Plans Set For 1962 Winter Carnival

Music Department Plays Host To State's Talented Students

The music department will play host to the annual Pennsylvania Choral Festival Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday—January 31, February 1 and 2, according to Mr. Robert E. Lovett, department chairman. Approximately 300 selected choristers from more than twenty Pennsylvania colleges and universities are expected to attend. Mr. Richard Chopline, choral instructor at Wilkes College, is personal host for the affair.

The choral festival, held each year under the auspices of Pennsylvania Collegiate Choral Association, has become one of the most important functions in its specific area in Pennsylvania. Only the highly talented music students of representative colleges and universities are selected to appear in the festival chorals.

Following the arrival of the students on Wednesday, January 31, there will be a series of rehearsals and clinics, reaching a climax on Friday evening, February 2, at 8:30 p.m. when the festival chorus appears in Iron Temple.

Dr. Harry R. Kline of Columbia University, nationally known choral conductor, will conduct the chorus. The program will include sacred music, folk songs, and contemporary works. Tickets may be obtained from members of the Wilkes Chorus or at the Bookstore at a cost of $1.00 for adults and fifty cents for students.

Finnegan Foundation Awards Offered to Qualified Students

Applications for the third annual competition for the James A. Finnegan Fellowship Foundation Awards are now being accepted by the Directors of the Foundation. Awards from the foundation, designed to encourage qualified students to pursue careers in government and politics, will be six week internships, from June to December, in a suitable governmental or political office with a weekly pay of $100.00.

Any Pennsylvania student, attending an accredited university or college, is eligible to apply for the awards. Also eligible are non-residents enrolled in an accredited Pennsylvania university or college. Students applying must be interested in a career in politics or government. The closing date for application is March 1, and awards will be made on March 26.

Directors of the Foundation will serve as judges and will make the final decisions in evaluating the applicants, investigating their applications, and determining the awards. The winners will be designated on the basis of academic achievement, constructive participation in extracurricular activities, and demonstrated aptitude for a career in government or politics. A limited number of applications may be obtained by writing to the Foundation office in Harrisburg.

BOEON CLUB NOMINATIONS
Nominations for officers for the coming year took place at the meeting of the Economics Clubs last Friday. Candidates for the office of president are Jerry Moffatt and Thomas Tomalin. Election will be held this Tuesday.

Government Institute Announces Series of Law Enforcement Lectures

This spring, the Fourth Series of Lectures having to do with some aspect of law enforcement will be presented under the main sponsorship of the Institute of Municipal Government. The specific title of this series is Intoxication and Law Enforcement with main concentration being given to the medical problems caused by drunken drivers.

The importance of the series was increased by Governor Lawrence signing into law on July 22, 1961, an amendment to the Vehicle Code authorizing the use of chemical tests to determine intoxication of persons operating motor vehicles.

The Institute, along with the other sponsoring organizations, felt that this would be a very suitable opportunity to explain the various facets of the new law.

The series will be started early in February with a lecture on the 'Physiologic Effect of Alcohol' and will be given by Dr. Francis J. Michelini, associate Professor of Biology at the college.

This will be followed by successive lectures to be given on the 'Legal Aspects of Civil Liability' and the 'Legal Aspect of Criminal Liability' to be delivered by Attorney George A. Spohrer and First Assistant District Attorney Leo Gimmit.

In the fourth lecture, a direct relationship will be shown between the law as signed by the governor and the tests as Attorney Arthur L. Goldberg will discuss the 'Constitutional Aspects of Chemical Tests.'

Following this explanation, a practical lecture, 'Equipment Demonstration,' will be given by Glen C. Forster, manager of the Intoximeter Association. To conclude the present series, District Attorney Stephen A. Teller will discuss the 'Examination Procedure' required in the administration of the new law.

The series is the result of a suggestion of former District Attorney Louis G. Feldman who prompted a unique series of lectures on scientific crime detection in 1953. Because the response to the lectures, which achieved national recognition, was very gratifying, the series was continued.

