WILKES FACULTY WOMEN

— To all faculty women, both faculty and wives of faculty —

Welcome to all you new Wilkes faculty women, and a greeting to all returning members. We're looking forward to seeing you!

We're off to our biggest year yet and have great plans in which we hope you'll join us. Our first event will be the Family Picnic, to be held at Dr. Farley's farm at Beaumont on Sunday, September 19, from 1 p.m. through the afternoon. Kay Siles (Mrs. George Siles) is chairman, and she promises a delightful time for all, with ponies, jeep rides, and games for the children, volleyball and baseball for the adults, and a treasure hunt for everybody. (Small charge for pony rides.) All faculty members are invited, singles as well as families. Bring your own food (and cooking equipment, if desired). Fireplaces are available if you wish to cook hot dogs or hamburgers. We'll hope for pleasant weather but have a rain date of September 26, same time, if not. Just follow Route 309 and turn at Beaumont. The farm is 17 miles from campus; see map. Hope to see you all there.

Then, there'll be a real treat for all Faculty Women on Saturday, October 9, when Mrs. Michelini will entertain us at Brunch at her lovely home at 30 West River Street. Our year's plans and program will be explained, our officers introduced, and an opportunity given to get acquainted and sign up for the various fascinating interest groups being launched this year. Put this occasion on your calendar as a MUST.

Saturday, October 23, will bring another treat, a privately conducted Tour, especially for us, of the historic Swetland Homestead in Wyoming. Here is an opportunity, especially for newer faculty, to learn some of the significant history of the Wyoming Valley. This lovely, Colonial house museum dates from 1797 and was donated by a descendant of the builder, Mrs. Dorothy Dickson Darte, who was a Wilkes benefactor and trustee until her recent death. Come and see this very interesting place and enjoy refreshments afterward at Kay Siles' home nearby.

Inclosed is a program for the year,— subject to possible future additions or inspirations!— which program chairman Ann Wilke has compiled. Please keep it and plan to come to all the meetings you can; the programs will be excellent, we promise.

In addition to the above, there are all kinds of surprises planned. Barbara Bellucci and Ginger Rodachko have compiled a terrific, 27-page booklet of recreational and shopping facilities for our new faculty women, which promises to be very popular and helpful among our old members as well. Joy Toralli has fine plans for the Book Discussion Group and Carol Acheson for the new Crafts Group, while Rhoda Tillman has lots of other interest group plans up her sleeve. And that isn't all,— come and see!

Till the 19th and the Family Picnic,
Sincerely,

Betty Hopkins Moses

MRS. JOHN N. LABOWS

Mrs. John N. Labows (pictured above) is serving as hospitality chairman for the Wilkes Faculty Women this year. Mrs. Labows recently entertained a group of new faculty women and their sponsors at a Coffee Hour at her home. Other neighborhood Coffee Hours have been held at the homes of Mrs. James P. Rodechko and Mrs. Joseph T. Bellucci as part of a new program to acquaint new faculty women with one another and with the community. During the Coffee Hours all newcomers were presented with a comprehensive guide to the area compiled by Mrs.

Bellucci and Mrs. Rodechko, membership co-chairman. Maps of the area and other informative materials furnished by the Chamber of Commerce, Luzerne County Tourist Promotion Agency, and the Wilkes College Public Relations Department were also given to the new faculty women.

Mrs. Labows is currently serving on the committee in charge of a Get-Acquainted Brunch to be held on Saturday, October 9, at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Wilkes College's first lady, Mrs. Francis J. Michelini, 30 W. River Street, Wilkes-Barre. Others on the committee are Mrs. Robert A. West, Mrs. Charles E. Wilks, Mrs. Paul A. Torelli, Mrs. Reed D. Acheson, and Mrs. John W. Furlow, Jr.; and the club's officers, Mrs. B. Hopkins Moses, Mrs. Stephen J. Tillman, Mrs. Chester N. Molley, Mrs. Paul P. Zavada, and Mrs. Boyd L. Earl. The hostess, Mrs. Michelini, has asked the following women to assist her by pouring: Mrs. George F. Ralston, Mrs. Ralph B. Rozelle, Mrs. David M. Leach, and Mrs. Benjamin F. Fiester, Jr. Invitations have been sent to all faculty women and a large turnout is expected.

During the morning those present will have the opportunity to sign up for any of the new interest groups which cover topics such as, Book Discussion, Crafts, Music, Ecology, Gourmet Cooking, Bridge, Sports, Travel, Folk Dancing, and Wilkes College Projects. Mrs. Stephen J. Tillman is interest group co-ordinator and is assisted by Mrs. Paul A. Torelli and Mrs. Reed D. Acheson who are permanent group chairmen. Temporary chairmen are Mrs. Charles Wilks, Mrs. John Labows, Mrs. Chester Molley, Mrs. Stephen Tillman, Mrs. Charles R. Abats, Mrs. James P. Rodechko, Mrs. Harrie E. Caldwell, and Mrs. J. George Siles.

