP PLUS

COMMISSIONS 1-800-GET-SUN-1

The Wilkes University Press does it again

By GINA M. TAGNANI
News Editor

approached the printing of books as a service program.

On Sunday, October 10, the Wilkes University Press and Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth, president, held a reception in the honor of Dr. Charles E. Myers.

The Wilkes Press recently published one of Myers' books entitled A Connecticut Yankee in Penn's Woods: The Life and Times of Thomas Bennet.

According to Harold Cox, coordinator of Internal Publication Operations, the university has, in the last few years,

As well as printing on campus at the print shop behind Weckesser Hall, the university is often a go-between for authors and printers.

"We look for bidders on printing off-campus," said Cox.

Cox has in many instances offered technical support to authors affiliated, or not, with the university.

The printing program is self-sustaining and does not drain money from the university.

Seminars offered for small businesses

The Wilkes University plans. The seminar will begin on October 21 for five nights. The "Loan Package and Cash Flow" seminar will answer questions about securing financing to start a business or expand an existing one. Eligibility, terms of loans, credit requirements, and borrower's responsibility will be discussed at the October 18 seminar.

The "Small Business Start Up" seminar will address the initiation of a small business and explain 10 specific types of business plans. The seminar will cover topics such as risk, property coverages, liability, and worker's compensation. The "ABC's of Exporting" seminar is designed to help those businesses who are considering exporting. Opportunities and benefits of exporting will be explained October 20 by an international trade expert from EDCNP.

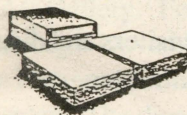

An insurance agent from Daniel Switch Agency will be at the "Small Business Insurance" seminar on October 27 to discuss the intelligent purchases of insurance for businesses. For registration and more information, contact the Wilkes University Small Business Development Center at 831-4341.

OCTOBER IS CUSTOMER APPRECIATION MONTH THANK YOU SPECIAL

2¢
COPIES

Limit 100 per customer, 8.5" x 11" White Bond.

COPIES BY KONICA

MAILBOXES

UPS

FAX

STAMPS

RAPID AIR

OFFICE SUPPLIES

MAIL BOXES ETC.

Gateway Shopping Center
West Northampton Street
Edwardsville, PA 18704
Tel 717 288-9901
Fax 717 288-9810

It's NOT WHAT WE DO. It's HOW WE DO IT.

Offer redeemable only at participating Mail Boxes Etc. Centers - Franchises Independently Owned & Operated. ©1992 Mail Boxes Etc.

Tomorrow Let's Meet At The WOODLANDS

for

5-DAY

A

WILKES UNIVERSITY
Tradition.....

ACTION ALL NIGHT LONG

5pm - 8pm - 5-DAY with KARAOKE

8pm - 2am - 25th HOUR DANCE PARTY with Q102

FRIDAY IS THE BIGGEST NIGHT OF THE WEEK!!

PROPER ID A MUST / DON'T DRINK & DRIVE

RODANO'S
SPECIAL IS BACK!!!
LARGE PIE ONLY $4.00
2 PIE MINIMUM

MUST PRESENT COUPON
BUT... THE COUPON IS GOOD FROM THUR
OCT. 14 - THUR. OCT. 21
AS MANY TIMES POSSIBLE!!!
eat in or even delivery

ONLY AT WILKES U'S RODANO'S
Northampton St.
NEXT TO THE Y.M.C.A.

ALSO, DON'T FORGET

EAT AT RODANO'S AFTER
WILKES ABUSES YET ANOTHER
TEAM!!!
25% OFF ALL FOOD AFTER GAME

Everyw
stress is bui
of sleep loo
mid-semester
Just whe end of the a for has arriv
extra sleep t at home with a piece of ca
*

Have yo name of the Bears? Sou
image of "G
it will ever h
*

I receive powerful sta former edito
what the top
during break is welcome.

*Allocated $175
*Freshmen SG a officer elections
Nomination
Oct. 15, Noon-2
Elections are

F O R U M

EDITORIAL

Everywhere you look around campus you can tell the stress is building. Students are starting to get that glazed lack of sleep look as the professors continue to pile on the work of mid-semester.

Just when you thought you would never see the light at the end of the academic tunnel, the break you have been waiting for has arrived. Although it is only a two day break, it is still extra sleep time. Besides, after a couple of days of being back at home with mom and dad, calculus and physics will seem like a piece of cake!

Have you heard the news? The debate is on to change the name of the Wilkes mascot. What do you think of the Wilkes Bears? Sounds catchy doesn't it? Picture in your mind the image of "Grizzly Bob" riding the unicycle! Although I doubt it will ever happen, it could be fun to think about.

I received this flyer in the mail recently. It makes a powerful statement and as I have pointed out in one of my former editorials, we value the freedom of speech, no matter what the topic. I am leaving this with you to ponder over during break. Any response in the form of a letter to the editor is welcome.

You wouldn't wear these.

Canine.

Canine.

Why would you wear these?

They're cute, fluffy little bundles of love—we take them into our homes and our hearts, and we make them part of our families.

Or at least we do that for the puppies in the top picture. The young felines are from the same canine family, but they'll be caught in traps, or forced to live in confinement and then electrocuted just for people to wear on their backs. It doesn't make sense, does it? For more information, contact The Humane Society of the United States.

The Humane Society of the United States
2001 L Street, NW, Washington, DC 20037

S.G. NEWS

*Allocated $175 to IABC

*Freshmen SG and class

officer elections

Nominations due Fri.,

Oct. 15, Noon-2 in SLC lobby

Elections are Thurs., Oct.

*Open Forum, Tues., Nov. 16,

11 a.m. -1 p.m. in SLC 101

*Next SG meeting is Wed.,

Oct. 20, at 6:30 p.m. in Marts

Center

IDLE CHATTER

By MICHAEL BUTCHKO

Columnist

On this week before Fall Break, many items could grab the marquee in this column.

On the political scene, Somalia is healing slowly while Haiti is simmering. But that's not it.