In 1957, a series on topics such as the 'Legal Right of a Police Officer to Use a Gun' were given. The third series, offered in 1958, was on traffic safety.

The program itself comprises six lectures to be given during February and March. The first will be held on February 5 at 7:45 p.m. in Stark 109, with the other on the following at the same time on the following five Monday evenings.

This lecture series is provided in addition to the regular courses offered by the Institute which, this year, includes courses for township supervisors, school directors, and magistrates. The latter is a course in criminal law designed to provide a general review of the important points of criminal law required by magistrates in the proper fulfilling of their office.

Two additional courses for the Spring semester are traffic management and zoning. These courses are offered by the Institute staff, as are offered by the Institute staff, as implemented by guest lecturers, to

Buckhill Falls Inn in Poconos Is Site of Outdoor Classic

Plans are over, registration is complete. Relax! What would be more stimulating after weeks of studying than a day in the Poconos? Remote as this idea might seem to you, the Student Government has made it a reality, for on February 1 from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. the group will conduct the Winter Carnival at Buckhill Falls Inn in the Pocono Mountains.

The day will be filled with various indoor and outdoor activities. Skiing, skating, and sledding facilities will be made available for the outdoor crowd, and accommodations for pool, ping pong, and dancing will be available to those who wish to stay out of the cold. In addition to these facilities, there will be a snack bar available where the students will be able to purchase refreshments. The final event of the day will be dancing from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. to the music of a local orchestra.

The cost to each person for the above-mentioned privileges will be $1 if the ticket is purchased on campus before January 22 and $1.50 per person if the ticket is purchased at the Inn at Buckhill Falls. This will be the only charge made for the day's activities, however, skate rental will be fifty-five cents per person and ski rental, including boots will be from $2 to $4 depending upon the quality of the skis. Both rentals are for all day. The students are reminded that the only food available will be at the snack bar.

Town And Gown Series Resumes January with Philharmonic Group

The Town and Gown series, sponsored by the college music department, will resume Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. in the gymnasium. Featured on Sunday will be the Philharmonic String Quartet of Wilkes-Barre.

This program launches the musical organization into its sixth season. Members of the string quartet are all members of the Wilkes-Barre Philharmonic Orchestra and over the years have become one of the most active musical organizations in the area. Throughout the year, their schedule calls for ten concerts.

The aggregation is composed of Martin Friedman, violin; Eugene Brandstadter, viola; Robert Provell, violin; and Enzo Liva, cello. Mr. Friedman is an instructor at the college. Mr. Brandstadter is a furrier, Mr. Liva, an architect, and Mr. Provell, a chiropractor.

The program for the Sunday concert is as follows: Quartet No. 46, Opus 20, No. 4 in D major by Haydn; Quartet Opus 56, No. 3 in F major by Beethoven; and Quartet "Voices Intimate" Opus 56 by Sibelius.

The next Town and Gown program is scheduled for Sunday, February 11.

Sophomores Prepare for Donkey Ball Contest

Once again the gymnasium will vibrate with the clatter of hoofs as mounted terror compete for victory at the Donkey Basketball Game, sponsored by the sophomore class on Thursday, March 15, at 8:00 p.m.

Committees consist of James Jones, general chairman; George Ewancho and Roger Rymer, ticket sales; Curtis Garg, physical arrangements; Jerry Shlanski, program; Edward Rogalski, publicity; Sally Schoffstall and Roseenagreen, refreshments; Barbara Stevens, Gail Roberts, and Fred Smithson, personnel who are responsible for organization details of the affair.

Executive council members will begin to sell tickets, at 75 cents for adults and high school students and 50 cents for grade school students, on February 22. Jones has announced that, as is the custom, the faculty will be requested to furnish competition for the student body. Sophomores interested in working on any of the committees should contact the chairman of that particular committee.

TDR Formulates Plans for Annual Valentine Formal

On February 9, Theta Delta Rho will hold its annual Valentine Formal at the gymnasium on South Franklin Street.