New faculty women at Wilkes, including both faculty members and wives of faculty are: Mrs. Rodger Bearde, Kingston; Miss Sandra L. Bloomberg, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Henry R. Casilli, Kingston; Mrs. Sally C. Connor, Dallas; Mrs. Robert A. DiSibio, Lee Park; Miss Phyllis Furst, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Marsha Kwalwasser, Kingston; Mrs. Rita M. Lynch, Trucksville; Mrs. Roy N. Dear Faculty Women:

It was good to see so many of you at our Brunch. Wasn't it fun! Our thanks to Mrs. Michelini and the committee for a delightful occasion.

Next, coming up, is our conducted tour of the Swetland Homestead on Saturday, October 23, promptly at 9:50 a.m. Costumed hostesses will show us this interesting, Colonial house museum, located at 885 Wyoming Avenue, Wyoming, just past the airport and Midway Shopping Center. If you haven't seen this unusual and historic home, do plan to come. Afterwards we're invited to gather at Kay Siles' for coffee, at 82 East Walnut Street, Kingston. (Directions: Turn left, as you drive south, off Wyoming Ave. at Cook's Pharmacy, — diagonally across the street from the old Food Fair market,— onto East Walnut Street. Kay's home is on the left, about the middle of the block.)

Please be sure to telephone Lois Abate (822-7362) or Ann Wilks (925-9633) by Monday, October 18, if you're coming, so that Kay will know how many to expect.

Extra! Ginny Orlowski has generously consented to give us her recipe for that fabulously delicious, apple coffee cake, covered with nuts, that you were all raving about at the Brunch. Here 'tis:

APPLE COFFEE CAKE

Bake in 350 oven for 45 minutes in a greased 13" by 9" pan.

Blend in a mixer till smooth:

2 cups sugar
2/3 cup margarine

Add: 2 eggs and beat again.

Sift: 3 cups flour 2 t. baking soda

1 t. cinnamon 2 t. salt

Add to creamed mixture alternately with:

4 cups of finely chopped or grated apple. (Use any baking apples or MacIntosh; grate into long, thin strips on a potato grater. If too moist, press out excess juice and discard.)

Blend thoroughly and add:

2 t. vanilla.

Add topping before baking. TOPPING:

1 stick (1/2 cup) melted margarine

Blend in 1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar (1/2 cup)

4 T. (1/4 cup) flour.

Add sugar and flour to melted margarine. Blend thoroughly with egg whisk or fork until smooth and no lumps remain.

Thanks, Ginny!

Wilkes Women To Tour Homestead

Over 70 Wilkes Faculty Women attended the club's get-acquainted brunch held recently at the home of Mrs. Francis J. Michelini. Mrs. B. Hopkins Moses, presided at the business meeting during which the organization's new officers and past presidents were introduced, new faculty women were welcomed, and activities for the year were outlined.

Mrs. Stephen J. Tillman, vice president, announced the new interest group program and called upon group chairmen to describe their anticipated activities.

Mrs. Reed D. Acheson's crafts group will begin instruction in glass cutting at its first meeting, Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. in Stark Hall, Room 333. Later gatherings will be spent creating seasonal items such as Yule logs and Christmas wreaths.

The ecology group under the direction of Mrs. Charles Wilks and Mrs. John Wasileski will study the environmental problems and their possible solutions. "One Day in the Life of Ivan henitsyn" by Alexander Solzhenitsyn is the first work to be considered by the book discussion group under the chairmanship of Mrs. Paul A. Torelli. The group will meet Oct. 26 at Mrs. Torelli's home, 267 South Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre at 7:45 p.m.

Mrs. Charles R. Abate outlined activities for the sports group which will include the whole family. The bridge group is seeking both singles and couples for its membership and is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harrie E. Caldwell.

Mrs. John N. Labows announced that her travel group would view slides of Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Ogren's recent trip West. The gourmet group's first program will be wine demonstration given by Mr. John Timalonis at 7:45 p.m., Oct. 21, at the home of the chairman, Mrs. James P. Rodechko, Forest Park.

Mrs. J. George Siles is sponsoring the Wilkes College Projects which will involve faculty women with campus activities. Currently the faculty women have been asked by Dr. Stanko M. Vujica to serve as hostesses at the Wilkes Faculty Seminars. Mrs. B. Hopkins Moses, Mrs. Robert E. Ogren, and Mrs. Donald W. Tappa were hostesses for Dr. Charles B. Reif's presentation of "New Knowledge, New Questions, New Implications in Biology." Wilkes Faculty Women also will again be working on the college's blood drive to be held in the Wilkes gym, Thursday, Oct. 28. The women will prepare lunches for the drive's doctors and nurses.