Michael Jordan's retirement last Wednesday was a loss for basketball. But don't count me among the mourners. Along with being the greatest ever, he also had one of the worst attitudes of any pro athlete. At his press conference, MJ said he looks forward to not having to deal with the media. I pity you so much, Michael. Without television, Mr. Jordan you'd be the greatest player no one saw. Good-bye and don't let the door hit you in the Nike's on the way out.

But even Michael's announcement, for as monumental as it was, wasn't enough to capture the clatter.

From the Associated Press wire, dated Saturday, October 9, 1993:

"In Moraine, Ohio, a five year-old set a house fire last week in which his two year-old sister died, and their mother blamed "Beavis and Butthead" for promoting burning as fun."

Say it with me now, accountability.

Or better yet, to quote the old Highlights magazine, "What's wrong with this picture?"

For those of you who have never had the joy of seeing "Beavis and Butthead," it is a satirical cartoon lampooning teenagers who do nothing but watch MTV all day and basically act brain-dead.

Like Seymour Butz of "He Said, She Said" fame.

The show frequently contains strong language and many sexual allusions. So why is a five year-old watching this? And better yet, how did he get matches or a lighter?

Two things trouble me here. The first (and most obvious) is that this child was watching MTV. Now those who know me know that I don't buy censorship at all. But MTV has more sex than most other channels. And I don't think that it's really suitable for a five year-old.

So the mother blames MTV when it is her fault. That's expected.

The wild card in all of this is MTV, which agreed to rethink certain "Beavis" concepts. Why am I not surprised?

This has to be the most hypocritical network on television. Less than three years ago, they trashed Tipper Gore and her crusade to label all records with offensive content. When she became the nominee for "second lady," MTV embraced her. This is the network that decries the censorship proposed by the Christian right and then bans a Sir Mix-A-Lot video until after 9 p.m. and a Madonna video altogether. What's up, fellas?

"Beavis and Butthead" are occasionally funny. But we all know kids imitate whatever they see. So monitor their viewing, plain and simple.

Have a good Fall Break, don't play with matches, and if anything goes wrong, blame someone else.

That's all for now. We'll chat again after break.

This Week in History

Compiled By the Wilkes University History Club

October 9, 1929 - Joint statement of Ramsey Macdonald and Herbert Hoover in support of the Kellogg-Brand Pact.

October 11, 1918 - In the town of Nish, Serbia retaken by the Allies

October 11, 1870 - General La Marmora enters Rome as Viceroy; proclaims the Pope shall be guaranteed in his sovereign powers as head of the church.

October 16, 1881 - People, a weekly tabloid publishes its first issue

October 17, 1922 - World air speed record set by general William "Billy" Mitchell at 224.5 mph.

October 15, 1812 - Russians Burn Moscow in advance

of Napoleon's armies

October 16, 1881 - People, a weekly tabloid publishes its first issue

October 17, 1922 - World air speed record set by general William "Billy" Mitchell at 224.5 mph.

October 15, 1812 - Russians Burn Moscow in advance

"Goin' To The Chapel..."

By SEYMOUR BUTZ

In the 1989 song "Funky Cold Medina" By Tone Loc, the protagonist, Mr. Loc, procures particular potions for procreation. (Alliteration returns!) Upon giving the elixer to one maiden, she wishes not to procreate, but "instead she started to talkin' 'bout plans for marriage." Tone's response is to vacate the premises immediately.

I can only gather that Tone Loc met the fair Amanda.

Amanda
ther has had the bridesected since suggested to whipping
usband,

HE SAID

confessed to Fa-Seymour that she color of her maids' gowns se-she was five. I her that finding a boy, er, I mean might and not be easy. She retorted that men are afraid of marriage don't even think about it.

Yeah, so?

As usual, I must explain to Amanda that this idea is utterly trite. She no doubt picked it up from the latest Cosmopolitan, with the scantily clad women on the cover, next to the article, "How to Satisfy Your Man Every Time, And Then Go Make A Mean Ham and Cheese Sandwich." But I digress rapidly.

It has been said by Amanda (and people more intelligent) that men are afraid of commitment. Not all commitments, I try to tell her. It's just that marriage is such a long step. We men are afraid of spending the rest of our natural lives with the incorrect person, so we postpone major decisions.

This comes as a shock to Amanda, who knows exactly what songs will be played at the wedding. No doubt "Na Na, Hey Hey, Kiss Him Goodbye" by Steam will be heard, since no matter who he will be, he will never be seen happy again.

So I tried to explain to her that men don't really care what color everyone wears. All they care about is whether or not this young lady is Ms. Right. As usual, it takes two to three days for any high level of information or tricky jokes to pass through Amanda's pretty, but empty, head. So whatever is said today will be deciphered over Fall Break.

In closing then, I ask the fair Amanda, "You're wearing white? Who are you kidding?" That's what he said.

What would you like to see in
He Said, She Said?

By AMANDA HUGINKIS

While this topic is sure to scare most of the guys away from "He Said, She Said"
for a few weeks, Seymour and I thought it might be best to take our chances, do things the Christian way, and talk about the "m" word before the "s" word. Yes, I know college students talking about marriage before sex is unheard of, but Seymour and I aren't even dating so I think it's safe to proceed (with the column, that is).

Actually, our whole conversation started because I saw this show on Donahue (Yes, Donahue. Not, as Seymour suggested, from Cosmo, which does incidentally have some good stories.) about how men and women look at marriage. Wanting to test out the theory, I approached Seymour to find out if men really were in the dark when it comes to marriage. For once, Seymour didn't fail me. At the word "marriage," he bolted out the door and left me standing at the proverbial altar.

So what do guys think about marriage? Quite simply, they don't. Guys, unlike females, do not fantasize about what their wedding will be like, unless the topic is the wedding night or the cute little bimbo who jumped out of the cake at the bachelor party.
They have not been planning their ideal wedding since the age of five. They do not have the colors of their ready on order. And they do Bride's Magazine the day kiss.