Cupid's charges will dance from 10 to 12 to the music of Herbie Green and his orchestra. They will whirl in a rosy atmosphere of pink hearts and cupid's around a center fountain spouting water. A queen will be chosen and will be crowned during intermission.

This dance is the first function the nurses of Wilkes will be attending as members of Theta Delta Rho. Rachel Altavilla is general chairman of the dance. Patricia Ropski is publicity chairman, Rachel Phillips and Beth Weiss are in charge of chaperones and invitations, and Lorraine Dyers and Heather Daniel are in charge of table decorations.

Ruth Doorn designed the backdrop. Merle Brousch is ticket chairman. Tickets will be on sale next week at the Cafeteria.

Mrs. Doane and Dr. Reif will chaperone the dance.

A Winter Carnival At Last

After weeks of work and preparation it appears that the Winter Carnival is at last a reality. The Student Government has expended a great deal of effort in preparing for this event and it is hoped that this year their efforts will not be in vain. A large crowd is anticipated and will probably be recalled. Every effort has been made to secure transportation and facilities for the affair. The School Spirit Committee has provided for a chartered bus to the event and the Student Government has secured the facilities of the Burkhill Falls Inn. Let us hope that we may set a new precedent this year, one which will enable Wilkes students in future years to carry on the tradition of the Winter Carnival. We can all have a part in doing this by maintaining the proper standards of conduct at this year's carnival. Each individual student has the ability to increase or detract from the reputation of Wilkes students as a group and if we all keep this in mind, we can maintain the annual Winter Carnival for future students of Wilkes.

Portrayal of Lincoln Highlights First Assembly of Next Semester

The College assembly scheduled for Thursday morning, February 8, at eleven o'clock should prove to be enjoyable for students, faculty, and administration. At that time Mr. Joe Callaway will make his debut at Wilkes College, portraying the delightful humor, wit, and political acumen of one of our greatest and best-loved Presidents, Abraham Lincoln. Entitled "Lincoln Speaks Today," Callaway's skits include such memorable pieces as the Gettysburg Address, A Typical Debate with Douglas, Highlights of the Cooper Union Speech, the Second Inaugural Address, and Lincoln's Farewell to Springfield. A master at portraying Lincoln, Joe Callaway has done extensive research which has given new insights into Lincoln's character and his portrayal. Using no costumes, Callaway by voice and manner alone recreates the great humanist of whom we are so proud. Callaway has shared honors both as an actor and director with such well-known stars as MacDonald Carey, Dennis King, Martha Scott, and Ernie Kovacs. Starring in over 1,000 perform-

Roses for Weekly Sheet Come from Will Rogers; Read and Be Grateful

This is what the beloved Will Rogers thought of the weekly newspaper: "Take away my ham, take away my eggs, even my chili, but leave me my newspaper." "Even if it has such purely local news as 'Jim Jones came home last night unexpectedly and bloodstained trousers,' or 'Joe Busbybeat, our local M.D., is having one of the best years in his career, practically speaking - but they just won't pay him when they get well,' and 'election ain't far off, and everybody is up for office that can sign an application blank.' "Now all that don't seem much news to you. But it is news, especially when you know the people and they are your own folks. So, no matter how punk you think your local newspaper is, let them take it away from you for a while and see how you feel. The old newspaper, I think, is about our biggest blessing. "So let's read and be merry, for tomorrow the paper may not have enough ads to come out."

Dr. Vujica Contributes Religious Article to Asian Affairs Journal

Dr. Stanko Vujica, head of the department of philosophy and religion, recently contributed an article to The Eastern World, a London journal for Asian affairs. His article, "The Ahmadiyya Movement in Islam," was published in its December, 1951 issue and concerned the origination of the movement in the Punjab. Dr. Vujica, who spent last year there doing research in Comparative Religion, was able to study the Ahmadiyya Movement at its source. He visited the movement's West Pakistan, interviewed its leaders, and talked to a great number of its followers, some of whom became his friends. The Ahmadiyya is a syncretistic Muslim sect which incorporated into its Islam some Christian, Hindu and Zoroastrian features. Its founder, Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, claimed to be the Second Coming of Jesus, a manifestation of the Hindu god Krishna, as well as the Mahdi ("the Guided One") of the Muslims. The movement, directed from Pakistan, has mission centers in thirty foreign countries, including the United States and most countries of Western Europe. Another of Dr. Vujica's articles, "Scientism and Humanism," has just appeared in the Winter issue of the quarterly, The Pakistan Philosophical Journal.