Activities

Several of the club's committee chairmen also announced activities for the new year. Mrs. Robert E. Ogren outlined the organization's scholarship program which will benefit a Wilkes College undergraduate. Plans to entertain foreign students attending Wilkes were announced by Mrs. Michael J. Barone who is cochairman of the program with Mrs. Roy E. Williams.

Attractive stationery sold by Wilkes Faculty Women was displayed by Mrs. Richard S. Orłowski, fund raising chairman.

Mrs. Charles E. Wilks, program chairman, announced that the club's next activity would be a group tour of the historic Swetland Homestead on Wyoming Avenue, Wyoming. Members are asked to gather at the Homestead at 9:50 a.m., Oct. 23, when a tour will be conducted by Mrs. Bess D. Williams of Kingston and Mrs. Gertrude McGlynn Ankner of Dallas who are the homestead's hostesses. The house was donated to the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society by Dorothy Dickson Dart, great-great-great-grand daughter of Luke Swetland who completed the original section of the homestead in 1797. Mrs. Dart served as trustee and benefactor of Wilkes College until her recent death.

Tour's Purpose.

The tour is intended to give Wilkes Faculty women insight to the history of the Wyoming Valley. Those participating in the tour will see the development of the region reflected in its home. Additions to the 1797 settlers cottage were made room by room over a period of years. In 1850 the front and roof were modernized and remodeled in a Victorian style. No significant changes have been made in the house since then. With a few exceptions, the furniture and appointments have all been donated by Luke Swetland's descendants. Recent donations made by Mrs. Edward Darling include a number of pieces of black and white Staffordshire china and an old account book from the William Swetland & Comany Store. Reservations for the tour may be made by calling Mrs. Charles E. Wilkes or Mrs. Charles R. Abate by Oct. 20. Everyone going on the tour is invited to return to the home of Mrs. George Siles for morning coffee at her home, 82 East Walnut Street, Kingston.

Women of Wilkes List Activities

Mrs. B. Hopkins Moses, president of Wilkes Faculty Women, presided over the club's activities during their recent "get acquainted brunch" held at the home of Mrs. Francis J. Michelini. Mrs. Moses introduced the organization's new officers and its past presidents, welcomed new faculty women, and outlined activities for the year to the more than 70 women who were present.

Mrs. Stephen J. Tillman, vice president, announced the creation of the new interest group program and called on group chairmen to describe their anticipated activities.

Mrs. Reed D. Acheson's crafts group will begin with a demonstration of glass bottle cutting at its first meeting, Wednesday at 7:45 p. m. in 333 Stark Hall. Later gatherings will be spent creating seasonal items such as yule logs and Christmas wreaths. The ecology group, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Wilks and Mrs. John Wasileski, will study environmental problems and consider their possible solutions. Their organizational meeting will be held October 25 at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Wilkes in Bear Creek.

"One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich" by Alexander Solzhenitsyn is the first book to be considered by the book discussion group under the chairmanship of Mrs. Paul A. Torelli. The group's first meeting is scheduled for October 26 at Mrs. Torelli's home, 267 S. Franklin St. at 7:45 p. m. Mrs. Charles R. Abate outlined activities for the sports group which will include the whole family. The bridge group is seeking both singles and couples for its membership and its chairman is Mrs. Harrie Caldwell. The Gourmet group will meet at the home of Mrs. James P. Rodechko, Forest Park, chairman, at 7:45 p. m. Thursday. The program will be given by Mr. John Timalonis on serving wines.

November Meeting - Wilkes Faculty Women

Announcing a change of date and time! Please note. Our November meeting will be held on Monday, November 15. (instead of Wednesday, the 17th) at 7:45 p.m. (instead of 8 p.m.) at 36 West River St., WB, the lovely women's dormitory next to the Michelinis. We shall have a really outstanding speaker, Rabbi Abraham D. Barras of our own Wilkes faculty (in Philosophy and Religion), the spiritual leader of Temple Israel, and a distinguished scholar. He will speak on Women's Role in Today's Society, a particularly timely subject of interest to us all. There will be opportunity for us to discuss ideas with him later over refreshments, so do all come and participate.

In addition, our Eleanor Coates Farley Scholarship will be awarded to the Wilkes coed recently chosen by Jean Ogren's scholarship committee. We hope you'll talk with her and make her feel welcome.

The refreshment committee for the evening will be Ann Marie Raspen, chairman, Barbara Bellucci, and Arlene Domzalski. House mother of the dormitory is Mrs. Marjorie Killian. And, if you haven't already paid your dues, Carmela Earl will be happy to take them.