Women, however,

I'll be the first to had my wedding years. In case

all six of my brides-

ald green, I'll get married in an old Victorian mansion, I'm a four-year subscriber Modern Bride, and my husband-to-be will earn a six digit income before I even consider being his wife. (Hey Seymour, why are you running away?)

This is one topic that I simply can't argue with. Girls have grown up believing that they should be planning their wedding at the first sign of interest by a male. Guys, the other hand, take a running start and simply bolt at the mention of marriage. Un-they get roped in, guys don't give much marriage much attention and when they do notice, it's only to complain that the bar isn't open during the entire reception.

Don't think this male indifference ends with marriage though. Girls, it's an endless cycle. You're always planning — first it's your marriage, then the date meals, then your family. Guys are, as usual, just along for the ride. They don't give anything much thought (thank god) until they have to.

I seem to think that this is one of those inexplicable gender differences—one that is probably better left alone. The divorce rate is high enough the way it is.

So for this week, what she says is, I do, but where's Mr. Right?

Send your ideas
to The Beacon
Wilkes Box 111!

SCRAN is built on b their audienc
during the c show. Long turned music
capsules, ban
what they di
Needless who has eve
Violent Femi
pable of explo
ing without wood, strings
Femmes rip, ate with such
that by the tim way with a cr which hasn't shared.

It's actual thing these Mil
the beauty of it's somethin there's never jealousy to mu
a listener fall
Violent Femi
life.

There are bands whose

CAFE

By INNA I
Staff Writer

The qu
the Sub is si about cafete faced every Sub offered escape from cafeteria me semester son
It's those cookies. No available.

There is amount of salads availa where is the Don't de be supplying of cookies, s
But, wh complaints?
Last Tue

F E A T U R E S

VIOLENT FEMMES

SCRANTON—Rock 'n' roll is built on bands who can blast their audiences through the roof during the course of any given show. Long before recordings turned music into permanent time capsules, bands lived and died by what they did on stage.

Needless to say to anyone who has ever experienced the Violent Femmes, this trio is capable of explosive magic. Working without much more than wood, strings, and cowskin, the Femmes rip, roar, and reverberate with such smarts and style that by the time they've had their way with a crowd, there is little which hasn't been said and shared.

It's actually a very intimate thing these Milwaukeeans do, and the beauty of it all is that while it's something like mass-sex, there's never any post-concert jealousy to muck things up. Once a listener falls in love with the Violent Femmes, it's always for life.

There are only a handful of bands whose fans mate for life, and it's a cultural groove watching what happens among those who achieve that rarefied respect. With the Violent Femmes, it's a matter of Gordon Gano, Victor DeLorenzo and Brian Ritchie speaking uniquely for those who wish they could, but maybe never got the chance.

From the first plaintive desperation of "Gimme the Car" on through the societal strains of "American Music," the Violent Femmes supply a soundtrack of reality. Along the way, there are detours and distractions, of course, but never dead ends.

If the Violent Femmes have accomplished anything, it's that they've recognized the need for truth in a time when it is a lot easier to hide behind cynism or paint platitudes. And even if it may not be everyone's truth, it's definitely words and music that rings true for those who use it like a life raft.

In the middle of the '80s, deep into the Ronald Reagan years, the Violent Femmes played a concert at Carnegie Hall in New York. The venerable room was bursting at the seams with crazed children of the revolution, and as the performance got underway, it didn't take them long to realize that this was a night without rules. It was only a slight hop onto the stage and shortly into the band's set, dozens of their followers surrounded them, pulling at their instruments and completely overcome with emotion.

The group would leave the stage so some semblance of order could be restored, until finally they realized this night belonged to their faithful. By the time the evening ended, everyone in Carnegie Hall had consummated their love for the Violent Femmes.

For most rock 'n' roll bands this would have been an odyssey to tuck away in the history books. But for the Violent Femmes, mark it up to business as usual. They built their music on the sound of freedom and have spent a decade watching that precious pursuit come home to roost.

CAFETERIA FOOD MEETS (MEATS?) F.D.A. STANDARDS

By INNA KASPLER
Staff Writer

The quality of the food at the Sub is sinking. Complaints about cafeteria food have surfaced every semester, but the Sub offered many students an escape from several dreaded cafeteria meals. However, this semester something is missing.

It's those Ottis Spunkmeyer cookies. No, those will not be available.

There is also an inadequate amount of fruit, yogurt, and salads available at the Sub. And where is the chilli?

Don't despair. The Sub will be supplying a different variety of cookies, soon.

But, what about the other complaints?

Last Tuesday, the Wilkes

University Food Committee, a sub-group (no pun intended) of the Student Government, met with the Vice President for Business Affairs and Auxiliary Enterprises, Paul O'Hop, in order to discuss selections at the cafeteria. The representatives proposed more chicken entrees, such as broiled chicken, along with several theme meals.

The effort to meet student needs is appreciated, but maybe "taco night" does not meet the demands of student body. What is the problem?

"The biggest difficulty as I perceive it is the lack of communication from the committee to the students and from the students back to the committee. 'The food sucks' is not constructive," says

O'Hop.

What about a survey? Roughly, it would entail the food committee to draft and deliver a survey to all students who would be electing a meal plan. Based on the replies, the committee would construct a plan in which they would weigh students' demands, budget, and the products available to comprise a balanced food plan.

I proposed this to O'Hop who replied, "I would be more than happy to supply food service that would please the students." However, as a guideline, O'Hop does enforce the 20/80 scale, which indicates that if 80% of students are happy, 20% are not, and vice versa.

Many students are in amazement that Wilkes cafeteria food meets F.D.A. standards.

And according to O'Hop, "the dining hall is in terrible shape" in terms of equipment.