TRES CHIC Spring Clothes Preview "A Country Look" Line

A new spring market opened in New York City. Here is just a preview of what to expect for the spring and summer seasons. All the houses are featuring "A Country Look" line. Sportswear shown in denim, calico, and checks carries out this "country look" story. Denim dresses are shown in solids, and stripes of blue and white, red and white, and gold and white. Slacks are shown in the classic colors of black, brown, and slate gray. Blouses are shown in three sleeve lengths which are expected to be equally popular. The sleeveless blouse is for midsummer heat, the short-sleeved blouse is for air conditioned offices, and the long-sleeved blouse is a return to the Gibson girl look. Roll up sleeves are shown in few houses. In shoes, year round patent leathers both for day and evening wear are expected to reach the height of popularity.

STUDENT SKETCH

Senior Class President Pursues Interests Through Activities

The distinction of having served his class as president for two consecutive years has enabled Joseph Shumbe, a senior commerce and finance major, to pursue two of his greatest interests - making many new friends, and improving his oratorical ability. Joe, who is a four-year member of his class executive council, is a former member of SAM and the Jaycees, and was elected treasurer of the Economics Club in his freshman year. He played intramural baseball last year, and in his sophomore year acted in Cue and Curtain's production "Winterse".

Joseph Shumbe

Once again showing his interest in public speaking, he was the announcer for last year's weekly college radio program "Focus". He has also worked on the freshman orientation program for two years. By reading newspapers and periodicals, Joe keeps abreast of current events, being majorly interested in government and business. With his vast background in public speaking, class leadership, and sales management; with aspirations on the future, he plans someday to enter politics. His background of activity and achievement extends beyond the campus. Joe graduated with honors from Newport High School, where he played both baseball and basketball. In addition, he was an Eagle Scout and a Brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow. Joe made several observations concerning the campus, and students on campus. "I have enjoyed college life, and have always enjoyed the concert band which the music department has produced. I am disappointed, however, that they have played so infrequently for the students. I would suggest that they perform an hourly concert bi-monthly for the students and to the public. This is a significant part of a liberal arts school. "Many of the students here," he continued, "compromise their ambitions in life for the sake of security. I do not know whether this is a unique of Wilkes students, but I do not believe it is." Joe believes that students should be ambitious; security will then follow their ultimate success. Regarding the future of the college, Joe, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Shumbe, said that having seen blueprints for the college expansion he knows that the administration is aware of the improvements necessary and is doing all it can to provide more adequate facilities. The blue prints he saw were preliminary plans for the future extension of Stark Hall for a four-year graduate program in engineering, and plans for the fine arts building. As Joe said, "We have the property; it is just a matter of time to secure the funds."

Webster Editors Revise International Lexicon For Modern Usage

Webster does it again! The new international dictionary which took twenty-five years to assemble, reflects all the modern trends in meaning. It uses one phrase definition with no polysyllabic vocabulary which was common in earlier editions of the dictionary. Furthermore, the new edition does not dictate good and bad usage or set forth rigid rules and definitions. It is set up to please the high school and college students, technicians, the periodical readers, and scholars. As in other editions the definition of a word proceeds from a general meaning to more specialized and specific meanings. No longer will the user of the third new international dictionary find the familiar phrase "of or pertaining to" which was common in previous editions. This new edition of Webster's International Dictionary has been added to the library's collection of books and is presently on display on the circulation desk where anyone checking out books is invited to examine it.