Interest Group News: Several groups have been going strong and others are getting organized. The Book Discussion Group will hold its second meeting on Tuesday, November 30, at 7:45 p.m. at Jean Barons's, 381 Wright Ave., Kingston, with Jean as hostess. Dolores Casilli will lead a discussion on "The Autobiography of Malcolm X." (Joy Toralli, chairman, 823-1436) The Bridge Group will hold its second meeting on Wednesday, November 17, at 8 p.m. at Ottie Chwalek's, 78 River St., Forty Fort, with Marge Molloy instructing the beginners. If you more experienced bridge enthusiasts would also like to get together, call Dolores Caldwell, temporary chairman. (474-5645) The large Grafia Group will have met three times as you are reading this, and plans weekly meetings at 333 Stark Hall till Christmas. (Carol Acheson, chairman, 675-1405) The Ecology Group had a good meeting at co-chairman Ann Wilks's home (825-9633) and plans its second for Monday, November 29, at 1 p.m. at Gen Wasilecki's, 124 West River St., WB. The Gourmet Group, meeting monthly, had an interesting time at chairman Ginger Rodechko's and will meet next on Thursday, November 11, at 8 p.m. at Ann Marie Raspen's, 90 Charles St., WB, for a demonstration in cake decorating. Please call Ginger (825-9625) if you are coming. Plans for the Travel, Sports, and Wilkes College Projects groups will be announced later.

An apology to Ginny Orlowski for leaving off the end of her coffee cake recipe last month. (I forgot to turn over the page.) Here 'tis: "Spoon this mixture over top of batter and sprinkle with 1 cup of chopped walnuts." Ginny helpfully adds that you may call her (824-6354) if any problem arises in concocting this delicacy. (Am I forgiven now, Ginny?)

Wilkes Faculty

Wilkes Faculty Women are preparing for their annual meeting Wednesday night at 8 in the board room of Weckesser Hall, 170 S. Franklin St.

While the members have held many social activities, one of the group's main purposes is to fund its Eleanor Coates Farley Scholarship. The women have provided a Wilkes student with a $100 scholarship last fall and will award a $200 scholarship this spring. Group hopes to increase this amount in the future. Mrs. Richard S. Orlovski, fund-raising chairman, is shown in front discussing the note-paper displayed by Mrs. Roy E. Williams. Sale of stationery such as this is a means by which the group raises money for its scholarship program. Others in

AWARD WINNER

Joyce Andrejko

Wilkes Faculty Women announce that Miss Joyce Andrejko, a junior Fine Arts major, has been awarded their Eleanor Coates Farley Scholarship.

Miss Andrejko is a graduate of Coughlin High School and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Andrejko, 27 McHale Street, Wilkes-Barre. She is president of the Art Club and works in the art department. Miss Andrejko plans to student teach art during the spring of 1973.

Her major interests are in painting and graphics and her works have been on display at the Fine Arts Fiesta, the Wyoming National Bank, and the YWCA. For four years Miss Andrejko worked with the Wilkes-Barre recreation board as a playground leader specializing in arts and crafts.

Officers Are Installed By Faculty Women

The Westmoreland Club was the setting for the spring luncheon for the Wilkes Faculty Women. Chairman was Mrs. Robert A. West.

The new officers, installed by Mrs. John Chwalek, past president, were: Mrs. B. Hopkins Moses, president; Mrs. Stephen J. Tillman, vice president; Mrs. Paul A. Torelli, recording secretary; Mrs. Reed D. Acheson, treasurer, and Mrs. Roy Martin, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Robert E. Ogren, scholarship chairman, presented the

MRS. B. HOPKINS MOSES

Eleanor Coates Farley scholarship to Miss Joyce Andrejko, a junior fine arts major. The scholarship is awarded twice a year by Wilkes Faculty Women to assist students in furthering their education at Wilkes. The activities were concluded with a performance by a group of young dancers sponsored by the Wyoming Valley Ballet Society under the direction of Josia Mieszkowski.

While the luncheon marked the conclusion of the group's activities for the year, various functions will continue through May. The book discussion group will meet on May 23, at the home of Mrs. Henry Casilli to consider the "Bell Jar" by Sylvia Plath. The gourmet group will hold a progressive dinner on May 19.

Hors d'oeuvres will be served at the home of Mrs. Heru Casilli, 373 Ridge Ave., Kingston, at 6:15 p. m. Dinner will be held at Piledggi's Restaurant, Kingston. The group will have dessert at the home of Mrs. Edmond Watters, 169 Highland Ave., Dallas. Mrs. B. Hopkins Moses announced a board meeting will be held at her home on May 20.