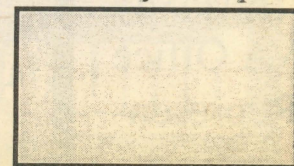

However, the quality of the food is comparatively good. Morrison's Hospitality Group, managed at Wilkes by Mike Zeoli, is one of the largest food companies. It is the owner of Ruby Tuesday's and L & N Seafood Restaurant chains. They have been supplying the Wilkes cafeteria and sub with food selections for five years, and they have to meet a national quality standard. Morrison's must meet N.A.C.U.B.O. standards, which is a standard met by all colleges and university cafeterias. They also have a dietician who coordinates the meals in 28 day cycles.

Dining at Wilkes can only get better. The school is building a new cafeteria. Picking Hall will be torn down and a new building will be put up to house the cafeteria. This new facility will have better equipment and more space.

Several options were proposed for the present, like a food court. However, the plan fell through because it was considered wasteful.

As for the Sub, no changes are made without O'Hop's permission. If there are students who have a concern about modifications in the Sub, they should notify O'Hop.

Flip Phillips blows Wilkes away

By LYNN MARIE ROSENCRANCE
Features Editor

Wilkes University was graced by the performance of Flip Phillips, a great jazz saxophonist, as part of the Jazz at Wilkes series.

The CPA auditorium was packed Monday night as Flip and his band played the audience the blues.

The band consists of Dick Hyman, pianist; Frank Tate, bassist; and Joe Ascione, drummer.

Phillips has a reputation for wowing his audiences and

photo by Jen Barkas

Wilkes was no exception.

If you missed this concert, you missed an unforgettable performance.

Phillips has performed with the Woody Herman band, Charlie Parker, Dizzy Gillespie, Coleman Hawkins, and Lester Young.

This first performance in a series of four concerts is being presented as part of the 60th anniversary celebration of Wilkes University. Jazz at Wilkes is supported, in part, by private subscriptions, and features some of the finest performers on the jazz arena.

Photo exhibit visits Sordoni

WILKES-BARRE — An exhibit of work by contemporary photographers will be exhibited at the Sordoni Art Gallery from October 10 through November 14.

Photo National features a microsurvey of current trends in American photography. Portraiture, landscapes, and still lifes serve as subject matter in a wide variety of techniques and processes.

This group of work was selected by Charles Stainback, curator of photography at the International Center for Photography, New York, New York, from 1,248 entries submitted by 419 artists from across the nation. The Sordoni Art Gallery will exhibit more than 50 of the photos chosen for the show.

The gallery is open to the public daily from noon until 5 p.m. and Thursday evenings until 9 p.m.

Attention Veterans:

This is for you, courtesy of the Wilkes University VA Office Representatives.

JOB FAIR

DATE: November 12

TIME: 1-4

AT THE 109TH ARMORY

208 Market St.

Kingston, Pa

Da Ponte Strings to perform at Wilkes

WILKES-BARRE — Wilkes University will host the Da Ponte String Quartet's first performance of the season on Saturday, October 16 at 8 p.m. in the CPA.

The quartet will perform Beethoven's String Quartet Op. 18 No. 5, the Shostakovich String Quartet No. 5, and the Piano Quintet in F minor by Johannes Brahms, featuring guest pianist Hugh Sung.

The Da Ponte String Quartet is in residence in Northeastern Pennsylvania and has an affiliation with the Department of Music, Theater, and Dance at Wilkes. Members of the quartet are Ferdinand Liva, Jr., and Gabriel Gordon, violinists; and Myles Jordan, cellist.

This season the quartet will produce four radio broadcasts for WVIA-FM.

In addition to their concert and teaching schedule in Northeastern Pennsylvania, the quartet performs a regular series at the Ethical Society in Philadelphia and maintains a summer residency in South Bristol, Maine.

Guest pianist, Hugh Sung made his solo debut with the Philadelphia Orchestra at age 11. Two years later, he entered the Curtis Institute of Music where his instructors included Elanor Sokoloff, Jorge Bolet, and Seymour Lipkin. He has performed in major cities throughout the United States, Canada, Central America, Japan, and Korea.

In addition to his solo endeavors, Sung has continued to receive critical acclaim for his work as an ensemble musician. He has collaborated in chamber music with Tchaikovsky Competition winners Frank Almond and David Kim, and with violinist Aaron Rosand.

He has won first place in the Nationwide Arts Recognition Talent Search endorsed by the National Foundation for the Advancement in the Arts, and placed second in the 1991 Joanna Hodges International Piano Competition's London Recital division. Sung has recorded all of the Brahms literature for violin and piano with Rosand under the biddulph label, as well as numerous other works, including the complete set of violin sonatas by Handel.

Currently, Sung is a faculty member of the Temple University Gifted Youth Music Program, a faculty member at the New Arts Festival in Fort Myers, Florida, and a staff accompanist both at Temple University and the Curtis Institute.

Wilkes Rocked in the Woods 4 Life

By LYNN MARIE ROSENCRANCE
Features Editor

The Wilkes University AIDS Awareness Committee along with the Woodlands Inn and Resort sponsored Rock 4 Life Monday evening at 7 p.m. The event was coordinated by Wilkes graduate Jason Gani.

The concert featured such bands as Daddy O and the Sex Maniacs, Freight Train, Acee C Ducey, So What and Twice Wilted. Each act performed 45 minute sets during the three hour show. Students paid a $7 cover charge to hear the mix of alternative, rock, and rap bands.

Although attendance was low, there were some pleasant surprises.

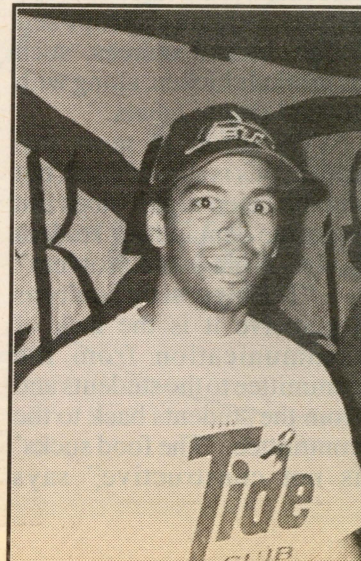

So What, the band that drew the most attendance, played as well as was expected. The big surprise of the night was the band Twice Wilted, the alternative band from Denver, Colorado. Mike Trusa, a Luzerne County Community College freshman, commented, "I came out to see So What, but was really

photo by Jen Barkas

impressed with Twice Wilted."