Sixty-six Pints of Blood Donated by Students

The twenty-second Red Cross Blood Collection from Wilkes College was conducted last month. A total of sixty-six pints were donated by the students. Blood collections began at Wilkes in 1951 and during the past ten years a total of 1,264 pints of blood has been collected with a total of 124 deferrals. Up to date, the highest single collection from Wilkes occurred in 1952. The Blood Center collected 122 pints and defered 14 persons. These donations become members of the Blood Insurance Plan. Under this plan, the student or his family is able to receive blood without charge. Also, the student's blood type is recorded and sent to him. The next regular meeting of the Education Club will be held on Wednesday, April 4. It is hoped that the collection at this time will surpass all previous ones.

Ed. Club Elects Rossi

On Tuesday, the Education Club met for the chief purpose of electing officers for the coming year. The results were as follows: president, Pat Rossi; vice-president, Carol Rice; secretary, Alice Cole; corresponding secretary, Sylvia Yurk; treasurer, John Trudnick; and librarian, Ruth Ann Ziance. Following the collection of ballots, three senior students, David Butchko, Yorath Evans, and Dave Fiechl, related some of the experiences they acquired while studying teaching. A question and answer period followed these reports. Between semesters a meeting between retiring and new officers will be held to acquaint each new officer with his duties and responsibilities. The next regular meeting of the Education Club will be held at the beginning of the spring semester.

Chemistry Club Allotment Void As Student Government Vote Upholds Court of Appeals Ruling

by Cynthia Hagley

Court of Appeals decision to invalidate Student Government action of giving funds to the Chemistry Club has been upheld. The government reviewed a motion to overrule the Court of Appeals decision at last Monday's meeting and the motion was defeated 12 votes to 0 with 1 abstention. This means that the Chemistry Club will receive no funds to alleviate the losses they sustained when they held their Friday night dance.

There was much discussion on the wording of the brief accompanying the Court of Appeals decision. Members of the governing body felt it important to examine various sections of the brief so they recused to discuss it informally. The method which the Court of Appeals used in holding meetings and notifying the Chemistry Club and Student Government of these meetings was debated. It was decided that the court did not comply with the procedure in having these meetings. According to the Student Government Constitution, the first meeting of the Court to decide any appeal shall be just for examining of summaries. After this meeting the Court shall be free to arrange another meeting with representatives from both groups appearing to answer questions.

In the case of the Chemistry Club appeal, the Court met once and asked the president of the Chemistry Club to appear at that time. There is indecision as to whether the president of the Student Government was properly informed of the meeting.

Furthermore, it was brought out that members of the Court of Appeals felt individually that the Student Government budget should stand as it was allotted in the beginning of the year and that no departmental club should be given money by the Student Government.

It was reported to the governing body that the administration is now looking into the matter of car pool stickers. They have not yet reached a final decision, but since the Student Government will not meet again until next semester.

the power was invested in the parking committee, headed by Jeff Gallett, to make up a list of cars coming to the college from various communities in order to form car pools.

Therefore, if the administration decides to allow car pools and issues special stickers for this purpose, the parking committee will be ready to go into action before next semester.

The parking committee chairman also pointed out that so far no action had been taken to break down the curb on the South Street entrance to the student parking lot on the corner of South Franklin and South Streets. This action was suggested to the administration and the impression was given to the parking committee that something would be done about it.

Scholarship applications to the Student Government scholarship committee has been extended to today. Applications may be obtained from Miss Jean Borowski in Chase Hall, first floor, from any Student Government member, and from the Student Government office.

Four scholarships will be issued at a value of $125 per scholarship. No person is eligible who now holds a scholarship of any kind. The money will be available to apply to next semester's tuition.

Students will fill out the application in complete detail to enable the committee to evaluate the need. Winter Carnival The winter carnival will be held at the Inn at Buckhill Falls on Thursday, February 1. For further information see page one.

However, waltz and rock and roll numbers will be played also. Dancing will be held from 9-12, and the admission is the usual fifty cents per person.

Two members of the band, Jerry Sechler and Melvin Lynn, are students at the college. Sechler, who is the leader of the group and the lead guitar, is a freshman who is majoring in secondary education.
