Summer Community Workshops

Be sure to check out the two non-credit community workshops offered this summer on the Wilkes University campus for adult learners of any age. Advance registration for these community workshops is available at wilkes.augusoft.net

Character Development:Plumping Up Flat Stanley or Stella

Flat Stanley may be perfect for traveling along in your suitcase; however, a protagonist who is flat is not one who readers will spend their free time with. To help keep the reader's interest, we'll explore ways to take Stanley or Stella from flat to rounded. We'll review five ways writers can plump up their characters—through image, voice, action, thought, and author's interpretation. We'll spend the six-week workshop for adults of all ages creating a new character or developing a character who's been in the back of our heads waiting to come alive.

- Meetings: Tuesdays – 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.
- Dates: July 9, 16, 23, 30, August 6 and 13
- Cost: $65.00 for the entire series
- Instructor: Janine Dubik

Writing for Social Media: How to Plan, Market and Earn

In this six-week non-credit course, adults of all ages will learn the language of social media, how to market their own work/selves and how to earn money working as a social media marketer. Participants will leave the class with an assessment of their own social media habits, understanding of blog writing, website copy and how to use Facebook, Twitter and Instagram for marketing purposes.

- Meetings: Wednesdays – 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.
- Dates: July 10, 17, 24, 31, August 7 and 14
- Cost: $65.00 for the entire series
- Instructor: Danielle Watson

Mailer Conference Returning in October

The 17th Annual Norman Mailer Society Conference returns to Wilkes University October 10-12, 2019 with the theme: Mailer on Politics, Public Life, and Pop Culture. The Norman Mailer Society call for papers that address any of the above categories plus those that help celebrate the 40-year anniversary of The Executioner's Song, the 50-year anniversary of Of a Fire on the Moon, and the 60-year anniversary of Advertisements of Myself.

Conference highlights include:

- Keynote speaker Maggie Mailer, youngest daughter of Norman Mailer

- A reception to celebrate the opening of the Norman Mailer Room and Collection. This room, housed in the Farley Library, is a research/Mailer scholar's dream. It is a replica of Mailer's last studio in Provincetown that includes his private library, manuscripts and revisions, dating from 1984, and his studio furniture
- A reading from The Time of Our Time
- Screening of the film The Executioner's Song
- And more...

To be part of the reading of The Time of Our Time, contact Dr. Culver.

To submit a proposal for the conference, please e-mail the following to Maggie McKinley and Mike Lennon by June 1, 2019:

- 50-word biographical statement
- 150-200 word abstract of the proposed presentation
- Indication of A/V Requirements

Graduate students are also welcome to submit proposals. Students who present at the conference will receive a $100 travel grant.

Hotel accommodations will be at Genetti's Best Western, Public Square, Wilkes-Barre, PA at $89 per night (from October 9 through October 13). The hotel offers free shuttle service from the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton airport, hot buffet breakfast, parking, and is a two-block walk to campus.

The Norman Mailer Society Graduate Writing Award

The Norman Mailer Society invites submissions for its first annual Graduate Writing Award, which recognizes high-quality graduate student work about or inspired by the work of Norman Mailer.

Eligible entries include academic papers or creative pieces composed by current graduate students. Submissions should be 10-15 pages, double-spaced, in 12 point Times New Roman font, and should be sent to: Maggie McKinley, President of the Norman Mailer Society.

The deadline is June 1, 2019

The winner of the Norman Mailer Society Graduate Writing Award receives:

- a $500 cash award
- a complimentary one-year membership in the Mailer Society, which includes that year's issue of The Mailer Review

- an opportunity to work with the editor of The Mailer Review to publish a revised version of the essay or creative piece

Executive board members of the Norman Mailer Society will evaluate all entries and notify entrants of their decision.

FACULTY NEWS

- Gregory Fletcher is pleased to announce the publication of his first YA novel, Other People's Crazy (Overdue Books, an imprint of Northampton House Press), and Tom and Huck—Breakin' the Law (Blue Moon Plays), a full-length play.
- Jean Klein will present a fully staged reading of the first act of her latest play, Generous Rivals, June 13 and 14 at Zeider's American Dream Theater, Virginia Beach, VA.
- Blue Moon Plays recently published N, by Adrienne Pender (M.F.A. '11), a full-length explosive drama about Charles Gilpin, in which the noted African-American actor clashes with Eugene O'Neill.
- Check out Mike Lennon's review of Philip Brady's new book, Phantom Signs: The Muse in Universe City (Knoxville: University of Tennessee Press, 2019) for the May/June 2019 Issue of Hippocampus Magazine (#94) and of John O'Hara: Four Novels of the 1930s, edited by Steven Goldleaf.
- David Poyer is pleased to announce the April 2019 publication of Robert P. Arthur, Selected Works (Northampton House Press). Poet of national renown and former Wilkes Creative Writing faculty member, Robert P. Arthur is a virtuoso practitioner of a wide variety of forms. His work displays an acute feel for drama and a vivid sense of place. This collection includes the best of hundreds of poems written by Arthur over a forty-year career, including "The Arrow," "The Poetess of Blue Streak Grill," and more. In addition, Poyer's upcoming novel, Heroes of Annapolis is due for release July 2019. Over the last ten years, Poyer has spent thousands of hours researching for Shipmate, the U.S. Naval Academy's magazine. The extraordinary personal stories of adventure and courage he's collected span American history from the Civil War to the War on Terror. Heroes of Annapolis shines light into corners of history that still affect us today.

STUDENTS/ALUMNI NEWS

- Amye Archer's (M.F.A. '11) anthology: If I Don't Make It, I Love You: Survivors in the Aftermath of School Shootings will be released September 3, 2019 from Skyhorse Publishing. Amye's co-editor on this project was Loren Kleinman.