Kristy Hallam, President of the AIDS Awareness Committee, commented on the low attendance. "I was really hoping more Wilkes students would attend. This isn't just an abstract cause, it's to help support research AIDS. This disease isn't particular, anyone can get it. We [the committee] would like to think that Wilkes students would be more supportive in our goals to help AIDS patients around the world."

A Liberal requirement

By LYNN MARIE ROSENCRANCE
Features Editor

Wilkes University advertises itself as a liberal arts school. That the language requirement was dropped that considered a

These are some questions that the department and are asking. They believe it is beneficial to students, as indicated, not be required to learn a language.

In interviews with Foreign Language Department staff, they noted the loss of the language requirement is the exposure to different Professor Rosand, who teaches French, commented "I think tradition in terms of a push on campus for cultural diversity, want to bring in different races and national students.

to push diversity, but they get rid of language requirements, a real contradiction doesn't add up."

Dr. Victoria Spanish instructor, feels the same. "The students need to be exposed to different cultures. The world does not like Americans have to realize language does not just communicate, it gives you insight into other people's key to open the different worlds."

Russian and instructor Dr. Karpinich commented, "I hope the students

THE BEACON

Wilkes

amber music
Competition
Almond and with violinist

st place in the Recognition
lorsed by the
on for the Ade Arts, and in the 1991
International
on's London
Sung has re-rahms literad piano with biddulph la-merous other the complete
as by Handel.
ng is a faculty
mple Univer-
n Music Pro-member at the ival in Fort nd a staff ac-Temple Uni-
rtis Institute.

Life

Jen Barkas with Twice

am, President wareness Com-nted on the low
was really hop-
Wilkes students
This isn't just se, it's to help
h AIDS. This articular, any-
We [the com-like to think udents would ortive in our
AIDS patients
ld."

A Liberal Arts School not requiring a language?

By LYNNMARIE ROSENCRANCE
Features Editor

take a step back and look at what particular course of study they have elected and simply ask them to consider a language skill as a liberal skill which will greatly enhance their opportunities and their rise within a particular profession . . ."

Students with a foreign language major are up in arms over the whole department and its students deal. When the proposals were going through last year, they appealed to the Curriculum Committee stating the importance of the language requirement.

In interviews with the Andrea Tinney, senior, Foreign Language department staff, they stated that hypocritical calling out-elves a liberal arts school. We advertise as being a liberal arts school yet the requirement is the loss of exposure to different cultures. liberal arts school yet the majority of our student body are declared science majors. Then Wilkes goes and drops the language requirement. I'm dead set against it."

Other language students responded in the same way. Denise Motts, senior, "I can't believe they have dropped the requirement. That's ment . . . I hear it is because we are competing with other colleges. That is ridiculous. We are supposed to graduate college as well-rounded individuals."

Dr. Victoria Jaen, a Spanish instructor on campus, feels the same way. "The students at Wilkes need to be exposed to other cultures. The rest of the world does not do things like Americans do. They have to realize this. Language does not just help with communication, it also gives you insight to the way other people think. It is a key to open the door to other worlds."

Russian and German instructor Dr. Walter Karpnich commented, "I hope the student body can

Top 10 Uses for a Clinton Health Care Card

- Free food at Arby's at the mall (The best damn food anywhere, by golly)
- A free meal for two at the Wilkes cafeteria (No thanks, I'll stick with Arby's.)
- Can use it to pick locks
- Can use it to pick teeth
- Can purchase Clinton's ways to "Inhale" marijuana.
- You get to coach the New York Mets for a year.
- You and Bill get to go to the free doughnut buffet at Mr. Doughnut
- Get to be Madonna's or Michael Jackson's new sex toy
- Can pop in on Clinton and say, "Hey Bubba, It's me! Your half brother!"
- Taxes, Taxes, more taxes!

By BRAD HAYS
Co-Copy Editor

WCLH Top 35 for the week of Oct 5-12

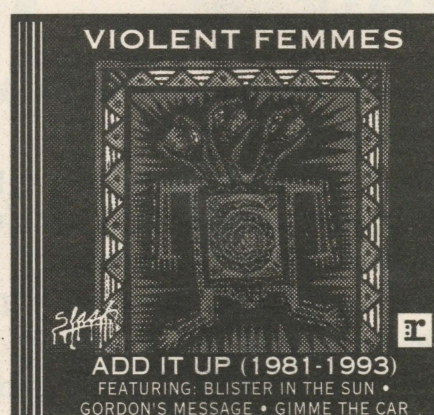

- | | |
|--------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1. Nirvana | 22. Phish |
| 2. Pearl Jam | 23. The Coneheads Soundtrack |
| 3. The Breeders | 24. The Cure |
| 4. The Dead Milkme | 25. Hammerbox |
| 5. They Might Be Giants | 26. Depeche Mode |
| 6. Helmet and House of Pain | 27. Type O Negative |
| 7. Urge Overkill | 28. Dead Can Dance |
| 8. The Mighty Mighty Bosstones | 29. Urban Dance Squad |
| 9. Smashing Pumpkins | 30. Tragically Hip |
| 10. Revolting Cocks | 31. Bjork |
| 11. Rage Against the Machine | 32. The Melvins |
| 12. Pet Shop Boys | 33. Kinky Machine |
| 13. Psychosonic | 34. Dog Society |
| 14. Weird Al Yankovic | 35. Angry Salad |

Top 10 Metal Songs

- | |
|--------------------|
| 1. Sepultura |
| 2. Fight |
| 3. Danzig |
| 4. Lilian Axe |
| 5. Ozzy Osbourne |
| 6. Merciful Fate |
| 7. Type O Negative |
| 8. Arcade |
| 9. Scorpions |
| 10. Therapy |

Compiled by WCLH-FM

VIOLENT FEMMES Add It Up (1981-1993)

$8.99 TAPE
$13.99 CD

SEE VIOLENT FEMMES
LIVE
SATURDAY NIGHT 10/23
AT THE KIRBY CENTER

ON SALE NOW AT ALL LOCATIONS

JOE NARDONE'S
Gallery of Sound

Any Student groups or organizations: If you have an upcoming event you want covered in the Beacon, contact the Features Editor at x2962.

S P O R T S

Wilkes moves to 5-0 with 28-14 win over Juniata

By DAVE MCCABE
Sports Editor

The Wilkes University football team improved to 5-0 on the year with a 28-14 win over Juniata Saturday afternoon.

The Colonels wasted little time getting on the board when Jason Smith capped off a four play 30 yard drive with a one yard touchdown run. Joel O'Donnell's extra point was good giving the Colonels a 7-0 lead.

Wilkes would score again in the first quarter after quarterback Boo Perry hit Ryan Alston with a short pass. Alston then raced for a 51 yard touchdown. O'Donnell's kick was good for a 14-0 Wilkes lead.

Juniata would cut the lead to 14-6 before Smith scored his second touchdown.

O'Donnell's kick gave the Colonels a 21-6 halftime lead.

The Colonels would make it 28-6 when Arkenn Wade ran for a 28 yard touchdown midway through the third quarter.

Juniata would score once more late in the third, but the Colonel defense held tough in the fourth to give the Colonels the 28-14 victory.

Offensively for the Colo-

Mark Buss earned ECAC Player of the Week honors for his play against Juniata. photo courtesy sports info.

nels, it was Smith rushing for 137 yards and two touchdowns on 32 carries. For his performance he was named to the ECAC honor roll.

Perry also had a good day, completing 10 out of 18 passes for 152 yards and one touchdown.

On the receiving end of Perry's passes was Steve Endres, who caught five passes for 59 yards, and Ryan Alston who caught three for 75 yards and one score.

The Colonel defense had another strong day, forcing seven Indian turnovers.

Mark Buss led all tacklers with 15. He also had a sack, a forced and recovered fumble and two pass break-ups, earning ECAC (Eastern College Athletic Conference) Player of the Week honors for the second time this season.

Mike McCree had 10 tackles and Larry Trakes recorded nine, with one forced and two recovered fumbles and a pass breakup.

Jake Cole had eight tackles and a sack, while Joe Woodward and Bob Delboal chipped in with eight tackles.

Defensive back Mike Modla had two interceptions and Aaron Wilk had done for the Colonels.

The win sets up this week's showdown with FDU-Madison, which will probably decide the MAC (Middle Atlantic Conference) Freedom League Champion.

Kickoff is set for 1:00 p.m. at Ralston Field.

Colonels of the Week**

This week's "Colonels of the Week" are Kim Kaskel and Jason Smith.

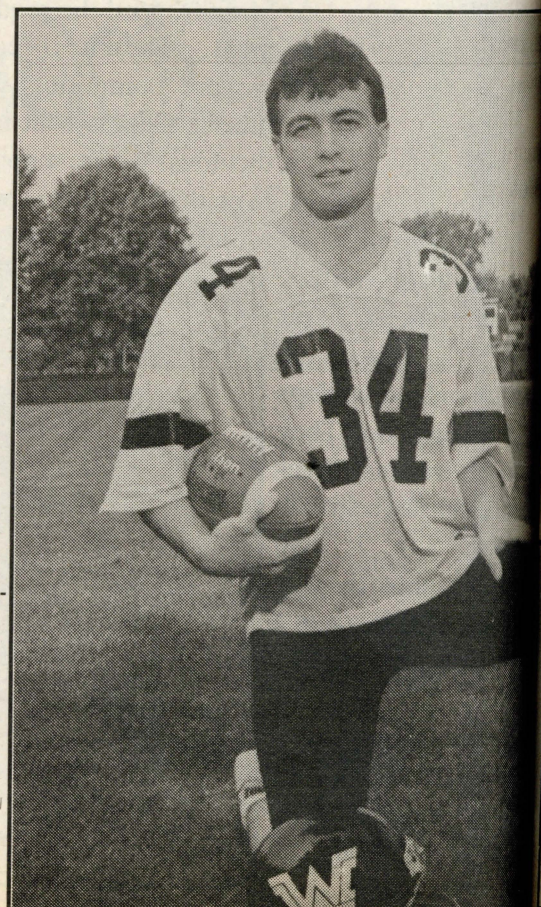

Kaskel, a sophomore field hockey player, scored the game winning goal in the Lady Colonels' 1-0 win over Drew Saturday afternoon.

Kaskel is tied for the team lead with eight goals and leads the team in assists with six.

Smith, a senior on the football team, rushed for 137 yards and two touchdowns in Saturday's 28-14 victory over Juniata.

On the season, Smith leads the MAC with 499 yards on the ground. He has also scored three touchdowns and was named to the ECAC honor roll for the second time this week.

Smith needs just 418 yards to break the Wilkes all-time rushing mark.

Week

Compiled by Sports

Field Hockey

The Wilkes finished the season 6-5-1 and 1-1 in the Freedom League.

The Lady Colonels

Thursday, losing 1-0 to Drew. Goal unassisted.

Wilkes would

Kim Kaskel scored the game winning goal.

On the season

goals apiece, while the Lady Colonels finished the season 6-5-1 and 1-1 in the Freedom League.

Men's Soccer

After a slow start, the Wilkes finished the season 5-1-1 to improve to 10-10-1 in the MAC Freedom League.

The Colonels v

score of 2-0. Russell finished the season with 10 goals and 10 assists.

Goalie Brian Jacob

Wilkes was able to hold the Lady Colonels to 1-0 in the Freedom League game.

88:45 to tie the game

Women's Tennis

The women's tennis team finished the season 10-10-1 in the MAC Freedom League.

Picking up victo

ere Jessica Bixler, and the Lady Colonels, all wins come from the Freedom League.

Against Moravia

Bixler picking up wins in the Freedom League.

Bixler/Behling and es.

The Lady Colon

ount. Behling and the Lady Colonels made it 10-10-1 in the Freedom League.

Harriers Comp

The cross-country team finished the season 10-10-1 in the MAC Freedom League.

Leading Wilkes

venth place. Jeff Cullen Miller and Lou Miller.

ely.

FRATS! SORORITY STUDENT GROUP

Raise as Much as $100...$600...$1,000 in One Week

Market Applications for the hottest credit card ever

NEW GM MASTERCARD Users earn BIG DISCOUNTS on GM CARS! Qualify for T-SHIRT & '94 GMC JIM

Call 1-800-950-1039, ext.

Week In Review

Compiled by Sports Information

Field Hockey at 6-5-1

The Wilkes field hockey team moved its overall record to 6-5-1 and 1-1 in the MAC (Middle Atlantic Conference) Freedom League by splitting a pair of games this past week.

The Lady Colonels lost a tough decision to Moravian on Thursday, losing 2-1. Theresa Havel tallied the only Wilkes goal unassisted.

Wilkes would bounce back against Drew, winning 1-0. Kim Kaskel scored the only goal off a Justine Nemshick assist.

On the season, it is Kaskel and Toni Farinella with eight goals apiece, while Havel has six on the year.

Men's Soccer Team Hot

After a slow start the Wilkes men's soccer team has gone 5-1-1 to improve their record to 6-6-2 overall and 2-3-1 in the MAC Freedom League.

The Colonels were victorious over Moravian by the score of 2-0. Russ Hiser and Chad Heffner scored goals, while Chris Erb and Bucky Craft assisted on the goals. Goalie Brian Jacobsen had 14 saves.

Wilkes was able to tie Delaware Valley in a MAC Freedom League game when Dave Unzicker scored a goal at 88:45 to tie the game at one apiece.

Women's Tennis Playing Tough

The women's team went 1-2 this past week, losing two tough matches and beating King's for the first time in 10 years. Wilkes is now 3-5 on the year.

Picking up victories in the 5-4 win in the King's match were Jessica Bixler, Karen Behling, Denise Motts, Arada Kunyosying, and the doubles team of Gina Taylor and Motts, all wins coming in straight sets.

Against Moravian, a tough 5-4 loss, it was Taylor and Bixler picking up wins in singles, and in doubles play it was Bixler/Behling and Motts/Taylor getting straight set victories.

The Lady Colonels also came up short to Drew by a 6-3 count. Behling and Motts picked up singles wins, while Motts/Taylor made it three in a row in doubles play.

Harriers Compete at Drew

The cross-country team competed in the Drew Invitational this weekend, but was a non-counter.

Leading Wilkes was Brad Smith who ran a 30:58 for seventh place. Jeff Crahalla ran a 31:10 good for 10th place. Ben Miller and Lou Marnell finished 27th and 28th respectively.

FRATS! SORORITIES!
STUDENT GROUPS!

Raise as Much as You
Want in One Week!
$100...$600...$1500!

Market Applications for the hottest credit card ever—NEW GM MASTERCARD. Users earn BIG DISCOUNTS on GM CARS! Qualify for FREE T-SHIRT & '94 GMC JIMMY. Call 1-800-950-1039, ext. 75.

GREEKS! CLUBS!
STUDENT GROUPS!

Raise as Much as You
Want in One Week!
$100...$600...$1500!

Market Applications for CHiBank VISA, MCI, SEARS, AMOCO etc. Call for your FREE T-SHIRT and to qualify for FREE TRIP to MTV SPRING BREAK '94. Call 1-800-932-0528, ext. 65.

Field hockey team in action Saturday afternoon. photo by Ray Monzon

Volleyball team struggling

By ERICA KRAMER
Sports Writer

Lately the Wilkes University volleyball team has been plagued with a losing record, going 0-6 in their last four encounters.

On Thursday, October 7, Coach Maria Haslin and her squad faced a competitive Moravian squad. The Colonels were beaten in straight sets, 4-15, 7-15, 7-15.

Samantha Smart had 10;

Christine Kennelly had six service points and one kill.

After succumbing to Moravian, the Lady Colonels traveled to Upsala. On this occasion they were defeated 15-13, 10-15, 12-15, and 11-15.

Wendy O'Connor had 11 kills, six blocks, and one ace.

Finally on Tuesday, October 12, Wilkes played host to Scranton University. The Colonels were defeated in 7-15.

One bright spot for the Colonels was the performance of O'Connor who had eight kills, six blocks, and four service points. Smart had six kills and four blocks.

The Lady Colonels will try to end their losing streak this Saturday when they face two tough opponents in the teams from Susquehanna and Scranton.

*PERSIAN GULF*PANAMA*GRENADA* *LEBANON*VIETNAM*

A REPRESENTATIVE FROM THE LOCAL VET CENTER WILL BE ON CAMPUS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21ST FROM 11 A.M. TO 1 P.M. IN MARTS CENTER ROOM 203 TO CONDUCT A SEMINAR ON COUNSELING SERVICES, BENEFITS REVIEW AND RELATED VETERAN ISSUES. ALL INTERESTED UNIVERSITY STAFF, FACULTY AND STUDENTS ARE WELCOMED TO ATTEND. INDIVIDUAL COUNSELING IN A CONFIDENTIAL AREA WILL BE AVAILABLE.

Your sacrifices and efforts have earned you the support of your country. You are eligible to obtain assistance from a Department of Veterans Affairs Vet Center in your local community. Services for veterans include:

- ✓ Readjustment counseling for combat related stress and debriefings for returning home
- ✓ Vocational and employment assistance
- ✓ Referral for VA claims and benefits information

- ✓ Programs for families and significant others
- ✓ Social service referrals

Vet Center

S P O R T S

Undefeated Colonels to battle FDU-Madison

WILKES-BARRE — Ralston Field will be the site of a battle for first place in the Middle Atlantic Conference (MAC) Freedom League between the Colonels of Wilkes University and the Jersey Devils of FDU-Madison on Saturday. Kickoff is set for 1:00 p.m.

Wilkes, 5-0 overall, 2-0 in the MAC Freedom, is coming off a 28-14 win over Juanita College. FDU-Madison, 4-1, 3-0 in the MAC Freedom League, beat Albright 33-7 on Saturday.

The Colonels are off to their best start since 1968.

"This will be a good test for us," said head coach Joe DeMelfi. "They are 4-1 on the year and have beaten some good teams. We will need to stop their passing offense, led by Frank Plefka and Vic Moncato, and do a better job when we're on offense. Against Juanita we turned the ball over too many times. We cannot afford to do that again this week."

On offense Wilkes will look to several players to play key roles on Saturday. Tailback Jason Smith, Pine Grove, PA, leads the MAC in rushing and has totaled 499 yards on 132 carries for the season. Smith is now just 418 yards shy of breaking the school all-time mark for rushing of 2,869 yards held by Ted Yaeger ('68-'71). Smith was named to the ECAC Southern Division Honor Roll after racking up 137 yards on the ground.

Quarterback Boo Perry, Canton, PA, with a 152 yard day against Juanita, now has passed for 1049 yards for the year. In his brief career Perry now has 2108 yards in passing, good for fourth on the all-time Wilkes list.

His two favorite targets have been Steve Endres from Palmerton, PA, and Ryan Alston (Ocean Twp., NJ).

Endres, now just 13 receptions shy of breaking the school mark of 178 held by Tony DiGrazia ('84-'87), has 34 catches for 502 yards and one touchdown this season. Endres' 6.8 receptions per game lead the MAC. Alston, the freshman, is second with 16 catches for 307 yards and 4 touchdowns.

Overall, Wilkes is fourth in total offense with 371.8 yards a game (162.0/209.8 passing).

Ranked number one in defense in the MAC, giving up 168 yards a game (81.2 rushing/86.8 passing), they are led by several key players.

Linebacker Mike McCree of West Orange, NJ leads the team with 52 tackles (11 solo), while another linebacker, Mark Buss, from Dallas, PA, is second with 46 tackles (16 solo). Buss is coming off his 15 tackle performance of the year and was named the ECAC Southern Division Defensive Player of the Week for the second time in three weeks for his effort.

Defensive ends Larry Trakes of Frackville, PA, and Jake Cole, of Kulpmont, PA are close behind with 40 and 30 tackles respectively. Trakes and Cole also have five sacks each on the year.

Placekicker Joel O'Donnel of Plymouth Meeting, PA is 14-18 in extra points and four of eight in field goals with the longest completed attempt at 40 yards. Punter Joe Machuzak of Mount Carmel, PA has kicked 23 times for an average of 32.6 with five inside the 20.

The Jersey Devils come in with a record of 4-1 on the year. The Devils are led by quarterback Frank Plaefka who is 70 of 121 for 1066 yards, 12 touchdowns, and five interceptions. His favorite target is Vic Moncato who has caught 26 passes for 519 yards and seven touchdowns.

The FDU-Madison Devils come in averaging 283.6 yards a game (63.4 rushing/240.2 passing) and 23 points a game.

The Jersey Devil defense is led by Ed Schon who has 31 tackles (17 solo) and Eric Kohler with 32 tackles (21 solo). Schon also has three interceptions while Kohler is tied for the team lead in sacks with three.

Overall defensively the Jersey Devils are fourth in total defense giving up 240.2 yards a game (95.8 rushing/95.8 passing).

This is the first meeting between the two teams since 1986 with Wilkes winning 21-14. Overall the Colonels lead the series 7-2.

The Colonels come in ranked third in the NCAA Division III South region, fifth in the Lambert/Meadowlands Poll and 14th in Don Hansen Football Gazette.

Wilkes will be at Widener next week with a kickoff at 1:30 p.m. in Chester.

Women's soccer drops pair

By ERICA KRAMER
Sports Writer

The women's soccer team suffered two losses in their last two encounters.

The now 2-9 Colonels traveled up the road to College Misericordia on Wednesday, October 6, where they were defeated by a score of 3-0. Although the score looks devastating, Coach Tim Barrera only had eight of 11 girls needed to play the game. Again troubled by a short roster, the club had to work with what they had.

On this outing, sophomore Michelle Shaffer was scored upon for the first time since her goalie debut during the Centenary game late in September.

On Saturday, October 9, the Lady Colonels played host to Dickinson College. The Colonels once again were shutout, 4-0. Tanya Daigle gave up three goals and Shaffer one in the loss.

Because of the weather on September 27, the game against King's was rescheduled and will be played today at Ralston Field. The Lady Colonels will be looking to add another win this afternoon when they take on their cross-town rivals.

UPCOMING SPORTS EVENTS

Today, October 14
Field Hockey at King's, 4:00 p.m.

Saturday, October 16
Football vs FDU-Madison, at home, 1:00 p.m.
Field Hockey vs Susquehanna, at home, 11:00 a.m.
Men's Soccer at Drew, 3:00 p.m.
Cross Country at Allentown, TBA
Volleyball at Susquehanna, 11:00 a.m.
Women's Tennis vs Susquehanna, at home, 11:00 a.m.

Monday, October 18
Field Hockey at FDU-Madison, 4:00 p.m.
Volleyball at Allentown, TBA
Women's Soccer vs Messiah, at home, 3:30 p.m.

Tuesday, October 19
Women's Tennis at FDU-Madison

Volume 40
October 2

V
Educ

By GINA M. TA
News Editor

Wilkes Univ
ing new territory
hand in the pr
children's televi
WBRE-TV.

"WOW," th program, will ai
on Saturday, C
noon. The show to 12 year-old a shows about vo saurs, dance and name just a few.

According Alexander Nolf
fessor of Comm
Wilkes and the sh
and writer, it is cultivate all the
which exist amo
faculty.

"We have a
so we did a show
nos," said Nolf
Also, accor six shows are pleted. The com
The shows are sl
by members of t
team.

Pictured above
Wilkes community